1. Be Grateful for It That We Being Live at the Time of Transformation on This Planet

My beloved on the planet Zero...

Be grateful for it that you have come to this planet here at the time of the transformation where grain separation from chaff is taking place, in other words: division into two basic directions - positive (minority of humanity) and negative (most of humanity). You live for that to fulfill your mission, which you mostly do unconsciously. So everything is fine. You have agreed that you will accept the task on the Zero, you are here from your free choice and have all the means to make it successfully.

Many of you do not realize that every second of this time has a multiverse meaning. They will learn from you the being in other cycles of the time who have not had the honor to be present in a negative state, let alone in the revolutionary time of transformation, when there are only a few physical years to the division humankind. You are honored, that you exist right now. You have a eminent domain which currently has just about 7.4 billion a incarnated people in the world.

And to make matters worse, after you already this right to be on the Zero, where both positive and negative states affect one another, no one will have. Why? As I have already said, lightworkers will be called off in a few years and therefore a negative state will prevail. This means that in a short time (even from the point of view of linear time flow) one part of this experiment will be completed. By this keep in mind the end of blending light and darkness on planet Zero.

The next end of the last part of the experiment will take place in the elimination of the negative state when to everyone without any difference will be answered the question: How would life without God and His/Her spiritual laws look like? Learn more in the New Revelation of the Lord Jesus Christ, God's family on www.bozirodina.cz. There is stated therein the highest degree of truth, that's why I suggest you read it if you haven't already. Nobody forces anyone into anything, you can still choose whether to serve light... or darkness. From this are derived the consequences of the further destiny of your soul. Remember that you will be free with light only.

I love everyone without distinction.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

2. Look Only for It What Connects You with Others

My beloved children in human bodies....

Find strength and courage in yourself and show that you are able to love every human being without distinction. Against the negative state, you can not fight with violence or hatred, because you are just adding energy to what you are fighting against.

In every being, look for God's spark. Even the most bad souls do only what they themselves can do. I ask you to send them Love. I do not ask you to approve their deeds, but about it, to love them, because they also serve the whole and show how life without God and His/Her spiritual laws would look like. Look at them and see their divine essence, which is temporarily perverse and overturned. They are also once a "cell" of My body as well as you. They do not know that if they had not Me, even they would not be, but you know it, so love them just as I do, for I, the absolute Creator and the parent of all infinite beings, love everybody indiscriminately.

If for a change you focus on yourself, I also have advice for your life. Look for in yourself and in your neighborhood only what connects you with others, not what divides you. In this significant time, you are here for it to take place the unification of the divided humankind, on which the forces of the negative state work for a very long time. I am here in the human body surrounded by highly placed beings to we get rid of heavy burden of its.

I will soon open up with My closest co-workers the Spiritual center of God's family in Prague, where I meet with those who wish to. More information will tell at the right time, My direct incarnation of Jana so that you too will be brought into God's vibration.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

3. The Only Medicine for All Sick, Defiled and Stolen from True Life is Love = Higher Vibrations

If you realize this simple formula and start live according to it, you will be full of joy in these difficult conditions of the planet Zero. You have temporary bodies from My opponents of the Pseudo-creators who have devised all possible and impossible perversions that feed the dead human life. When the negative state was activated, the principles of True Life were stolen to manifest the life without the spiritual laws of the Creator after realization their overturning.

You often complain that you are sick or not feeling well. This is because the temporary body envelopes begin to break up over time. Why? Because into them flows the lack of Love from the Source of all life, that is, from the absolute state of the Lord Jesus Christ. The overwhelming majority of beings in the negative state are not aware that if there was no Love which emerges from the Source, it would not even be their existence.

They are not just bodies that suffer, but mainly souls which are isolated from the energy of Love and mercy. I have used a comparison earlier that the souls living in the zone of displacement are like the plucked off flowers they are drying up. Residents of the 5th and higher dimensions, unlike isolated souls, literally bath in Love because she are everywhere present - around them and right in them.

The existence of the negative state chokes you, although you do not even need to know about it. You can only feel good and calm with Me, and this is true of the law that says: You can have eternal life only with the Lord Jesus Christ. Life from Pseudo-creators is temporary and will not last long. You have the freedom to choose what life you choose: True or false?

„Who loves his life will lose him; whoever hates life in this world will save him for eternal life.“

Your Lord Jesus Christ

4. You will find Me in your heart, devoid of fear and self-depreciation

This is a universal rule for all human beings on the planet Zero and elsewhere in the zone of displacement. I am always present in you, otherwise would not live nobody, but it is up to you, how you will have a private and intimate relationship with Me.

You who are reading these words are spiritually mature enough to establish a conscious connection with Me and left to lead by Me because no one other you knows absolutely. Only I know what is best for you on your unique life journey. I know every cell of your bodies, I see in your heart, and I know the most secret wishes of each of you.

If you get rid of fear and self-depreciation, so you are on the right path towards the positive state, where its inhabitants are constantly approaching to My perfection on eternity, because that's how to play the game of life.

Rule 1 - you must not fear.

You have to realize that everything is perfect, but you can not understand it in the limited human bodies from the Pseudo-creators. Fear controls you and binds you. Negative elites over this world feed on your fear and want you to be afraid. When you look at everything with insight, so you give Me for the truth that to have fear doesn't really make sense. Spiritually awake individuals never afraid, because he knows that I'm protecting them with absolute protection. The incarnated beings from heaven are here on the Zero in enemy territory, yet they are at maximum safety because they fulfil My plan and I will never allow to make anything happen to them.

Rule 2 - don't underestimate and don't compare yourself with others.

Do just what your heart and intuition tell you - so I, the Creator of everything and all, the Lord Jesus Christ. Many of you do not believe in your abilities and your own originality. If you vilify and artificially humiliate yourself, you will not get far on the spiritual path. Accept yourself what you really you are and do not flatter yourself and do not always go with others. In each situation, ask yourself: What would my heart do?

I have created infinity of various beings. In the whole Creation, you will not find two identical beings, not even the same two snowflakes or blades of grass. I have given to all the necessary qualities to they be happy for eternity and to approximate closer to the absolute state. I am talking about the abilities of your spirit and soul, not the temporary human body which is fabricated by My opponents the Pseudo-creators. For those who revibrate on the New Earth during the division of humankind, I have prepared perfect subtle bodies free from all the ailments.

You give Me and our co-workers the truth after you move to the higher reality of being when you will feel the divine splendor yourself.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

5. The basis of transformation and ascension to the higher dimension is the increase of vibrations, the expansion of consciousness

Another message to beloved beings on the Zero from the Lord Jesus Christ.

No gain no pain, it is true throughout the Multiverse, because only by self-knowledge and self-discovering of infinite diversities and variations of life can ascend after the spiritual spiral, constantly approaching to the Lord Jesus Christ, that is, to Me. Life is change, never stops.

For you to be able to easily move into the 5th dimension when the division of humankind, you need to fully manifest your hidden potential and pursue your mission.

You who read these lines are, for the most part, spiritually awake, and your primary goal is to spread the consciousness of others, not just yourself. Share with your loved ones and friends about what you already know about the events connected with human transformation. Meet them gradually with the essence of the functioning of this world and later bring them on the spiritual path in the form your own. Even they will soon experience a quantum leap in the perception of existence and of themselves.

By acquaintance of the others, you increase the vibrations to them and even yourself, because you perform a great deal of work. In any case, you can not force your "truth," because every human being has a protective system in his DNA that only accepts such spiritual information which are tailored to her. If you were to tell a spiritually sleeping individual right away the whole truth, would happen to damage his encapsulated spirit.

If friends reject your messages about spiritual worlds, do nothing of it because they are not yet ready to go on the path to the light. Know that they will give you the truth when I come to every human on this planet in the form of a gift of mercy called the Event/Warning. At that time, they will have some time before division of humankind still for a while, whether they will listen to you and be inspired by positive patterns.

If I did not incarnate again into this world in the form of My direct incarnation, if there were not a great number of highly advanced beings with Me, there would be no transformation the parts for the present, and later of all humankind. You are our extended hand, and with humility I urge you to help with the transformation of humankind from your free choice. Because thanks to you, after the division of humankind, he can get into the higher dimension, for example, your husband who is still spiritually sleeping.

For every being that wakes up thanks to your help from the illusion of this world, I will reward you with a heavenly reward, which will have innumerable forms. I look forward to seeing you soon when all the beings connect with Me.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

6. The higher the vibrations of the Love of the being, the more she helps others, the less she think of her profit

In the hierarchy of Creation, I am above all I, the absolute Creator the Lord Jesus Christ, absolutely intelligent, creative, loving, caring and powerful. Perceive Me rightly as a bisexual being which experiences yourself in infinite variations of life through you.

There are new and new self-conscious (sentient) beings who, at their creation, placed themselves at the lowest level of spiritual development to steadily approaching the absolute state.

The first relative being I created at a point where the natural worlds of Multiverse still did not exist. These souls are called God's firstborns and are at the top of the imaginary pyramid above all. It is still to be mentioned that I am spreading out over the pyramid and around its, since there is nothing outside me that exists, because I am infinite.

In a very simplified language for human beings I will explain another cycle of creation of beings. There are more and more inhabitants of Multiverse under Firstborns. For you, it is important to know that the archangels are standing between the Firstborns and the angels, after the angels, who represent other innumerable entities of a broad existence, are human beings at the next "level".

The higher the vibrations of the Love of the being, the more she helps others, the less she think of her profit. The most advanced relative entities serve with Me to all without distinction, the archangels are engage in the salvation of humankind and are the extended hand of the Firstborns, angels and humans are a direct family group of mankind (this applies only to the angels moving in this material universe where humankind is located).

Those at a higher level serve those on a lower level, not vice versa, such as in the negative state, where in hells, those in the lowest positions must serve the highest ones. In any case, all the minions of the negative state serve a narrow group of purely negative beings of reptilian origin, which we call Pseudo-creators. They tie and exploit everyone who is in their sphere of influence.

You can also recognize the degree to which you spiritually developed. When you think of helping others and less on yourself and the needs of your ego, you are on the right track. Incarnated beings from the positive state of the 5th and higher dimensions (= angels) are sacrificing themselves for so far dormant and controlled humans (= true human beings + incarnated beings from the negative state) so that they need not unconsciously suffer not only them but also the whole Multiverse of the positive state, whose inhabitants are indirectly influenced by the negative state. Last but not least, masters and already mentioned archangels are present in the human bodies to together with the Creator, the Lord Jesus Christ, which is also present in the human body HERE (this time a female), take away part of humankind to heaven and later to end this cycle of time after the manifestation of life without God by the bad people and the Pseudo-creators will be answered the question once asked.

Try to help others in the good heart, because you are helping even yourself by it.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

7. The transformation of humankind would not have been possible without the help of more advanced universe civilizations that work closely with Me, the Lord Jesus Christ

Positive beings who are committed to saving humankind in the cosmic space around the Earth/Zero planet, are called Universe people. I called them earlier to monitor the negative activities of people who would destroy the whole planet without the presence of extraterrestrial brothers and sisters. If that were the case, there would be no answer to the question: How would life without God look like? This would lead to the self-destruction of the whole Multiverse, because the existence of the whole being depends on answering this question.

We will not mention too specific names of civilizations and their representatives, because everyone can find information about positive extraterrestrial races by themselves, because the one who seeks, finds.

It must be mentioned that most of these loving beings who care for humankind have their origins and home in the constellation of the Pleiades system, where in many dimensions orbits around these stars many planets with diverse beings at different degrees of spiritual and technical development. A large number of volunteers - both men and women - I have asked for cooperation, especially from the planet Erra, which is very similar to New Earth. Selected beings from the planet Erra of the 5th and 7th dimensions of the natural universe are participating in a very important mission at this time. Around the Zero in the 3rd dimension, millions of Universe People are deployed in hundreds of thousands of starships to pick up part of the prepared humankind into the 5th dimension in the near future (true for those who do not have enough vibrations for so-called ascension, but do not deserve to live in the fullness of the negative state).

The most famous representative of Universe People is Ashtar Sheran, whose multidimensional being is Ivo A. Benda, through which many positive cosmic civilizations have come to the forefront of interest of terrestrials. He is the author of well-known websites www.vesmirni-lide.cz, which are sometimes denounced by negative or spiritually sleeping people. Ashtar is the commander of the Great space fleet, and with Ptaahem after half a year, alternates about guarding of the cosmic space around this planet from bad entities.

They love all the people indiscriminately and are looking forward to seeing you as well. For those who have an open spiritual heart, they can also appear in the sky in the form of bright stars, or will take you to the space ship and other planets during your sleep. It is a great honor for them to participate in the transformation of humankind. Their task is not easy, but they accept it with love and humility. Already very soon, together with you, they relax when the physical division of humankind is completed. Then they will withdraw from the space of this planet so that not to hinder the necessary short victory of the negative state.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

8. Whoever surrenders his power to another becomes helpless

Letting yourself be lulled by the false appearance of this world is unsuitable for a human being who wants to ascend on a spiritual spiral with the view to liberation from control. You would not get anywhere and still stayed at one point. If you want to get rid of fear and control, do not adhere to the set pseudosystem.

I do not mean that you have to live in a rebellion, but that you have come in into your inward and to follow Me. You have to get rid of the noise of external thoughts and control programs. If you do not think by the brain but by the intuition (spiritual heart), you will stop worrying about anything that is connected with the survival of life here.

Whoever surrenders his power to another becomes helpless. Your life (physical and mental) does not depend on the ill-nature of elites, bankers, politicians and other positions and institutions that serve the growth of the negative state in the zone of displacement, but on the receiving Love and the Lord Jesus Christ, the handover oneself into His/Her loving hands.

As the Creator of Everything and Everyone, I have all the information about anything in the Multiverse. Against to Me, he appears to be relative because he is created, so he can not be as absolute as I am. I'm the only one who gives you everything you need for a happy eternal development. I am present in every atom, because even the smallest particles are part of My body. Who else should you surrender than who absolutely loves you and understands you? You are I and I am you. Thanks to that, I share and experience a free life, I getting to know myself.

The elites don't matter about anyone of you. They try to wring their flock to get the maximum of them. Then the controlled person literally throws away on the junkyard as you throw away the squeezed toothpaste. The soul, which no longer provides them energy, is mostly thrown into the appropriate part of the zone of displacement (hells). I know it sounds harsh, but how can the being get to the zone of placement (the heaven) when she has been collaborating with the negative state for the whole life and still clinging on him? How can she be accepted into Love when she can not perceive it and refuses to surrender of passing things? No one is condemned to stay in hells against their will, everyone has the free choice to go where they choose. Since My First Coming to planet Zero in the body of Jesus Christ, no one in hells is locked. In addition, to the members of the anti-universe is offered the ubiquitous help of My ambassadors who work there.

Use your power and energy for your own spiritual growth. Only in this way can you be internally and externally truly free, whether you are in the human life by anyone. But one thing is certain: You are Love and it is up to you how much you will be willing to receive and radiate.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

9. The time is coming of the division of humankind into two main directions:

1. THE FALL TO THE HELLS ON POSITION -1 TOGETHER WITH REALITY WHERE YOU ARE LIVE

2. THE RISE TO THE 5TH DIMENSION OF THE PLANET EARTH = NEW EARTH

The division of humankind intensifies at the spiritual level, especially since the beginning of the new millenium. Physical division is taking place already from the end of the year 2012, first in a small number of the revibration individual groups of people. The number of people leaving this reality this way, is rising year after year. This is because as the planet Earth/Zero with all humankind is approaching to the date of the last wave of the revibration of positive people before the arrival of the Pseudo-creators, all the beings who do not deserve to live in the fullness of the negative state must gradually go away of this dimension.

1) THE FALL TO THE HELLS ON POSITION -1 TOGETHER WITH REALITY WHERE YOU ARE LIVE

I, the Lord Jesus Christ, I have My lightworkers all over the world, with their number reaching millions. In cooperation with Me and contact with the positive state, they bring witness to the upcoming changes that concern everyone. Among other things, the purpose of their action is also to warn people who have not yet been awakened so they do not have to suffer on the planet that falls into hells.

When it's in the very near future divided humankind on the physical level, there will be a sharp reduction in the vibrations of humanity and the body of the planet (only applies to this dimension). The Pseudo-creators will come along with other extraterrestrial entities on the planet Nibiru and one of them will sit on a papal throne, which will be handed over by the last Pope Francis, who is their co-worker. The one who sits down on the papal throne will have the dazzling human form of Jesus Christ. He will be also perform miracles and proclaim wise words. He will be celebrated and glorified as the true God, but it will be the wolf in sheep's clothing with a lizard essence. He will solve all the problems and wars, the whole planet will immerge in the peace that will sleeps even more sleeping people who remain in this reality. There will be a unification of all nations, one religion which will be accepted by all will be established because it will contain what people want themselves. Keep in mind that Pseudo-creators have the skills and power people never knew, so it will not be a problem to rebuild this world according to their ideas within a short time.

At that time when everything is quiet, mankind will be in the false interest of peace, unity, security, fraternity and other intrigue chipped, most often by inserting the RFID chip under the skin. Those who refuse the chip will be chipped in concentration camps (for example, there are hundreds in the US - the so-called FEMA camps, where hundreds of thousands of black plastic coffins are for those who will not collaborate with the system). After the chipping, people will be controlled at 99.99% and will no longer have free will, they will become robots. Pseudo-creators share the reins of power over the world and the zone of displacement, they will assume the the reins of government over all aspects of dead life. Omnipresent censorship and the system of the New World Order will oversee everything. There will be a mass extinction of all kinds of plants and animals on land and in oceans, air and water will become poisoned, earthquakes, volcanic activity, tornadoes, storms, windstorms and acid rain will be on the order of the day. From the contaminated environment on the surface, some will have to resort to the underground. It will not be nowhere to run already.

To make matters worse, from the false peace, there will be reinitiate more and more wars, conflicts and everything what has the negative state on the order of the day. A new superman-biorobot will be cultivated in which the greatest possible evil will be implanted, coming out of the black heart of the Pseudo-creators. The supermen army will have goal to attack Creation and the positive state for the purpose of total defeat of all its members and even Me, the absolute God of the Lord Jesus Christ. This action is absolutely crazy and impossible, because cannot be defeated the absolute Creator, from which Life and Love spring from, thanks to which even the maintainers of the negative state are alive. Of course, I will not even deny attack on the positive state. Then the true nature of the negative state will be revealed, which every one will perceive differently. One of the many things is that in destroying the Lord Jesus Christ all the being and existence, including the negative state and all its members, would be become extinct, that is, simply:

the negative state can not be alive without the positive state, which I direct I-Love.

To everyone, without distinction, will be answered the question, "How would life without God and His/Her spiritual laws look like?" Than I eliminate the entire negative state for eternity, because after answering this question it will lose any sense for it to exist and further prolong the agony of all. Every being without any difference will be asked whether it wishes to live in the fullness of the positive state, in other words, in the quality of life that has never lived since the beginning of Creation. Those who do not choose to enter into the new cycle of time without the negative state, it will be take away eternal life of them on the basis of a previous agreement that was set up before the mere activation of evils and untruths.

2) THE RISE TO THE 5TH DIMENSION OF THE PLANET EARTH = NEW EARTH

Paradise and ascension into Heaven (to the higher dimensions of the Multiverse) awaits those who carry the Love in the heart, inspire with positive patterns, do not support the development of the negative state and do not want to remain in this reality after the division of humankind. Again, without distinction, I will give the choice to everyone, where in this time of changes he/she wants to go. My mercy and love for you is endless, so I will be show up everyone during Event/Warning when you will have direct contact with Me. Those who have not accepted me until then, but will accept Me at that time, I will also liberate.

When you revibrate most often on the New Earth in the 5th dimension, you will see the infinite beauty of everything and everyone, you will feel Divine Love and you will be constantly connected with Me, the loving eternal parent.

Your life will become very pleasant, full and harmonious. You will not experience any restrictions. In the perfect environment, nothing negative will be present, what you know from the human life on the Zero. Everyone will otherwise perceive paradise on the earth and with human words cannot be described the splendor that awaits those of you who are setting out on the path of light. As you ascend the spiritual spiral of development, you will get abilities about which do not even seem to you. Telepathy will be a matter of course from the very beginning and soon you will be able the teleportation. Your multidimensional being will live many lives in different places in the universe simultaneously - and you will perceive all your lives at once. As you will travel through the universe, you will recognize new civilizations and unrecognized beings. Not only on New Earth, but anywhere in Creation, I will give you the opportunity to live in an environment that suits your preferences.

Meanwhile, from the first row you will look at the pseudo-victory of the negative state in the reality of the planet you left before. Anyone else before you or after you had not and will not have the opportunity to watch this act live from the first row.

When I will free all the beings who have remained in the negative state, you will welcome this with enthusiasm as they will, because for you it will mean that they will finally meet with you and together all of you will enter into the new cycle of time, where there will be no more the present of the negative state. Creation has been created to live in the fullness of the positive state. In the unanswered question of life without God, it was impossible for the Creation to live in the fullness of what I created for him in the history of the Multiverse. Fortunately, the time will soon be fulfilled and everyone will live in what they have never before experienced. Since then no evil for ages of ages will ever exist in neither in a snoozing form as it was before activating of the antipole of Love.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

10. The Old Testament is not from Me, the Only Creator of everything and everyone, The Lord Jesus Christ!

As anyone might believe, the Old Testament Bible is not from Me, the Lord Jesus Christ! The texts in this part of the Bible are mostly full of negative acts, evils, slights, consecrated by constant changes in the mood of God, which has the qualities of human entities who let to manage by the control programs. Whoever feels the truth well through the heart will know directly at the beginning of the reading where the Old Testament originates.

During the initial compilation, words were passed from generation to generation orally, until later thoughts were written up on paper into compact texts. Because the Old Testament was written even before I, then the Most High, now the true name of the Lord Jesus Christ, captured the Pseudo-creators, all the inhabitants of the planet Zero and the zone of displacement were under their direct government and control. Only later did I in the body of Jesus enter into the hells, where I captured them, separated them from their ruling places and imprisoned in an unknown place. At that time they lost most of their previous power.

Let's go back to writing the Old Testament. It has both demonic and angelic origin, but the whole appears to be negative. When the bad entities (demons) acted at that time on humans, they did not need such a complex system of controlling beings from transmitters placed on the Moon and elsewhere, as you have today. After all, everything was under the undeniable government of Pseudo-Creators, who could create any conditions showing the negative state! The rulers of evils and untruths knew well that something was going on (My First coming), but they did not know exactly what, because no one sees into the absolute mind, but they suspected that sooner or later will be written up a "something" what would contain the undistorted God's word. Therefore, from the mind of the Pseudo-creators, unprecedented untruths have come out which have created the concept of a punishing God, which requires obedience, victims, toadying and other things. This God of the Old Testament really represents Pseudo-creators, who created out of themselves false gods and creators of everything and everyone. Humankind has been worshiping them ever since, because they have had "God's word" from them, but few have realized that it is purely false. From the very beginning, when they were displaced into hells, they wanted to worshiped them beings which were trapped, but they did not want to this beings know exactly whom they worship, that is way they took on themselves many forms and created many false religious teachings, dogmas and doctrines.

After the bad entities dictated the whole text of the Old Testament to humans, this work was ready to become an integral part of the Bible, where it was supposed to be present next to the teachings and life of their opponent - Jesus Christ, that is next to the

New Testament. That's what happened. The vast majority of human beings, when reading the Bible, have the problem of distinguishing the true God's word from satanic. Only a very small thousandth of a percent of the people in the gross bodies from the Pseudo-creators understands the significance of the individual passages of the New Testament, which have a profound spiritual significance that correlated with the coexistence of the negative state next to the positive state and all the things involved in taking actions in this cycle of time. The New Testament is written in the spiritual language so that it does not become infected with untruths and to take literally its words has no meaning. In complete form and with explanation, the meaning of its passages is explained in the books of the New Revelation, which Peter Daniel Francuch brought from Me. The New Testament was censored throughout its existence, thousands of words were omitted, but its true spiritual significance could never be garbled and distorted.

I have everything under My control and the plan on the evacuation humankind back to heaven is perfect. When the typical human era ends in the zone of displacement and elsewhere in Creation, so the New Testament becomes obsolete and will be replaced by something completely new, because the new cycle of time enters into being and existence. Everything will be new, because in the God's world, stagnation and clinging to old values is inadmissible.

11. The more you ascend after the spiritual spiral, the more truth you are able to accept

Spiritually sleeping people, which are the majority of them because of the encapsulation of their spirit, are unable to accept even the most basic information about the functioning of the world and the universe, let alone to be interested in the spiritual world. These people are disconnected from communicating with Me, their level of control is now over 95%. They mostly follow their own ego, they do not feel intuition, so their perception of Love, which is all around, is at the point of frost. Their god is money, the true Love is replaced by appetency for achieving and enforcing their own goals. They laugh at everyone who bring any truth in the spiritual form because it disturbs their perception of the false world and just irritates them. For these controlled beings it means that there was not yet time the awakening from the illusion of this reality.

Then there is a second category of individuals who are initially spiritual paths. There is a gradual reduction in control by negative entities. They are only able to accept the truth to a small degree, an individual approach to spiritual study must be required. Many alternative texts are destined to them, which are often contradictory but have one thing in common: they deny the existence of the evil and dark forces, or foolishly claim that good and evil are two compatible concepts, so evil is also the essence of the Creator. They believe that this human life on planet Zero even with its problems and imperfect bodies is controlled and maintained by Me, the Lord Jesus Christ. Nothing is further from the truth. I created and I again and again create only the positive state that manifests the elements of the absolute state in the relative form. I repeat that I have not created a typical human life and the zone of displacement! Anyone who thinks that there is nothing like Satan (Pseudo-creators) is not yet able to accept this fact. For them, I together with N. D. Walsch prepared for them the book Conversations with God (3 parts) and his other books I dictated to him. My plan for their spiritual ascension is perfect, so it is necessary to the truth be present at different degrees.

Another broad group of terrestrials on the spiritual path is in the advanced stage of the spiral. They are those who have lowered the control below 50% and are receiving additional (and this time very crucial) information. They now know that good has nothing to do with evil, because evil was not, is, and will never be part of God. They are well aware that the functioning in what they live in is unfair and difficult. They perceive the evil around themselves and do not deny it, but they often blame God (with any name) for tolerating it and letting millions of entities suffer. Humankind and everyone in the zone of displacement are separated from God, the Lord Jesus Christ and others in Creation because of the experiment and their choices. I will not say here why it is happening, for everything is explained in detail in both portions of the New Revelation of the Lord Jesus Christ by Peter D. Francuch and My direct incarnation of Jana at www.bozirodina.cz/.

The fourth group of spiritually awakened people is diverse in their studies. The degree of control decreases drastically, ranging between 30% - 20%. They are attached to Me, that is, to their intuition. This is mostly unconsciously, but also for many consciously. It depends on the plan of the soul as the individual perceives the connection to the Lord Jesus Christ, the angels, archangels and other entities of the positive state, such as ascended masters or universe people and others.... There is also a different form of perception of the spiritual world. Someone perceives the angels constantly, other regularly travels to higher dimensions and other may not perceive anything. Again, it depends on the plan of the soul, it definitely does not matter the maturity and origin of the spirit. This group includes a large number of light co-workers from around the world who bring the truth to the less awakened, as well as eyewitness accounts of life outside of this world. They are dangerous for elites who try to keep everyone in ignorance and lie. I coordinate all of My co-workers to expand at the time of transformation to all corners of the world the teachings about incoming changes and to sow billions of seeds into the souls of those who try to listen to them.

The last group of awakened people is able to constantly accept the highest degree of truth that is possible at this time to provide everyone. More truths can not be understood and given at this time, because none of those of temporarily incarnated into the human bodies by the Pseudo-creators, in addition with a sophisticated system of control in the territory of the negative state, they would not be able to bear the weight of another truth, they would literally go mad. It also concerns to the most advanced beings which temporarily took on human form. I repeat that no one is loaded more than he is carrying, and this also applies to this. The control rate is constantly below 20%. Just for an example: the female direct incarnation of the Lord Jesus Christ - Jana - is controlled by the negative entities for 2%. Those that intuition will lead to the books of the New Revelation in which is the highest truth in the complete form that can be transmitted to this planet, they are able to receive the only true name of the Creator of Everything and Everyone that is called the Lord Jesus Christ. This name has a deep spiritual meaning, so it is not a mindless name. People at the top of the spiral of growth at the last turn there is enlightenment. The penultimate and last group are beacons in the darkness, the transmitters of God's word. To be able to transfer also you, just have Love in your heart, get rid of prejudice, control, expectation and overmuch negativity. Every day they live according to the divine plan and let to lead by Me. They act with purity in the heart, they do not force anyone, but they are only for ready here, so they don't throw peas on the wall.

12. The ascension, or the revibration into the higher dimension of Multiverse, is the abandonment of reality without the experience of death of the physical body

Only those who are spiritually mature enough to leave this reality in a way of revibration during the division of humankind are able to continue in their life without interruption by physical death. These are souls, mostly from the 7th and higher dimensions of Multiverse, who, in their various long life, were inspired by positive patterns, established contact with Me, radiated light and love into darkness and hatred, and greatly deserved about the increase of the vibrations of humankind and the whole planet, so they helped lay the foundations of the way into the higher spheres of the positive state for all. For a brief explanation of the process of ascension, we will again use the description we have already mentioned in the New Revelation of the Lord Jesus Christ, God's family, this time enriched with the new knowledge. There are more variants to move into the higher dimension, but the purpose of this message is to bring closer to human beings of the variant without experiencing the death of the body.

The individual who has fulfilled his light mission to 100% will no longer has reason to stay in this reality not even a second longer. At the latest in the latest wave of revibration just before the second coming of the Pseudo-creators, each light co-worker will be liberated from the shackles of this world. When the long-awaited time comes, they will notice the disappearance of tens of thousands of people in a short time also still sleeping people who choose the life on the planet that falls deeper into hells. But they will not want to think about why this is happening because their level of control will increase to the maximum and they will be assured by a wolf in sheep's clothing (dark side) that nothing serious is happening and "paradise is waiting for all without exception", which is the password that Satan will be proclaim to all who will attend the closing phase of a typical human era. Decrease of the spiritual intelligence of the remaining people is just one of the many elements of the pseudo-life in hells, where more than two-thirds of humankind will fall through from free will. This number is only indicative and do not take it as a dogma, because everything is constantly changing and no one is destined to be where he does not want. Who will be liberated, only I know, the absolute Creator and no one else, which is understandable. Still remember that nobody gets 100% true information because it's absolutely impossible. If that were to be the case, every inhabitant in the zone of displacement would succumb to self-destruction. Only when consciousness is open to all without exception, the entire Creation and also the zone of placement will be acquainted with everything, as far as the nature of the negative state is concerned and everyone will get guaranteed true information. This will happen at the end of the cycle of time.

Let's go back to the mere revibration. This unique event will happen in a relatively short time. Individual first gets the telepathic information, that it is time to leave this reality. Once again, the third eye will be opened also for this who has never used it before. It will "hear" Me without any side-effects, which may occasionally occur due to imperfect bodies without the full connection between the ego and the spirit in classical telepathy. When he is told that it is time to "pack the suitcases" and go to the true home in the 5th dimension, there will be a gradual increase in the vibrations of the body. A message of leaving the planet Zero can not occur immediately before it disappears from 3D, but it must be given enough time to solve the last things in the old life and to be mentally prepared for this amazing ride. I proceed individually, and as well as the Event, also the understanding about the transition into the new world will be perceived differently by everyone. When I acquaint of the individual about the situation, it will mean that he has the last week to 14 days of time to preparation which concerns both to the old and of the newly arrived life. During the transitional period, as has been said, day after day it will be increase the vibrations of the gross body in which you are living, and therefore you will feel lighter and much better. The vibrations of your body is aligned with the vibrations of your soul and spirit. When the process of increasing body vibration is over, you will reach the point where the right moment will come to leave this reality. You start vibrating very strongly, you literally start to emit light. Vibration will be caused by this that the atoms that make up your physical envelope will vibrate very quickly. The exact time, place and circumstances of your revibration are determined by you only. When you are fully prepared and willing to leave this reality, you suddenly start to shake and resonate pleasantly, you will be surrounded by light and feel the lightness to come. Your feet will unstick for the last time from the ground of this reality and you will literally fly up a few centimeters into the air. If anybody is observing you, the surroundings will see you in a white-golden light bath and you will gradually lose sight of all living and "inanimate" things in 3rd dimensionality, you literally disappear from this world. When it happens, in your view the old world will also disappear. The mass, by which you are created, at one point dissipates in all directions. At this point, you reach the boundary between the 3D and 5D frequency bands.

After you reach the band, you will move through a light tunnel to the 5th dimension most often on the New Earth. Your new body will be re-composed and restructured into a new crystal-based form, called a duplicate, when the mass of the old body is disintegrated. That duplicate is no longer from Pseudo-creators, but from Me, the Lord Jesus Christ. It is cleansed from all the imperfections, no elements concerned of the negative state are present there. The entire interior with organs is unrecognizable from the old one. It is not important to describe the functioning of the duplicate at this time, but it is worth noting that the heart is not in the shape of a strangely shaped muscle, as it is here, but has the shape of the heart which you know in the pictures. It is a spiritual heart that serves to communicate with Me, to the establishing loving relationships with all, and many other productive things. I placed him in the middle of a chest.

How can we describe the experience of ascension? Like a wonderful ride full of excitement, positivity and light, at which a loving embrace with your beloved brothers and sisters is waiting for you at the end, along with an endless cognition of the endless aspects of life in Creation. After revibration, you will also have a wonderful touch of the spiritual atmosphere of paradise on earth. When you look around and acquire new (but otherwise ordinary) ability to travel in time and space, perceiving more aspects of your being, etc., you will become by honored advanced people who have had the privilege of going through everything. For this experience is worth a couple of years "to wait" - I assure you; but at the same time I remind you that you do not have to wait idly on the things that come, but you have to use the remaining time to do your mission.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

13. Transformation is the way to heaven, transhumanism is the way to hells. Transhumanism will bring more enslavement, transformation will bring liberation

Only the way of transformation leads the path of eternal life. You can not approve the pseudo-conveniences of the negative state while wanting to be in the positive state, that is, in heaven. You have to choose which side you choose.

By the external means of improving the quality of life in the fabricated human body that I do not created, spiritually no one move anywhere. Whoever chooses the path of transhumanism will still stagger to the same place, only delays the irreversible fate, once finally recognizing the true nature of life in the negative state to objectively compare whether it is worthwhile to live in constant sufficiency, abundance and especially true spirituality , in conjunction with the Source of Life.

Elites offer their technological advances to selected people. They promise a more convenient, easier and supposedly "better" life, when they will be use the means for the service to the mass, rather than giving priority to work on yourself and the growth after the spiritual spiral, having the goal to get rid the habits of the dead life, who created god's opponents. Why is human life dead? From the point of view of the 5th and higher dimensions of the Multiverse, this mode of existence seems to be dead, though those who experience it (people) are accustomed to a limited way of living without connection with their higher Self, without communicating with the beings of light, completely separated from it what is natural. Soon, the beauties of true life will be experienced by those who do not cling on being in matter which temporarily hinders in flight into freedom.

Transformation is the way to heaven. Who doesn't love ephemeral things, such as money, material goods, preferment over the other, exploitation, favouritism one over the other,... and simply the earthly system, which is based on the phrase "divide and rule," but thinks and acts positively, not to worry, that he will have to lament in the New world order, which is going to on mostly unsuspecting residents of the heavily tried planet. There is no need to list things that will secure your place in paradise on earth. As we have told many times, the only ticket to paradise are vibrations. Everyone has the responsibility for himself, and therefore, the vibrations of all individuals are an undistorted mirror of the degree of good (otherwise the degree of evil) that you carry in himself.

Transhumanism is the way to hells. Its goal is to remove illnesses, poverty, improve physical and mental capabilities by means of alleged "progress". The Pseudo-creators, upon their arrival, will introduce a massive introduction of transhumanism for their closest, that is, the main minions and participants in the short pseudo-victory of the negative state on the planet Zero and elsewhere in the anti-universe. These "improvements" will not be apply to ordinary people who have not idea what's going on here, and with a tape over their eyes they are walking along a wide paved path to hell that has a span that even the blind (in the spiritual sense) can not encounter any obstacles. On the contrary, the awakening people are rising a narrow thorny path to to heaven, but they have what the blind do not have - direct support, guidance and protection of the Lord Jesus Christ. At the end of their journey I will reward them by a eternal life. Even the unawakeneds will be "rewarded" by the devil in a way - by pseudo-life in the intermediary world of the due dimension of the zone of displacement, in popular terms in hells.

Transhumanism will bring about greater enslavement that people who will live under the government of the Evil, will not notice, on the contrary, they will even more still enjoy the privileges they were able to get. Their dwelling of the soul will be improved by implants in the body, nanotechnology, genetic code improvement (further manipulation of DNA, greater incorporation of evils into it), devolution of their personality into virtual reality, widening of intelligence, prolonging life, psychological immunity to surrounding things (will be misused to receiving of true Love), telepathy, teleportation and, of course, introducing the chip into the body to increase their control level to 99.99%. We only name a number of things that relate to so-called overcoming human constraints, as there is a wide range of "body improvements". The privilege of improvement will not last long and will end during leaving this dimension into the spiritual world. Then the soul of every a bad creature will be exposed to the bone to feel what it is like to be in the negative state without the promises by which she was so captivated by the time she lived on Zero. Promises are mistakes, and entities from the anti-universe very like to promise all sorts of things, but the deal with the one who puts their souls on their side will soon be canceled and only used to achieve their own goals, or "when they are catching bird, they are singing to him nicely."

Transhumanism will also serve to create supermen that try to attack the positive state of Multiverse. Nothing natural will be present on these entities, because they will differ from human beings that even their souls will be artificial and will respond with a self-destroying explosion when contact with anything positive. That is why this army of bio-robots must to bring outside of the dimensional structure of Creation, when all the achievements of the Pseudo-Creators fail.

The only natural way is the transformation that is now going on and will culminating by your relocation into the 5th dimension on the New Earth. Anyone who is already using the chip under the skin to pay for electronic transactions by simply enclosing his hand, can not take part the uplift into a new reality. Nothing compares to the capacities of subtle bodies on a crystalline basis in True Creation because they are created directly by Me, thus they are perfect. For further information on this, you will learn in the New Revelation of the Lord Jesus Christ, God's family in Chapter 24: "The Difference Between Transhumanism and Transformation."

Your Lord Jesus Christ

14. The event I described also as "WARNING" is another important "acceleration" of the transformation right after December 21, 2012

In the 31st chapter of the New Revelation of the Lord Jesus Christ, God's family (31st chapter - Event = Warning - www.bozirodina.cz/), in 2015, for the first time ever in the history of the Multiverse I have communicated the truest information about the God's mercy, which I have called the "Warning" under the specifying designation. From that moment on, another piece of truth is present not only among human beings who come directly from the one Creator. Since the completion of the second portion of the New Revelation, in addition there has been another shift in the sphere of Creation, which is aimed at even more intense changes to accelerate the transformation of humankind. The event that soon awaits all individuals living on the planet Zero will have a vital value, for it is thanks to her that terrestrials will decide whether to accept Love and Me into their hearts so they do not have to suffer in a deteriorating condition on the planet that falls deeper into the zone of displacement.

The messages of the Lord Jesus Christ are especially intended for our co-workers and followers, who for the most part already know what is the matter here, have read at least one of the New Revelation portions, and are able to absorb further important information from the spiritual world, which further extend their horizons. That's why I will not talk here in terms that try to generalize of light texts, but I will continue to use the style and terms that you can see in its second portion. Even in this message, I will not repeat exactly what was written, because nothing is repeated twice, but I will use the technique of "repetition in a spiral", which is based on the truths previously revealed, sometimes reminds it and mainly complements about the new knowledge.

How you already know, by the purpose of the Event will be for the light co-workers to confirm their faith in God (under any name), sleeping people, who are most often true human beings, will receive the first direct proof of My existence for the first time, and the agents of the negative state, thus souls from hells, unlike their species living in the zone of displacement outside of planet Zero, will have the privilege that they too will see Me by their inner sight and will make a rapid shift forward - into True Creation, literally jump from the swamp of evil and untruth into the warm cotton of the good and beauty. Otherwise, their hearts will "burst" and they will prefer to serve their masters, often until the end of the cycle of time, who promise them what they want to hear, but here they pay more than elsewhere, that promises are mistakes, because the dark side is earlier or later breaks. Only the absolute Lord Jesus Christ promises you and guarantees you the most joyful life in heaven, experiences, adventures, and things you do not even seem. You will experience it very soon, when you revibrate from this world where you belong.

The event is described by many prophets to make humankind better prepared for it. But the vast majority of human beings do not understand what it means exactly. There are also tendencies in which it is redrawn and minimalized into a false form. Due to the complexity of the situation, I had to allow especially Christian believers to receive from the selected prophets the message that the Warning comes almost parallel to the Second coming of the Lord Jesus Christ. I repeat that the Second coming has been taking place since 1957 by My second incarnation on this planet, this time into the female body to be began the final phase of the end of the negative state in being and existence. In the absolute everything takes place at the same time, only beings living in matter at different stages of development experience a linear flow of time. That's why I almost never say the dates of anything through My co-workers, because time is not important. I know that you would love to know the year and the month of that and the point when occurs to the external manifestation of so-called "God's intervention", but believe it would do more harm than good. My plan with all is perfect, so things that happen in you and around you always accept with humility. I know very well how hard it is to endure many situations with life here because I have experienced them in the body of Jesus and I still experience in the body of Jana. Everything proceeds from the inside outward, as I wrote in the previous portion of New Revelation with Peter, and Second coming at first manifests itself internally and then outwardly. This will be in parallel with elimination the negative state at the end of the cycle of time. Then God's mission will be completed. Maybe you take notice why God's mission with the transformation of humankind will be completed only then? Since, even after the division of humankind and the revibration of so far the parts of the Earth's inhabitants, God's family will not end her activities, only then begins the undistorted enjoyment and joy from her cooperation, when the whole Creation will gradually learn about her important mission. Together with humankind, she passes by the development from the 5th dimension up to the point where everything was before the Fall.

I will go back to the Events theme. When I will reveal Myself to all the people indiscriminately, I will show you all your actual life, like on the tape you will see your most important life moments, no matter whether they were good or bad. Of each of you I will get rid of the control by negative entities for a few minutes so that you can rise above all and look at the whole thing from an undistorted point of view. Within 15 minutes (from the perspective of linear time) I will consult with each of his worries and joy, he/she will be in the sea of love and I will embrace him/her. It will be the most intimate, private and personal dialogue with Me which you have experienced since what you live on the Zero. I do not force anyone to follow Me/Our even after the Warning, but there are appropriate consequences that I do not cause in any way, but the free choice of ministration to the Pseudo-Creators.

What more specifically will happen during the Event? Cannot be tell everything and in detail, but it is time to I bring it closer to you. At first, the entire sky by a white, no-glare light will light up. In the hemisphere where will be the night in this time, of course it will also be. This glow will attract billions of people. In that moment, all parts of the dark side will be in great alert, as they will lose control of each human for a moment. But they will not be able to do anything that would stop the Event. On the planet Zero, such a large amount of pure Divine Love is poured in one moment that you can only imagine it when it happens. It is no coincidence that you can perceive increasing energy values on the Internet and around you, such as the energy of Bovis. These values will rise steadily until the division of humankind is completed. Energies are constantly sent to your planet from the Central Sun, where the highest consciousness is anchored in this universe. From it, positively charged photons flow into the solar system through the Sun. Permanent energies increasing is intended to accelerate the transformation and spiritual regeneration of part of the population which will culminate in the above-mentioned the Event. Elites is trying to hinder the supply photons and its increasing vibrations by the so-called chemtrails. Everything happens under My oversight, and they are only allowed what is absolutely necessary to answer the question of life without God and spiritual laws. If My presence was not even in the zone of displacement, it would be long ago broken.

After lighting of the sky, the light descends from the sky to the earth. At that moment all the human rush, traffic,... movement stops. Your immortal consciousness will come out of the gross body, where everyone will see Me by his/her inner sight. Keep in mind that this will take place inside each of you and will be an experience that will be livelier than a dream but will not be captured by any technical means. The perception of the Lord Jesus Christ will vary from individual to individual. As I am almighty, I will use for everyone the form of God which will be most suitable for him/her. To the most advanced beings, awakened and Christians, usually I will appear in the perfect body of Jesus, to members of other religions I will appear in the forms in what they are imagining the Creators. I will also choose the appropriate appearance for the convinced atheists. Everything is perfect and there is no need be worried about any shortcomings. I'm revealing here only a small and limited section of what happens when your soul meets the Lord Jesus Christ. That's because nobody is getting 100% of information and also because you need to ask yourself what this experience will mean to you and look at it the way you feel it. There is no need to enter into details of meeting face to face with Me, since it will vary from individual to individual.

Positive beings will jubilate by joy, negative beings will grip their heart because they feel sorry for what evil they have done. This will happens to those agents of the negative state, who will experience awakening and conversion in the direction to heaven. Those who do not show an interest in converting, will stubbornly scrape their nails down the wall and scream against Love, but as a result, this scratch will be sound dissonantly only on their ears, because everyone behind the wall (in the positive state) will devote much more pleasant things and will not even remember their old life. Warning precedes the revibration parts of the people into the paradise on earth, so you will still see how the system which moves by the world, will behave. The divine experience will be distorted by the media, will be labeled as a delusion and hallucination, but it can not confuse nothing else to you because, by the end of your mission in 3D, you will walk along the illuminated path to heaven without stopping more.

With this action will initiate the final countdown to the arrival of Pseudo-creators on Zero. It's also another assurance that your deliverance is close. After the revibration the last wave of co-workers, the supply of the light energy will be stopped. After the reality of this planet falls to position -1, all areas of life will worsen. Then nothing will be prevent the typical human era in this theater from playing the last scene, the curtain last time withdrawn, and the remaining "actors" behind it could once again choose whether they want to live in the positive state.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

15. Finally, cast away the fear of anything, let to lead by Me, The Lord Jesus Christ. No one knows you, does not love and does not protect you as perfectly as I, your best and most loyal Friend and Love

A large number of human beings, whether they are from higher dimensions, true human beings, or the souls of the zone of displacement, tend to worry about almost anything. No matter whether they are worry about their life, their loved ones, the future, ... the soul. This is why they tend to plan their life to be "best", and copy it according to their surroundings which lives in an routine system of the negative state for thousands of years. Fear reduces vibrations, planning of anything once again play up into the cards to extraterrestrial entities - to the controllers who are in charge of you and the majority of humankind control to 95%.

Finally, cast away the fear of anything, and let to lead by Me, the Lord Jesus Christ. This can be achieved by stopping paying much attention to the things that are part of the set system for terrestrial living, when information rolls in you from all sides, and you do not have time for what is really important to you, that is, to let to lead by the one who created you. Just open the door to the true spiritual love that has little in common with a love which most of you know. The elites are well aware that by the involvement of intuition (= establishing a conscious contact with Me) drastically reduces the level of control and there is a gradual dissolving the cover of spirit and soul which have been closed in a special envelope from energoprotoplasm, which is the work of Pseudo-creators and other negative entities. In addition to the gradual reduction of control, you get rid of fear in all its forms. You are ascending on the spiritual path and after reaching a certain point you are able "to be over the thing."

Only very few incarnated beings in human gross bodies have direct contact with God. It also applies for large parts of light co-workers who do not need to have a direct connection to the Source of life, but they help in an individual way to bring less developed people into the light. Therefore at first glance it seems that almost every teaching about spiritual truths is contradictory and at the same time contradicting to the previous one, but that is because each of them brings here a different degree of truth. It can be said with certainty that there are so many truths, how many people. You certainly know that no one accepts the 100% level of truth, because it is not possible for many reasons, while you live in the zone of displacement. In revealing the truth, it is necessary to act cautiously and not to accept any information as guaranteed, as there are also tricky and sometimes dangerous "truths" that come not from light, but from different people who are either agents of the negative state and know that spreading false testimonies helps even to the gradual victory of those who live on this planet, or to those who do not thing it badly, but because of the closed spiritual heart and disconnection from Me, they are exposed to the influences of the other side, and that is why they can "stick on" of the various bad entities who like impersonate the carriers of light, but it's just their appealing mask. The misleading texts from the dark side are intended for those who do not feel the intuition, but the brain, the ego, the eyes.

I emphasize that you will judge the truthfulness of your texts by feel heart. Texts from Me and from beings from Heaven may be identified thanks by the presence of a radiant light and Love, when reading you will feel harmony and consonance, will literally it do good on your soul.

No one knows you, does not love and does not protect you as perfectly as I, your best and most loyal Friend and Love. So why surrender to politicians, bankers and elites which are controlled by the entities of reptile origin? Do you want to have anything to do with the monsters which bluff you in, daze you with various benefits in a short earthly life, to get to know at the physically end what you have voluntarily served was not productive, lacked emotion, empathy, Love? I always have over the very Pseudo-creators the edge on, because no one but Me is absolute. Their power appears compared with the abilities of the Lord Jesus Christ as a grain of sand, in addition darkness is temporary, and after answering the question of life without God and spiritual principles will be eliminated and forever abolished. Can not be sit on two chairs, is to be to choose who you will serve. I tell everyone that even those who take pleasure in evil, live in fear, even the very creators of all hardship. Covered by themselves are afraid of Love, even though it is she who nourishes them. By handover yourself into the loving arms of the Lord Jesus Christ, you are constantly protected, empowered and loved. I love everyone and everything constantly, but by accepting God into your heart you will be able to perceive this love. Even in this body, made of elements of the third dimension, you will realize the perfect plan and order of the Creator, you will establish the long-lost friendship of your best friend and girlfriend, which is otherwise eternal and never ending. I know perfectly every atom of all universes and I have an understanding for everyone. Talk to Me and dry up the tears which caused you separate from the Source of life. Do not expect to hear a voice when you establish a contact. God is everywhere and in everything, so He is also part of the thoughts. That's how telepathy is manifested, and you find the Lord Jesus Christ in silence, not in noise.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

16. Sexuality and sexual relationship between man and woman, more precisely between masculinity and femininity, is a basic prerequisite for co-creation in the spiritual, intermediary and natural worlds of Multiverse

It is now generally necessary to explain the functioning of the intimate connection of woman and man in the zone of displacement and True Creation. More about this topic can be found in the books of New Revelation by Peter D. Francuch, but it is already for advanced. It is appropriate to give this important area of life in own form even for readers, co-workers and followers of God's family on her web-sites.

The Pseudo-creators distorted all areas of the the real life to the dead life, there stayed almost nothing original. All the structure of the souls and especially the bodies that now inhabit the zone of displacement, have been transformed. They have used all kinds of animal genes to build the body in which just you are living. But it gave them but a lot of work before achieving the desired result of the earthly human who would manifest their purposes and serve them. When experimenting with the development of the fabric, Pseudo-creators had to focus most on the sexual area. They walked cautiously step by step so that, according to the bodies in the positive state (= duplicates) that are perfect and from Me, they copied and distorted all 100% good elements on elements of 95% negative and left only 5% of the positive aspects. Most of it, were things related to sex.

First of all, it should be stressed that the sex organs, as you know them, are not created by the Lord Jesus Christ, but it is the exception in human bodies in the zone of displacement. The Pseudo-creators had to create reproductive organs, but first they gave to themselves the task of transforming the pure sexual energy, that rises from the inside to outside of the duplicates in True Creation, to the energy that would be manifested only externally and would be minimally affected by the inward mind. There was a disconnection of the perceptions which were previously in direct communication between the soul and the body, thanks which your counterpart could be experienced what you experiencing - and on the contrary, you could experience what he/she did. Sexual vibrations have therefore been replaced by mass, and "they gave" to man the penis and to woman the vagina. During sexual intercourse of human beings, everything, unlike beings from the higher dimensions, takes place externally. The creators of the anti-universe were well aware that without Me, there would not be a full experience of orgasm, which happens in duplicates. Therefore, they limited its duration to the genital area, which takes only a few seconds, and it does not happen to both partners at the same time, but each at a different time, if it occurs at all. Sex can be accompanied even by annoyances, often by resistance or pains. In addition, human beings contact in intimate parts in places that are located just next to the secretory organs, which may not always to be a nuisance, but from the point of view of beings of the 5th and higher dimensions, this paradox appears to be very unnatural even though people naturally do not realize it. Why am I talking about the paradox? Would you like to make love in heaven with your counterpart in places where it normally excludes waste products? Fortunately there is no such thing there because the bodies from Me are perfect. I will more explain the operation of duplicates on this topic.

You need to understand that God's opponents take pleasure in all sorts of dirt, so they have "put in" openings for waste products into the gross body. This also applies to the secretory glands you have all over the body. You produce a huge amount of substances that have nothing to do with the positive state. I will focus on this topic in another Message where I will deal with the many differences between the duplicate and your current physical envelope.

Sexuality and sexual relationship between man and woman, more precisely between masculinity and femininity, is a basic prerequisite for co-creation in the spiritual, intermediary and natural worlds of Multiverse. Without this rule, all life energies would be dwindle and all motion would stop and nothing could be created. Thanks to that, not only I but also the relative beings can create loving ideas, from which they can eventually create self-conscious, unique entities. Duplicates in the 5th dimension are without genital organs, there is no menstrual cycle in women, fertile and infertile periods of both sexes, there are no perverse deviations, fluctuations and a steep rise in sexual moods, the resulting harassment of anyone as you have it here and many other negative influences that do not need to be listed further because you can add them yourself.

The topic of sex was and still is labeled by negative entities in the zone of displacement as something unclean and inappropriate, for which people should be ashamed and would rather call it socially inappropriate. On the other hand, the ruling elites produces a inexhaustible quantity of pornography that leads people away from true spiritual connections in the area of the second (sacral) chakra with orange color. Because of this, there is a mental tension in people, when they have forgotten what is good for them and therefore frequent feelings of guilt or resignation occur, are lacking in the power for fully expression of emotionality, feelings and creativity of life that does not know the exact way to go, and stagnates on the spot. And you were brought up to talk as little as possible about the most inward experience and "removed" its into the second category. But how do you want to get to know and compare the true nature of duality functioning when you are not able to look at any topic with the same insight, measure and weight? The time has come for those who are ready to receive new spiritual knowledge have received another portion from the well of knowledge written by the Source of Life itself, and it concerns a topic that many are looking through their fingers without having to.

How does sex work in the 5th dimension of human beings? When a woman and a man meet, they resonate together and want to live in a couple, nobody and nothing inhibits them from doing so. After many adventures and experiences of mutual cognition of one's counterpart, moment is coming up when it is time to get to know him/her in a full-blown fashion, thanks to which one partner knows of the other in the fullness of harmony and soul interconnection. The partners snuggle and embrace each other, during with time starts the mutual resonance of the souls and the interconnection of the light crystals of the bodies whose "owners" penetrate into the interior of their counterpart. Kissing as such does not exist in a known form. Since no body fluids are present, there is no penetration of the saliva through the mouth into the other and the love kiss is not accompanied by the use of the tongue. It sounds drily, but I can guarantee that the kiss is far more amazing and fuller than you have in the 3rd dimension. It similarly proceeds by pressing the lips, but it does not only act on the external feelings of a person, but it completes the joining of bodies and souls to the fullest possible. In sex in 5D, all chakras are connected by a strong bond, but the sacral chakra, which is located in the lower abdomen area, assists of course the most helpful. In all things I assist, the Lord Jesus Christ, from whom all things are coming to be this act perfect and full. By the whole culminate of love is an orgasm that comes early and lasts for a long time. It is not limited to the area of the genitals (which do not exist in True Creation); on the contrary, on the contrary, they permeate your and your partner's soul by delight that you have never experienced before. It is literally a heavenly delight which can not be achieved anywhere in the zone of displacement. Sharply picks up the vibration not only to those who have loved, but also to the whole neighborhood, the planet, the Multiverse. The orgasm takes place both at the same time. To make matters worse, one partner is experiencing all the time, what experiences the other and vice versa.

All the quality of life improves with never ending approach towards the absolute state. Even you once you reach the position in which the highest spiritual beings are located, so that you can overcome this state and continue in the new cycle. You will become the creators of the infinite, the integral part of which is always present sexual energy present in Multiverse, the most beautiful celebration of life, love, beauty, good... God.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

17. How to simply describe life in the 5th dimension of the True Creation? As a dream that is called Utopia in your on the Zero

The New Earth is another reality of the planet Earth/Zero, which is found in the 5th dimension of the Multiverse of the Lord Jesus Christ. Its surface is very different from the surface in this reality because the 3rd dimension can not express the beauty of the positive state. 5D is the first step to the top, where I am, the Prime Creator of Everything and Everyone. All the paths begin just in this plane of existence and there is nothing negative here, because there is no room for darkness, but only for light, warmth, Love.

The entire globe encompasses an one undivided continent that is washed by two oceans - the North and the South. In the oceans you find the most fantastic manifestations of non-sentient life in all its forms. All non-sentient entities (animals and plants) live in harmony and telepathic connection not only among themselves but also with people. You will find millions of new species of fauna and flora that do not exist on the Old Earth. The world in which you are now found was fabricated by the Pseudo-Creators, and in essence nothing remained of the original, so even the bodies of fauna and flora do not come from the Lord Jesus Christ. You can argue that plants and trees are really beautiful on the Old Earth, which are indeed, but also those roses, carnations, limes, maples, oaks ... and all other plant species were created by God's opponents. Their beauty on this planet lies in the fact that Pseudo-creators tried to faithfully imitate the outer structure and appearance of the plants found in True Creation. That's what they did, but what you see in nature is just a glimpse of what exists in the 5th dimension. The exterior of fauna and flora in many species may indeed resemble what I created, but their interior is already deprived of a positive charge on the Zero, that is, it disappears all the pervasive spirituality, colors, brightness, contrast and, last but not least also the behavior of the non-sentient kinds of entities. These are reflection of the quality of life of sentient entities, thus people. In the paradise on the earth, naturally, you will not find a negative animals. Go back on the land. There are a number of harmonious biotopes that mingle with each other. But there is no seasons here as you know it. If you love one of the four seasons of the year, you will find a suitable place where the some character of the weather is constantly. Do you want a fragrant spring with flowering trees whose blossoms never fall down? Or is it a radiant summer when the eternal light of the divine sun is you at hand? Or you want a multicolored golden-red autumn which is light as a cobweb in the wind? Snow lovers will find places with sparkling penetrating snow, but it is warm snow because New Earth has other physical laws.

What about nature, how to describe it? It is like a beautiful dream which is real in the positive state. Even the most beautiful places on the Old Earth take rank with the beauties of the New Earth. The meadows of thousands of flowers, forests of all kinds, hundreds of thousands of islands and small islands along the coast and also very far from it, atolls, bays and meanderings of all sorts of endless beaches with fine sand, hills that cross into the magnificent snowy mountains which once again cross into the valley where are streams and wells with infinitely pure water. The waterfalls again replenish the relaxing atmosphere in the virgin jungles, where everyone can enjoy the most privacy. Not least, the surface creates plains with grass as soft as cotton, caves, canyons and others. All in the presence of the aroma of the positive state, clean air, a fresh temperature around 25 ° C and a mild amorousness into everything around.

You will not find here factories, roads, cars, landfills, cities, bad weather, floods, droughts, clouds of sky, money, corporations, warehouses of economic products, any manipulation, overpopulated areas... in short, absolutely no "conveniences" of the negative state. The New Earth will be a place for anyone who move there, because there will be only about 600 million people who will choose the place to life, depending on how the environment is in tune with them. You will be transported first by using a high-performance flying saucer (more precisely an antigravity spacecraft) which will transfer you through thought to not only anywhere place on the planet, but anywhere else in the universe. Soon your skills will be improved, as you will not need machines any longer, you will move around with teleportation, you will begin to materialize things and objects as you wish in a matter of seconds. When you are at a higher level of spiritual spiral, you divide the aspects of your spirit into multiple levels, become a multidimensional being, discover hidden talents. It waits you a wonderful, never ending journey alongside the always loving parent, Mother and Father in one - the Lord Jesus Christ, God's family, who will also live physically in the male and female body among people. People will live in families, by themselves or otherwise, depending on what one chooses. Everyone will be in constant quantity, the quality and the quantity will be improved so that it can not even be expressed. Here too, children are born, but in another way in a special biological bag outside the body of a woman. They grow faster, they learn to be loving and from a child they are in a conscious direct contact with Me.

I have prepared the heavens for those who do not want to remain in deteriorating conditions in the fullness of the negative state on this planet, where the New World Order will be introduced in the next few years under the baton of the ruling elites and the Pseudo-creators themselves. The endless harmonious worlds in the positive state of Multiverse are ready for you, it was never different. They are waiting with their inhabitants for the return of lost sons and daughters. Imagine your place that you dream in the mind of the most wild phantasy. How would it look? That's exactly how countless places look like in the higher dimensions, where you will soon move if you have Love in your heart. The cleanliness and harmony of those places will be just for you. But if you rather prefer material things without Love, in a world that goes deeper into the zone of displacement, I can not prevent you from remaining in this reality when will the division of humankind. However, the heavenly gate is open to anyone who accepts Me as your own.

It is no longer necessary to divorce the quality of life in the positive state because God's Word is intended only to outline the amazing things that are waiting for you in this case. You can imagine other things resulting from this. It is necessary to lay the foundation to you can build other spiritual things on it, then it is under My leadership also to live. For more information about life in the zone of placement, we wrote with My direct incarnation Jana in the 14th chapter of the New Revelation of the Lord Jesus Christ, God's family: "Life in the Positive Condition." If you wish to live in the perfect world, pack your suitcases and join us in the 5th dimension not only on the New Earth, but also on other infinitely diverse and equally amazing planets in many universes.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

18. In the Multiverse everything is connected, it is one living organism, and each, though small, the particle affects the whole

Before the eons of years when there was not yet Creation in active mode, I existed in My original substance of absolute state without any relative beings. It is a holy truth that I was by no one and nothing created because I am alpha and omega, the beginning and the end of everything. I exist in the absolute of the 13th dimension where, at the moment HERE AND NOW, there is no time or space. It contains all the developmental lines of all times and para-times from eternity to eternity as they will become and will not become because at Me/in Me is possible everything thinkable and unthinkable. The fact that I have no beginning or end can only fully understand beings living in the highest dimensions which are the most close in and resemble God's constructivity. Therefore, make nothing of it that you do not understand, because you are tied up with time and space, in addition you are in an anti-universe, where you are exposed to the effects of the negative state during your stay, hence you have established false pseudo-conventions about God and life as such.

If you ask Me for help, you will be able to receive without problems the latest God's word, which begins with the study of many alternative spiritual teachings, leads through further degrees of detection of truth and ends by reading both portion the New Revelations of the Lord Jesus Christ along with the surrender of your life to the loving Creator. This succession is general and every journey of the soul is different, so now I'm talking about people from the narrow part of spectrum. With the New Revelation, the key God's word for this cycle of time, are once become acquainted all the sentient entities, thus even those who have the worst evil and violent inclinations, and who are staying at the lowest levels of hells. All I control and I have the perfect plan on the evacuation into freedom those who have been trapped in the trap of darkness. Know that when the true nature of the negative state is revealed, there is hardly anyone who would be reluctant to enter into the positive state because there will be nothing that would motivate the low entities to live in the state of misery and suffering.

Let's get back to the original topic. When I existed from eternity to eternity in My loneliness, I could not share My elements of life, love, beauty, good, harmony, satisfaction, and many other aspects of being and existence. That is why the process of movement began, when I released the first ideas from the absolute mind which became self-conscious beings. By this step was create to the Creation how this know the beings in Love, but remember that something always precedes something else, so everything that is given to people on the planet Zero and in the form of the God's word is very much abridged, generalized and simplified because more you would not be able to take in a limited reality. Even the previous steps of creating the three levels of the worlds of the Multiverse are not just coming from nothing. It is a continuous process of the precede without beginning and ending. The firstborns have helped and forever help to create the spiritual, intermediary and natural worlds of Creation. Everyone, including people, helps to make life, but on its own qualitative and quantitative level. In the Multiverse everything is connected, it is one living organism, and each, though small, the particle affects the whole. I will return to this later.

As some of you know, Firstborns are spiritual "parents" of those who were created after them (see New Revelation of the Lord Jesus Christ, God's family in Chapter 27: "(Re)Incarnation"). In the degree/dimension below them, the newly originated are again "parents" of those who were brought into being and existence in the next step, so it is until infinity. For the spiritual growth of entities of all kinds there are innumerable universes, which is an infinite number. The sum of all universes then gives rise to the term "Multiverse." Imagine a vast desert. When you take sand into your hand, you hold thousands of grains. Each grain represents from my point of view a one whole universe with billions of suns, trillions of planets, and quadrillions of sentient and non-sentient beings who, in accordance with the spiritual laws and principles of love, form their lifestyles and generations pointing spiritual development. This one universe consists of 12 dimensions, each distinguish from the other in all unrepeatable aspects and looks. If you would count the grains of all the deserts of the world, this number would not even come close to the actual number of still emerging universes. Yes, it's all so grandiose, but you will experience the grandeur personally on the way through life when you will be also creating in a large. This journey starts in the 5th dimension where some of you will move on the basis of vibrations, attitudes and acts.

As it stands in the title of the chapter, everything is one living organism. Multiverse creates the life energy that comes out of the sentient entities, while I "encircle" him and watch over everything. Creation is relative towards the Lord Jesus Christ, so I everything overrun. This can be interpreted also as when you imagine the whole endless (towards the Creator finite) Multiverse as a ball on the table. Around it lies the outer world, which contains at one instant and there are more things going on in than it what happens in that ball. And just this world is in absolute sense the absolute state, by Me, the Lord Jesus Christ, who has only the difference that your world is bounded and finite, while I reach on and on beyond all boundaries. The surrounding world (absolute state) therefore supplies the ball (Mutiverse), into which it draws potential life experiences to eventually become a reality, experienced by its own existential freedom. The ball is growing steadily, as everything evolves in constant approximation to the Lord Jesus Christ. That way it would be very easy to explain, in the era of ongoing transformation, the relationship between the universe and God.

Everything is visibly and invisibly interconnected, because life appears to be as a one whole which contains both large and small parts, ensuring in this way the flawless function of the whole. Let's start from the lowest elements up to the highest one. Even though there are more and more smaller particles then the atoms, we set the starting point for better memorization like this. Gravity holds the atoms together. These atoms make up all known matter in this and several other universes. Matter makes up of bodies on many bases (carbon in 3D, crystalline in 5D, ...) for all evolving entities, which means also for planets and stars. There are incarnated the souls of varying degrees of development there, so that they obtain the inexhaustible amount of experiences. The higher the vibration plane, the smaller the matter, so the atoms oscillate faster and are more distant from each other. The development stages of the whole one plane in all natural, intermediary and spiritual worlds are called dimensions that are separated in the current cycle of time, but in the next step of Creation there will be interconnection of each of them, since there will be no negative state. Planets make up in their own solar systems of the family, whereas the associated star around which they orbit is their "parent", emitting a nourishing energy for their "children". Stars are the most advanced souls of heavenly bodies of solar systems, followed by planets.

The individual sun again make up in configuration the families, so that continues to the central sun which is in the center of every galaxy and nourishes all the associated stars and celestial bodies which transfer out of him life energy further to the planets on which there is a sentient and non-sentient life, what also uses radiated energy to their own growth. All the inhabitants of the given body, and fauna and flora then transmit the life power further into molecules, atoms, and others smaller building blocks which yet unknown for you. Even in central galactic suns, the development into a larger denominator does not stop, because into them flows the energy from elsewhere and that from the central cosmic sun around which all the galaxies of the given universe are rotating. The cosmic sun is the governing body of every universe, a sort of representative of the absolute state in relative condition, a point of support, from which it deduces all the movement of dimensions in the Creation which occupies and manages. It contains a summary of highly developed beings - creators who keep it running with My commission. And just the cosmic sun I supply directly from My infinite Source in absolute condition. I, the Lord Jesus Christ, I am the shining sun of all. My rays of love affect on everyone with an equal boundless extent, because so boundless I love of each one of you. The most and the least advanced souls occupy the same position towards Me, because they are all equals. Do you already understand that we are one living interconnected organism? There is no any separation, and if someone experiences it, such as the members of the negative state, just so only illusory and temporary because the zone of displacement is also part of the Creation in which everyone lives, in this case only with the difference that in the anti-universe is an insufficiency of Love. More about the management and laws of the positive state, we wrote already with Peter D. Francuch in the book "Fourth Concepts of the Spiritual Structure of Creation" in 1982.

Just to the correlation of the negative state towards the whole, I will return at the conclusion. The negative state threatens the whole very dangerously. Even before the first incarnation then of the Most High into the zone of displacement in the body of Jesus Christ, this state could be equal to the positive state, since it prevailed in the anti-universe and began to threaten True Creation. If the Most High was not in the human body, when he entered into hells after His crucifixion to conquer all evils, the whole of Multiverse would sooner or later be destroyed under a self-destructive attacks of evils and untruths. I could never let that happen, so I intervened. Remember, only I have all the means to the salvation of Creation. There is now in order an important note, and it is that it does not matter the size and value of a particular place or point that occupies in the structure of Multiverse. The living proof of this phenomenon is your planet Zero, which illustrates the results and consequences of life without true spiritual principles. It is precisely this grain of sand (compared to the whole) currently the most important place of this time cycle. Let it be repeated again: right here are the beings from both directions of duality, right here he was conceived, he will win for a while and the negative state will also be ended, which was alive throughout his activation thanks to this at first glance petty place. So you can see that that odd place of the planet Earth/Zero, this tiny particle affects literally the whole infinity Creation, because it is the key to ending one complete great important stage of Creation, the value of which you will understand later.

The importance of everything is transmitted to you as well, the importance of your unique and unrepeatable soul, as well as the present earthly life, thanks to which you have the ability to do so much in a short period of time from the point of view of linear time what otherwise would you do during dozens of incarnations in other corners of Creation, if you were not present on the Zero. Even though it is inappropriate to compare almost anything with anything, this comparison here can be used to remind you of the privilege which you have thanks to earthly life. Therefore, you must not underestimate or exalt yourself, but be grateful for your originality and gifts of spirit, ththanks to which you can be one's own man, regardless of the place, time and current position of your unique life path - this concerns eternal residence in the positive state and also temporary stay at the edge of the zone of displacement. Everyone is a full-fledged segment in the colorful mosaic of Multiverse, where for ever we create side by side life in the most beautiful manifestations and substances, so to speak "we pull together". No one can miss in the mosaic, otherwise the whole work would be devalued. I'm looking at these colorful pictures and I'm experiencing joy and pleasure with you for it, that all are being such what you are because I am you and you are Me.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

19. The law of free choice is the condition of Life, but can not be understood as absolute

From the very beginning of the being and existence are running the true spiritual laws of the Lord Jesus Christ with the principles of all-encompassing love. Whoever wants to become acquainted with them can do so in particular by reading the first portion of the New Revelation, especially of Chapter 10: "Update, Modification and Redefinition of the Spiritual Laws", as well as in Chapter 24: "The Ten Commandments Revisited". I remind and advise that this most important book should be read in sequence, and it is not appropriate to skip its parts. These laws are perfect and flawless, although this constructivity, like everything in a limited world, you can not fully encompassed. Some are only valid for this cycle of time so that they are later restructured and restored, others apply for eternity. These have nothing to do with the infernal pseudo-laws for your planet, which are a bundling and ordinary citizen has not basically nothing of them, because they are setup by negative elites and entities so that damage and benefit from them have only those of the highest (but not spiritually) and the richest immortalizing the state of non-love not only on the Zero and helping his short victory. I have already communicated that practically no one is orientated in earthly laws, regulations, instructions, and whatever you have here, because naturally he does not have time, strength or taste to study them. This paradox plays into cards to the rulers of their "herd", because they want disorientation those who come into contact with their system. In case, they have devised the law of all laws, which means that their ignorance does not apologize and will be punished. Negative state literally loves the complexities and nonsense that must be under what circumstances inducted into practice and fulfilled to the letter. Beings in the zone of displacement have long been accustomed to having to follow them. Even people can hardly imagine the existence of life without the thousands of commandments and prohibitions that they may and must not to do.

Notice how more and more commandments are approved on the part of multinational institutions that even more restrict human freedom and dignified rights of the individual. This is because there is a gradual end to the typical human era and the agony of anti-universe, but before then, human problems still increase for the last time into unimaginable proportions, which will again be one of the components of the victory of darkness on the Zero. This experiment will then be ended. I know it sounds harsh, but everything is done on the basis of free choice and selection of sentient entities. All the individuals agreed that some will voluntarily participate in life in hells. I have given to everyone an absolute promise before this time's cycle, in which it is that separation from Me will not last beyond one cycle of time, and I will save everyone who would remain in the dead life to the end so that he can eventually return to the point which he originally inhabited before decided with some of the others to directly participate in life without the Lord Jesus Christ.

Everything in Multiverse is happening and takes place from free choice. This rule applies from eternity to eternity. But here comes the dilemma and stumbling-block with the negative state. Although the law of free choice is a condition for the existence of life, it can not be understood as absolute, because without the existence of spiritual laws destruction of the whole Creation would have taken place. It is precisely because of their neglect that there is a negative state with all its distortions, perversions, degeneracy, killing, illnesses and total unnaturalness and strangeness, which can be everything but not by a likeness of substances coming out of the Lord Jesus Christ in the positive state. The evil entities fight against the true nature of the Creator of Everything and Everyone and will not suffer anything that would resemble the elements of true Creation. That's why the Pseudo-creators invented the exact opposite of the true spiritual laws, but it was and still it is necessary to keep at least the minimum degree of truth in the many levels of hell itself, because thanks to though petty God's truth and love, everyone is alive wherever they are. Because of this, God's opponents had to leave the 5% small opening for the flow of life energies to all who are under their domain. No one can do what is inconsistent with its essence. Even the Pseudo-creators are relative, so they can not succeed in their mad plan to dominate the whole Creation and "take down God from the throne". How it could be when I am present in everything (Multiverse is my "body" and beings are my "cells"), I live in absolute condition, I am not tied to space or time, I am omnipotent, omnipresent, and supply everything alive? I only allow it for what evils and untruths were activated, and that's only getting the answer to the so many times mentioned question. I do not directly interfere with the development of the zone of displacement, because I myself abide by my own laws of liberty, I only regulate her development to avoid imbalances towards the positive state. Thanks to love and mercy, I have sacrificed Myself to all in the two bodies of My direct incarnations and also send millions of angels from heaven throughout history. Now I have a large representation in the domain of the "Evil" which gives a helping hand to all who want to be salvaged.

I will reveal here a secret related to the topic. Anybody can not absolutely violate the spiritual laws, not even the Pseudo-creators. If this were to be the case, would have to the one who would want to do so be the absolute entity, because how can something relative violate something absolute? It also follows that, if I had to enter the zone of displacement with all the glory and pompousness in My absolute fulness, everything in her would evaporate in a fraction of a second. That's impossible. Do you notice of the correlation and order of being and existence in the matter regarding of absolute against relative? In "waste bin of the Multiverse" each more or less violates the positive order, but never at 100%, as it would amount to spiritual death, the definitive denial not only of God, but also of himself. This would lead to elimination and own annihilation. Therefore, you can also rightly conclude that nothing is completely and definitively at 100%, and that in both directions of duality. Even in the victory of darkness above the light here in the 3rd dimension, agents of the positive state will constantly be represented. These will be especially people from the Hollow Earth, whose most famous figure is Adama of Telos, but of course many others we will not write about here. When the negative state is brought into its final stage, the chipped people and biorobots lose free choice completely (at 99.999%). As you know now, the definitive loss of choice would lead to their immediate and total destruction, but at the right time I will intervene and put an end to the efforts of the controllers and puppeteers. The mentioned above dilemma and stumbling-block of the negative state it is ultimately the fact that it can not for a while be able to live alone, because by causing the complete end and the impossibility of free choice for all its inhabitants, it would destroy itself. It really walks along this path, but so for many reasons, the entire experiment would be destroyed. It can be likened to a tree and its apples that symbolize its inhabitants. Gradually they ripen and fall at the end of time. If I did not intervene, they would fall to the ground and rot. So they would go waste. But I will catch them in flight while they are falling (when is threatened the possibility of choice), I will clean up them and I will let them freely decide whether they would like to lift up to the sun and not end up on the earth before a terrible fate. If this privilege was not granted, none of the apples (inhabitants) would have any choice but to fall and rot. By this step was revealed in the Messages another of the essence of pseudo-existence that I have previously revealed in a different form in the books of New Revelation with Peter.

Finally, I will mention about how humankind treat with free choice just before its final division. Together with the increased vibration of the planet, greedy people are even more aggressive and thus accordingly the already so debilitated body of the planet looks like, so the answer is clear. Elites, under lead by their masters, will continue to devastate the natural beauties of Earth/Zero to complete their work of destruction. It does not matter whether they will exploit (abuse) a highly ranking director of a multinational corporation or "ordinary" human with malicious intents. Forests and primeval forests are burning in many parts of the world, such as in Indonesia, the stands are cut down, toxic waste is poured out into the oceans, therefore fauna and flora are dying in both water and land. Killing animals and people is a well organized crime that drives the reptilian entities themselves. Their temporary agents here are indifferent to everything alive, even to themselves, because individual clans constantly fight for power and want to take control above as many sleeping people as possible. I have everything under control and I will not let suffer the beings in the infested environment who want to live in Love. Whoever remains here, already shortly after the division of humankind, will not be able to see any beauty in all its aspects.

Do not be sad My beloved co-workers from the fate which awaits this planet. Always be aware that this will only happen in the 3rd dimension of the anti-universe, but in the 5th and higher vibrational planes it will wait of you the breathtaking beauty of the harmonious purity and bliss. You will soon experience it when you revibrate. A part of it, I have brought to you already in one of the previous Message: "How to simply describe life in the 5th dimension of the True Creation? As a dream that is called utopia". Remember that we have not been come to save this going down reality with its uninspired elements from Me, but we have come to take that good from it so that it could be transferred to the New Earth, planted there and without fear, it could grow in freedom and constantly develop without threatening with weeds. In the meantime, please send to Mother Gaia harmonic vibrations so that you not only increase the vibration of her material body until then your long-awaited move to untasted paradise worlds takes place. You do not help with vibrations only to this reality, but even to others because everything is interconnected. Even from your temporarily limited position, you are doing a multidimensional job.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

20. There is no only religion on this planet that would not be influenced or created directly by the makers of negative entities

We are going back yet once more to the earthly religions in a portion of God's word at a high level. The functioning of Christianity towards the New Nature of the Lord Jesus Christ as well as towards the whole Creation is described in detail in the first portion of the New Revelation (Chapter 3, "Betrayal of Christianity"). In continuation of the explanation on this topic, we acquaint the beings on the way of the second portion of the New Revelation, transmitted here by Me in the body of Jana, in Chapter 5, "Religions on Earth". Now is the time for us to look at the system of beliefs in the most comprehensive way, and in general to sum up characteristic points for individual beliefs that affect billions of people and determine world developments.

For a start, I remind that there is not only religion on this planet that would not be influenced or created directly by the makers of negative entities. Let's first look at how looked the relationship of beings to the only God before the so-called "the Fall" - by activating the negative state. All the sentient entities of that period of the Multiverse history had a direct and unmediated relationship with Me. Even as the Most High I did not have in absolute totality the masculine body of Jesus and the female body of Jana, so I was perceived more as the ubiquitous energy which I am really, but now I can show Myself to everyone in a concrete form. No systems of orthodox faith were needed, so there was no falsification, iniquities and distortion. Thanks to communicating with the Creator, every has entered into his/her inward, where he/she has been given the necessary advice for life in joy and sufficiency. The situation has changed completely over the course of several million years when the question was asked how it would look like without God. The Pseudo-creators with their minions, step by step, encapsulated the spirit of those who placed under their domain. By these acts created a controlled descent into the appropriate levels of the zone of displacement, where all were brought into a special modal arrangement to targetly forget their origin and interconnection with Me. There has been the creation of many false pseudo-religions in all areas of hells. We will now focus only on the planet Zero, because describing the evolution on other planets of the anti-universe would be unnecessary and incomprehensible at this time.

The evolution of the last human generation has occurred by the cultivation of a caveman, from which he became homo sapiens, who has all the prerequisites for that to can to be in the final phase of the negative state chipped and serve his masters. These creatures from the beginning were born and still gives birth themselves into total ignorance. Because of this, it is very easy to achieve for the negative entities to involve the individual in the system of control programs and "feed him" throughout life with untruths. Of course, an influential system of false religion image, which contains only small fragments of truth which can be found in True Creation, is of course taken into account. All religions worship of the Pseudo-creators, thus Satan, the dark side. Believers, in an overwhelming majority, do not know what this is about, so they are easily exploitable by spiritual leaders of all kinds.

When we return a few thousand years back to the past, we find that the first natural nations have invoked natural deities. I mention that everything that has the purpose of worshipping anything, just not of the Lord Jesus Christ (formerly the Most High) is misguided and false. The leaders of the zone of displacement have succeeded for the beginning in that the last human race themselves incorrectly realized its connection with nature and its elements. Of course it would be okay, as in the positive state, but there is no one there who by the external ways worshipped something external. When to the Pseudo-creators have succeeded in that human beings followed external rather than spiritual things, has been reached of event on which they could build on, such as the fact that humans themselves began to explain life and its laws in the physical, natural, tangible and later scientific ways. Spiritual principles were totally denied. In the next stage of mankind, the earthly people returned to these principles, but in a way that conformed to their creators. We will return to that when describing the main religions.

Not only in Sumerian civilization, Mesopotamia, China, Old Egypt, Greece and Rome, the creators of the human race were directly involved in. We have already informed about the ways of control humankind with the New Revelation by God's Family through the 28th Chapter: "The History of Humankind on Zero under the Rule of the Pseudo-Creators". Because they had unprecedented abilities before the incarnation of the Most High in the form of Jesus Christ, they could enter into human bodies with their faithful associates (the draconian and lizard races, the grays and until recently also the Annunaki, who later turned to light) so that in the form of pharaohs, emperors, kings, priests and others bind the entire nations and its inhabitants into enemy claws. They have built up their power on fear, unlimited worship and devotion under the threat of punishment. They claimed to be gods, because they indulged in that, and until this day they ridicule to the only absolute God of the Lord Jesus Christ in this way. Their concept of worship, which, by the way, you will not find in a positive state, because I require no worship from anyone, has become the basis of what had yet to come, i.e. the creation of ingeniously sophisticated religious systems that endured to this day. Predicting that someone who would be commissioned and sent directly to Me on their territory would come to reveal the fact, they began to construct the contradictory belief systems in order to make the world even more into the chaos of what is right and what is not. An important component of their actions before the coming of Christianity was the emergence of Hinduism and Buddhism.

Hinduism is one of many directions, the teaching of which is based on the worship of several gods at once - such as Brahma, Vishnu and Shiva. In New Revelation, we have revealed to you the important truth about Pseudo-creators: They have performed under different names as gods on all the continents of this planet. Among the best known belong Zeus, Shiva, Quetzalcoatl, Jehovah.... It is clear from this that they not only stood up for the origins of the religions which they governed in the course of human history, but it was just they who were portrayed in the form of various gods which are now being invoked by billions of unknowing people. The holy books that were brought here by various prophets came to the forefront. Not everyone, but the vast majority of them were envoys of hells who wrote up would-be "holy" texts into comprehensive books, and these books henceforth developed the growth of given system which originated in a predetermined territory. The "holy" texts also served after departure of the creators of the negative state from this planet to maintenance of the main ideas of their pseudo-religions. Yet far in advance of the birth of Jesus, they created Buddhism, which takes stray souls further from the only true Source of all life. Judaism is, on the contrary, formed on the concept of worship of one particular God, but this "God" is punishing, profitable, unbalanced and as a dictator, he commands his followers various commandments and restrictions, without which you are not worthy to go to heaven. Would you like to have such a God?

When I was born into the body of Jesus Christ, I did so from endless love to all beings in Creation. I knew that in a world under the rule of the "Evil" I would not be accepted by almost anyone, on the contrary, I will be accused of all possible and impossible things. It was only listening to Me to "a few" people who were able to believe to God's truth with their heart, not on the basis of external actions. Those of you who have not read the New Revelation can not fully understand why I, as an absolute Creator of Everything and Everyone, had to incarnate in the relative form more than 2,000 years ago into the human body, to come through My 33-year life with many life experiences here to be crucified (of course, according to a perfect plan) and then I could enter into hell, where I captured the Pseudo-Creator so that they could no longer directly interfere with the development of humanity. The impact of My birth on the planet Zero was enormous because it was the most important event of the history of the Multiverse. If I did not take exactly the steps I did, Creation would succumb to the destruction by the negative state. Even before My incarnation to the zone of displacement, the negative state began to threaten the first area of the heavens, and soon it would prevail over the positive state. Like Jesus Christ, I taught the truth of the Most High tailored to the inhabitants of that era. My teaching was based on one very important, universal and eternal fact that you should remember forever: you can not find the true God in organized religions of all kinds, at religious authorities, in churches, somewhere outside you, but only in your inward, in spiritual heart, in yourself, because I am your eternal and integral part and you are Me, on the contrary. We are all one, one God's body, divided in the infinity of self-conscious beings who, in their freedom, create and maintain the spiritual, intermediate and natural worlds of Multiverse.

I have never encouraged in anyone to creation a religion whose followers are held in fear, uncertainty or misinformation and other things associated with it. Believers are often in fear and underestimate themselves thus they do not feel or want to feel Me in their hearts which it would otherwise be deprived of those negative influences. The evil entities are well-conscious of this from the beginning thus continue in deceiving of the herd to get even more stuck in their control network. Since I was their number one enemy 2000 years ago, they invented a hellish plan which was the creation of the church. They have misused and overturned My teaching about it that there is no need for any idolatry. They committed one of the greatest crimes in this experiment because the one who was sent on the Zero spoke the highest liberating truth with the aim of later ultimate elimination all evils and untruths, he had been abused by the Pseudo-Creators in his reference to the creation of one great world religion whose influence was unparalleled. That was Christianity. Everything happens on the basis of My permission and consent, there is nothing I would not know or anticipate in advance. Because I am absolute, I know how things will happen and will not happen for all eternity forward. From the Almighty position, therefore, I knew well that the Evil takes an opportunity to distort the teachings of Jesus, so in advance I created the conditions for the creation of the true God's word, which will be written in the spiritual language so that it can not be distorted. What I'm talking about here is the New Testament. The vast majority of human beings, when reading the Bible, have the problem to distinguish the true God' word from that satanic one, which in most cases contains the Old Testament (originating both from demonic and angelic). Only a very small thousandth of people in gross bodies then understand the significance of individual passages of the New Testament, which have a profound spiritual meaning that is correlated with the coexistence of the negative state beside of the positive state and all things involved in the plotting of events in this cycle of time. The New Testament, as I have said, is written in the spiritual language so that it does not become infected with untruths, and therefore to take literally his words has no meaning. In complete form and with explanation, the literal meaning of his passages is again shown in the books of New Revelation by Peter D. Francuch. The New Testament was censored throughout his existence, thousands of words were omitted, but his true spiritual significance could never be garbled and distorted. No matter how many people on this planet understand or do not understand the meaning of passages, it is important that there are real sacred texts presenting the undistorted essence of the truth about evils and untruths, as well as about the events in the future. The evil entities could not do anything about it, so at least the Old Testament placed next to New and continued the effort of establish a church which had and has no positive features. To make things worse, Islam was formed a few centuries later, the consequences of which are more evident at present than ever before.

The evil entities could not do anything about it, so at least the Old Testament placed next to New and continued the effort of establish a church which had and has no positive features. Since the Middle Ages the differences between the individual faiths have worsened, so wars, territory struggles, crusades and more have arisen. Since the Middle Ages, the Church has dominated virtually all areas of human life, and people were constantly frightened of eternal damnation if they would to sin, an one evil God once again appeared on the agenda, whose entirely contrived spiritual principles fit perfectly to those who stood for the creation of all this.

When she came one's turn of Renaissance and Humanism, it could have at first look like that a rebirth to greater human freedom takes place. Nothing was further from the truth. Otherwise, Humanism has dealt with human himself and he has taken it as an individuality that can independently think regardless of the powers of the heavens, can enjoy life and express their feelings and thoughts full. But as everything, this also led to the growth of the negative state because humanism was taking majority into account only the cultivation of his egos (from a right spiritual point of view), he did not try to restore the long forgotten entry into the inward and to seek God in his heart, on the contrary, he claimed man as a creature that surpasses everything created and uncreated. It played to the later rise of atheism. Do you notice of another split already in such a divided world? Behind the curtain were pulling the threads the actors of the whole act, who, after I have imprisoned them in an unknown location, could not act directly on Zero, only through their representatives as it will be until their second coming.

After the spread of atheism and abuse of Darwin's evolutionary theory, the planned splitting of the world into thousands of pieces was completed, the inhabitants of which did not find a common path to development and unity. Instead, the Pseudo-creators could control their sheep, who did not even believe in false religions, by means of scientific, political, musical, mainstream and other authorities so that of the other still believer half of the population they could finally bind through the pope (who were by the way everyone from hells) and another leaders. This is how we are getting to the present.

As many of you know, the elites with their lords of Nibiru, who will take over the reigns over humankind in a few years, are preparing the greatest scam in his history - the creation of an artificial holographic image of Jesus in the sky which will be seen from all corners of the world. In this way, the believer Christians will be caught in the trap, but also others who will not see through their deception. I repeat that this will happen until after the revibration/relocation the positive part of the earthly people into the 5th dimension of the True Creation, so you, light co-workers, do not have to worry about anything. Only after this event it can for a short time win the negative state in this reality. The holographic image will serve to create a single world religion which unites all existing beliefs under one roof. Concurrently, one of the Pseudo-creators in the human body with the form of Jesus Christ will preach melodious words that will confuse all the strays. His image will be in public spaces, in the media, everywhere, because he will be celebrated as the true God. The false Second Coming of Christ will be accepted by almost everyone, even those from whom the least would be expected. Why? Because Antichrist will solve all the world's problems, both cultural and economic, war, racial, natural and other. The Dark Side with the help of the technological and mental deceive the souls, which will be triumph over the wonders that does the wolf in sheep's clothing with hidden lizard essence in front of the eyes of millions of viewers, plunging into their arms. Please be aware that this will happen only on the basis of external actions, because people with low vibrations do not have the ability to feel by the heart. Negative state works only on the basis of external actions. At the same time, realize that the true Second Coming of the Lord Jesus Christ takes place at all levels since 1957, when I was born this time for the second time in the female body, and will continue until the elimination of the state of evils and untruths. It is a gradual process and does not have much to do with the passage of linear time.

For a moment, a false peace will prevail on the planet, but only in order to calm down the situation. The new order will bring chipping and totality when people become controlled puppets without free will. What happens after God's adversaries arrive cannot be communicated at this time, since no one can accurately know the chronological development qualitatively and quantitatively, in addition it is not the goal of this Message of the Lord Jesus Christ.

In conclusion, I will generally remind you of the current state of the Church. In 2013, Pope Francis, who is the last pope in history, comes to the papal table, after which comes the Antichrist (in the true spiritual sense, the term Antichrist is used for everyone who works with darkness). Francis is gradually preparing the ground for the Pseudo-creators and has the exact tasks assigned to him, so he knows what to do it. It is worth mentioning, for example, the unification of all religions, the promotion of political and economic elites, the recommendation of chips to people for convenience, further then he openly talks about controlled immigration from Muslim countries as a solution, does not despise to condemn the true legacy of the Messiah (see the comparison of Jesus to the Islamic state) and his original teachings. In the coming years, such statements will come not only from the pope, but from most top politicians serving the dark side, because she does not try already for a long time to hide from sleeping citizens, but on the contrary, they is revealing more and more plans for the ultimate enslavement of humankind, which is also related to the revelation of the vicious nature of the negative state that will be revealed during its elimination at the end of this shortened cycle of time.

Maybe you were waiting that I will be talking more in detail about individual religions, beliefs, sects, cults, doctrines, etc. in this part of the Messages, but here more than elsewhere applies that by the task of this portion of God's word was not and even will not go into detail too much so that everyone can make their own picture and preview on the negative state theater. You can find more than enough of true information, just choose and come to them by intuition, thanks this you do not have to worry that you would cease to orient yourself in the complex events of the world and and eventually lost in them. Everyone reads information tailored to him, seeds of truth are sown into him which will sooner or later germinate. Not everyone, in your soul, keeps the earth fertile and mild, but even the driest individual who is unable to accept even the most basic level of vital information will be swamped by the Love of the Lord Jesus Christ, thanks to which the seeds germinate at the right time.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

21. Humankind is separated from Me, God, the Lord Jesus Christ and from others in Creation, lives in isolation due to experiment and its choices

This theme connects all the books, chapters, and texts of both portion of the New Revelations of the Lord Jesus Christ as well as another holy word that I dictate to selected highly developed beings in the bodies. I have provided (and still provide) the all-comprehensive multiversal God's word to all relative beings in Creation so that in the right time everyone can get to learn the circumstances of past, present and future life. There it could be many more be written, but the most important of them was already revealed through Peter D. Francuch, who performed his mission here to 100%, wrote hundreds of pages of the highest truth due to the handover of which he was here. In this communication, I will not repeat what is right written in somewhere else, but I will focus more on the structure of a separate humankind that lives in isolation from everything and everyone like a torn and gradually withering flower in a vase that does not even get that water.

Activation of the negative state was a very complex process at the end of which the final product was arisen - the true human life, which with its unusual and dangerous activities outweighs everything what has ever been and will exist. Earthmen from the time of the caveman, when the last era of mankind began, represent the results and consequences what it is to live without Me and spiritual laws. Thanks to the live illustration which, after the current cycle of time, will be stored in the multiversality of the totality (the lake of fire and sulfur) for eternity, all newly created sentient beings, who will have not the experience life in the zone of displacement, will be able to experience thanks to the law of free choice all the possibilities of the state of evils and untruths in this "virtual" archive under My protection to separate the idea of breaking God's laws out of their minds and this state of being did not choose like the only true. By entering into the archive, everyone will entail the chance to choose the once saved path of the individual who experienced the negative state personally. The chosen path will eventually be lived through as it was at the time of the populated zone of displacement. To all of this, I want to say that your experienced pain, misery and all suffering serve the highest goal, good, benefit and life of Multiverse. Without you, who have been incarnated out of love from the positive state into hells and especially on the planet Zero, could not fully flourish in the new cycle of time the reality of the new quality of the fullness of the true life of the positive state. No one will ever be able to imagine what the unbelievable splendor is ready for you. I repeat that this completely new kind of life, released from the New Nature of the Lord Jesus Christ, has never lived since the beginning of Creation.

Many of My closest co-workers complain every day that they have to drag that heavy cross, claiming that they need not be here anymore, and that they suffer even for you who cause all this. Thanks to the system of control, imperfect bodies and the "matrix" reality, people from higher dimensions tend to blame Me, Absolute and Perfect God, for their miseries, problems, falls and everything else. I have already spoken of this paradox, but I will return to it again in more places. First of all, it is good to be aware at any moment of the fact that I, earlier the Most High, now, the Lord Jesus Christ, do not stand behind the origin of the negative state, I do not approve of it, but I tolerate it only, and from My unconditional mercy, I undergo a long process of ascending from the swamp of the anti-universe into the True Creation with you for the second time already. You may argue that as the absolute one I could have provide an existential question of life without God immediately, at one point, without the presence of everything for which this theater is taking place. I could not. Do not you understand that I myself are abiding My own spiritual laws? There are many reasons for this, out of which I list the main ones. I could not answer the question from My absolute position, because:

- In the absolute state of absolute good, love and all positive elements, the elements of the negative state were not and never will not be present, so there is no answer to this question in God's totality, which does not contain it.

- According to the law of free choice, the asking beings, later activators of evils and untruths, had to answer themselves, experimentally and completely freely and after their, no one else could do it for them, not even the Most High. The answer was completely unknown, so there was an agreement between Me and later Pseudo-creators, which included, among other things, that they would respond themselves to it. Only those who have so decided themselves to reject love will be under their domain; steps will be taken to eliminate evils and untruths and the negative state will not go beyond one cycle of time.

- Otherwise, if I did not give free choice to the Pseudo-creators to can leave the heavens and answer by their steps to a important question, the Multiverse would be over.

None of the zone of displacement, which is now inhabited by sentient forms of life, I did not contain, nor could I direct its development to the benefit of the positive state before My first incarnation into the body of Jesus Christ, because it was not under My government. Only after the crucifixion and My entry into hells, where I captured the Pseudo-Creator and gained much experience with this dead life, I have cleansed the negative elements on elements of true life and incorporated them into the absolute state. By this step, when the merger of Jesus Christ with the Most High occurred, I became the Lord Jesus Christ with a totally New Nature, through which I could now manage this "multiverse waste bin", to direct its development to the benefit of the whole, to appear to the hellish members in My human form and give them the permanent ability to convert to the positive state. This possibility did not exist until the end of the 1980s (according to earthly criterions). However, this has already been ongoing and is still taking place the Second Coming of the Lord Jesus Christ, which began with My second birth into the female body of Jana Kysliková, with which we will form a couple, God's family on New Earth, and have two children, a girl and a boy, who will also be the direct incarnations of the Lord Jesus Christ in relative form. If I could do otherwise, I would do it, but the path to achieving New Nature was the only way to achieve survival and a gift of salvation for all those involved. I had to go from the outside to the inside, that is, the path of the first incarnation began at the most outside and the most exterior degree of anti-universe - in the natural world of the fabricated reality of the planet Earth/Zero - and ended in the innermost level of hells.

Humankind is separated from Me and from others in Creation in an unusual position between hells and heavens. Only in this unusually abnormal position 0, which is unparalleled, can the possibilities of incarnation from both directions of duality, from both the minus and the plus positions, be realized. You know well that there are beings from lower and higher dimensions among you and also the true human beings, whose souls were created by the sexual intercourse of their parents in a special area of the intermediary (mediating) world. By a mix of sentient and non-sentient life thus clearly shows that the emergence of life is possible even when using non-spiritual principles, when its creators are consciously or unconsciously in a certain mood of arrogance towards the Source of Life. You are in such extreme isolation on Zero that you can not even imagine it. For millions of years, Gaia in the third dimensionality, has been separated from the rest of the surrounding civilizations, and its inhabitants practically can not get out of place because their fabricated bodies have very weak, virtually no abilities. Just a journey into the store takes a lot of time, ideas are very slow in the mass to reach their goals (whatever they are), so they must do a great deal of work, at the same time are fighting with the various challenges and wiles of their surroundings. When they want to visit a place on the opposite end of the globe, they are moving by airplanes that are cumbersome, primitive and backward compared with, for example, the spaceships of the Pleiades. However, the elites have, for a long time, immensely advanced technologies of all kinds from the extraterrestrial entities of the anti-universe with whom shadow government has been working for decades. For a "reward", the secret government gives these entities the permission to hijack citizens in their UFOs, where they are subjected to painful testing and examination, often get a chip into their body (it do, for example, Reticulians from the constellation Zeta Reticuli and many others). The presence of secret technologies is concerned of course also a means of travel, with their antigravity boats being able to reach the moon and the edge of the solar system in a few tens seconds. To ignorant people are told that only with spacecrafts and probes can be travel by space for the time being. As I just said, nothing is further from the truth. Selected insiders move not only by spaceships but even multidimensional gates almost anywhere in the anti-universe, which is a thing previously revealed already.

The environmental conditions of human beings supporting life are very limited and the environment as well. Their bodies must breathe air with a ratio of oxygen 21% and nitrogen 78% and one percent of rare gases. As the air ratio begins to change, the brain no longer has the driving force for its functioning and the body breaks down, after which then it can even die. It can, of course, die easily and quickly also otherwise if the conditions change. The body of earthly creatures needs optimal temperature, pressure, air, also requires regular care with frequent discharge of dirt, produces waste materials, must be nourished by regular drinking regime and appropriate food. If something of the lack, it once again languishes. It can also be taken ill in a variety of ways, which be suited to a system that makes up new illnesses while also providing chemical drugs for their healing, which in the vast majority cause to the patient the supply of poisonous and dangerous substances into the body to he become even more ill and better controllable over time. This is just a narrow spectrum of the consequences of life in separation from Me and others which the inhabitants of higher dimensions do not know at all. In this dangerous and perverse way of life, the inhabitants of the zone of displacement live, all from free choice, majority unconsciously, believing that this is the only right and possible lifestyle. Earthmen also consider this life as the only possible one, mostly they do not allow themselves life anywhere else at all, believe only in pseudo-science and its research results. If they perhaps should be able to believe in something spiritual, they demand concrete and tangible evidence. To this, those who stay on after the division of humankind in this reality, swallow the bait, because "Project Blue Beam" creates in the sky a holographic image of Jesus with a sound background. Almost everyone will accept a false image like his own and then will blindly obey the orders of false messiahs and gods, Pseudo-creators.

This aberrant cosmic position of the planet Zero is allowed for the purpose of final demonstration the negative state in its short pseudo-victory. I remind you that it was only activated here and will be also finished. Whoever did not read the first portion of the New Revelation can not understand these serious spiritual things. When the whole dramatic event is over, they all heave a sigh of relief. New aspects of cognition will come, just then the interconnection of all dimensions will take place, and permanent spiritual bridges will be created between them and its inhabitants. There will be no isolation, separation, segregation and division, but the shared beauty of life sharing, continuity, interconnection and unity.

Now, let us briefly outline the main points of functioning of the pseudo-system of the negative state to the inhabitants of the anti-universe:

- 1) The evil beings are built in so that during their incarnations collect more and more variations of evils, thus incorporating in themselves a new degree of negativity, which is manifested by the fact that after innumerable incarnations in different regions of the planets in the anti-universe, they are able to cross to the next level hells, which is even more distant from the positive state. When these beings entering the higher dimension of the zone of displacement, they rise from the perspective of the Pseudo-creator domain, descending downward from the point of view of the True Creation. But let remind again: Every creature that has fallen into the zone of displacement now has all the means and ultimately also the support of the Lord Jesus Christ to convert over time into the zone of placement. In fact, even those who take pleasure themselves at first sight in life in misery are in a state of constant fear and uncertainty, running away before My all-pervading love, thanks to which they survive. But why run away from Love and hide from Me when I am an integral part of them? At activation of the negative state, there are different madness in existence and being. Even the worst beings have the possibility to change themselves. This is an absolutely valid law for this time cycle.

2) Many entities are allowed to incarnate on the planet Zero, the only point of contact between good and evil, where its population in this 3rd dimension is exposed to both negative and positive influences, and there are embodied souls from hells, heavens and true human beings (majority). Beings from the higher dimensions of the anti-universe can be found in top political positions, such as directors of multinational corporations, generals, leaders, billionaires, but at first glance "inconspicuous" individuals with whom you also come into contact every day, though you do not know their origin. Those who originate in the highest dimensions of „the Multiverse waste bin“ are the most secret conspirators who run the world, thus the most influential families of the world, branched into many lodges across the continents, participating in bloody rituals, causing artificial conflicts, printing artificial money, sucking nations economically and otherwise, having on conscience the death of millions of people. In this world, they feel like a fish in the water, unlike angels who often feel right here as foreigners. There is no need to mention specific names of families and organizations on our sites which are behind all this, because the one who seeks, finds.

3) The situation is completely different for those who have origin in the positive state of Multiverse but have turned away themselves from My unconditional love by their own actions, attitudes, ideas and choices. Before they were incarnated here from the free choice to help in the transformation at an important time of ascension, they were acquainted with the conditions of their earth mission and the risks that include life in hostile territory, knowing that they would always have a helping hand and leadership, but thanks to selection will face the risk that they may fall into the zone of displacement. Those who transform themselves into a being which has turned away from true spiritual principles, after the death of the physical body, newly live pseudo-life in hells. Unfortunately, this kind of beings suffers most because they recall memories of the life in heaven which they have lost, and now they are faced with their consequences in an environment that does not match their original preferences. Fortunately, the Zone of Displacement is not in active mode forever, so I repeat for a number of years that the suffering of anyone, as well as along with the end of the experiment, is approaching its end, although it may seem like eternity from the point of view of the linear flow of time. It is still to be noted that because of the pressures of the other side and the ego bombarded by the control programs, the closest co-workers of the Lord Jesus Christ have the tendency to accuse Me directly from the state of their life problems, but just that is on the contrary. Everyone is the creator of his happiness and misfortune. Whoever asks eternal parents everything and everyone for help will be deprived of lack and problems in all aspects.

4) True human beings, on the basis of their life, take either hells or True Creation, depending on what they had thoughts and attitudes during their time on the Zero, whether they were inspired by positive patterns or not. Like everything, even their departure to the spiritual world is based on vibrations and preferences.

In conclusion, I will give you some information about the action of God's mission, I will express myself to the spiritual truth and I will remind the unsatisfactoriness of being in isolation.

The reason why the dark side does not want to "advertise" to My closest co-workers of our Team of God's family on Earth/Zero is that if we were to reach out to the media, the highest degree of truth would have gradually spread from Me to all corners of the world and it would enter into the subconscious of the vast majority of the planetary population. None of the low entities would be able to prevent the spread of God's word, which would be beneficial and freely expand across all of the continents. If it really should happen, the experiment with dead life would soon be over and everything what was experienced in the current time cycle would be useless indeed. Therefore, until the very division of humankind, the earthly and extraterrestrial elites will play dead beetles so that the experience of God's mission and the second direct incarnation of the Lord Jesus Christ may have known as few as possible number of people. It will eventually remove even our light link. The rulers of the zone of displacement, on the other hand, present and will present the religious authorities, self-appointed spiritual leaders, gurus and other similarly oriented people coming from hells, even on public spaces so that to dispel even the smallest grain of truth from the true God from the hearts of all. Their efforts to disturb My plan on the evacuation a part of humanity into True Creation is manifested at the other end of the spectrum so that in a few cases they actually present, for example, some real lightworkers in the media, but only for the purpose of their dishonour, questioning their work and ridicule. As an example from the Czech Republic, I will introduce Kateřina Pondělíčková, who presents herself as the incarnation of Archangel Uriel. The situation is more complex because the direct incarnation of the given archangel is always only one and she is not this, but it is actually part of the multidimensional being of Uriel; in simplified words it is his "lower self." However, she was told that she is directly this highly advanced spiritual person from the 11th dimension. This is because so that she can fulfill her mission more easily and better. Everything happens on the basis of a prior agreement between everyone and Me before you incarnate on this planet. She hands over a lower degree of spiritual truth, according to My plan, to address as many spiritual seekers as possible, who are not yet able to receive the highest degree of truth brought by God's family, of which most of them have no idea. Everyone is interested in information matching with its level and maturity, as everyone goes through life and development differently. It does not matter how many people will know about our presence and the Goddess of Jana, but it only depends on their vibrations of love, which is the only ticket to the 5th dimension. Again, do you have to feel every piece of information with your heart, not with brain, bombarded control programs. Thanks to the false directions, but also because of the mentioned ridicule of My co-workers, there is coming even greater control of the sleeping population, which is governed only by the ego and on the basis by external actions.

Billions of sentient beings still choose pseudo-life in hells, and as they do not understand life without property, money, golden calf in the eternal light of higher dimensions, My co-workers, angels in the bodies do not understand how someone may give precedence, at sight, to the pleasing claws of the negative state, in which people take pleasure and then go there. Nobody in fact can be happy in existence without Me, even if somebody is saying it. When people fully realize that to live without true spiritual love is hell, when they understand that money and all material goods are transient, when they give themselves the truth that to hold in hand worthless pieces of paper broken on dust, it filled them with emptiness, they will finally be able to see the helping hand of the Creator who has always been there for them, but until that moment they ignored him. Just then the negative state ends. And it will be early because the relative source of the state, which is the counterpart to Love, is already running dry. The necessary short victory of darkness above the light will be a quick process, I will make even quicker the end to this to celebrate the end of the tribulation, misery and suffering. Separation and isolation is in fact just an illusion, because we all are one. And that's all about it.

22. Several additions to the Last Judgement

Most of humanity chooses to be negative because of its free choice because it has not yet recognized the nature of the negative state that will be revealed in its pseudo-victory on this planet Earth/Zero in the 3rd dimension. When the members of the zone of displacement get to know the consequences and results of all their evil choices that have been carried out against the spiritual laws and principles of the love of the Lord Jesus Christ, they will conclude themselves that their state of darkness, anger, hatred, ignorance, selfishness, separation, madness, blindness, control and all other elements of the anti-universe, is completely absurd for their further being without a justification for its further duration. This state can not be permanently deactivated and abolished before be answered question that activated it: What would life look like if it were to derive from a different than the absolute state of the Creator of Everything and Everyone?

Getting of the instruction of whole Multiverse on this issue is a very serious and essential thing, because all the inhabitants of True Creation will get the answer, and to all of the inhabitants of hells will, at the same time, exhaust the motivation to continue in their dead life. Then the present form of evils and untruths will disappear from these sentient entities and will be inducted to a neutral state where the Last Judgment will be proclaimed over them, i.e. a personal appreciation of their present life. Because this judgment will take place on a global scale, it will concern every degree, level, dimension, world, and state of mind both in the Zone of Displacement (which will subsequently be deactivated) and in True Creation, which in the next cycle of time will experience the qualities of true life without limitations, thereby activating such a mode of being and existence which could never be released from the absolute state. At the Last Judgment, the New Nature of the Lord Jesus Christ, God's family, as well as the quality of the above-mentioned true life of the positive state, will be introduced. On the other hand, before all the memories of the members of the hellish society are withdrawn from their minds into the multiversality of totality (the lake of fire and sulfur), it will project to them at one point all the experiences and adventures which have been lived through from the first point of activation of the negative state to the point of its deactivation itself. In the conditions of neutrality on our own they get to know that life in love is fulfillment, harmony, light, beauty, freedom and almost limitless possibilities, security, kindred, velvet tenderness and amazement in the creation of new universes on which everyone will participate. On the basis of balance and comparison, it will also be presented to them the true essence of evils and untruths that entails stagnation, immobility, disharmony, darkness, ugliness, indifference, oppression, limited possibilities, danger, rivalry, rudeness and death.

At the end of this cycle of time, everybody will be placed in a situation which can be outlined, for example, as if on an inhospitable desert (symbolizing the elements of the negative state) moves from last of his strength, haggard, infatuated and hungry human (that is, all serving the Pseudo-creators, incl. themselves). Suddenly before him appears the Lord Jesus Christ offers change, the gift of liberation and salvation, with rebirth in the worlds of the heavenly company. The lord Jesus Christ offers the juicy apple out of pure love, which not only satisfy, but also to save him. Who, even with an open consciousness, will still be unwaveringly blinded by that, to what he has served for ages, he will prefer to feed himself with sand, so he will adopt the negative state, believing that his trillions of grains found all over are a better way to defeat hunger than one little apple of pure love offered by the absolute Creator of Everything and Everyone. However, the dry grains of evils and untruths contradict to the survival of an individual rejecting the divine apple because there is no love, nutrient element and energy in them. As a result, his eternal life will be taken away and will turn into nothingness. Do not forget that no one is asked to vote blindly.

23. The revealed truth of God's Word

The highest and absolute truth is only one and dwells in the absolute state of the Lord Jesus Christ. The Creator gives us in our hands the valuable spiritual information we should work with. They are to help us in our own spiritual growth and general wellbeing for the whole. Then there is a second type of information intended for His/Her closest co-workers in the bodies who perform the multiversally important mission on whose successful execution depends the smooth course of transformation of humanity and planet Earth into the 5th dimension of the positive state of True Creation. The truth, however, has more degrees and angles, and adapts to each of us individually to can grasp it into our hands, with this point of reflection to bounce into our inward, and then intimately it further with the Lord Jesus Christ to develop and build its other floors. Entering into the inward means to let you intuitively lead. Each of the closest co-workers of God's family uses this gift more or less and puts it into practice. There is, therefore, no absence to enter into inward, because if that were the case, there could be no absorption of the difficult spiritual tests to which all those who are actively and consciously involved in God's mission are exposed up to now.

The truth is dynamic and changing, not stagnant. This means that if it was revealed to you something spiritually very important in an external way through a third person, you can never rely on filling this information at a pre-announced time. Take into account that time is linear and from the point of view the absolute does not exist. However, the Lord Jesus Christ, due to his own followed cosmic laws, has the right to communicate this modified information in order to provide the basis for the realization of these thoughts even in matter, in a time that will be exactly harmonize by its circumstances and correlations to its final external manifestation. It is called the truth at another time. Because it works upon us limited perception of space-time reality, many may argue that God's word can be false and misleading, leading only to difficulties and problems. Nothing is further from the truth. God's word is always true and pure in the ultimate sense of the word, only its manifestation and realization can come in different linear time. The reality is such that "the truth at another time" leads to the conclusion and resolution of many problems caused by the negative state, while at the same time overcoming the individual spiritual goals that serve as a springboard for further steps of life growth, at the end of which it will happen what the lyrics of God's word have already foretold to the most faithful co-workers of God's family.

The most important point of this collection of information is the opening of the Spiritual center of God's family near Prague, where some of the first line of this Mission will soon be moved to together with others, who will regularly be meet with us, fulfilled their unique and unrepeatable mission under the appropriate conditions, stable vibrations and sufficiency at all levels. On this reality, all participating are being prepared gradually so that harmonize themselves with God's plan and to shake off more quickly the deposits of evils, untruths, falsities and connect even more effectively with their higher Self and the Lord Jesus Christ, they have demonstrated the mastery of all the necessary tests after which relief and deliverance come. The truth has to be given step by step. Once it is bridged, it is replaced by the truth corresponding to the new achieved degree of the individual. It is precisely thanks to the free choice of changes and resulting therefrom consequences and results, it is not possible to bind and rely on time data relating to pre-announced predictions and events that have not yet occurred at this stage. However, these revelations and truths in another time (but which ultimately become a tangible reality) correspond to the present spiritual state, the needs and readiness of those to whom these aspects of truth are communicated. If everyone knew at one and the same moment everything that awaits him, whether unpleasant (is it relevant to the passing negative state and life in him) or pleasant (is it relevant to the eternal enduring positive state and life in him), it would be denied the principle of very relative sentient of life and it would be extinct.

Your minds and souls continue to purge and go into the process of long-awaited changes at the physical level. Once cleaned up enough, a quantum leap forward will take place. So far it has been spiritually and mentally. Keep in mind that we are constantly approaching to the common meeting and the dream goal which will start for the next phase of our lives, when we will be able to do for what we were created for. We are closer and closer every step and the fact remains that everyone can do it without harm. Change does not leave you waiting long. Remember that this process is driven by the absolute and does not matter to the human circumstances of the earth system. The next point of transcendence we go to brings joy, abundance and love. The Spiritual center of God's family and Bifrost is already ready for its use. No one will remain in the current place and position because the positive state is a constant change and flow. So let God's plan flow freely so that it can be unmolested showed. Changes will come and no one will wait longer than needed.

24. Revibration the family to the 5th dimension or how the media is lying to us

These days, the Czech Internet media reported a sudden disappearance of a four-member family from Nový Jičín. The official media reported the outcome of a police investigation, which showed that the father had signed off children from the nursery and that their mother had canceled the shifts in work for one month. This brief and devoid of facts notice was published by some Internet servers, such as Novinky or iDnes.

The article contained a family photograph and the registration plate of their vehicle. But both were removed after several hours, and the auto-portraits were replaced by a police car. This happened in connection with the publication of a new follow-up article that came out on the same day, i.e. 12 April evening, about detection and finding this "disappeared" family. From a few lines, we read that after the police call appeal was issued, several witnesses from across the country heard the mother and father were found and summoned for questioning. But no one could know exactly what important things happened in the first sight of the ordinary news. We will tell you the real and objective developments relating to this fundamental event which the media has overturned.

The husband Petr and Nikol Bartoň were a loving couple who brought Natálka and Tomáš to this world. All four members of this quiet and orderly family come from the positive state of True Creation, and have incarnated on this Earth/Zero planet with a specific mission to spread certain elements of good and truth that need to be anchored in earthly reality at this time. The exact content of these missions is known only to Me, the Lord Jesus Christ. But what is important to know is the fact that they lived in maximum consistency with spiritual laws, read the books of the New Revelation brought by Peter D. Francuch and helped it to spread to spiritually prepared people. Because they practiced the ideas of New Revelation in their everyday life and lived under universal cosmic laws, they at all times had everything they needed for mental development and physical survival to meet the purpose here for which they came here. They were in constant intimate contact with their only Creator, they knew My true name and consulted with Me about all possible matters. Because they handed over their existence into God's hands have never been suffered on any page. Although they were by the agents of the positive state being in the enemy's territory of the negative state, it did not have the destructive influence on them which some envoys from heavens are experiencing. Six years ago, Natálka was born to Bartoň, followed in two years by Tomáš. Both of them also have an Angelic origin, just like their parents. These siblings were born here with the mission to show to other children who become slaves this system already since birth, that it is possible to keep your spiritual heart open, and thus resist negative patterns of behavior from an early age. They also came here to gain selected negative experiences during several earthly years.

They lived in a state of knowledge and universal of top view, they were not controlled by the ruling class and its minions, as is the case with the overwhelming majority of the unsuspecting population. With non-encapsulated spirit and soul, they had a highly developed intuition, and when they entering into inward, they received information and advice about anything from Me. The mission of Peter and Nikol was given maximum turns after 2012, when due to the increasing light and the beginning the period without time, which is characteristic for the final stage before the final division of humankind into two directions, they reached on the basis of the perfect timing of the point of personal enlightenment in order to they can execute out and then conclude the key part of the sense of their action here. Details of this can not be the content of this information for many reasons.

After completing that specific part of their mission, they received telepathic information about leaving this reality and revibration to the 5th dimension. A message of leaving the planet Zero can not occur at the immediate moment just before it disappears from 3D, but it must be given enough time to handle the last things in the old life. It is also necessary to harmonize the psyche with the vibrations of the body. It is the vibrations that are gradually increased in accordance with this natural, but for most unsuspecting people, an unusual process. The event sequence before the revibration remains the same for all but differs in detail. I announced this to husbands Bartoň and their children at the end of March, so that they have a few weeks to prepare for the end of the old affairs, as has been said above. But they had known for months ahead that their earthly pilgrimage leads in this rebirth into a new world, well ahead of the main wave of division of humankind which will precede the second coming of Pseudo-creators. During this period, the father signed off the children from the nursery and their mother canceled the shifts in work for one month. This is the only true message about which the media have informed the public. The rest are just misinformation and lies. Day after day I increased the vibrations of their bodies so that the ascension from this reality could run smoothly. It was on the morning of April 9, 2017, when the family was revibrated in a forest near their home. Now they are living in the 5th dimension on the New Earth. They have received a perfect subtle duplicate, which is not limited like these gross bodies, through which they experience full-value and happy being in all aspects. They love you very much and are looking forward to a meeting together when also you move to your new home.

To the ascension of the inhabitants of this planet occurs first in small groups from the turn of 2012. How the planet Nibiru will approach to Earth / Zero, the number of individuals moving on the New Earth will rise in the following years. In the last and main wave of revibration it comes to the ascension of hundreds of thousands or millions of beings in a relatively short time, which will make it obvious even for the spiritually sleeping and blind people, who will not participate for any reason in this process and they stay here with the chip under the skin to display a short, but necessary victory of the negative state. Earthly and extraterrestrial elites are well aware of the upcoming changes, so they do everything they can to prevent them by all possible and impossible ways. Because the dark rulers can not harm the positive people in any way and stop the process itself, they try to influence it at least to the extent necessary. They do it for example by playing "dead beetles". At the same time, they seek to trivialize all the information leading to the reality of ascension, which is getting more and more in the forefront. Due to the distribution of the population into two directions, first to the mental and now no longer even on the physical level, development will indicate that sleeping people do not notice anything until the last possible moment and continue to manipulate, but spiritually awakening and awakened individuals will to make these changes more and more feel and perceive. The elitists know that those who have higher vibrations and widespread consciousness will no longer be influenced by them therefore, in this respect, the rulers are focusing on the second part of the earthmen spectrum, thus the blinded herd of overwhelming majority, which is serving them so that no true messages about revibration have been received. If it get some facts to the surface, they must be captured at the very beginning and twisted into the proper form as the mainstream consumer asks.

The case of the Bartoň family is an exemplary case of what is said here. On the very day in which the "disappearance" of these people appeared in the Internet media, we are you, our co-workers of God's family informed about this by linking to Facebook, and added a thematic quotation from the second portion of the New Revelation, which deals with missing and lost persons. This post has been shared by some of our friends and did not take away as much attention as many might think. Still, this shared link, published along with an important quote pointing to the fact of the evacuation from 3D reality, has caused an immense alarm with agents behind the scenes who are watching our activities closely. E.g. only our Internet activity is monitored by several top secret divisions of the US CIA, NSA and other institutions operating in our territory. On Facebook, we are being watched by Czech censors paid by this multinational company directly from Jacob Greenberg's (Mark Zuckerberg) pocket, David Rockefeller's grandson, assigned to the post of owner of this social network. These censors, like all the other minions of the negative state, do not know what they are doing and do not understand that they harm themselves in particular. You, My first line are under My constant protection, and it can not to you happen anything wrong, as I have said many times. This is one of the reasons why the effort of anyone who tries to disrupt or eliminate us is a futile business.

After publishing an important post with a high degree of truth, the Facebook agent will usually send this "dangerous" content with additional code remarks to the headquarters of one of the secret services to the United States, where it is further sorted into the individual components that are forwarded on. Some information from us, representing a big obstacle for the elites in their overall plan, will only get to the very highest places where they continue to be discussed and resolved. The machinery of the slave system on which this world is built presents a very ingenious web of the power pyramid, where no one (except for a narrow group at its peak) knows everything.

One of these articles, which got to the highest places, was the one about the Bartoň family, which we added with a quote. Just a quote revealing the essence of the problems has caused a stir among Pseudo-creators. It was Allah, the highest of them, who issued a direct injunction to George Soros, to one of his groups involved in the distortion of information from around the world, to take action to sweep the whole case under the rug. In any case, the public did not have know the truth, instead it had to get brief and facts devoid of a report on the finding of the family. The elites responded by return, so on the basis of Soros's endeavor, the order was issued to the lower positions, which ensured that the Czech intelligence sites were given and subsequently expanded to the public's awareness in cooperation with the police a "guaranteed objective" report issued on the same day, that is April 12 evening. E.g. on the Novinky it came only about three hours after the event was linked with the New Revelation quote explaining the nature of their disappearance. In this follow-up media article, readers could read that, after the police call was issued, several witnesses from across the republic came in, the mother and father being found and summoned for questioning. This was not true, but a pure lie, which was supposed to take care in it to nothing is dealt with by the public.

Whoever feels by the heart, finds the truth. To believe to the official media and let manipulate is a way deeper into the slavery of the negative state, from which the being will often be liberated after another many incarnations in the natural worlds of the zone of displacement. Everything that happened even in context in this case serves to teach the whole. The Bartoň family helped by their reference in this reality to the manifestation of light and to the final victory of the positive state in this anti-universe which comes after the short victory of the darkness in this reality. Now they continue in their mission on the New Earth and prepare with the other ascended beings from the Old Earth in cooperation with Me the background for the new arrivals. You, who are still living in these bodies, have all the prerequisites for successful completion of the work started. It will not take long when the time comes the revibration also for you. For everyone who moves to the 5th dimension, I have a "tailored room". Only I, the Lord Jesus Christ, know all the desires of your heart which will be fulfilled. Soon all, in happiness and joy, we will meet in paradise on earth, and we will go on, in the longing to discover endless variations of true life.
