MESSAGE 1

BE GRATEFUL THAT YOU LIVE IN THE TIME OF TRANSFORMATION ON THIS PLANET

My beloved on planet Zero…

Be grateful that you have made it here to this planet in this time of transformation, where the separation of the wheat from the chaff is taking place; in other words, the division into two fundamental directions: the positive (the minority of humanity) and the negative (the majority of humanity). You live in order to fulfill your mission, which most of you are carrying out unconsciously. But in that way, everything is in order. You agreed to accept this task on Zero; you are here out of your own free will, and you possess all the means for successfully managing it.

Many of you do not realize that every second of this time holds multiversal significance. In future cycles of time, beings who did not have the honor of being present in the negative state—let alone during the revolutionary time of transformation, when there remain only a few physical years until the division of humanity—will learn from you. You are truly honored to exist at this very moment. You hold a privileged right shared currently by only about 7.4 billion incarnated people in the world.

And to top it all off, no one after you will ever have this right to be on Zero, where the positive and negative states influence each other within one space. Why? As I have already communicated, in a few years, the workers of light will be withdrawn, and therefore the negative state will prevail. This means that in just a short moment (even from the perspective of the passage of linear time), one component of this experiment will come to an end. By this, bear in mind the end of the mixing of light and darkness on planet Zero.

The further conclusion of the final component of the experiment will take place during the elimination of the negative state, when everyone, without exception, will be answered the question: What would life look like without God and His/Her spiritual laws? You can learn more in The New Revelation of The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family at www.bozirodina.cz. The highest degree of truth is presented in it, so I recommend that you read it, if you have not already done so. No one is forcing anyone into anything; you always have the choice to serve either the light… or the darkness. From this, the consequences for the further destiny of your soul are derived. Remember, only with the light will you be free.

I love everyone without exception.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

MESSAGE 2

SEEK ONLY WHAT UNITES YOU WITH OTHERS

My beloved children in human bodies…

Find the strength and courage within yourselves and prove that you are capable of loving every human being without exception. You cannot fight the negative state with violence and hatred, as doing so only supplies energy to what you are fighting against.

Look for the divine spark within every being. Even the most wicked souls are merely doing what they themselves know how to do. I ask you to send them love. I am not asking you to approve of their actions, but to have them logged, for they too serve the whole and display what life would look like without God and His/Her spiritual laws. Look at them and behold their divine essence, which is temporarily perverted and inverted. They, too, are a "cell" of My body, just the same as you. They do not know that were it not for Me, they would not even exist. But you know it, so love them just as I do, for I, the absolute Creator and Parent of all infinite beings, love everyone without exception.

When you focus on yourselves for a change, I have advice for your life as well. Seek within yourselves and in your environment only what unites you with others, not what divides you. In this significant era, you are here so that the unification of divided humanity occurs, which has been influenced by the forces of the negative state for an exceptionally long time. I am here in a human body, surrounded by high-ranking beings, to rid it of a heavy burden.

Very soon, with My closest co-workers, I will open the Spiritual Center of God's Family in Prague, where I/we will meet with those who desire it. More information will be shared at the right time by My direct incarnation, Jana, so that you too may be brought into the Divine vibrations.

Your Lord Jesus Christ God's Family

MESSAGE 3

THE ONLY CURE FOR EVERYTHING SICK, DEFILED, AND STOLEN FROM TRUE LIFE IS LOVE = HIGHER VIBRATIONS

If you realize this simple formula and begin to live by it, you will also be filled with joy, even under these difficult conditions of planet Zero. You possess temporary bodies provided by My opponents, the Pseudocreators, who devised every conceivable and inconceivable perversion that feeds this dead human life. Upon the activation of the negative state, the principles of True Life were stolen so that, through carrying out their inversion, a life devoid of the Creator's spiritual laws could manifest.

You often complain that you are sick or not feeling well. It happens because these temporary bodily vessels inevitably begin to deteriorate over time. Why? Because they suffer from a lack of Love flowing from the Source of all life—the absolute state of The Lord Jesus Christ. The vast majority of beings within the negative state do not realize that without the Love emanating from the Source, their very existence would be impossible.

It is not just the bodies that suffer, but primarily the souls, which are isolated from the energy of love and mercy. I have previously used the comparison that souls living in the zone of displacement are like plucked flowers that wither away. In contrast to these isolated souls, the inhabitants of the 5th and higher dimensions literally bathe in Love, for it is omnipresent—all around them and directly within them.

The existence of the negative state suffocates you, even though you may not be aware of it. Only with Me can you feel well and at peace, and this also applies to the given law that states: Only with The Lord Jesus Christ can you have eternal life. The life provided by the Pseudocreators is temporary and will not last. You have the freedom of choice as to which life you will embrace: the True or the false?

"Anyone who loves their life will lose it, while anyone who hates their life in this world will keep it for eternal life."

Your Lord Jesus Christ

MESSAGE 4

YOU WILL FIND ME IN YOUR HEART, DEVOID OF FEAR AND SELF-UNDERESTIMATION

This is a universal rule for all human beings on planet Zero and elsewhere in the zone of displacement. I am always present within you—otherwise, no one would live—but it is entirely up to you how private and intimate a relationship you choose to cultivate with Me.

You who read these words are spiritually mature enough to establish a conscious connection with Me and to let yourselves be guided by Me, for no one else knows you absolutely. Only I know what is best for you on your unique life path. I know every cell of your bodies, I see into your heart, and I know the most secret desires of each and every one of you.

If you rid yourselves of fear and self-underestimation, you are well on your way toward the positive state, where its inhabitants eternally draw closer to My perfection—for that is how the game of life is played.

Rule No. 1—you must not fear. You need to realize that everything is perfect; you simply cannot comprehend it within the limited human bodies provided by the Pseudocreators. Fear controls and binds you. The negative elites ruling over this world feed on your fear and want you to be afraid. When you look at everything with a broader perspective, you will agree with Me that being afraid truly makes no sense. Spiritually awakened individuals are never afraid because they know I shield them with absolute protection. Incarnated beings from heaven are here on planet Zero on enemy territory, yet they remain completely safe because they are fulfilling My plan, and I will never allow anything to happen to them.

Rule No. 2—do not undervalue yourselves and do not compare yourselves to others. Do only what your heart and intuition—meaning I, the Creator of everything and everyone, The Lord Jesus Christ—advise you to do. Many of you do not believe in your own abilities and unique originality. If you put yourselves down and artificially diminish your worth, you will not get far on your spiritual path. Accept yourselves as you truly are, stop deceiving yourselves, and stop constantly following others. In every situation, ask yourselves: What would my heart do?

I created an infinity of diverse beings. In the entire wide Creation, you will not find two identical beings, not even two identical snowflakes or blades of grass. I gave everyone the necessary qualities into the cradle so that they would be happy for eternity and could approach the absolute state. I am speaking about the abilities of your spirit and soul, not of the temporary human body, which is fabricated by My adversaries, the Pseudocreators. For those who experience the vibrational shift to the New Earth at the time of the division of humanity, I have prepared perfect fine-material bodies devoid of all ailments.

Once you transition into the higher reality of being and feel that divine splendor for yourselves, you will see that My co-workers and I were right.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

MESSAGE 5

THE FOUNDATION OF TRANSFORMATION AND ASCENSION INTO A HIGHER DIMENSION IS RAISING VIBRATIONS AND EXPANDING CONSCIOUSNESS

Another message to the beloved beings on planet Zero from The Lord Jesus Christ.

"No pain, no gain" applies across the entire Multiverse, for it is only through self-knowledge and self-discovery of the infinite diversities and variations of life that one can ascend the spiritual spiral, eternally drawing closer to The Lord Jesus Christ—meaning Me. Life is change; it never stagnates.

In order for you to be able to smoothly transition into the 5th dimension during the division of humanity, it is necessary to fully manifest your hidden potential and dedicate yourselves to your mission.

The vast majority of you reading these lines are spiritually awakened, and your primary goal is to expand the consciousness of others, not just your own. Share what you already know about the events surrounding the transformation of humanity with your loved ones and friends. Gradually introduce them to the essence of how this world functions, and later guide them onto the spiritual path in your own unique way. Soon, they too will experience a quantum leap in their perception of existence and of themselves.

By introducing others, you raise their vibrations as well as your own, for you are performing a monumental work. Under no circumstances, however, must you force your "truth" upon them, because every human being has a protective system within their DNA, ensuring they only accept spiritual information that is custom-tailored to them. If you were to suddenly reveal the whole truth to a spiritually sleeping individual, it would damage their encapsulated spirit.

If your friends reject your messages regarding matters of the spiritual world, do not worry, for they are not yet ready to embark on the path toward the light. Know that they will agree with you when I reveal Myself to every person on this planet in the form of a gift of mercy, known as The Event/The Warning. At that time, before the division of humanity, they will still have some time left to listen to you and be inspired by positive role models.

If I had not incarnated into this world once again through My direct incarnation, and if a vast number of highly advanced beings were not present here alongside Me, the transformation of what is currently a part—and later the whole—of humanity could not take place. You are Our extended hand, and with humility, I call upon you to assist with the transformation of humanity by your own free will. Because thanks to you, someone like your husband, who is currently spiritually asleep, may enter a higher dimension after the division of humanity.

For every being who has awakened from the illusion of this world thanks to your help, I will reward you with a heavenly reward that will take countless forms. I look forward to the soon shakedown with you, when the interconnection of all beings with Me occurs.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

MESSAGE 6

THE HIGHER VIBRATIONS OF LOVE A BEING HAS, THE MORE THEY HELP OTHERS, THE LESS THEY THINK OF THEIR OWN BENEFIT

Within the hierarchy of Creation, I reside above all else—the absolute Creator, The Lord Jesus Christ, absolutely intelligent, creative, loving, caring, and powerful. Perceive Me correctly as an androgynous being who experiences Myself in the infinite variations of life through you.

New and new self-aware (sentient) beings are constantly emerging, which upon their creation find themselves at the lowest stage of spiritual development, so that they ascend steadily, drawing closer to the absolute state.

I created the first relative beings at a single point, when the physical worlds of the Multiverse did not yet exist. These souls are called God's firstborn, and they stand at the apex of a conceptual pyramid above all others. Furthermore, it must be mentioned that above the pyramid and around it, I expand, since outside of Me, nothing exists, as I am infinite.

To put it in highly simplified language for human beings, I shall explain the next cycle of the creation of beings. Below the firstborn reside successive ranks of inhabitants of the Multiverse. For you, it is important to know that archangels stand between the firstborn and the angels; after the angels, who represent countless other entities of the vast existence, human beings are found on the next "level."

The higher the vibrations of love a being possesses, the more they assist others, and the less they focus on their own self-interest. The most advanced relative entities serve everyone without exception alongside Me. Archangels are actively engaged in the salvation of humanity, serving as the extended hand of the firstborn. Angels and humans form a directly related group family of humanity (this applies only to angels operating within this material universe where humanity is located).

Those of higher rank serve those of lower rank, not the other way around, as is the case in the negative state, where in the hells, the lowest must serve the highest. In any event, all minions of the negative state serve a narrow group of purely negative beings of reptilian origin, whom we call the Pseudocreators. They bind and exploit everyone within their sphere of influence.

You too can recognize the degree to which you are spiritually developed. When you focus on helping others and less on yourselves and the needs of your ego, you are on the right path. Incarnated beings from the positive state from the 5th and higher dimensions (= angels) sacrifice themselves for the still sleeping and controlled humans (= true human creatures + incarnated beings from the negative state). They do this so that not only do they not have to suffer unconsciously, but also the entire Multiverse of the positive state, whose inhabitants are indirectly affected by the negative state. Last but not least, masters and the aforementioned archangels are also present in human bodies to lead—alongside the Creator Lord Jesus Christ, Who is likewise present HERE in a human (this time female) body—a part of humanity into heaven, and later also to conclude this cycle of time, when after the manifestation of life without God by evil people and the Pseudocreators, the question once asked will be answered.

Strive with a good heart to help others, for by doing so, you help yourselves.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

MESSAGE 7

THE TRANSFORMATION OF HUMANITY WOULD NOT BE POSSIBLE WITHOUT THE HELP OF MORE ADVANCED COSMIC CIVILIZATIONS THAT COOPERATE CLOSELY WITH ME, THE LORD JESUS CHRIST

The positive beings engaged in the salvation of humanity within the cosmic space surrounding planet Earth/Zero are collectively known as the cosmic people. I called upon them long ago to monitor the negative activities of humans, who, without the presence of these extraterrestrial brothers and sisters, would have destroyed the entire planet. Had that happened, the question "What would life look like without God?" would remain unanswered. Consequently, this would have led to the self-destruction of the entire Multiverse, as the existence of all beingness depends upon the answering of this question.

We will not list too many specific names of civilizations and their representatives here, because everyone can find information about positive extraterrestrial races on their own—in other words, seek and you shall find. It must be mentioned that the majority of these loving beings, who care for humanity, originate from and make their home within the Pleiades star system. There, across multiple dimensions, many planets orbit these stars, inhabited by diverse beings at various stages of spiritual and technological development. I have asked a large number of volunteers—both men and women—to cooperate, especially from the planet Erra, which is very similar to the New Earth. Selected Errans from the 5th and 7th dimensions of the physical universe are currently participating in a highly critical mission. Millions of cosmic people in hundreds of thousands of starships are stationed around planet Zero in the 3rd dimension to lift a portion of prepared humanity into the 5th dimension in the near future (this applies to those who will not possess high enough vibrations for the so-called ascension, yet do not deserve to live in the fullness of the negative state).

The most prominent representative of the cosmic people is Ashtar Sheran, a part of whose multidimensional being is Ivo A. Benda, thanks to whom many positive cosmic civilizations came to the forefront of interest among Earthlings. He is the author of the well-known website www.vesmirni-lide.cz, which is sometimes condemned by negative or spiritually sleeping people. Ashtar is the commander of the Great Cosmic Fleet and alternates every six months with Ptaah to guard the cosmic space around this planet from evil entities.

They love all people without exception and look forward to the day you display an interest in them as well. For those who possess an open spiritual heart, they can reveal themselves in the sky as bright little stars, or they may take you to a starship and other planets during your sleep.

It is a great honor for them to participate in the transformation of humanity. Their task is by no means easy, but they accept it with love and humility. Very soon, they will breathe a sigh of relief alongside you when the physical division of humanity is finally complete. At that time, they will withdraw from the space of this planet so as not to hinder the necessary, brief victory of the negative state.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

MESSAGE 8

WHOEVER SURRENDERS THEIR POWER TO ANOTHER BECOMES POWERLESS

Allowing oneself to be lulled by the false appearance of this world is unseemly for a human being who wishes to ascend the spiritual spiral for the purpose of freeing themselves from control. You would get nowhere then and remain in one point. If you want to rid yourselves of fear and control, do not follow the established pseudo-system.

By this, I do not mean that you should live in rebellion, but rather that you should submerge yourselves into your interior and be guided by Me. You must free yourselves from the noise of external thoughts and control programs. When you think not with your brain but with your intuition (the spiritual heart), then you will cease to fear anything connected with the survival of life here.

Whoever surrenders their power to another becomes powerless. Your life (both physical and mental) does not depend upon the malice of elites, bankers, politicians, and other positions and institutions that serve the growth of the negative state within the zone of displacement; rather, it depends upon the acceptance of Love and The Lord Jesus Christ, and surrendering into His/Her loving hands.

As the Creator of everything and everyone, I possess all information about anything within the Multiverse. In relation to Me, it appears relative, as it is created and therefore cannot be absolute like Me. I am the only One who provides you with everything necessary for satisfied, eternal development. I am present within every atom, for even the smallest particles are a part of My body. To whom else should you surrender yourselves than to the One who absolutely loves and understands you? You are Me, and I am you. Through this, I share and experience a free life, knowing Myself.

The elites do not care about any of you. They try to squeeze their herd to beat the maximum out of them. Afterward, they literally discard the controlled individual onto the trash heap, just as you discard a squeezed tube of toothpaste. A soul that no longer provides them with energy is usually thrown away into the corresponding part of the zone of displacement (the hells). I know it sounds harsh, but how can such a being enter the zone of placement (heaven) when they have collaborated with the negative state their entire life and even clung to it? How can they be received into Love when they are incapable of perceiving it and refuse to give up fleeting things? No one is condemned to stay within the hells against their will; everyone has a free will to go wherever they choose. Since My first arrival on planet Zero in the body of Jesus Christ, no one is locked within the hells. Furthermore, the members of the anti-universe are offered the omnipresent help of My emissaries who operate there.

Therefore, utilize your own power and energy for your own spiritual growth. Only then can you be truly free, both inwardly and outwardly, no matter who you are in human life. One thing is certain: you are Love, and it is entirely up to you how much of it you are willing to receive and radiate.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

MESSAGE 9

THE TIME OF THE DIVISION OF HUMANITY INTO TWO MAIN DIRECTIONS IS APPROACHING:

1. A PLUNGE INTO THE HELLS TO POSITION -1, ALONG WITH THE REALITY WHERE YOU CURRENTLY LIVE

2. AN ASCENSION INTO THE 5TH DIMENSION OF PLANET EARTH = THE NEW EARTH

The division of humanity on a spiritual level has been intensifying primarily since the beginning of the new millennium. The physical division has already been taking place since the end of 2012, at first in a small number of vibrational shifts of individual groups of people. With the passage of time, year by year, the number of people who leave this reality in this manner is rising. This is because as planet Earth/Zero with all humanity approaches the date of the last wave of the vibrational shift of positive people before the coming of the Pseudocreators, all beings who do not deserve to live in the fullness of the negative state must gradually leave this dimension.

1) A PLUNGE INTO THE HELLS TO POSITION -1, ALONG WITH THE REALITY WHERE YOU CURRENTLY LIVE

I, The Lord Jesus Christ, have My co-workers of light all over the world, with their numbers reaching into the millions. In cooperation with Me and through contact with the positive state, they bear witness to the upcoming changes that affect everyone. Among other things, the purpose of their operation is to warn those who are still unawakened, so they do not have to suffer on a planet that will plunge into the hells.

When humanity is divided on a physical level in the very near future, a sharp drop in the vibrations of all humanity and the body of the planet will occur (applying only to this dimension). The Pseudocreators will arrive here along with other extraterrestrial entities on the planet Nibiru, and one of them will sit on the papal throne, relinquished to him by the final pope, Francis, who is their collaborator. The one who sits on the papal throne will possess the dazzling human form of Jesus Christ. He will also perform miracles and utter wise words. He will be celebrated and exalted as the true God, yet he will be a wolf in sheep's clothing with a reptilian essence. He will resolve all problems and wars, immersing the entire planet in a peace that will lull even deeper the already sleeping people remaining in this reality. A unification of all nations will take place, and a single religion will be established, accepted by all because it will contain what people themselves want. Bear in mind that the Pseudocreators possess abilities and power such as humanity has never known; therefore, reshaping this world according to their ideas within a short time will pose no problem.

At that time, when everything settles into a calm, humanity—in the false interest of peace, unity, safety, brotherhood, and other intrigues—will be chipped, most commonly through the insertion of an RFID chip under the skin. Those who refuse the chip will be chipped in concentration camps (for instance, hundreds of these so-called FEMA camps already exist in the USA, containing hundreds of thousands of black plastic coffins for those who will not collaborate with the system). After being chipped, people will be controlled to a degree of 99.99% and will no longer possess any free will; they will literally become robots. The Pseudocreators will divide the reins of power over the world and the zone of displacement, assuming governance over all aspects of dead life. Omnipresent censorship and the system of the New World Order will oversee everything. A mass extinction of all plant and animal species on land and in the oceans will follow; the air and water will become poisoned, and earthquakes, volcanic activity, tornadoes, storms, gales, and acid rain will be daily occurrences. Due to the contaminated environment on the surface, some will have to seek refuge underground. There will be nowhere left to run.

To top it all off, from this false peace, more and more wars, conflicts, and everything that constitutes the daily routine of the negative state will erupt anew. A new superman-biorobot will be bred, implanted with the greatest possible evils that will emerge from the black heart of the Pseudocreators. The purpose of this army of superhumans will be to attack Creation and the positive state for the total defeat of all its members, and even Me, the absolute God, The Lord Jesus Christ. This enterprise is utterly insane and impossible, because it is impossible to defeat the absolute Creator, from whom Life and Love emanate—the very Love thanks to which the maintainers of the negative state themselves remain alive. Naturally, I will not permit any attack on the positive state either. At that time, the true essence of the negative state will be revealed, which everyone will interpret in their own way. One of its many core realities is that if The Lord Jesus Christ were destroyed, all existence and being would perish, including the negative state and all its members. In simple terms: the negative state cannot be alive without the positive state, which I, as Love, govern.

Everyone, without exception, will receive the answer to the question: "What would life look like without God and His/Her spiritual laws?" At that time, I will eliminate the entire negative state for eternity, because once that question is answered, it will lose any reason to exist and further prolong the agony of all. Every single being will be asked whether they wish to live in the fullness of the positive state—meaning a quality of life that has never been experienced since the beginning of Creation. Those who do not choose to enter the new cycle of time without the negative state will have their eternal life revoked, based on a prior agreement established even before the activation of evils and falsities.

2) AN ASCENSION INTO THE 5TH DIMENSION OF PLANET EARTH = THE NEW EARTH

Paradise and an ascension into heaven (into the higher dimensions of the Multiverse) await those who carry Love within their hearts, draw inspiration from positive role models, do not support the development of the negative state, and do not wish to remain within this reality after the division of humanity. Once again, I will give everyone, without exception, a choice as to where they wish to go during this time of change. My mercy and love for you are infinite; therefore, I will reveal Myself to everyone during The Event/The Warning, where you will experience direct contact with Me. Those who have not accepted Me until then, but accept Me at that moment, I will liberate as well.

When you experience the vibrational shift, most frequently to the New Earth in the 5th dimension, you will see the immense beauty of everything and everyone, you will feel the Divine love, and you will be continuously connected with Me, the loving eternal Parent. Your life will become highly pleasant, fulfilled, and harmonious. You will experience no limitations whatsoever. Within this perfect environment, nothing negative that you know from human life on planet Zero will be present. Everyone will perceive paradise on Earth differently, and human words cannot describe the splendor that awaits those of you who embark on the path of light. As you ascend the spiritual spiral of evolution, you will gain abilities beyond your wildest dreams. Telepathy will be a matter of course from the very beginning, and you will soon master teleportation as well. Your multidimensional being will live many lives in different places across the universe simultaneously—and you will perceive all these lives at once. As you travel through the universe, you will discover new civilizations and previously unknown beings. Not only on the New Earth, but anywhere within Creation, I will provide you with the opportunity to live in an environment that suits your preferences.

Meanwhile, from the front row, you will watch the pseudo-victory of the negative state within the reality of the planet you previously departed from. No one else before you or after you has had, or will ever have, the opportunity to watch this spectacle live from the front row.

When I liberate all beings who remained within the negative state, you will welcome it with enthusiasm just as they will, for to you it will mean that they will finally meet with you and you will all enter together into a new cycle of time, where there will no longer be the presence of the negative state. Creation was created to live in the fullness of the positive state. With the unanswered question of life without God, it was not possible for Creation to ever live in the history of the Multiverse in the fullness of what I created it for. Fortunately, that time will soon be fulfilled and everyone will live in what they have never experienced before. From then on, no evil will exist for ages of ages, even in a dormant form, as was the case before the activation of the counterpole of Love.

MESSAGE 10

THE OLD TESTAMENT IS NOT FROM ME, THE ONLY CREATOR OF EVERYTHING AND EVERYONE, THE LORD JESUS CHRIST!

Contrary to what some might assume, the Old Testament of the Holy Bible is not from Me, The Lord Jesus Christ! The texts within this part of the Bible are mostly filled with negative deeds, evils, and mistreatment, validated by the constant mood swings of a god who possesses the traits of human creatures who allow themselves to be controlled by programming. Anyone who truly discerns the truth with their heart will recognize the origin of the Old Testament right from the beginning of their reading.

During its initial formation, the words were passed down orally from generation to generation; only later were these thoughts written down on paper into coherent texts. Because the Old Testament was written before I, then The Most High, now by My true name The Lord Jesus Christ, captured the Pseudocreators, all inhabitants of planet Zero and the zone of displacement were under their direct rule and control. Only later did I enter the hells unnoticed into the body of Jesus, where I captured them, separated them from their seats of power, and imprisoned them within an unknown location. At that moment, they lost most of their existing power.

Let us return to the writing of the Old Testament. It has both demonic and angelic origins, yet the whole appears negative. When evil entities (demons) influenced people in those days, they did not require such a complex system of controlling beings through transmitters located on the Moon and elsewhere, as you have today. After all, everything was under the undeniable rule of the Pseudocreators, who could establish any conditions necessary to manifest the negative state! The rulers of evils and falsities knew well that something was being prepared (My first coming), but they did not know exactly what, for no one can see into the absolute mind; however, they suspected that sooner or later, "something" containing the undistorted Word of God would be written. Therefore, from the minds of the Pseudocreators emerged hitherto unknown falsities, creating the concept of a punishing God who demands obedience, sacrifices, subservience, and other things. This God of the Old Testament truly represents the Pseudocreators, who turned themselves into false gods and creators of everything and everyone. Mankind bowed down to them even more from that time onward, for they possessed the "Word of God" from them, but only a few realized it was purely false. From the very beginning, when they displaced themselves into the hells, they wanted the trapped beings to worship them, but they did not want them to know exactly whom they were bowing down to; hence, they assumed many forms and created many false religious teachings, dogmas, and doctrines.

After the evil entities dictated the entire text of the Old Testament to humans, this work was prepared to become an indivisible part of the Bible, where it was to stand right alongside the teachings and life of their opponent—Jesus Christ—meaning next to the New Testament. And so it happened. The vast majority of human beings struggle to distinguish the true Word of God from the satanic one when reading the Bible. Only a very small thousandth of a percent of people in the dense physical bodies of the Pseudocreators understand the meaning of individual passages from the New Testament, which holds a deep spiritual significance. This significance correlates with the coexistence of the negative state alongside the positive one, and all matters connected to the unfolding of events within this cycle of time. The New Testament is written in a spiritual language to prevent it from being contaminated with falsities, and taking its words literally makes no sense. In a comprehensive form and with explanations, the meaning of its passages is clarified in the books of the New Revelation, brought here from Me by Peter Daniel Francuch. Throughout its entire existence, the New Testament has been censored, and thousands of words have been omitted, but its true spiritual meaning could never be twisted or distorted.

I have everything under control, and the plan to lead mankind back to heaven is perfect. When the typical human era within the zone of displacement and elsewhere within Creation comes to an end, the New Testament too will become obsolete and will be replaced by something entirely new, for a new cycle of time will enter into beingness and being. Everything will be completely new, because within God's world, stagnation and clinging to old values are unacceptable.

THE MORE YOU ASCEND THE SPIRITUAL SPIRAL, THE MORE TRUTH YOU ARE CAPABLE OF ACCEPTING

Spiritually sleeping people, who constitute the majority due to the encapsulation of their spirit, are unable to accept even the most basic information about the functioning of the world and the universe, let alone take an interest in the spiritual world. These people are disconnected from communication with Me, and their current degree of control exceeds 95%. They are mostly guided by their own ego and do not perceive through intuition; hence, their perception of Love, which is all around, is at a freezing point. Their god is money, and they replace true love with lust to achieve and promote their own goals. They mock anyone who brings any truth in a spiritual form, because it disrupts their perception of a false world and merely irritates them. For these controlled beings, it simply means that the time for their awakening and procurement from the illusion of this reality has not yet come.

Then there is a second category of individuals who are at the beginning of their spiritual path. For them, a gradual reduction of control by negative entities is occurring. They are capable of accepting the truth only to a small extent, and an individualized approach to spiritual study must be required. Many alternative texts are intended for them, which are often contradictory but share one thing in common: they deny the existence of evil and dark forces, or foolishly claim that good and evil are two compatible concepts, thus implying that evil is also part of the essence of the Creator. They believe that I, The Lord Jesus Christ, govern and maintain this human life on planet Zero, along with its problems and imperfect bodies. Nothing could be further from the truth. I created and endlessly create only the positive state, which manifests elements of the absolute state in a relative form. I repeat that I did not create typical human life or the zone of displacement! Whoever thinks that there is no such thing as Satan (the Pseudocreators) is simply not yet able to accept this fact. For them, alongside N. D. Walsch, I prepared the book Conversations with God (3 volumes) and his other books, which I dictated to him. My plan for their spiritual ascension is perfect; therefore, it is necessary for truth to be present at various levels.

Another broad group of Earthlings on the spiritual path is at an advanced stage of the spiral. These are the ones who have reduced their degree of control below 50% and are accepting further (and this time very fundamental) information. They now learn that good has nothing to do with evil, as evil was not, is not, and never will be a part of God. They perceive well that the functioning of what they live in is unjust and difficult. They successfully perceive the evil around them and do not deny it, but they very often blame God (by whatever name) for permitting it and letting millions of entities suffer. Humanity and everyone in the zone of displacement are separated from God The Lord Jesus Christ and others in Creation due to the experiment and their own choices. I will not state here why what is happening is happening, because everything is explained in detail in both portions of The New Revelation of The Lord Jesus Christ by Peter D. Francuch and My direct incarnation, Jana, on www.bozirodina.cz.

The fourth group of the spiritually awakened is diverse in its study. Their degree of control is drastically decreasing, ranging between 30% and 20%. A connection to Me—meaning to their intuition—is beginning to take place in them. This happens mostly unconsciously, but for many, it occurs consciously as well. It depends upon the plan of the soul how the individual perceives the connection to The Lord Jesus Christ, to the angels, archangels, and other entities of the positive state, such as ascended masters or cosmic people, and others. The form of perceiving the spiritual world also varies. Someone perceives angels constantly, another regularly travels to higher dimensions, and someone else may perceive nothing at all. Again, it depends upon the plan of the soul; it certainly does not depend upon the advancement or origin of the spirit. This group includes a large portion of lightworkers from all over the world who bring the truth to the less awakened, as well as eyewitness testimonies about life outside this world. They are dangerous to the elites, who try to keep everyone in ignorance and lies. I coordinate all co-workers so that the teachings about the coming changes spread to all corners of the world during the time of transformation, and so that billions of seeds are planted in the souls of those who try to listen to them.

The final group of the awakened is capable of permanently receiving the highest degree of truth that can be given to everyone at this time. It is impossible to comprehend or deliver more truth at this time, because none of those who are temporarily incarnated in human bodies provided by the Pseudocreators—additionally equipped with a sophisticated control system in the territory of the negative state—could bear the weight of further truth; they would literally go insane. This also applies to the most advanced beings who have temporarily assumed human form. I repeat that no one is given more than they can bear, and this applies here as well. The level of control remains permanently below 20%. Just for illustration: the female direct incarnation of The Lord Jesus Christ—Jana—is controlled by negative entities at 2%. Those whose intuition leads them to the books of the New Revelation, which contain the highest truth in a comprehensive form that could be transferred to this planet, are capable of accepting the only true name of the Creator of everything and everyone, which is The Lord Jesus Christ. This name has a deep spiritual meaning; it is not a soulless naming. People at the top of the spiral of growth in the final turn reach enlightenment.

The penultimate and final groups are lighthouses in the darkness, transmitters of the Word of God. In order for you to be able to transmit it as well, it is enough just to have Love in your heart, to rid yourselves of prejudices, control, expectations, and excessive negativity. Every day they live according to God's plan and let themselves be guided by Me. They act with purity in their hearts, forcing themselves upon no one, but are here only for those who are ready—meaning they do not cast pearls before swine.

ASCENSION OR THE VIBRATIONAL SHIFT TO A HIGHER DIMENSION OF THE MULTIVERSE, IS LEAVING REALITY WITHOUT THE EXPERIENCE OF THE DEATH OF THE PHYSICAL BODY

Only those who are spiritually evolved enough to leave this reality through the vibrational shift during the division of humanity are able to continue their lives without interruption by physical death. These are souls mostly from the 7th and higher dimensions of the Multiverse who, during their lives of varying lengths, let themselves be inspired by positive models, established contact with Me, radiated light and love into darkness and hatred, and significantly participated in raising the vibrations of humanity and the entire planet, meaning they helped lay the foundations of the path into the higher spheres of the positive state for everyone. For a brief explanation of the process of ascension, we will use again the description that was already mentioned in The New Revelation of The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family, this time enriched with new knowledge. There are multiple variants of relocation into a higher dimension, but this message aims to introduce to human beings the variant without the experience of the death of the body.

An individual who has fulfilled their mission of light to 100% will no longer have a reason to remain in this reality for even a second longer. At the latest in the last wave of the vibrational shift, just before the Second Coming of the Pseudocreators, every lightworker will be liberated from the shackles of this world. When the long-awaited time comes, even the still sleeping people who choose life on a planet that will plunge deeper into the hells will notice the disappearance of tens of thousands of people within a short time. They will no longer even have the desire to think about why this is happening, however, because their level of control will increase to the maximum and they will be assured by the wolf in sheep's clothing (the dark side) that nothing serious is happening and "paradise awaits everyone without exception," which will be the slogan that Satan will preach to all who participate in the final phase of the typical human era. The lowering of the spiritual intelligence of the remaining people is only one of many components of the pseudo-life in the hells into which over two-thirds of humanity will plunge out of free will. This number is only tentative, however, and do not take it as a dogma, for everything changes constantly and no one is predestined to be where they do not want to be. Who will be delivered is known only to Me, the absolute Creator, and no one else, which is understandable. Keep remembering that no one receives 100% truthful information, because that is utterly impossible. If it were to be so, every inhabitant in the zone of displacement would succumb to self-destruction. Only when consciousness is opened to everyone without exception will the entire Creation, even in the zone of placement, be acquainted with everything concerning the essence of the existence of the negative state, and everyone will receive guaranteed truthful information. That will happen at the end of the cycle of time.

Let us return to the vibrational shift itself. This unique event will happen within a relatively short time. First, the individual in question will receive the telepathic information that the time has come to leave this reality. Once more, the activation of the 3rd eye will occur even in someone who never utilized it before. Thanks to this, they will "hear" Me directly without side perceptions that can occasionally occur due to imperfect bodies without a full connection between the ego and the spirit during classical telepathy. When it is communicated to them that the time has come to "pack their bags" and depart to the true home in the 5th dimension, a gradual raising of the vibrations of the body will occur. The message about the departure from planet Zero cannot occur immediately before the actual disappearance from 3D, but a sufficiently long time must be given for settling the last things in the old life and psychically preparing for this wonderful ride. I proceed individually, and just like the Event, the notification about the transition into the new world will be perceived differently by everyone. When I acquaint the individual in question with the situation, it will mean that they have the last week to 14 days of preparation time, which concerns the old as well as the newly coming life. During the transitional period, as has already been said, the vibrations of the gross-material body in which you currently live will be raised day in and day out, and therefore you will feel lighter and much better. The vibrations of your body will align with the vibrations of your soul and spirit. When the process of raising the vibrations of the body is at an end, you will arrive at the point when the true moment to leave this reality occurs. You will begin to vibrate very strongly; light will literally begin to gush from you. The vibration will be caused by the fact that the atoms of which your physical shell is formed will oscillate very quickly. The exact time, place, and circumstances of your vibrational shift are determined only by you. When you are fully prepared and give consent to leave this reality, you will suddenly begin to pleasantly shake and resonate, you will be surrounded by light, and you will feel the oncoming lightness. Your feet will detach from the ground of this reality for the last time, and you will literally float a few centimeters into the air. If you are observed by someone, the surroundings will see you in a bath of white-golden light, and you will gradually disappear from the sight of all living as well as "non-living" things in the 3rd dimensionality; you will literally vanish from this world. Concurrently, when this happens, from your perspective the old world will disappear too. The matter of which you are formed will dissolve in one moment in all directions. At this moment, you will reach the boundary between the frequency bands of 3D and 5D.

After you reach the frequency band, you will relocate through a sort of tunnel of light into the 5th dimension, most frequently to the New Earth. Your new body will, during the decomposition of the matter of the old body, be re-assembled and restructured into a new form on a crystalline basis, which is called a duplicate. This is no longer from the Pseudocreators, but from Me, The Lord Jesus Christ. It is devoid of all imperfections; no elements concerning the negative state are present in it anymore. The entire interior with its organs is unrecognizable compared to the old one. It is not important to state the functioning of the duplicate at this time, but it is worth mentioning that the heart does not have the shape of a strangely shaped muscle, as you have it here, but it has the shape of a heart that you see in depictions. It is the spiritual heart that serves for communication with Me, for establishing loving relationships with everyone, and for many other productive things. I placed it in the middle of the chest.

How can the experience of ascension be described? As a wonderful ride full of excitement, positivity, and light, at the end of which a loving embrace with your beloved brothers and sisters awaits you, along with the infinite cognition of the infinite aspects of life in Creation. After the vibrational shift, a magnificent breath of the spiritual atmosphere of paradise on earth also awaits you. Once you look around and master the new (but otherwise common) abilities of traveling in time and space, perceiving more aspects of your being, etc., you will become honored, advanced persons who had the honor to go through it all. It pays off to "wait" a few years for this experience—that I assure you of; but concurrently, I remind you that you are not to wait with folded hands for things that will come, but rather you are to utilize the remaining time for fulfilling your mission.

TRANSFORMATION IS THE PATH TO HEAVEN, TRANSHUMANISM IS THE PATH TO HELL: TRANSHUMANISM WILL BRING GREATER ENSLAVEMENT, TRANSFORMATION WILL BRING DELIVERANCE

Only through the way of transformation does the path of eternal life lead. You cannot condone the pseudo-benefits of the negative state while simultaneously desiring to enter the positive state—meaning heaven. It is necessary to choose which side you will lean toward.

No one will move anywhere spiritually by external means aimed at improving the quality of life within a manufactured human body, which I did not create. Whoever chooses the path of transhumanism will continuously stumble within the very same place, merely delaying their irreversible destiny, when they will one day finally recognize the true nature of life within the negative state. This will allow them to objectively compare whether it is worth it for them to live in constant abundance, prosperity, and above all, true spirituality in connection with the Source of life.

The elites offer their technological achievements to selected individuals. They promise a more comfortable, easier, and supposedly "better" life if they use means to serve matter, rather than prioritizing work on themselves and growth along the spiritual spiral, which aims to free oneself from the habits of the dead life created by God's opponents. Why is human life considered dead? From the perspective of the 5th and higher dimensions of the Multiverse, this mode of existence indeed appears dead, even though those who experience it (humans) are accustomed to a limited way of living without a connection to their higher self, without communication with beings of light, completely separated from what is natural. Very soon, the beauties of true life will be experienced by those who do not cling to being within matter, which temporarily prevents soaring into freedom.

Transformation is the path to heaven. Whoever does not love fleeting things—such as money, material possessions, elevating oneself over others, exploitation, prioritizing one person over another… and simply the earthly system based on the slogan "divide and conquer"—but instead thinks and acts positively, need not fear that they will have to groan in the New World Order, which is being prepared for the mostly unsuspecting inhabitants of this heavily tried planet. There is no need to list the things that will secure your place in paradise on Earth. As we have stated many times, the only ticket to paradise is vibrations. Everyone bears responsibility only for themselves, and therefore the vibrations of all individuals are an undistorted mirror of the degree of good (or conversely, the degree of evil) that you carry within yourselves.

Transhumanism is the path to hell. Its goal is to use alleged "progress" to eliminate disease and poverty, and to enhance both physical and mental capabilities. Upon their arrival, the Pseudocreators will introduce a massive implementation of transhumanism for those closest to them—meaning for the main lackeys and actors during the brief pseudo-victory of the negative state on planet Zero and elsewhere in the anti-universe. These "enhancements" will not apply to ordinary people who have no idea what is going on here and, blindfolded, walk along the wide paved road to hell, which has such a span that even the blind (in a spiritual sense) cannot encounter any obstacles upon it. Conversely, awakened people ascend the narrow, thorny path to heaven, but they possess what the blind do not—the direct support, guidance, and protection of The Lord Jesus Christ. At the end of their path, I will appropriately reward them with eternal life. The unawakened will also be "rewarded" by the devil in his own way—with a pseudo-life in the intermediate world of the appropriate dimension of the zone of displacement, colloquially speaking, in the Hells.

Transhumanism will bring greater enslavement, which people living under the rule of the Evil One will not notice; on the contrary, they will relish even more the privileges they were able to receive. Their dwellings of the soul will receive enhancements in the form of implants in the body, nanotechnology, enhancements of the genetic code (further manipulation of DNA, a greater embedding of evils into it), the transfer of their personality into virtual reality, the expansion of intelligence, the extension of lifespan, and psychological resilience against surrounding things (which will be abused to prevent the acceptance of true Love). It will also bring telepathy, teleportation, and, of course, the insertion of a chip into the body to increase their level of control to 99.99%. We are listing only a portion of the things concerning the so-called overcoming of human limitations, as there is a wide range of body "enhancements." The privilege of enhancement will not last long and will end upon departure from this dimension into the spiritual world. At that moment, the soul of every evil creature will be stripped to the bone, so that it may feel what it is like to be in the negative state without the promises by which it was so captivated while living on planet Zero. Promises are made to be broken, and entities from the anti-universe are very fond of promising all kinds of things; however, they will break the agreement with the one who signed their soul away to their side shortly thereafter, merely using them to achieve their own goals—in other words, "they sing sweetly when they want to catch the bird."

Transhumanism will also serve to create supermen who will attempt to attack the positive state of the Multiverse. Nothing natural will be present in these entities, because they will differ from human creatures by the fact that even their soul will be artificial, and they will react with a self-destructive explosion upon contact with anything positive. Therefore, this army of bio-robots must be brought outside the dimensional structure of Creation, where all the achievements of the Pseudocreators will fail.

The only natural path is transformation, which is currently taking place and will culminate in your transition into the 5th dimension on the New Earth. Whoever already utilizes the option of having a chip under their skin—for example, to pay for electronic transactions by merely placing their hand—cannot participate in the rapture into the new reality. Nothing, however, compares to the abilities of the fine-material bodies on a crystalline basis within True Creation, because they are created directly by Me, and are therefore perfect. You can learn more information on this topic in The New Revelation of The Lord Jesus Christ God’s Family, in Chapter 24: "The Difference Between Transhumanism and Transformation."

THE EVENT, WHICH I DESCRIBED ALSO UNDER THE NAME "WARNING", IS ANOTHER IMPORTANT "ACCELERATION" OF THE TRANSFORMATION RIGHT AFTER DECEMBER 21, 2012

In Chapter 31 of The New Revelation of The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family, in the year 2015, I shared for the very first time in the history of the Multiverse the truest information to date regarding God's mercy, which I designated under the clarifying term "The Warning." Since that moment, another piece of truth originating directly from the sole Creator has been present, not only among human beings. Furthermore, since the completion of the second portion of the New Revelation, another shift has occurred within the sphere of Creation, aiming for even more intense changes regarding the acceleration of humanity's transformation. The Event, which soon awaits all individuals living on planet Zero, will hold a vitally important value; for it is primarily through it that Earthlings will decide whether to accept Love and Me into their hearts, so they do not have to suffer in the deteriorating conditions on a planet that will plunge deeper into the zone of displacement.

The Messages of The Lord Jesus Christ are intended particularly for our co-workers and followers, who already know for the most part what is going on here, have read at least one of the portions of the New Revelation, and are capable of absorbing further serious information from the spiritual world that further expands their horizons. Therefore, I will not speak here in terms that attempt to generalize the light texts; rather, I will continue to utilize the style and terminology found within its second portion. Even within this message, I will not repeat exactly what has been written, for nothing is ever repeated twice; instead, I will employ the technique of "repetition in a spiral," which is based upon previously revealed truths, occasionally reminding you of them and, above all, supplementing them with new insights.

As you already know, the goal of The Event for the lightworkers will be the reinforcement of their faith in God (under whatever name). Sleeping people, who are mostly true human creatures, will receive direct proof of My existence for the very first time. And agents of the negative state—meaning souls from the hells—will have the unique privilege, in contrast to their counterparts living within the zone of displacement outside of planet Zero, that they too will see Me with their inner sight and will be able to make a swift leap forward into True Creation, literally jumping out of the swamp of evil and falsity into the warm, comforting cotton wool of goodness and beauty. In the opposite case, their hearts will "burst," and they will prefer to continue serving their slave owners, often until the end of the cycle of time. These owners promise them exactly what they want to hear, but here it applies more than anywhere else that promises are made to be broken, as the dark side will sooner or later break them. Only the absolute Lord Jesus Christ promises and guarantees you the most joyful life in heaven—experiences, adventures, and things beyond your wildest dreams. You will be experiencing them already very soon, when you undergo the vibrational shift from this world to where you belong.

The Event has been described by many prophets so that humanity might better prepare for it. However, the vast majority of human creatures do not understand what exactly it signifies. There are also tendencies through which it is distorted and downplayed into a false form. Due to the complexity of the entire situation, I had to allow believers, especially Christians, to receive messages from selected prophets stating that The Warning will arrive almost concurrently with the second coming of The Lord Jesus Christ. I repeat that the second coming has been underway since 1957 through My second incarnation onto this planet—this time into a female body—to initiate the final phase of the end of the negative state within beingness and being. In the absolute, everything takes place simultaneously; only beings living within matter at various stages of development experience the linear flow of time. Therefore, I almost never communicate dates of anything, even through My co-workers, for time is not important. I know you would very much like to know the year and month of this or that point when the external manifestation of the so-called "God's intervention" will occur, but believe Me, it would cause more harm than good. My plan for everyone is utterly perfect; therefore, always accept the things happening within you and around you with humility. I know very well how difficult it is to endure many situations associated with life here, because I experienced them in the body of Jesus and continue to experience them within the body of Jana. Everything unfolds from within outward, as I wrote in the previous portion of the New Revelation with Peter, and the second coming likewise manifests internally first and only afterward externally. That will occur concurrently with the elimination of the negative state at the end of the cycle of time. At that moment, God's mission will be completed. You may notice why God's mission regarding the transformation of humanity will be completed only then? Because even after the division of humanity and the vibrational shift of a part of Earth's population, the God's Family will not end its activity; on the contrary, only then will an undistorted enjoyment and joy begin with its cooperation, when the entire Creation will gradually learn about its important mission. Together with humanity, it will undergo development from the 5th dimension up to the point where everything was located before the Fall.

I will return directly to the topic of The Event. When I reveal Myself to all people without exception, I will guide you through your entire life up to this point; like a tape, you will see your most important life moments, regardless of whether they were good or bad. I will rid everyone for a few minutes of the control of negative entities, so that you may rise above everything and watch the entire spectacle from an undistorted perspective. During 15 minutes (from the perspective of linear time), I will consult with everyone regarding their worries and joys; they will be within a sea of love, and I will embrace him/her. It will be the most intimate, private, and personal dialogue with Me that you have experienced since living on planet Zero. I force no one to follow Me/Us, even after The Warning, but appropriate consequences stem from this choice—consequences that are by no means caused by Me, but by the free will of serving the Pseudocreators.

What will happen more specifically during The Event? It is impossible to communicate everything in detail, yet the time has come for Me to bring it even closer to you. First, at a single moment, the entire sky will light up with a white, non-glaring light. Naturally, this will also occur on the hemisphere where it is night at that time. This radiance will attract the attention of billions of people. At that moment, all components of the dark side will be placed on high alert, as they will briefly lose control over every human being. They will not be able to be permitted even in the slightest to do anything that would disrupt The Event. At one single instant, such a vast amount of pure divine Love will be poured out onto planet Zero that you will only be able to comprehend it when it actually happens. It is no coincidence that you can perceive ever-increasing energy values, such as Bovis energy, on the internet and around you. These values will continuously rise until the very culmination of the division of humanity. Energies are endlessly being sent to your planet from the Central Sun, where the highest consciousness is anchored within this universe. From there, positively charged photons flow into this solar system through the Sun. This continuous increase in energy is intended to accelerate transformation and bring about the spiritual rebirth of a portion of the population, culminating within the aforementioned Event. The elites attempt to block the influx of photons and its elevating vibrations through so-called chemtrails. Everything happens under My supervision, and they are allowed only what is strictly necessary to answer the question of life without God and spiritual laws. Were it not for My presence even in the zone of displacement, it would have disintegrated long ago.

After the sky lights up, the light will descend from the sky to the ground. At that moment, all human bustle, traffic… and movement will come to a halt. Your immortal consciousness will emerge from the gross-material body, where everyone will see Me with their inner sight. Bear in mind that this will unfold within the interior of each of you, and it will be an experience vivid than a dream, yet it will not be captured by any technical means. The perception of The Lord Jesus Christ will vary from individual to individual. Since I am omnipotent, I will assume the form of God that resonates most deeply with each person. To the most advanced beings, the awakened, and Christians, I will usually reveal Myself in the perfect body of Jesus; to members of other religions, I will appear in the forms in which they envision the Creator. Likewise, I will select an appropriate appearance for staunch atheists. Everything is perfect, and there is no need to fear any deficiencies. I am revealing here only a small and limited section of what will happen when your soul meets The Lord Jesus Christ. This is because no one receives 100% information, and also because it is necessary for you to ask yourselves what this experience will actually mean for you, and to look at it as you feel it. There is no need to expand upon further points regarding the face-to-face meeting with Me, for it will vary from individual to individual.

Positive beings will exult with joy, while the hearts of negative ones will tighten, because they will feel regret over the evil they perpetrated. This will happen with those agents of the negative state in whom awakening and turning toward heaven occurs. Those who do not show an interest in converting will stubbornly scratch their fingernails against the wall and rail against Love, but as a consequence of this, this scratching will sound unpleasant only to their ears, because everyone behind that wall (in the positive state) will attend to much more pleasant things and will not even remember their old life anymore. The Warning precedes the vibrational shift of a part of humanity into paradise on earth, so you yourselves will yet be witnesses to how the system that moves the world will behave. The media will distort the divine experience; it will be labeled a delusion and a hallucination, but nothing will confuse you anymore, because until the end of your mission in 3D, you will walk along the illuminated path to heaven without tripping anymore.

By this act, the final countdown to the arrival of the Pseudocreators on planet Zero will commence. It is also a further assurance that your deliverance is near. After the vibrational shift of the last wave of co-workers, the supply of light energy will be stopped. Afterward, the worsening of all areas of life will occur in the reality that will fall into the position of -1. At that time, nothing will prevent the typical human era from playing the last scene in this theater, the curtain pulling down for the last time, and the remaining "actors" behind it being able to choose once more whether they want to live in the positive state.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

MESSAGE 15

CAST AWAY FINALLY FEAR OF ANYTHING AND LET YOURSELVES BE LED BY ME, THE LORD JESUS CHRIST. NO ONE KNOWS, LOVES, AND PROTECTS YOU AS PERFECTLY AS I, YOUR BEST AND MOST DEVOTED FRIEND AND LOVE

A great number of human beings—whether they originate from higher dimensions, are true human creatures, or are souls from the zone of displacement—have a tendency to worry about almost anything. It does not matter whether they fear for their lives, their loved ones, the future, or their soul. Consequently, they tend to plan out their lives to make them as "perfect" as possible, copying those around them who have lived within the established system of the negative state for thousands of years. Fear lowers your vibrations, while planning plays right into the hands of the extraterrestrial entities—the controllers who are in charge of you and govern up to 95% of humanity.

Finally cast away all fear of everything and let yourselves be guided by Me, The Lord Jesus Christ. This can be achieved by ceasing to pay significant attention to things that are part of the established system for earthly living. Information floods you from all sides, leaving you with no time for what is truly vital: letting yourselves be guided by the One who created you. Only then will you open the door wide to true spiritual love, which has very little in common with the love most of you know. The elites are well aware that by engaging intuition (= establishing conscious contact with Me), the level of control is drastically reduced, and a gradual unsealing of the spirit and soul occurs. Until then, they were enclosed within a special casing of energoprotoplasm—the work of the Pseudocreators and other negative entities. Aside from the gradual reduction of control, you rid yourselves of fear within all its forms. You ascend on the spiritual path, and upon reaching a certain point, you are able to rise above it all.

Only a very few beings incarnated within human gross-material vessels have unmediated contact with God. This also applies to a large portion of co-workers of light who may not have a direct connection to the Source of life, yet help guide still less advanced people into the light through an individual path. Therefore, it appears at first glance that almost every teaching regarding spiritual truths is contradictory and at variance with the previous one. However, this is because each of them brings a different degree of truth here. It can be said with certainty that there are as many truths as there are people. Surely you already know that no one receives a 100% level of truth, because as long as you live within the zone of displacement, it is not possible for many reasons. One must proceed with caution when uncovering the truth and not take every piece of information for granted, as there are also insidious and sometimes dangerous "truths" that do not originate from the light. Instead, they come from various people who are either agents of the negative state and know that spreading false rumors aids in the gradual victory of evils on this planet, or from those who mean well but, due to a closed spiritual heart and a lack of connection to Me, are exposed to the influences of the other side. Consequently, various evil entities, who love to pass themselves off as light-bearers when it is merely their pleasing mask, can latch onto them. Misleading texts from the dark side are intended for those who do not perceive through the aforementioned intuition, but with their brain, ego, and eyes. I emphasize that you must judge the truthfulness of texts by discerning with your heart. You will recognize texts from Me and from the beings within heaven by the radiant light and Love present within them; upon reading them, you will feel harmony and resonance—they will literally do your soul good.

No one knows, loves, and protects you as perfectly as I do—your best and most devoted friend and Love. Why, then, surrender yourselves to politicians, bankers, and elites who are controlled by entities of reptilian origin? Do you really want to have anything to do with monsters that deceive you and blind you with various advantages in this short earthly life, only for you to realize at its physical end that what you voluntarily served was unproductive, lacking affection, empathy, and Love? I always have the upper hand even over the Pseudocreators themselves, because no one but Me is absolute. Their power appears as a grain of sand against the abilities of The Lord Jesus Christ; furthermore, the darkness is temporary and, after the question of life without God and spiritual principles is answered, it will be eliminated and abolished forever. You cannot sit on two chairs; you must choose whom you will serve. I announce to everyone that even those who revel in evils live in fear—even the very architects of all suffering. Shrouded in themselves, they fear Love, even though it is precisely Love that sustains them.

By surrendering into the loving embrace of The Lord Jesus Christ, you are constantly protected, strengthened, and loved. I love everyone and everything continuously, but by welcoming God into your heart, you will be able to perceive this loving. Even within this body, manufactured from elements of the 3rd dimension, you will realize the perfect plan and order of the Creator, and you will rekindle a long-lost friendship with your best friend and girlfriend, which is otherwise eternal and never-ending. I perfectly know every atom of all universes and I have understanding for everyone. Converse with Me and dry the tears caused by your separation from the Source of life. Do not expect to hear a voice when you establish contact. God is everywhere and in everything; thus, He is also a part of your thoughts. This is how telepathy manifests, and you will find The Lord Jesus Christ in the silence, not in the noise.

SEXUALITY AND THE SEXUAL RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN A MAN AND A WOMAN, MORE PRECISELY BETWEEN MASCULINITY AND FEMININITY, IS A BASIC PREREQUISITE FOR CO-CREATION IN THE SPIRITUAL, INTERMEDIARY, AND NATURAL WORLDS OF THE MULTIVERSE

Now it is necessary to explain generally how the intimate union of a man and a woman functions within the zone of displacement and True Creation. You can find more regarding this topic in the books of the New Revelation by Peter D. Francuch, but those are intended for advanced students. It is fitting to present this vital area of life in a form of its own for the readers, co-workers, and followers of God's Family on its pages.

The Pseudocreators distorted every area of true life into a dead life; almost nothing of the original remained. They altered the entire structure of the souls and especially the bodies that currently inhabit the zone of displacement. They utilized all kinds of animal genes to assemble the body within which you currently live. However, it took them a great deal of work to achieve their desired result—the earthly human who would manifest their goals and serve them. When experimenting with the development of the manufactured product, the Pseudocreators had to focus most heavily on the sexual sphere. They proceeded cautiously, step by step, so that based on the bodies within the positive state (= duplicates), which are perfect and come from Me, they could copy and corrupt all one-hundred-percent good elements into elements that are ninety-five percent negative, leaving only five percent of the positive aspects. Matters concerning gender and sex suffered the most.

First, it must be emphasized that the sexual organs, as you know them, were not created by The Lord Jesus Christ; rather, they are an exception unique to human bodies within the zone of displacement. The Pseudocreators had to create reproductive organs, but first, they set themselves the task of altering pure sexual energy—which flows from the inside out in duplicates within True Creation—into an energy that would be manifested purely externally, minimally influenced by the inner mind. A disconnection occurred regarding the perceptions that were previously in direct communication between the soul and the body, through which, during intercourse, your counterpart could experience what you were experiencing—and conversely, you could experience what they were experiencing. Therefore, they replaced sexual vibrations with physical matter and "fitted" men with a penis and women with a vagina. Unlike beings within higher dimensions, everything during intercourse among human creatures takes place externally. The creators of the anti-universe were well aware that were it not for Me, the full experience of orgasm that occurs within duplicates would not even exist. Therefore, they restricted its duration solely to the genital area, lasting only a few seconds, and furthermore, it does not happen simultaneously for both partners, but each at a different time—if it occurs at all. For you, sex can also be accompanied by discomfort, and often by aversion or pain. Moreover, human creatures engage intimately in areas located directly adjacent to the excretory organs, which may not always be an obstacle, but from the perspective of beings within the 5th and higher dimensions, this paradox appears highly unnatural, even though people here naturally do not realize it. Why do I speak of a paradox? Would you want to make love with your counterpart within heaven in places where the body normally excrete waste products? Fortunately, nothing of the sort exists there, because the bodies from Me are perfect. I will explain the functioning of duplicates regarding this topic further.

It is necessary for you to understand that God's opponents revel in filth of all kinds, which is why they "fitted" the gross-material body with openings for waste matter. This also applies to the excretory glands you have all over your body. You produce a vast amount of substances that have absolutely nothing to do with the positive state. I will focus on this topic in another message, where I will deal more with the differences between a duplicate and your current physical shell.

Sexuality and the sexual relationship between a man and a woman, more precisely between masculinity and femininity, is a fundamental prerequisite for co-creation in the spiritual, intermediate, and physical worlds of the Multiverse. Were it not for this rule, all life energies would fade and all movement would cease, making it impossible to create anything new. Thanks to this, not only I but also relative beings can create loving ideas, from which self-aware, unique entities can subsequently arise. Duplicates within the 5th dimension are devoid of sexual organs; for women, there is no menstrual cycle, no fertile or infertile periods for either sex, no perverse deviations, no fluctuations or sharp spikes in sexual moods, and no resulting harassment of anyone, as you have it here, along with many other negative influences that need not be detailed further, as you can deduce them yourselves.

The topic of sex was and still is labeled by negative entities within the zone of displacement as something unclean and improper, causing people to feel ashamed, and leading them to categorize it as socially unacceptable. In contrast, the ruling elites produce an endless amount of pornography, which distracts people from the true spiritual connection within the area of the second (sacral) chakra, which has an orange color. Because of this, a mental tension occurs within people, as they have already forgotten what is actually good for them; hence, frequent feelings of guilt or resignation arise, and the strength to fully express emotionality, feelings, and the creativity of life is lacking—this creativity then does not know exactly which path to take, thus stagnating in place. You too were raised to speak as little as possible about the most intimate experience and to "shove" it into a secondary category. But how do you expect to recognize and compare the true nature of how duality functions if you are unable to look at any topic with the same perspective, measure, and weight? The time has come for those who are already prepared to accept new spiritual insights to receive another installment from the wellspring of knowledge, written by the very Source of all life, concerning a topic at which many look through their fingers without any need to do so.

How does sex work in the 5th dimension for human beings? When a man and a woman meet, resonate with each other, and wish to live as a couple, nothing and no one stands in their way. Following many adventures and experiences during the mutual discovery of one’s counterpart, the moment arrives when it is time to know him/her in an all-encompassing mode, through which one partner comes to know the other in the fullness of harmony and the intertwining of souls. The partners press against one another and embrace, initiating a mutual resonance of their souls and the interconnection of the light crystals of their bodies, whose "owners" permeate into the interior of their counterpart. Kissing as such does not exist in the form you know. Since no bodily fluids are present, there is no penetration of saliva through the mouth into the other person, and an intimate kiss is not accompanied by the use of the tongue. This all sounds dry, but I can guarantee you that the kiss is far more wonderful and fulfilling than what you experience in the 3rd dimension. It also occurs by pressing the lips together, yet it does not merely affect a person's external sensations; rather, it consummates the union of bodies and souls to the highest possible maximum. During sex in 5D, all chakras are linked by a strong bond, though the sacral chakra, located in the lower abdomen, naturally assists the most. In all of it, I, The Lord Jesus Christ, from whom everything originates, assist to ensure this act is perfect and complete. The ultimate culmination of making love is the orgasm, which arrives promptly and lasts for a long time afterward. It is not restricted merely to the genital area (which does not exist in True Creation); on the contrary, it permeates both your soul and your partner's soul with a pleasure you have never experienced before. It is literally a heavenly pleasure that cannot be achieved anywhere within the zone of displacement. It sharply raises the vibrations not only of those who made love, but also of the entire surroundings, the planet, and the Multiverse. The orgasm occurs for both simultaneously. To top it all off, throughout the entire time, one partner experiences exactly what the other is feeling, and vice versa.

The entire quality of life improves with a never-ending approach toward the absolute state. You too will one day reach the state of beingness within which the highest spiritual beings reside, allowing you to transcend this condition and continue further within the new cycle. You will become creators of infinity, an integral part of which within the Multiverse is the ever-present sexual energy—the most beautiful celebration of life, love, beauty, goodness… God.

HOW TO SIMPLY DESCRIBE LIFE IN THE 5TH DIMENSION OF TRUE CREATION? AS A DREAM WHICH IS CALLED A UTOPIA WITH YOU ON PLANET ZERO

The New Earth is a different reality of planet Earth/Zero, located within the 5th dimension of the Multiverse of The Lord Jesus Christ. Its surface is vastly different from the surface in this reality, because the 3rd dimension cannot express the beauty of the positive state. 5D is the first step toward the summit where I reside—the Primary Creator of everything and everyone. All journeys begin precisely in this existential plane, and you will find nothing negative here anymore, for there is no room for darkness, but only for light, warmth, and Love.

The entire globe is encircled by a single, undivided continent, washed by two oceans—the northern and the southern. In these oceans, you will find the most fantastic manifestations of non-sentient life in all its forms. All non-sentient entities (animals and plants) live in harmony and telepathic connection not only among themselves but also with humans. You will find millions of new species of fauna and flora there that do not exist on the Old Earth. The world within which you currently find yourselves was manufactured by the Pseudocreators, and in its essence, nothing original remained; thus, even the bodies of fauna and flora do not originate from The Lord Jesus Christ. You may argue that plants and trees are indeed beautiful on the Old Earth—which they truly are—but even those roses, carnations, linden trees, maples, oaks… and all other types of plant life were created by God's opponents. Their beauty on this planet lies in the fact that the Pseudocreators attempted to faithfully mimic the external structure and appearance of the plants found within True Creation. They succeeded in this, yet what you see in nature is a mere reflection of what exists within the 5th dimension. The exterior of fauna and flora among many species may indeed resemble what I created, but on planet Zero, their interior has already been stripped of its positive charge. Consequently, the all-pervading spirituality, colors, brightness, contrast, and, last but not least, the very behavior of non-sentient species of entities are fading away. These are a reflection of the quality of life of sentient entities—meaning humans. Naturally, you will find no negative wildlife in paradise on Earth.

Let us return to the land. Upon it, a whole range of harmonious biomes exists, seamlessly blending into one another. However, seasons as you know them do not alternate here. If you love one of the four seasons of the year, you will find a suitable place where that specific weather pattern is constant. Do you desire a fragrant spring with blossoming trees whose flowers never wither? Or perhaps a radiant summer, where the eternal light of the divine sun is always at hand? Or do you wish for a multicolored, golden-red autumn, light as a gossamer in the wind? Snow lovers will find places with sparkling, piercing snow that is nevertheless warm, because the New Earth operates under different physical laws.

And what about nature—how to describe it? It is like a beautiful dream that is reality within the positive state. Not even the most beautiful places on the Old Earth can compare with the beauties of the New Earth. Meadows of thousands of flowers, forests of all kinds, hundreds of thousands of islands and islets along the coast and far out to sea, atolls, bays, and coves of every variety of endless beaches with fine sand, hills that transition into magnificent snow-capped mountains, which again slope down into valleys with streams and springs of incomparably pure water. Waterfalls further complete the relaxing atmosphere within pristine jungles where everyone can enjoy the greatest privacy. Last but not least, the surface is shaped by plains with grass soft as cotton, caves, canyons, and more. All of this is accompanied by the fragrance of the positive state, pure air, a refreshing temperature around 25 °C, and a gentle sense of being in love with everything around.

You will find no factories here, no roads, cars, landfills, cities, adverse weather, floods, droughts, overcast skies, nor money, corporations, warehouses for economic products, any manipulation, or overcrowded areas… in short, absolutely none of the "pseudo-benefits" of the negative state. On the New Earth, there will be room for everyone who transitions there, for only about 600 million of the most loving people will live here, choosing their place to live based on how the given environment resonates with them. Initially, you will travel using a highly advanced flying saucer (more precisely, an anti-gravity spacecraft) that will transport you by thought not only to any location on the planet but also anywhere else within the universe. Soon your abilities will improve; over time, machines will no longer be necessary, you will travel via teleportation through thought, and you will begin to manifest things and objects according to your desires in the blink of an eye. When you reach an even higher level of the spiritual spiral, you will divide the aspects of your spirit into multiple levels, become a multidimensional being, and discover hidden talents. An amazing, never-ending journey awaits you by the side of your eternally loving parent, Mother and Father in one—The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family, Who will also live physically within a male and female body among the people. People will live either in families, alone, or otherwise, depending on what each person chooses. Everyone will live in constant abundance; both quality and quantity will improve beyond expression. Children are born here too, but in a different manner—within a special biological pouch outside the woman's body. They grow faster, learn to be loving, and from an early age, they are in conscious, direct contact with Me.

I have prepared heaven for those who do not wish to remain within the deteriorating conditions in the fullness of the negative state on this planet, where within the next few years, the New World Order will be implemented under the baton of the controlling elites and the Pseudocreators themselves. The infinite harmonious worlds within the positive state of the Multiverse are prepared for you; it has never been otherwise. Together with their inhabitants, they await the return of the lost sons and daughters. Imagine your own little place, the one you dream up within the mind of your wildest imagination. What would it look like? That is exactly what countless places within the higher dimensions look like, where you will soon relocate if you carry Love within your heart. The purity and harmony of those places will be yours alone. However, if you prefer material things without Love, within a world that will plunge deeper into the zone of displacement, I cannot prevent you from remaining within this reality during the division of humanity. Yet the gate of heaven is open to everyone who accepts Me as their own.

There is no further need to elaborate upon the qualities of life within the positive state here, because in this case, the Word of God is intended merely to outline the wonderful things that await you. The rest of the implications you can deduce for yourselves. It is necessary to lay a foundation so that you can build further spiritual things upon it, and subsequently live them under My guidance. We wrote further information on the topic of life within the zone of placement with My direct incarnation, Jana, in Chapter 14 of The New Revelation of The Lord Jesus Christ God’s Family: "Life in the Positive State." If you wish to live within a perfect world, pack your bags and set out with us into the 5th dimension—not only to the New Earth, but also to other infinitely diverse and equally wonderful planets within many universes.

IN THE MULTIVERSE EVERYTHING IS INTERCONNECTED, IT IS ONE LIVING ORGANISM AND EVERY, EVEN MINUTE PARTICLE INFLUENCES THE WHOLE

Eons ago, when Creation did not yet exist in an active mode, I existed within My original substance of the absolute state without any relative beings. It is a Holy truth that I was not created by anyone or anything, for I am the alpha and omega, the beginning and the end of everything. I exist within the absolute of the 13th dimension, where neither time nor space exists, within the moment of HERE AND NOW. In it, all lines of development of all times and para-times are present from eternity to eternity, exactly as they unfold and do not unfold, because with Me and within Me, everything conceivable and inconceivable is possible. The fact that I have no beginning or end can only be fully comprehended by beings living within the highest dimensions, which most closely approach and resemble God's constructiveness. Therefore, do not worry that you do not comprehend everything; you are bound by time and space, and furthermore, you find yourselves within the anti-universe where, during your stay, you are exposed to the influences of the negative state. Consequently, you have internalized false pseudo-conventions about God and life as such.

If you ask Me for help, you will be able to easily receive the latest Word of God, which begins with the study of many alternative spiritual teachings, leads through further stages of uncovering the truth, and culminates in reading both installments of The New Revelation of The Lord Jesus Christ, along with dedicating your life to the loving Creator. This sequence is general, and every soul's path is unique; therefore, I am now speaking about people from a narrow part of the spectrum. Every sentient entity—including those who possess the worst evil and violent tendencies and reside in the lowest levels of the Hells—will eventually become acquainted with the New Revelation, the crucial Word of God for this cycle of time. I govern everything and possess a perfect plan to lead those who have been caught in the trap of darkness out into freedom. Rest assured that once the true nature of the negative state is revealed, hardly anyone will hesitate to enter the positive state of their own free will, as there will no longer be anything to motivate low entities to live in a state of misery and suffering.

Let us return to the original topic. When I existed from eternity to eternity within My solitude, I could not share My elements of life, love, beauty, goodness, harmony, satisfaction, and many other aspects of the entirety with anyone. Therefore, the process of movement began, in which I released the first ideas from My absolute mind, and they became self-aware beings. This step gave rise to Creation as it is known by beings existing in Love. However, remember that something always precedes something else; thus, absolutely everything presented to people on planet Zero, even in the form of the Word of God, is heavily condensed, generalized, and simplified, because you would be unable to absorb more in a limited reality. Even the preceding steps of creating the existences of the three levels of worlds within the Multiverse do not emerge from nothing. It is a continuous process of precedence without beginning and end. The Firstborn helped and forever help to form the spiritual, intermediate, and physical worlds of Creation. Everyone, including humans, helps to create life, but at their own qualitative and quantitative level. Everything in the Multiverse is interconnected; it is a single living organism, and every particle, no matter how minute, affects the whole. I will return to this point later.

As some of you know, the Firstborn are the spiritual "parents" of those created after them (see The New Revelation of The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family, Chapter 27: "(Re)incarnation"). Within the stage/dimension below them, the newly emerged are again the "parents" of those brought into existence and being after them within the next step, and so it continues endlessly. For the spiritual growth of entities of all kinds, innumerable universes come into being, numbering into infinity. The sum of all universes then gives rise to the term "Multiverse." Imagine a vast desert. When you take a handful of sand, you hold thousands of grains. From My perspective, each grain represents an entire universe with billions of suns, trillions of planets, and quadrillions of sentient and non-sentient beings who shape their lifestyles and generations toward spiritual evolution in accordance with spiritual laws and principles of love. This single universe then consists of 12 dimensions, each differing from the other in all unique aspects and appearances. If you were to count the grains of sand in all the deserts of the world, that number would not even remotely approach the actual number of continuously emerging universes. Yes, it is all that grandiose, but you will experience this magnificence firsthand on your journey through life when you also begin to create on a large scale. This journey begins within the 5th dimension, where a portion of you will relocate based on your vibrations, attitudes, and actions.

As stated in the title of the chapter, everything is a single living organism. The Multiverse consists of life energies emanating from perceiving entities, while I encompass it and watch over everything. Creation is relative to The Lord Jesus Christ; therefore, I transcend everything. This can be interpreted by imagining the entire infinite Multiverse (which is finite relative to the Creator) as a small marble on a table. Surrounding it lies the external world, which at any single moment contains and experiences more things than what occurs within that marble. And this very world is, in a metaphorical sense, the absolute state—Me, The Lord Jesus Christ—with the only difference being that your world is bounded and finite, whereas I reach further and further beyond all boundaries. The surrounding world (the absolute state) thus feeds the marble (the Multiverse), from which it draws potential life experiences to subsequently become reality, experienced through one's own existential freedom. The marble constantly grows, as everything evolves through a never-ending approach toward The Lord Jesus Christ. This is how the relationship between the universe and God could be explained very simply within this era of ongoing transformation.

Everything is visibly and invisibly interconnected, for life appears as a single whole containing both large and small parts, thereby ensuring the flawless functioning of the whole. Let us begin from the lowest elements up to the highest. Although there are smaller and smaller particles beyond atoms, we will establish this as our starting point for better memorization. Gravity holds atoms together. These form all the matter known to you within this universe and several others. Matter forms bodies on many bases (carbon-based within 3D, crystalline within 5D…) for all evolving entities, which means for planets and stars as well. Souls from various stages of development incarnate upon them to acquire a vast amount of experience and perceptions. The higher the vibrational plane, the rarer the matter becomes, so atoms oscillate faster and are more distant from each other. The developmental stages of an entire plane across all physical, intermediate, and spiritual worlds are called dimensions, which are separated from each other within the current cycle of time, but within the next step of Creation, a connection among each of them will already exist, as the negative state will no longer be present. Planets form families within their own solar systems, where the associated star around which they orbit is their "parent," radiating nourishing energy upon its "children." Stars are the most advanced souls among the celestial bodies of solar systems, followed by planets.

Individual suns again form families within clusters, and this continues all the way to the central sun, which is located in the center of each galaxy and nourishes all associated stars and celestial bodies. From it, they pass life energy further along to the planets where sentient and non-sentient life exists, which also utilizes the radiated energy for its own growth. All inhabitants of the given celestial body, along with the fauna and flora, then pass the life force further down into molecules, atoms, and other smaller building blocks currently unknown to you. Even with central galactic suns, development into a larger denominator does not stop, for energy flows into them from elsewhere as well—from the central cosmic sun, around which all galaxies of the given universe rotate. The cosmic sun is the governing body of each universe, a sort of representative of the absolute state within a relative condition, a focal point from which all movement of dimensions within the area of Creation it occupies and manages is derived. It contains a collective of highly advanced beings—creators who keep it running by My authorization. And it is precisely the cosmic sun that I feed directly from My infinite source within the absolute state. I, The Lord Jesus Christ, am the radiant sun of all. My rays of love fall upon everyone in the same boundless measure, for I love each of you just as boundlessly. The most and the least advanced souls occupy the same position relative to Me, because everyone is equal with everyone else. Do you understand now that we are a single living, interconnected organism? There is no separation, and if anyone experiences it, such as the members of the negative state, it is merely illusory and temporary, because even the zone of displacement is a part of Creation within which everyone lives—within this case, only with the difference that there is a lack of Love in the anti-universe. We wrote more regarding the management and laws of the positive state with Peter D. Francuch in the book Four Concepts of the Spiritual Structure of Creation as early as 1982.

It is precisely to the correlation of the negative state toward the whole that I will return in the conclusion. The negative state threatens the whole in a highly dangerous manner. Even before the first incarnation of the then Most High into the zone of displacement within the body of Jesus Christ, this state could equal the positive state, as it prevailed within the anti-universe and began to threaten True Creation. Were it not for The Most High within a human body, who entered the Hells after His crucifixion to subjugate all evils, the entire Multiverse would sooner or later perish under the self-destructive onslaught of evils and falsities. I could never permit that, which is why I intervened. Remember that only I possess all the proper means to save Creation. Now comes an important note: it does not matter what the size or value of a certain place or point occupied within the structure of the Multiverse is. A living proof of this phenomenon is your planet Zero, which illustrates the results and consequences of life without true spiritual principles. It is precisely this grain of sand (in comparison to the whole) that is currently the most important place of this time cycle. Let it be repeated: it is precisely here that beings from both directions of duality meet; it is precisely here that the negative state was conceived, will briefly win, and will also be ended—having been kept alive throughout the entire time of its activation thanks to this seemingly tiny place. So you can see that a single place, planet Earth/Zero, this minute particle, literally affects the entire infinite entirety, for it is the key to ending an entire highly crucial stage of Creation, the value of which you will only be able to comprehend later.

The importance of everything is transferred into you as well—both the importance of your unique and unrepeatable soul and your current earthly life, thanks to which you have the ability to accomplish as much within a short period from the perspective of linear time as you would otherwise—were it not for your presence on planet Zero—manage only over dozens of incarnations within other corners of Creation. Although it is inappropriate to compare almost anything to anything else, this comparison can be used here to remind you of the privilege you possess thanks to earthly life. Therefore, you must not undervalue yourselves, nor elevate yourselves, but be grateful for your originality and the gifts of the spirit, thanks to which you can be yourselves regardless of place, time, and the current position of your unique life journey—this concerns eternal stay within the positive state as well as temporary stay on the edge of the zone of displacement. Everyone is a full-fledged part within the colorful mosaic of the Multiverse, where for eternity we create life side by side within its most beautiful manifestations and substances, pulling together, so to speak. No one can be missing from the mosaic; otherwise, the entire work would be devalued. I look at these colorful images and experience joy and gratitude with you for being exactly who you are, because I am you and you are Me.

MESSAGE 19

THE LAW OF FREE CHOICE IS A CONDITION FOR THE EXISTENCE OF LIFE, BUT IT CANNOT BE UNDERSTOOD AS ABSOLUTE

From the very beginning of the universe, the true spiritual laws of The Lord Jesus Christ, along with the principles of all-encompassing love, have been put into motion. Those who wish to become acquainted with them for the first time may do so especially by reading the first installment of the New Revelation, mainly Chapter 10: "Update, Modification and Redefinition of the Spiritual Laws," as well as in Chapter 24: "The Ten Commandments Revisited." I remind and advise you that this most important book should be read sequentially, and it is not appropriate to skip its parts. These laws are perfect and flawless, although you cannot fully encompass this constructiveness, as with everything in a limited world. Some apply only to this cycle of time, to be restructured and renewed later, while others apply for all eternity. They have nothing to do with the hells' pseudo-laws of your planet, which are binding and from which the average citizen essentially gains nothing, because they are set by negative elites and entities to cause harm, benefiting only the highest in rank (though not spiritually) and the wealthiest, who perpetuate the state of unlove not only on planet Zero and help bring about its brief victory. I have stated before that almost no one navigates earthly laws, regulations, directives, and everything you have here, because they naturally have neither the time, strength, nor desire to study them. This paradox plays directly into the hands of the rulers of their "herd," as they want the disorientation of everyone who comes into contact with their system. Just in case, they devised the law of all laws, which states that ignorance of them is no excuse and will be punished. The negative state literally loves complexities and nonsense, which must be put into practice at any cost and fulfilled to the letter. Beings in the zone of displacement have long since grown accustomed to having to follow them. Even humans can hardly imagine the existence of life without thousands of commandments and prohibitions on what they may and may not do.

Notice how more and more commandments are being approved by transnational institutions, further restricting human freedom and the dignified rights of the individual. This is because the gradual end of the typical human era and the agony of the anti-universe are approaching, but before that, human problems will multiply one last time to unimaginable proportions, which will again be a component of the victory of darkness on planet Zero. Then this experiment will be terminated. I know it sounds harsh, but everything happens based on the free choice and selection of sentient entities. All those concerned agreed that some would voluntarily participate in life within the hells. Before this time cycle, I gave an absolute promise to everyone, stating that separation from Me would not last beyond one time cycle, and I will liberate everyone who remains in the dead life until the end, so they can later return to the point they originally inhabited before deciding with others to directly participate in life without The Lord Jesus Christ.

Everything within the Multiverse happens and unfolds by free choice. This rule applies from eternity to eternity. However, here comes the dilemma and the stumbling block with the negative state. While the Law of Free Choice is a condition for the existence of life, it cannot be understood as absolute, because without the existence of spiritual laws, the entire Creation would be destroyed. It is precisely because of the failure to observe them that the negative state exists, with all its distortions, perversions, depravities, killings, diseases, and overall unnaturalness and strangeness, which can be anything but a likeness of the substance emanating from The Lord Jesus Christ in the positive state. Evil entities fight against the true nature of the Creator of everything and everyone and will not tolerate anything that resembles elements of the True Creation. Therefore, the Pseudocreators devised the exact opposite of the true spiritual laws, yet it was and is constantly necessary to maintain at least a minimum degree of truth even in the many levels of the hells themselves, because thanks to even a tiny bit of God's truth and love, everyone is alive, wherever they may be. Because of this, God's opponents had to leave a 5% opening for the flow of life energies to all who are under their domain. No one can do what is contrary to their essence. The Pseudocreators are also relative; thus, their insane plan to dominate the entire Creation and "unseat God from the throne" cannot succeed. How could it, when I am present in everything (the Multiverse is My "body" and beings are My "cells"), I live within the absolute state, and am therefore not bound by space or time, omnipresent, and almighty, feeding all living things? I will permit only that for which evils and falsities were activated, and that is only to obtain the answer to the so-called question. I do not intervene directly in the development of the zone of displacement, as I Myself observe My own laws of freedom; I only direct its development so that an imbalance against the positive state does not occur. Thanks to love and mercy, I sacrificed Myself for everyone within the two bodies of My direct incarnations and I also send millions of angels from heaven here throughout all of history. Now, within the domain of the "Evil One," I have a large representation that offers a helping hand to all who care to be saved.

I will reveal here a secret relating to the topic. In reality, no one can absolutely violate spiritual laws, not even the Pseudocreators. Were that to be the case, whoever wished to do so would have to be an absolute entity, since how can something relative violate something absolute? From this derives also the fact that if I were to enter the zone of displacement, with all My glory and pomposity in My own fullness of the absolute, everything located within it would evaporate in a fraction of a second. That is utterly impossible. Do you notice the correlation and order of existence and being in the matter regarding absolute versus relative? In the "trash can of the Multiverse," everyone more or less violates the positive order, but never 100%, because that would equal spiritual death, the definitive denial of not only God, but also of oneself. Through this, elimination and one's own annihilation would occur. Therefore, you can also correctly judge that nothing is completely and definitively one-hundred percent, and that is in both directions of duality. Even during the victory of darkness over light here in the 3rd dimension, agents of the positive state will be constantly represented. These will be especially people from the hollow Earth, whose best-known representative is Adama of Telos, but of course also many others whom we will not write about here. When the negative state is brought into its final phase, microchipped people and biorobots will lose free choice completely (by 99.999%). As you now know, a definitive loss of choice would lead to their immediate and total destruction; however, at the right time, I will intervene and put an end to the efforts of the controllers and puppeteers. The aforementioned dilemma and stumbling block of the negative state is therefore, in the final result, the fact that it cannot be capable of independent life even for a moment, since by causing a complete end and the impossibility of free choice for all its inhabitants, it would wipe itself out. It is indeed walking along this path, but in that way, the entire experiment would be thwarted for many reasons. It can be compared to a tree and its apples, which symbolize its inhabitants. They gradually ripen and fall at the end of time. Were it not for My intervention, they would fall to the ground and rot. In that way, they would go to waste. But I will catch them in time, while still in the air during flight (when the possibility of choice is threatened), cleanse them, and let them freely decide whether they would like to be raised up toward the sun and not end up on the ground before a terrible fate. Were it not for this privilege provided by Me, none of those apples (inhabitants) would have any other option of choice than to fall to the ground and rot there. Through this step, another of the essences of pseudo-existence has been revealed in the messages, which I have already revealed in another form in the books of the New Revelation with Peter.

In the end, I will mention how humanity treats free choice just before its final division. Along with the raising of the planet's vibrations, profit-seeking people are even more aggressive, and the already impoverished body of the planet reflects this, so the answer is clear. The elites, under the leadership of their masters, will continue to devastate the natural beauties of Earth/Zero to consummate their work of destruction. It does not matter whether they utilize (abuse) a high-ranking director of a transnational corporation or an "ordinary" person with evil intentions. Forests and rainforests are burning in many places of the world, such as in Indonesia, woodlands are being cut down, toxic waste is being poured into the oceans, and consequently, fauna and flora are dying in the water and on land... The killing of animals and people is a well-organized crime managed by the reptilian entities themselves. Their temporary representatives here are indifferent to everything living, and even to themselves, because individual clans constantly fight for power and want to grab dominance over as many sleeping people as possible. I have everything under control and will not leave those beings who want to live in Love to suffer in the contaminated environment. However, whoever remains here will be unable to see any beauty in all aspects shortly after the division of humanity.

Do not be sad, My beloved co-workers, about the fate that awaits this planet. Always be aware that this will happen only and exclusively in the 3rd dimension of the anti-universe, whereas in the 5th and higher vibrational planes, a breathtaking beauty of harmonious purity and bliss awaits you. You will experience it already very soon, when you undergo the vibrational shift. I brought a part of it closer to you in one of the preceding messages: “How to Simply Describe Life in the 5th Dimension of True Creation? As a Dream That You on Planet Zero Call a Utopia.” Remember that we did not come to save this dying reality with its elements that do not originate from Me, but we came to take the good from it so that it can be transferred to the New Earth, planted there, and could grow in freedom and constantly develop without fear, without weeds threatening it. Until then, please send harmonious vibrations to mother Gaia, so that you raise vibrations not only for her physical body until your long-awaited transfer into previously unknown paradise worlds takes place. You are not helping with vibrations only to this reality, but to the others as well, because everything is interconnected. Even from your temporarily limited position, you are doing multidimensional work.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

MESSAGE 20

THERE IS NOT A SINGLE RELIGION ON THIS PLANET THAT HAS NOT BEEN INFLUENCED, OR DIRECTLY CREATED, BY THE NITIATORS OF NEGATIVE ENTITIES

We are returning to earthly religions in an advanced installment of the Word of God for the several times now. The functioning of Christianity relative to the New Nature of The Lord Jesus Christ, as well as to the entire Creation, is presented in detail in the first installment of the New Revelation (Chapter 3: "Betrayal of Christianity"). Within the continuation of the exposition on this topic, we further acquaint beings through the second installment of the New Revelation, brought here by Me in the body of Jana, specifically in Chapter 5: "Religion on Earth." Now the time has come for us to look at the system of belief more comprehensively and generally summarize the characterizing points for individual faiths that influence billions of people and determine world development.

For a start, I remind you that there is not a single religion on this planet that has not been influenced, or directly created, by the architects of negative entities. First, let us look at what the relationship of beings toward the only God looked like before the so-called "Fall"—the activation of the negative state. All sentient entities of that phase of the Multiverse's history had a direct and unmediated relationship with Me. Still as The Most High, I did not possess the male body of Jesus and the female body of Jana in absolute generality; therefore, I was perceived rather as an omnipresent energy, which I truly am, but now I can show Myself to everyone in a specific form. No systems of orthodox belief were needed, so no falsifications, falsities, and distortions arose. Thanks to communication with the Creator, everyone entered into their inner being, where they received the necessary advice for a life in joy and abundance. The situation completely changed in the course of several million years, when the question was raised as to what it would look like without God. Step by step, the Pseudocreators, along with their lackeys, encapsulated the spirit of those who were under their domain. Through these acts, a controlled descent into the corresponding levels of the zone of displacement was emerging, where everyone was brought into a special modal state of being to purposefully forget their origin and connection with Me. The creation of many false pseudo-religions within all areas of the Hells occurred. We will now focus only on planet Zero, since describing development on other planets of the anti-universe would be useless and incomprehensible at this time.

The development of the last human generation occurred through the breeding of the caveman, who became homo sapiens, who possesses all the prerequisites to be microchipped in the final phase of the negative state and serve his masters. From the beginning, these creatures were born and are still born into complete ignorance. Because of this, it is very easy for the negative entities to achieve a state where they integrate a given individual in a system of control programs and "feed" him with falsities throughout his entire life.

Included in this, of course, is the influential system of the false image of religions, which contain only small fragments of truth such as you find in True Creation. Every single one of them bows down to the Pseudocreators, meaning to Satan, the dark side. In their vast majority, believers do not know what is going on here; therefore, they are easily exploitable by spiritual leaders of all kinds.

When we go back several thousand years into the past, we find that the first nature-peoples invoked nature-deities. I mention that everything that has the purpose of worshiping anything but The Lord Jesus Christ (formerly The Most High) is misguided and false. For a start, the rulers of the zone of displacement succeeded in making the last human generation misguidely realize its connection with nature and the elements. That would, of course, be fine, as it is in the positive state, except that there no one worships anything external in external ways. When the Pseudocreators succeeded in making human creatures guide themselves by external, rather than spiritual things, an event was achieved upon which they could build further, namely that people began to explain life and its laws in physical, natural, tangible, and later scientific ways. Spiritual principles were completely denied. In the next stage of humanity, Earthlings returned to these principles, but in a way that suited their creators. We will return to this within the description of the main religions.

Not only in the Sumerian civilization, Mesopotamia, China, Ancient Egypt, Greece, and Rome were the creators of the human race directly engaged. Regarding the ways of managing humanity, we have already informed you through the New Revelation of God's Family by means of Chapter 28: "History of Humanity on Zero Under the Rule of the Pseudocreators." Because they possessed unprecedentedly great abilities before the incarnation of The Most High in the form of Jesus Christ, they could enter into human bodies with their faithful co-workers (draconian and reptilian races, greys, until recently also the Annunaki, who subsequently converted to the light) to bind entire nations and their inhabitants into hostile claws in the form of pharaohs, emperors, kings, priests, and others. They built their power upon fear, boundless worship, and devotion under the threat of punishments. They declared themselves to be gods, because they indulged in it and, up to this day, they mock the only absolute God, The Lord Jesus Christ, in this manner. Their concept of worship—which, by the way, you do not find in the positive state, because I request no worship from anyone—became the foundation of what was yet to come, i.e., the creation of ingeniously elaborated religious systems that have endured to this day. Foreseeing that someone would come who would be authorized and sent directly by Me onto their territory with the goal of revealing reality, they fervently began constructing contradictory systems of belief so that the world would be brought even further into chaos regarding what is right and what is not. An important component of their actions before the arrival of Christianity was the rise of Hinduism and Buddhism.

Hinduism is one of many directions, whose teaching is built upon the worship of several gods—such as Brahma, Vishnu, and Shiva. Within the New Revelation, we revealed to you an important truth regarding the Pseudocreators: they acted under various names as gods across all continents of this planet. Among the best-known are Zeus, Shiva, Quetzalcoatl, Jehovah… From this, it clearly follows that they not only stood behind the emergence of religions, which they managed throughout history, but it was precisely they who had themselves depicted in the form of various gods whom billions of ignorant people now invoke. Holy books, which were brought here by various prophets, came to the forefront. Not all, but the vast majority of them were emissaries of the Hells who wrote down allegedly "holy" texts into coherent books, and these books further developed the growth of the given system that arose in a predetermined territory. "Holy" texts also served, after the departure of the authors of the negative state from this planet, to preserve the main ideas of their pseudo-religions. Even far in advance of the birth of Jesus, they created Buddhism, which leads stray souls even further away from the only true Source of all life. Judaism, on the other hand, is already formed upon the concept of worshiping one specific God, but this "God" is punishing, profit-seeking, unbalanced, and, like a dictator, mandates various commandments and restrictions to his followers, without the observance of which you are not worthy to go to heaven. Would you want to have such a God?

When I was born into the body of Jesus Christ, I did so out of infinite love for all beings in Creation. I knew that within a world under the rule of the Evil One, I would be accepted by almost no one; on the contrary, I would be accused of all possible and impossible things. Only "a few" people listened to Me, who were able to believe the truth of God with their hearts, not on the basis of external deeds. Those of you who have not read the New Revelation cannot fully comprehend why I, as the absolute Creator of everything and everyone, had to incarnate in a relative form more than 2000 years ago into a human body and go through many experiences with life here during a 33-year life, so that I could then be crucified (naturally according to a perfect plan) and subsequently enter the Hells, where I captured the Pseudocreators so that they could no longer directly intervene in the development of humanity. The impact of My birth upon planet Zero was immense, because it was the most important event in the history of the Multiverse. If I had not taken precisely the steps I took, Creation would have succumbed to destruction by the negative state. Even before My incarnation into the zone of displacement, the negative state was beginning to threaten the first regions of heaven, and not long after that, it would have prevailed over the positive state. As Jesus Christ, I taught the truth of The Most High, custom-tailored to the inhabitants of that time. My teaching was based upon one very important, universal, and eternally valid fact that you should remember forever: you will not find the true God within organized religions of all kinds, with religious authorities, in churches, or anywhere out there outside of you, but only and exclusively within your innermost being, your spiritual heart, within yourselves, for I am your eternal and inseparable part, and you, on the contrary, are Me. We are all a single whole, one body of God divided into an infinity of self-aware beings who, within their freedom, create and maintain the spiritual, intermediate, and physical worlds of the Multiverse.

I have never prompted anyone to create a religion whose followers are kept within fear, uncertainty, or disinformation and other matters associated with it. Believers often have fear and undervalue themselves, so they do not feel Me or do not want to feel Me within their hearts, which would otherwise be stripped of those negative influences. Of this, the evil entities have been well aware from the beginning, continuing to make fools of the herd so that it mires even deeper into their network of control. Since I was already their archenemy number one 2,000 years ago, they devised a hellish plan, which was the creation of the church. They abused and inverted My teaching that there is no need for any idolatry. They committed one of the greatest crimes in this experiment; because the one who was sent to planet Zero spoke the highest liberating truth with the goal of the later final elimination of all evils and falsities, was abused by the Pseudocreators within his legacy to create one grand world religion, the influence of which was unprecedented. This was Christianity. Everything happens on the basis of My consent and permission; there is nothing I do not know or foresee ahead of time. Because I am absolute, I know how things will happen and not happen for all eternity ahead of time. From an almighty position, I therefore knew well that the Evil One would seize the opportunity to twist the teaching of Jesus; thus, I created in advance the conditions for the emergence of the true Word of God, which will be written within a spiritual language so that it could not be twisted. What I am speaking about here is the New Testament. The vast majority of human beings have a problem distinguishing the true Word of God from the satanic one when reading the Bible, which mostly contains the Old Testament (it has both a demonic and angelic origin). Only a very small thousandth of people within gross-material bodies then understand the meaning of individual passages from the New Testament, which holds a deep spiritual significance that correlates with the coexistence of the negative state alongside the positive one, and all matters connected to the unfolding of events within this cycle of time. The New Testament, as I have already said, is written within a spiritual language to prevent its contamination with falsities, and therefore taking its words literally makes no sense. In a comprehensive form and with explanations, the literal meaning of its passages is again presented within the books of the New Revelation by Peter D. Francuch. Throughout its entire existence, the New Testament has been censored, thousands of words have been omitted, but its true spiritual meaning could never be twisted or distorted. It does not matter how many people on this planet understand or do not understand the meaning of the passages; the important thing is that actual holy texts are present here, which form the undistorted essence of the truth about evils and falsities, as well as about future events. With this, the evil entities could do nothing; therefore, they at least wedged the Old Testament alongside the New and further continued within the effort of building the church, which did not and does not have positive features. To top it all off, Islam emerged a few centuries later, the consequences of which are manifesting in the present time more than ever before.

Papal offices arose, a single centralized seat within the Vatican, thousands of orders, laws, and commandments, and not long after that, churches began to be built not only across Europe. Since the Middle Ages, the differences between individual faiths deepened; therefore, wars, battles for territory, crusades, and others arose. Since the Middle Ages, the church controlled essentially all areas of human life, while people were constantly frightened with eternal damnation if they sinned; on the agenda of the day appeared once again a wicked God, whose entirely invented spiritual principles precisely suited those who stood behind the emergence of it all.

When the Renaissance and humanism came along, it might have initially appeared that an awakening toward greater human freedom was occurring. Nothing was further from the truth. Humanism did indeed concern itself with man himself and treated him as an individual capable of independent thought regardless of heavenly powers, capable of enjoying life and expressing his feelings and thoughts to the full. However, like everything, this too aimed at the growth of the negative state, because humanism mostly took into account only the cultivation of its own ego (from a true spiritual point of view), did not try to restore the long-forgotten entering into the interior and the search for God in one's heart, but on the contrary declared man as a creature surpassing all created and uncreated. This played into the later emergence of atheism. Do you notice another split in an already divided world? The actors of the whole spectacle pulled the strings behind the curtain, who, after I imprisoned them in an unknown place, could not act directly on planet Zero, but only through their representatives, as will be the case until their second coming.

Following the spread of atheism and the abuse of Darwin's theory of evolution, the planned fracturing of the world into thousands of pieces was consummated, the inhabitants of which could not find a common path to development and unity. Instead, the Pseudocreators could control their sheep, who no longer believed even in false religions, through scientific, political, musical, mainstream, and other authorities, so that they could definitively bind the other, still believing half of the population through the popes (who, by the way, were all from the Hells) and other leaders. With this, we are already reaching the present time.

As many of you know, the elites, along with their masters from Nibiru who will resume governance over humanity within a few years, are preparing the greatest deception in human history—the creation of an artificial holographic image of Jesus in the sky, which will be seen from all corners of the world. By this, they will catch in a trap especially believing Christians, but also others who do not see through their trick. I repeat that all of this will take place only after the vibrational shift/relocation of the positive part of the earthlings into the 5th dimension of the True Creation, so you, co-workers of light, do not have to fear anything. Only after this event can the negative state briefly win in this reality. The holographic image will serve to create one worldwide religion that will unify all previous faiths under one roof. Concurrently with this, one of the Pseudocreators in a human body with the appearance of Jesus Christ will preach smooth-sounding words that will confuse all those who have gone astray. His image will be in public squares, in the media, everywhere, for he will be celebrated as the true God. The false second coming of Christ will be accepted by almost everyone, even by those from whom it would be least expected. Why? Because the Antichrist will resolve all the existing problems of the world, whether cultural, economic, wartime, racial, natural, or others. The dark side, with the help of technological and mental skills, will deceive souls who will rejoice over the miracles performed by the wolf in sheep's clothing with a hidden reptilian essence before the eyes of millions of onlookers rushing into his embrace. Please realize that this will unfold only on the basis of external deeds, for people with low vibrations do not possess the ability to perceive with their hearts. The negative state functions only on the basis of external deeds. At the same time, realize that the true Second Coming of The Lord Jesus Christ has been taking place on all levels since 1957, when I was born here for the second time, this time into a female body, and it will take place until the elimination of the state of evils and falsities. It is a gradual process and has little to do with the flow of linear time.

For a moment, a false peace will prevail upon the planet, but that is only to bring about a general calming of the situation. The new order will then bring microchipping and a totalitarian state, where people will become controlled puppets without free will. What will happen after the arrival of God's opponents cannot be communicated at this time, since no one can precisely know the chronological development qualitatively and quantitatively; furthermore, that is not even the goal of this message from The Lord Jesus Christ.

In conclusion, I will remind you generally of the current state of the church. In 2013, Pope Francis was placed upon the papal throne, who is the absolute last pope in history, after whom will come the mentioned Antichrist (within a true spiritual sense, the expression Antichrist is used for everyone who cooperates with darkness). Francis is gradually preparing the ground for the Pseudocreators and has tasks precisely assigned by them, so he knows how he is to act. It is appropriate to name, for example, the unification of all religions, the support of political and economic elites, the recommendation of chips for people in the interest of convenience, and furthermore, he speaks openly about controlled immigration from Muslim countries as a solution, and he does not shrink from condemning the true legacy of the Messiah (see the comparison of Jesus to the Islamic State) and his original teaching. Within the coming years, such statements will increase not only from the pope, but from the majority of top politicians serving the dark side, for it has not been trying to hide from the sleeping citizens for a long time; on the contrary, it reveals more and more plans for the final enslavement of humanity, which also relates to the uncovering of the hideous essence of the negative state, which will be revealed during its elimination at the end of this shortened cycle of time.

Perhaps you expected that within this installment of the message I would speak more in detail about individual religions, faiths, sects, cults, doctrines, and the like, yet here more than anywhere else it applies that the task of this installment of the Word of God was not and will not be to go too much into details, so that everyone can make their own image and view of the theater of the negative state. You will find more than enough truthful information; it is enough to choose and come to it through intuition, thanks to which you need not worry that you would cease to orient yourselves within the current complex happenings of the world and ultimately get lost within them. Everyone reads information custom-tailored to them, while seeds of truth are being planted within them, which will sooner or later germinate. Not everyone carries soil within their soul that is fertile and moist just yet, however, one day even the driest individual, who is unable to accept even the most basic level of vitally important information, will be showered with the Love of The Lord Jesus Christ, thanks to which the seeds will germinate at the right time.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

MESSAGE 21

HUMANITY IS SEPARATED FROM ME, GOD THE LORD JESUS CHRIST, AND FROM OTHERS IN CREATION: IT LIVES WITHIN ISOLATION DUE TO THE EXPERIMENT AND ITS CHOICES

This topic connects all books, chapters, and texts of both installments of The New Revelation of The Lord Jesus Christ, as well as other holy Word that I dictate to selected highly advanced beings in bodies. I have provided (and still provide) the all-encompassing multiversal Word of God to all relative beings in Creation so that, at the right time, everyone can learn the circumstances of the past, present, and future life spectacle. Many further continuations could be written, but the most important of the important has already been revealed through Peter D. Francuch, who fulfilled his mission here 100%, writing hundreds of pages of the highest truth, for the delivery of which he operated here. Within this message, I will no longer repeat what stands in its proper place somewhere else, but I will focus more on the structure of separated humanity, which lives in isolation from everything and everyone like a plucked and gradually withering flower in a vase that is no longer even receiving water.

The activation of the negative state was a highly complex process, at the end of which emerged the final product—true human life, which, with its unusual and dangerous behavior, deviates from everything that has ever existed and ever will exist. Earthlings, since the days of the caveman when the last era of humanity began, display the results and consequences of what it is like to live without Me and without spiritual laws. Thanks to a living illustration that will be stored in the multiversality of generality (the lake of fire and sulfur) for eternity after the current cycle of time, all newly emerged sentient beings who will have an absence of life in the zone of displacement will be able to experience, thanks to the law of free choice, all possibilities of the state of evils and falsities within this "virtual" archive under My protection. They will do this to exclude the thought of violating God's laws from their minds and not choose this state of being as the only correct one. By entering the archive, everyone will carry with them the possibility to choose the once-stored path of an individual residing within the negative state. The chosen path will subsequently be experienced exactly as it was tasted during the time of the populated zone of displacement. By this, I want to tell you all that your experienced pain, deprivation, and everything suffered serves the highest goal, good, benefit, and life of the Multiverse. Without you, who out of love incarnated from the positive state into the Hells and especially onto planet Zero, the reality of a new quality of the fullness of the true life of the positive state could not fully blossom within the new cycle of time. Until that moment, no one will be able to imagine, even marginally, what a boundless splendor is prepared for you. I repeat that this completely new kind of life, released from the new nature of The Lord Jesus Christ, has never been lived since the beginning of Creation.

Many of My closest co-workers complain every day that they must drag that heavy cross, declaring that they no longer need to be here and are suffering even for those who cause all of this. Due to the control system, imperfect bodies, and the "matrix" reality, people from higher dimensions here on planet Zero have a tendency to blame Me, the absolute and perfect God, for their hardships, problems, falls, and everything possible. I have already spoken about this paradox; nevertheless, I will return to it again in multiple places. Above all, it is good to be aware at every moment that I, formerly The Most High, now The Lord Jesus Christ, do not stand behind the origin of the negative state, I do not condone it, but I merely tolerate it, and out of My unconditional mercy, I undergo the long process of ascension from the swamp of the anti-universe into True Creation with you, and that already for the second time. Perhaps you object that as the absolute, I could have provided the existential question of life without God immediately, within a single moment, without the presence of everything because of which this theater takes place. I could not. Do you not understand that I Myself observe My own spiritual laws? From this derive also many reasons, from which I will list the main ones. I could not provide the answer to the question from My absolute position because:

- In the absolute state of absolute good, love, and all positive elements, the elements of the negative state were not and never will be present; therefore, there is no answer to this question within God's generality, which does not contain it.

- According to the law of free choice, the questioning beings, the later activators of evils and falsities, had to answer for themselves, experientially, completely freely, and in their own way; no one else could do it for them, not even The Most High. The answer was completely unknown; therefore, an agreement was made between Me and the later Pseudocreators, which, among other things, included that they would answer it themselves; only those who themselves decided to reject love would come under their domain; steps would be taken toward the elimination of evils and falsities; and the negative state would not exceed the framework of one cycle of time.

- In the opposite case, if by free choice I had not given the Pseudocreators the possibility to let themselves be displaced from heaven and answer through their steps the serious question, the Multiverse would have perished.

Before My first incarnation into the body of Jesus Christ, I contained nothing from the zone of displacement, which is currently populated by sentient forms of life, nor could I direct its development toward the benefit of the positive state, because it was not under My rule. Only after the crucifixion took place and My entry into the Hells, where I captured the Pseudocreators and gained many experiences with this dead life, did I cleanse the negative elements into elements of true life and integrated them into the absolute state. Through this step, when the fusion of Jesus Christ with The Most High occurred, I became The Lord Jesus Christ with a completely new nature, thanks to which I could already manage this "trash can of the Multiverse," direct its development toward the benefit of the whole, reveal Myself to hellish members within My human form, and give them a constant possibility to convert into the positive state. This possibility, except for exceptions, did not exist until the end of the 1980s (according to earthly measures). However, the second coming of The Lord Jesus Christ was already taking place and is still taking place, which began with My second birth into the female body of Jana Kyslíková, with whom we will form a couple, God's Family, on the New Earth, and have two children, a girl and a boy, who will also be direct incarnations of The Lord Jesus Christ within a relative form. If I could have proceeded otherwise, I would have done so, but the path to achieving the new nature was the only possibility to achieve survival and the gift of salvation for all involved. I had to proceed from the outside to the inside; meaning the path of the first incarnation began in the outmost and most external stage of the anti-universe—within the physical world of the manufactured reality of planet Earth/Zero—and was ended within the innermost level of the Hells.

Humanity is separated from Me and from others within Creation in an unusual position between the Hells and heaven. Only within this unusually derailed position 0, which has no parallel, is it possible to achieve the possibility of incarnations from both directions of duality—from both the minus and plus positions. You well know that among you are beings from lower and higher dimensions, as well as true human creatures whose souls were created during the sexual intercourse of their parents in a special area of the intermediate (mediating) world. Through a mixture of sentient and non-sentient life, it is thus clearly shown to everyone that the emergence of life is possible even with the use of non-spiritual principles, where its creators themselves are, consciously or unconsciously, in a certain state of arrogance toward the Source of life. On planet Zero, you are in such extreme isolation that you cannot even imagine it. For millions of years, Gaia in the third dimensionality has been separated from the rest of the surrounding civilizations; her inhabitants, so to speak, cannot move from the spot because their manufactured bodies possess very weak, essentially non-existent abilities. Just a trip to the store takes them a lot of time, thoughts manifest in matter very slowly, and to achieve their goals (whatever they may be), they must therefore exert immense drudgery, while "fighting" against various challenges and pitfalls of their surroundings. When they want to visit a place on the opposite side of the world, they travel by aircraft, which are heavy, primitive, and backward compared, for example, to the starships of the Pleiadians. However, the elites have long possessed immensely more advanced technologies of all kinds from extraterrestrial entities from the anti-universe, with whom the shadow government has cooperated for decades. In "reward," the secret government gives these entities permission to abduct citizens into their UFOs, where they are subjected to painful testing and examination, and often a chip is inserted into their bodies (this is performed, for example, by the Reticulians from the constellation Zeta Reticuli and many others). The presence of hidden technologies naturally concerns travel means as well, with whose anti-gravity ships one can reach the Moon and the edge of the solar system within a few tens of seconds. Ignorant people are told that travel through the universe can currently only be done by rockets and probes. Nothing is further from the truth, as I have just stated. Selected initiates relocate, besides using starships, also through multidimensional gates almost anywhere within the anti-universe, which is a matter already previously revealed.

The surrounding conditions of human creatures supporting life are very limited, as is the environment. Their bodies must breathe air with a ratio of 21% oxygen, 78% nitrogen, and one percent of rare gases. As the ratio of the air begins to change, the brain no longer receives the driving force for its functioning and the body fails, whereupon it can even die. It can, of course, die very easily and quickly in other ways as well if the conditions change. The body of earthly creatures needs optimal temperature, pressure, and air; it also demands regular care by frequent disposal of impurities, produces waste matter, and must nourish itself through a regular drinking regime and appropriate food. When it lacks any of this, it declines again. It can also fall ill in various ways, which plays into the hands of the system, which devises new diseases and simultaneously provides chemical medicines for their treatment, which within the vast majority cause an influx of poisonous and dangerous substances into the patient's body, so that over time they are even more sick and more easily controllable. This is only a narrow spectrum of the consequences of life in separation from Me and others, which the inhabitants of higher dimensions do not know at all. In this dangerous and perverted way of life live the inhabitants of the zone of displacement—all by free choice, the majority unconsciously, assuming thus that this is the only correct and possible lifestyle. Earthlings also consider this life as the only one possible; mostly they do not admit life somewhere else at all, believing only in pseudo-science and its research results. If they should perhaps be capable of believing in something spiritual, then they demand concrete and tangible proofs. Upon this, those who remain in this reality after the division of humanity will be caught, because the so-called "Project Blue Beam" will create a holographic image of Jesus in the sky with a sound backdrop. Almost everyone will accept the false image as their own and then will blindly obey the commands of the false messiahs and gods, the Pseudocreators.

This derailed cosmic position of planet Zero is permitted for the purpose of the final manifestation of the negative state during its brief pseudo-victory. I remind you that only here was it activated and will also be ended. Whoever has not read the first installment of the New Revelation cannot comprehend these serious spiritual matters. When the entire dramatic spectacle is finished, everyone will breathe a sigh of relief. New aspects of learning will arise, because then the connection of all dimensions will take place and permanent spiritual bridges will be created between them and their inhabitants. There will no longer be any isolation, separation, distance, and division, but rather the collective beauty of life-sharing, connectedness, interconnection, and unity.

Now we will briefly list the main points of the functioning of the pseudo-system of the negative state upon the inhabitants of the anti-universe:

1. 1. Evil beings are built in a way to gather further and further variations of evils during their incarnations, and thus build into themselves a new degree of negativity, which manifests by the fact that after countless incarnations within various regions on planets in the anti-universe, they are capable of crossing into the next stage of the Hells, which is even further removed from the positive state. When those beings enter a higher dimension of the zone of displacement, from the perspective of the domain of the Pseudocreators they ascend, from the perspective of True Creation they descend downward. But let it be reminded again: every being that fell into the zone of displacement now possesses all means and subsequently also the support of The Lord Jesus Christ to convert over the course of time into the zone of placement. In reality, even those who at first glance revel in a life of unlove find themselves in a state of constant fear and uncertainty, running away meanwhile from My all-pervading love, thanks to which they survive. But why run away from Love and hide from Me when I am their inseparable part? Under the activation of the negative state, various madnesses are possible in existence and being. Even the worst beings have the possibility to change preserved. This is an absolutely valid law for this time cycle.

2. Many entities are permitted to incarnate onto planet Zero, which is the only point of contact between good and evil, where its population in this 3rd dimension is exposed to both negative and positive influences, and souls from the Hells, heaven, and true human creatures (the majority) are embodied here. Beings originating from the highest dimensions of the anti-universe can be found in the positions of the highest political functions; they can be directors of transnational corporations, generals, leaders, billionaires, but also at first glance "unobtrusive" individuals with whom you also come into contact daily, although you do not suspect their origin. Those who have their origin in the highest dimensions of the "trash can of the Multiverse" are the most secret conspirators who manage this world—meaning the most influential families of the world, branched into many lodges across all continents, participating in bloody rituals, causing artificial conflicts, printing artificial money, draining nations economically and otherwise, and having the deaths of millions of people on their conscience. In this world, they feel like a fish in water, unlike the angels, who often rightly feel like strangers here. On our pages, it is not necessary to name the specific names of the families and organizations behind it all, because whoever seeks will find.

3. The situation is completely different for those who have their origin in the positive state of the Multiverse, but through their own deeds, attitudes, thoughts, and choices have turned away from My unconditional love. Before they incarnated here by free choice to help with the transformation in this important time of ascension, they were acquainted with the conditions of their earthly mission and with the risks that life upon hostile territory involves, with the knowledge that they would have a helping hand and guidance the entire time, but thanks to their choices, they would contend with the risk that they could fall into the zone of displacement. Those who transform into beings that have turned away from true spiritual principles, newly live a pseudo-life in the Hells after the death of the physical body. This kind of being unfortunately suffers most of all, because memories of life in heaven will be recalled by them—which they, however, lost—and now they contend with the consequences of their choices in an environment that does not correspond to their original preferences. Fortunately, the zone of displacement is not in an active mode eternally; therefore, I repeat for several times now that the suffering of anyone is anyway, along with the end of the experiment, drawing near to its close, although from the perspective of the linear flow of time it may seem like an eternity. It is still necessary to note that under the influence of pressures from the other side and the ego bombarded by control programs, even the closest co-workers of The Lord Jesus Christ have tendencies to blame Me directly for the state of their life problems, while it is precisely the other way around. Everyone is the architect of their own happiness and unhappiness. Whoever asks the eternal Parent of everything and everyone for help will be stripped of lack and problems in all aspects.

4. True human creatures, on the basis of their lived life, depart either into the Hells or into True Creation, depending on what thoughts and attitudes they had during the time of their stay on planet Zero, whether they let themselves be inspired by positive role models or not. Like everything, their departure into the spiritual world unfolds on the basis of vibrations and preferences.

In conclusion, I will communicate to you some information about the operation of God's mission, express Myself regarding spiritual truth, and remind you of the unsatisfactoriness of being within separation.

The reason why the dark side does not want under any circumstances to make "publicity" for My closest co-workers of our Team of God's Family on Earth/Zero is that if the media were to address us, the highest degree of truth from Me would gradually spread into all corners of the world and would enter into the subconscious of the vast majority of the planetary population. No one from the lackeys of low entities would then be able to prevent the spreading of the Word of God, which would beneficially and liberatingly pour across all continents. If this act were truly to take place, the experiment of dead life would soon end and everything that was experienced in the current cycle of time would be truly for nothing. Therefore, until the very division of humanity, the earthly and unearthly elites will play dead so that the operation of God's mission and the second direct incarnation of The Lord Jesus Christ is known by the smallest number of people. Subsequently, they will also remove our light-legacy. The rulers of the zone of displacement, on the other hand, present and will present religious authorities, self-proclaimed spiritual leaders, gurus, and other similarly oriented people originating from the Hells even in public squares to displace from the hearts of everyone even the smallest grains of truth from the true God. Their effort to disrupt My plan to lead a portion of humanity out into True Creation manifests on the opposite end of the spectrum by the fact that in not a few cases they truly present, for example in the media, some actual lightworkers, but that only for the purpose of their disgrace, questioning of their work, and mockery. As an example from the Czech Republic, I will mention here Kateřina Pondělíčková, who presents herself as the incarnation of Archangel Uriel. The situation is more complex, because the direct incarnation of a given archangel is always only one and she is not that one; however, she truly is part of the multidimensional being of Uriel—within simplified words, she is his "lower self." It was communicated to her, however, that she is directly this highly advanced spiritual being from the 11th dimension. This is so that she could fulfill her mission more easily and better. Everything happens on the basis of a prior agreement of everyone among you with Me before you incarnate onto this planet. She delivers a lower degree of spiritual truth to address, according to My plan, the largest number of spiritual seekers who are not yet capable of receiving the highest degree of truth brought by God's Family, about which, moreover, the majority has no inkling. Everyone is interested in information matching their level and advancement, since everyone passes through life here and development differently. It does not matter how many people will know about our presence and about the Goddess Jana; rather, it depends only upon their vibrations of love, which is the only ticket into the 5th dimension. Again, it applies that you are to perceive every piece of information with your heart, not with your brain bombarded by control programs. Thanks to false directions, but also because of the mentioned mockery of co-workers from Me, even greater control of the sleeping population occurs, which guides itself only by the ego and on the basis of external deeds.

Billions of sentient beings continue to choose a pseudo-life within the Hells, and just as they do not understand life without property, money, and the golden calf within the eternal light of higher dimensions, My co-workers, angels in bodies, on the other hand, do not understand how someone can give preference to the visually pleasing claws of the negative state within which people revel and subsequently depart into it. No one in reality can be happy in an existence without Me, even though many a person persuades themselves of it. When people fully realize that living without true spiritual love is hell, when they understand that money and all material possessions are fleeting, when they acknowledge to themselves that holding in their hands worthless pieces of paper crumbled to dust filled them only with emptiness, they will finally be able to see that helping hand of the Creator who was always here for them, but until that moment of awakening, they ignored Him. Then the negative state will end. And it will be truly soon, because the relative source of the state that is the antithesis of Love is already drying up. The necessary brief victory of darkness over light will be a swift process, to which I will put an even swifter end, so that we may together celebrate the end of hardships, misery, and suffering. Separation and isolation are in reality only an illusion, because we are all one. And that is what the whole thing is about.

A FEW SUPPLEMENTS TO THE LAST JUDGMENT

The majority of humanity chooses to be negative of their own free will because they do not yet know the essence of the negative state, which will be revealed during its pseudo-victory on this planet Earth/Zero in the 3rd dimension. When the members of the zone of displacement (the Hells) know the consequences and results of all their evil choices, which were executed against the spiritual laws and principles of love of The Lord Jesus Christ, they will themselves come to the conclusion that their state of darkness, malice, hatred, ignorance, selfishness, separation, madness, blindness, control, and all other elements of the anti-universe is a completely meaningless concept for their further being, having no justification for its further continuation. This state cannot be permanently deactivated and abolished before the answering of the question that activated it occurs: What would life look like if it were derived from something other than the absolute state of the Creator of everything and everyone?

The acquisition of the learning of the entire Multiverse regarding this question is a highly serious and existential matter, for all inhabitants of True Creation will receive the answer, and all inhabitants of the Hells will lose the motivation for the continuation of their dead life at the same moment. At that time, the current form of evils and falsities will fall away from these sentient entities and they will be brought into a neutral state of being, where the Last Judgment—meaning a personal evaluation of one's life up to that point—will be declared over them. Because this judgment will take place on a global scale, it will concern every stage, level, dimension, world, and state of being both within the zone of displacement (which will subsequently be deactivated) and in True Creation, which within the following cycle of time will experience the qualities of true life without limitations, thereby activating such a modality of existence and being that could have never been released from the absolute state until now. During the execution of the Last Judgment, an introduction to the new nature of The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family will take place, as well as the introduction to the quality of the aforementioned true life of the positive state. On the other hand, before all memories of the members of the hellish society are withdrawn from their minds into the multiversality of generality (the lake of fire and sulfur), all experiences and perceptions that were lived from the first point of the activation of the negative state until the point of its deactivation itself will be presented to them within a single moment. By this, within the conditions of neutrality, they will know firsthand that life within love is fulfillment, harmony, light, beauty, freedom, and almost unlimited possibilities, safety, affinity, velvet tenderness, and wonder during the creation of new universes, in which everyone will one day participate. On the basis of balancing and comparison, the true essence of evils and falsities will also be presented to them, which involve stagnation, immobility, disharmony, darkness, ugliness, lack of freedom, oppression, limited possibilities, danger, rivalry, harshness, and death.

Everyone will therefore be placed at the end of this time cycle into a situation that can be outlined, for example, like when a worn-out, deluded, and hungry person (that is, everyone serving the Pseudocreators, including themselves) trudges with their last strength through an inhospitable desert (symbolizing the elements of the negative state). Suddenly, The Lord Jesus Christ appears before him, offering a change, the gift of liberation and salvation, involving rebirth within the worlds of heavenly society. Out of pure love, The Lord Jesus Christ will offer the individual a juicy apple, which will not only satiate him but also save him. However, whoever, even with an open consciousness, remains unwaveringly blinded by what they served for entire ages will prefer to consume sand to satiate themselves, meaning they will accept the negative state as their own, assuming that its trillions of grains located all around are a better way to stave off hunger than a single quite small apple of pure love offered by the absolute Creator of everything and everyone. The dry grains of evils and falsities, however, contradict the survival of an individual rejecting the divine apple, because love—the nourishing primary substance and energy—is not present in them. As a result, eternal life will be taken away from him and he will turn into nothingness. Do not forget that no one is requested to choose blindly.

THE REVEALED TRUTH OF THE WORD OF GOD

The highest and absolute truth is only one, and it resides within the absolute state of The Lord Jesus Christ. The Creator entrusts valuable spiritual information into our hands for us to work with. It is intended to assist us in our own spiritual growth and general welfare for the whole. Then, there exists a second type of information, designated for His/Her closest co-workers in bodies, who execute multiversally important missions here, upon whose successful execution depends the smooth course of the transformation of humanity and planet Earth into the 5th dimension of the positive state of True Creation. Truth, however, possesses multiple degrees and angles and adapts to each of us individually so that we can grasp it in our hands, using this focal point to launch into our interior and there, in intimacy with The Lord Jesus Christ, further develop it and build its next stories. Entering into the interior means letting oneself be guided intuitively. Each of the closest co-workers of God's Family utilizes this gift more or less and puts it into practice. Therefore, there is no absence of the ability to enter into the interior, for if that were the case, it would be impossible to absorb the heavy spiritual trials to which everyone actively and consciously participating in God's mission has been exposed up to now.

Truth is dynamic and changeable, not stagnant. This means that if something spiritually highly important is communicated to you in an external way through some third person, one can never rely upon the fulfillment of this information at a pre-announced time. Take into account that time is linear and, from the perspective of the absolute, does not exist. However, thanks to My own observed cosmic laws, The Lord Jesus Christ possesses the right to communicate this modified information so that a foundation is provided for the realization of these spoken thoughts within matter as well, and that at a time which, through its circumstances and correlations, will precisely tune to its definitive external manifestation. It is called truth in another time. Because the limited perception of spacetime reality affects us, many could argue that the Word of God can be false and misleading, leading only to hardships and problems. Nothing, however, is further from the truth. In the ultimate sense of the word, the Word of God is always true and pure; only its manifestation and realization can arrive at different linear time. The reality is such that "truth within another time" leads to the unraveling and resolution of many problems caused by the negative state, while concurrently, individual spiritual goals are overcome, serving as a stepping stone to further steps of life growth, at the end of which that which the texts of the Word of God have already predicted to the most faithful co-workers of God's Family will occur.

The most important point of this collection of information is the opening of the Spiritual Center of God's Family near Prague, where some from the front line of this Mission will soon relocate, so that along with others who will regularly meet with us, they may fulfill their unique and unrepeatable missions in corresponding conditions, stable vibrations, and abundance on all levels. All those involved are being prepared for this reality gradually, so as to align themselves with God's plan and more rapidly cast off the accumulations of evils, untruths, and falsities from themselves, connect even more effectively with their higher self and The Lord Jesus Christ, and prove their mastery of all necessary trials, after which relief and liberation will come. Truth must be dispensed step by step. After bridging it, it is replaced by truth corresponding to the new transcended level of the individual. Precisely due to the free choice of changes, and the resulting consequences and results, one cannot cling to or rely upon time data regarding pre-communicated predictions and events that have not yet taken place at this level. These revelations and truths in another time (which will, however, subsequently indeed become a tangible reality) therefore correspond to the current spiritual state, needs, and readiness of those to whom these aspects of truth are communicated. If everyone knew everything that awaits them at a single moment, whether unpleasant (relating to the fleeting negative state and life within it) or pleasant (relating to the eternally lasting positive state and life within it), the very principle of relative sentient life would be denied, and its demise would occur.

Your minds and souls continue to cleanse themselves and advance into the process of the long-awaited change on the physical level. Once they are sufficiently cleansed, a quantum leap forward will occur. For now, it has occurred spiritually and mentally. Do not forget that we are constantly drawing closer to that mutual meeting and the dreamed-of goal, which will be the start for the next stage of our lives, when we will already be able to fully do that for which we were created. We are closer and closer with every step, and the reality remains that everyone will manage this without harm. Change will not be long in coming. Remember that this process is governed by the absolute and does not depend upon the human circumstances of the earthly system. The following point of transition into which we are advancing will bring joy, abundance, and love. The Spiritual Center of God's Family and Bifrost are already prepared for their use. No one will remain in their current place and position, because the positive state is constant change and flow. Therefore, let God's plan flow freely so that it can manifest undisturbed. Changes will arrive, and no one will wait longer than necessary.

THE VIBRATIONAL SHIFT OF THE FAMILY TO THE 5TH DIMENSION OR HOW THE MEDIA LIE TO US

In recent days, a report regarding the sudden disappearance of a four-member family from Nový Jičín circulated through the Czech internet media. The official media channels informed about the result of the police investigation, from which it follows that the father withdrew the children from kindergarten and their mother canceled her work shifts for a month. This brief and fact-lacking report was published by some internet servers, such as Novinky or iDnes.

The article contained a photograph of the family and the registration plate of their vehicle. Both, however, were removed after a few hours, and the editors replaced the photographs with a police car. This happened in connection with the publication of a new follow-up article that came out the same day, i.e., on the evening of April 12, and dealt with the tracing and finding of this "missing" family. From its very few lines, we read that after the publication of the police appeal, several witnesses from across the whole country responded, whereby the mother and father were found and summoned for interrogation. No one, however, could precisely suspect what important things took place behind this at first glance ordinary report. We will communicate to you the true and objective development relating to this crucial event, which the media distorted into a misguided form.

The spouses Petr and Nikol Bartoň were a loving couple who brought Natálka and Tomášek into this world. All four members of this quiet and orderly family originate from the positive state of True Creation and incarnated onto this planet Earth/Zero with a specific mission to spread certain elements of goodness and truth, which are needed to be anchored in earthly reality at this time. The exact content of these missions is known only to Me, The Lord Jesus Christ. What is important to know, however, is the reality regarding the fact that the Bartoň family lived in the maximum possible harmony with spiritual laws, read the books of the New Revelation brought here by Peter D. Francuch, and helped to spread them within the scope of their possibilities to spiritually prepared people. Because they practiced the ideas of the New Revelation in their daily life and lived according to universal cosmic laws, they had at every moment everything they needed for spiritual development and physical survival, so that they could fulfill here the purpose for which they came here. They were in constant inner contact with their only Creator, knew My true name, and consulted Me about all possible matters. By surrendering their existence into God's hands, they never suffered in any aspect. Although they were agents of the positive state located upon the hostile territory of the negative state, it did not have the destructive influence upon them that some emissaries of heaven experience. Six years ago, Natálka was born to the Bartoň family, followed two years later by Tomášek. Both of them also have an angelic origin, just like their parents. These siblings were born here with the mission to show other children, who become slaves of this system from birth, that it is possible to have one's spiritual heart constantly open, and thus not let oneself be dragged down by negative behavioral patterns from an early age. They came here, however, also to acquire selected experiences with the negative state during a few earthly years.

The Bartoň family lived in a state of knowingness and general perspective; they were not controlled by the ruling class and its lackeys, as is the case with the vast majority of the unsuspecting population. With an unencapsulated spirit and soul, they possessed highly developed intuition, and upon entering their interior, they received information and advice from Me regarding anything. The mission of Petr and Nikol received maximum momentum after the year 2012 when, thanks to the increasing light and the beginning of the timeless period characteristic of the final stage before the final division of humanity into two directions, they reached, on the basis of perfect timing, the point of personal enlightenment, so that they could execute and subsequently consummate a key part of the meaning of their presence here. The details regarding this matter cannot be the content of this message for many reasons.

After they executed that specific part of their missions, they received telepathic information regarding leaving this reality and experiencing the vibrational shift to the 5th dimension. The message about the departure from planet Zero cannot occur immediately before the actual disappearance from 3D, but a sufficiently long time must be given for settling the last things in the old life. It is also necessary to align the psyche with the vibrations of the body. Precisely the individual's vibrations are gradually being raised in accordance with this natural but, for the majority of unsuspecting people, unusual process. The sequential course of events before the vibrational shift remains the same for everyone, but differs in details. To the Bartoň spouses and their children, I announced this reality at the end of March so that they would thus have a few more weeks of preparation time for terminating old matters, as was already said above. They already knew for months ahead, however, that their earthly journey would culminate in this manner of rebirth into the new world, namely in considerable advance before the main wave of the division of humanity, which will precede the Second Coming of the Pseudocreators. During this period, the father withdrew the children from the kindergarten and their mother canceled her work shifts for a month. This is the only truthful report about which the media informed the public. The rest are only dezinformation and lies. Day in and day out, I then raised the vibrations of their bodies so that the rapture from this reality could take place smoothly. The actual vibrational shift of this family occurred on April 9, 2017, in the morning hours, in a small grove not far from their residence. Now they already live in the 5th dimension on the New Earth. They received a perfect fine-material duplicate that is not limited like these gross-material bodies, with the help of which they experience a full and happy existence in all respects. They love you very much and look forward to the joint meeting when you relocate to the new home too.

The ascension of the inhabitants of this planet has been taking place primarily in small groups since the pivotal year 2012. As planet Nibiru approaches closer to Earth/Zero, the number of individuals who relocate to the New Earth will rise in the following years as well. In the last and main wave of the vibrational shift, the ascension of hundreds of thousands to millions of beings will occur within a relatively short time, thanks to which even spiritually sleeping and blinded people will notice the obvious changes—people who, however, for any reason will not participate in this process and will remain here in order to manifest, with a chip under their skin, the short yet necessary victory of the negative state. The earthly as well as non-earthly elites are well aware of the oncoming changes; therefore, they do everything to prevent them by all possible and impossible means. Because the dark rulers cannot in any way harm positive people and stop this process itself, they try to influence it at least to the minimum necessary degree. They do so, for example, by playing dead. Simultaneously, they try to downplay all information leading to the reality of ascension, which is coming constantly more to the forefront. Because the division of the population into two directions is occurring—first on the spiritual and now already on the physical level—the development will indicate that sleeping people will notice nothing until the last possible moment and will let themselves be further manipulated, whereas spiritually awakening and awakened individuals will feel and perceive these changes constantly more. The elitists know that those who have higher vibrations and an expanded consciousness will not let themselves be further influenced by them; therefore, the rulers focus in this regard on the second part of the spectrum of earthlings—meaning on the blinded herd of the overwhelming majority, which serves them so that no truthful reports about the vibrational shift reach it. If certain realities surface, they must be contained right at their beginning and distorted into the corresponding form, as the consumer of the mainstream requests.

The case of the Bartoň family is an exemplary case of what is spoken of here. On the very day on which the article about the "disappearance" of these people came out in the online media, we informed you, our co-workers of God's Family, about this reality through a link on Facebook and added a thematic quotation to it from the second installment of the New Revelation, which deals with missing and unaccounted-for persons. This post was shared within the circle of a few of our friends and did not attract anywhere near as much attention as many might assume. Nevertheless, this shared link, published together with an important quotation pointing to the reality of the rapture from the 3D reality, caused a huge alarm among the agents behind the scenes who closely monitor our activity. For example, our internet activity alone is monitored concurrently by several strictly secret offshoots of the American CIA, NSA, and other institutions operating on our territory as well. On Facebook, we are monitored by Czech censors, paid by this transnational firm directly from the pocket of Jacob Greenberg (Mark Zuckerberg), the grandson of David Rockefeller, who was installed into the position of the owner of this social network. These censors, just like all other henchmen of the negative state, do not know what they do and do not understand that they harm primarily themselves. You, My first line, are under My constant protection and nothing bad can happen to you, as I have already said many times. That too is one of the reasons why the effort of all who try to disrupt or remove us is a vain undertaking.

After we publish an important post with a high degree of truth, a Facebook agent usually sends this "dangerous" content with supplementary code notes to the appropriate headquarters of one of the secret services in the United States, where it is further sorted into individual files that are passed on. Some information from us, representing a great obstacle for the elites in their overall plan, gets all the way to the very highest places, where it is further discussed and resolved. The clockwork of the slave system on which this world is built represents a very ingenious web of the power pyramid where no one—except for a narrow group at its top—knows everything.

One of these posts that got all the way to those highest places was also the one about the Bartoňs, which we supplemented with the quotation. Precisely the quotation uncovering the essence of the problem caused a stir among the Pseudocreators. It was Allah, the highest of them, who issued a direct order from the Hells to George Soros so that one of his groups participating in distorting information from around the world would execute an action to sweep the entire case under the rug. The public was in no case to learn the truth; instead, it was to receive a brief and fact-lacking report about the finding of the family. The elites reacted immediately; therefore, on the basis of Soros's involvement, an order was issued to lower positions which ensured that Czech news websites received and subsequently spread into the public awareness, in cooperation with the police, a "guaranteed objective" report that came out on the very same day—meaning on the evening of April 12. For example, on Novinky, it came out only approximately three hours after this event was connected by us with the quotation from the New Revelation, where the essence of their disappearance is explained. In this follow-up media article, readers could read that after the publication of the police appeal, several witnesses from all over the republic called in, wherein both the mother and father were found and summoned for interrogation. That, however, was not the truth, but a pure lie designed to ensure that the public did not occupy themselves with any of this.

Whoever senses with the heart will recognize the truth. To believe the official media and let oneself be manipulated is a path deeper into the slavery of the negative state, from which a being will frequently extricate itself during many subsequent incarnations in the natural worlds of the Zone of Displacement. Everything that happened in connection with this case also serves as a lesson for the whole. The Bartoň family helped with their legacy in this reality toward the manifestation of light and the final victory of the positive state in this anti-universe, which will come after the short victory of darkness in this reality. Now they continue their mission on the New Earth and, together with other ascended beings from the Old Earth in cooperation with Me, prepare the foundation for the newly arriving ones. You who still live in these bodies have all the prerequisites for the successful completion of the work begun. It will not take long before the time of the vibrational shift arrives for you as well. For everyone who relocates to the 5th dimension, I have prepared a "custom-tailored room." Only I, The Lord Jesus Christ, know all the desires of your heart, which will be fulfilled. Soon we will all meet in happiness and joy in paradise on Earth, moving forward in the desire to discover the infinite variations of true life.
