BE GRATEFUL THAT YOU ARE LIVING IN THE TIME OF TRANSFORMATION ON THIS PLANET

My loved ones on planet Zero...

Be grateful that you have come here to this planet at this time of transformation, when the separation of the grain from the chaff is taking place, in other words, the separation into two basic directions - the positive (minority of humanity) and the negative (majority of humanity). You are living to fulfill your mission, which you are fulfilling mostly unconsciously. But that's all right. You have agreed to accept the task on planet Zero, you are here by your free choice, and you have all the means to complete it successfully.

Many of you do not realize that every second of this time has multiversal significance. Beings who have not had the privilege of being present in a negative state will learn from you in the next cycles of time, let alone in the revolutionary time of transformation when there are only a few physical years left for the separation of humanity. You are privileged to exist right now. You have a privilege that only something like 7.4 billion incarnated people in the world currently have.

And to make matters worse, no one after you will have this right to be on planet Zero, where positive and negative states interact in one place. Why? As I have already communicated, in a few years the lightworkers will be recalled and therefore the negative state will prevail. This means that in a short while (even in terms of the passage of linear time) one component of this experiment will be completed. By this, keep in mind the end of the mixing of light and darkness on planet Zero.

Further termination of the last component of the experiment will take place at the elimination of the negative state, when the question will be answered without exception: What would life be look like without God and His/Her spiritual laws? Learn more in The New Revelation of The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family at <http://bozirodina.cz>. It contains the highest level of truth, so I encourage you to read it if you have not already done so. No one is forcing anyone to do anything, you can still choose to serve the light... or the darkness. The consequences of your soul's future destiny will be determined by that. Remember, only with the light will you be free.

I love everyone without distinction.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

MESSAGE 2

SEEK ONLY WHAT CONNECTS YOU TO OTHERS

My beloved children in human bodies...

Find the strength and courage within you and prove that you are capable of loving every human being without distinction. You cannot fight against the negative state with violence and hatred, because that only energizes what you are fighting against.

Look for the spark of God in every being. Even the most evil souls just doing what they know how to do. I ask you to send them love. I do not ask you to approve of their actions, but to love them because they too serve the whole and portray what life would be look like without God and His/Her spiritual laws. Look at them and see their divine nature that is temporarily perverted and overturned. They are also one "cell" of My body, just like you. They do not know that if it were not for Me, they would not exist either, but you know it, so love them as much as I do, for I, the absolute Creator and parent of all infinite beings, love everyone indiscriminately.

If you focus on yourself for a change, I have some advice for your life. Look for in yourself and in your surroundings only what connects you to others, not what divides you. At this momentous time, you are here in order to bring about the unification of a divided humanity that has been affected by the forces of the negative state for a very long time. I am here in the human body surrounded by high ranking beings to relieve it of its heavy burden.

Soon I will open with My closest co-workers the Spiritual Center of God's Family in Prague, where I/we will meet with those who wish it. More information will be given in due time by My direct incarnation Jana, so that you too may be brought into the God vibrations.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

MESSAGE 3

THE ONLY CURE FOR EVERYTHING SICK, PERVERTED AND STOLEN FROM TRUE LIFE IS LOVE = HIGHER VIBRATIONS

If you realize this simple formula and start living by it, you will be full of joy even in these difficult conditions of planet Zero. You have temporary bodies from My opponents the Pseudocreators who have invented all possible and impossible perversions that feed dead human life. In the activation of the negative state, the principles of True Life were stolen to manifest life without the spiritual laws of the Creator when their perversion was accomplished.

You often complain of being sick or not feeling well. This is because the temporary body shells begin to deteriorate over time. Why? Because there is a lack of Love flowing into them from the source of all life, that is, the absolute state of The Lord Jesus Christ. The vast majority of beings in the negative state do not realize that if it were not for the Love that flows from the Source, they would not even exist.

It is not only bodies that are suffering, but especially souls that are isolated from the energy of love and mercy. I have used the analogy before that souls living in the Zone of Displacement are like plucked flowers that wilt. Unlike isolated souls, inhabitants of the 5th and higher dimensions are literally bathed in Love because it is everywhere present - around them and within them.

The existence of the negative state stifles you, although you may not even know it. Only with Me can you feel comfortable and at ease, and this is also true of the law in question, which is: Only with the Lord Jesus Christ can you have eternal life. Life from the Pseudocreators is temporary and will not last. You have the freedom to choose what kind of life you choose: True or false?

"He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal."

Your Lord Jesus Christ

MESSAGE 4

YOU WILL FIND ME IN YOUR HEART, FREE OF FEAR AND SELF-UNDERESTIMATION

This is a universal rule for all human beings on planet Zero and elsewhere in the Zone of Displacement. I am always present in you, otherwise no one would live, but it is up to you how private and intimate a relationship you have with Me.

You who are reading these words are spiritually mature enough to make a conscious connection with Me and be guided by Me, because no one else knows you absolutely. Only I know what is best for you on your unique life journey. I know every cell of your bodies, I see into your hearts and I know the most secret desires of each of you.

If you let go of fear and self-underestimation, you are well on your way towards a positive state where its inhabitants are constantly moving closer to My perfection for eternity, because that is how the game of life is played.

Rule No. 1 - you must not be afraid. You have to realize that everything is perfect, you just can't understand it in the limited human bodies from the Pseudocreators. Fear controls and binds you. The negative elites over this world feed on your fear and want you to be afraid. If you look at everything with perspective, you will give me the benefit of the doubt that there is really no point in being afraid. Spiritually awakened individuals are never afraid because they know that I am protecting them with absolute protection. The incarnate beings from heaven are here on planet Zero in hostile territory, yet they are in the utmost safety because they are carrying out my plan and I will never allow anything to happen to them.

Rule No. 2 - don't underestimate yourself and don't compare yourself to others. Do only what your heart and intuition tells you to do - that is, I, the Creator of everything and everyone, the Lord Jesus Christ. Many of you do not believe in your own abilities and originality. If you bring yourselves down and artificially lower yourselves, you will not go far on the spiritual path. Accept yourselves as you really are and do not deceive yourselves and do not be constantly guided by others. In every situation, ask yourself: What would my heart do?

I have created an infinite variety of beings. In the whole vast Creation you will not find two beings alike, not even two snowflakes or blades of grass alike. I have endowed everyone with the necessary qualities to be happy for eternity and could be approaching the absolute state. I am talking about the abilities of your spirit and soul, not the temporary human body that is fabricated by My opponents the Pseudocreators. For those who will re-vibrate to New Earth at the division of humanity, I have prepared perfect subtle bodies free of all ills.

You will give Me and our co-workers the benefit of the doubt after you have moved into the higher reality of being, when you experience the divine splendour for yourselves.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

MESSAGE 5

THE BASIS OF TRANSFORMATION AND ASCENSION TO THE HIGHER DIMENSION IS RAISING VIBRATIONS, EXPANDING CONSCIOUSNESS

Another message to the beloved beings on planet Zero from The Lord Jesus Christ.

No pain, no gain, this is true throughout the Multiverse, because only by self-knowledge and self-discovery of the infinite varieties and variations of life can one ascend the spiritual spiral, constantly approaching the Lord Jesus Christ, that is, Me. Life is change, it never stagnates.

In order to be able to easily transition to the 5th dimension in the division of humanity, you need to fully manifest your hidden potential and dedicate yourself to your mission.

You who read these lines are overwhelmingly spiritually awakened, and your primary goal is to expand the consciousness of others, not just yourself. Share with your loved ones and friends what you already know about the events associated with the transformation of humanity. Introduce them gradually to the nature of the workings of this world, and later bring them onto the spiritual path in a form that is your own. Soon they too will make a quantum leap in their perception of existence and themselves.

By informing others you raise the vibrations to them and even to yourself, for you are doing a great deal of work. However, you must never force your "truth" on them, because every human being has a protective system in his/her DNA that allows him/her to receive spiritual information that is tailored to him/her. If you were to suddenly tell a spiritually sleeping individual the whole truth, his/her encapsulated spirit would be damaged.

If your friends refuse to hear from you on matters relating to the spiritual world, do not make light of it, for they are not yet ready to embark on the path to the light. Know that they will give you the truth when I reveal Myself to every person on this planet in the form of the gift of mercy called the Event/Warning. At that time they will have some time before humanity is divided to see if they will listen to you and be inspired by positive patterns.

If I had not incarnated again into this world in the form of My direct incarnation, if a vast number of highly advanced beings had not been present with Me, the transformation of part, and later the whole of humanity could not have taken place. You are our extended hand and I humbly call upon you to help the transformation of humanity by your free choice. Because thanks to you, for example, your husband, who is still spiritually asleep, can get to a higher dimension after the division of humanity.

For every being that has awakened from the illusion of this world thanks to your help, I will reward you with a heavenly reward that will take countless forms. I look forward to reuniting with you soon, when the all beings will be connected with Me.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

MESSAGE 6

THE HIGHER THE VIBRATIONS OF LOVE A BEING HAS, THE MORE HE/SHE HELPS OTHERS, THE LESS HE/SHE THINKS OF HIS/HER OWN BENEFIT

In the hierarchy of Creation, I, the absolute Creator, The Lord Jesus Christ, absolutely intelligent, creative, loving, caring and powerful, sit above all. Rightly see Me as a bi-sexual being experiencing Myself in endless variations of life through you.

New and new self-conscious (sentient) beings arise, which at their creation are at the lowest stage of spiritual development, in order to ascend steadily towards the absolute state.

I created the first relative beings at one point when the natural worlds of the Multiverse did not yet exist. These souls are called God's firstborns and are at the top of an imaginary pyramid above all. It should also be mentioned that I extend above and around the pyramid, since there is nothing that exists outside of Me, because I am infinite.

In very simplified language for human beings, I will explain the next cycle of the creation of beings. Below the firstborns there are more and more inhabitants of the Multiverse. It is important for you to know that the archangels stand between the firstborns and the angels, and after the angels, who represent the other myriad entities of the vast existence, the human beings are found in the next "level".

The higher the vibrations of love a being has, the more he/she helps others and thinks less of his/her own benefit. The most advanced relative entities serve all indiscriminately together with Me, the archangels are involved in the rescue of humanity and are the extended hand of the firstborns, angels and humans are the direct related group family of humanity (only angels moving in this material universe where humanity is).

Those in higher positions serve those in lower positions, not the other way around, as in the negative state, where in hells those in the lowest positions must serve those in the highest positions. In any case, all the minions of the negative state serve a small group of purely negative beings of reptilian origin, whom we call the Pseudocreasures. They bind and exploit all who are within their sphere of influence.

You too can recognize to what extent you are spiritually developed. When you think about helping others and less about yourself and the needs of your ego, you are on the right track. The incarnated beings from the positive state from the 5th and higher dimensions (= angels) sacrifice themselves for the still sleeping and controlled people (= true humans + incarnated beings from the negative state), so that not only they, but also the whole Multiverse of the positive state, whose inhabitants are indirectly affected by the negative state, do not have to suffer unconsciously. Last but not least, the masters and the already mentioned archangels are also present in human bodies to be with the Creator Lord Jesus Christ, who is also present in the human (this time female) body HERE, to bring a part of humanity out to heaven and later to end this time cycle, when the question once asked will be answered after the manifestation of life without God by evil men and the Pseudocreators.

Try to help others with a good heart, for in doing so you are also helping yourself.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

MESSAGE 7

THE TRANSFORMATION OF HUMANITY WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN POSSIBLE WITHOUT THE HELP OF THE MORE ADVANCED COSMIC CIVILIZATIONS THAT WORK CLOSELY WITH ME, THE LORD JESUS CHRIST

The positive beings who are engaged in saving humanity in the outer space around planet Earth/Zero are collectively called universe people. I have called them before to control the negative activities of humans who would destroy the entire planet without the presence of their alien brothers and sisters. If that were to happen, the question would not be answered: What would life be look like without God? Thus, the entire Multiverse would have been self-destructed, because the existence of the entire being depends on the answer to this question.

We will not give too many specific names of civilizations and their representatives here, because everyone can find information about positive extraterrestrial races on their own, or seek and ye shall find. It should be mentioned that most of these loving beings who care for humanity have their origin and home in the constellation of the Pleiades system, where in many dimensions many planets orbit around these stars with diverse beings at various stages of spiritual and technical development. I have asked for the cooperation of a large number of volunteers, both male and female, especially from the planet Erra, which is very similar to New Earth. Selected Errans from the 5th and 7th dimensions of the natural universe are participating in a very important mission at this time. Millions of universe people in hundreds of thousands of starships are deployed around planet Zero in the 3rd dimension to pick up some of the ready humanity in the near future to the 5th dimension (this applies to those who will not have enough vibrations for the so-called ascension, but do not deserve to live in the fullness of the negative state).

The most famous representative of universe people is Ashtar Sheran, part of the multidimensional being is Ivo A. Benda, thanks to whom many positive space civilizations have entered the forefront of interest of earthlings. He is the author of the famous website www.vesmirni-lide.cz, which is sometimes condemned by negative or spiritually dormant people. Ashtar is the commander of the Great Space Fleet, and he and Ptaah take turns guarding the outer space around this planet from evil entities for six months at a time.

They love all people indiscriminately and look forward to your interest in them. For those who have an open spiritual heart, they can also appear in the sky in the form of bright stars, or take you to spaceships and other planets while you sleep.

It is a great honour for them to participate in the transformation of humanity. Their task is not easy, but they accept it with love and humility. Very soon, they will heave a sigh of relief with you when the physical division of humanity is completed. Then they will withdraw from the space of this planet so as not to hinder the necessary short victory of the negative state.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

MESSAGE 8

THE ONE WHO SURRENDERS HIS/HER POWER TO ANOTHER BECOMES POWERLESS

To be lulled by the false appearance of this world is inappropriate for a human being who wants to ascend the spiritual spiral for the purpose of deliverance from control. Then you would get nowhere and always remain in one point. If you want to get rid of fear and control, don't follow the set pseudo-system.

I don't mean that you should live in rebellion, but that you should go within and follow me. You must free yourself from the noise of external thoughts and controlling programs. When you think not with your brain, but with your intuition (spiritual heart), you will stop worrying about anything that is connected to surviving life here.

The one who surrenders his/her power to another becomes powerless. Your life (physical and spiritual) does not depend on the malevolence of the elites, bankers, politicians and other positions and institutions that serve to grow the negative state in the Zone of Displacement, but on accepting the Love and Lord Jesus Christ, surrendering into His/Her loving hands.

As the Creator of everything and everyone, I have all the information about anything in the Multiverse. Toward to Me, it appears relative, since it is created, therefore it cannot be absolute like Me. I am the only one who gives you everything you need for a happy eternal development. I am present in every atom, for even the smallest particles are part of My body. To whom else should you surrender but to the One who loves and understands you absolutely? You are me and I am you. Because of this I share and experience a free life, I get to know Myself.

The elites don't care about any of you. They're trying to squeeze their herd to get the most out of it. Then they literally throw the controlled individual into the garbage the way you throw away squeezed toothpaste. A soul that no longer provides them with energy is usually thrown by them into the appropriate part of the Zone of Displacement (hells). I know it sounds hard, but how can such a being get into the Zone of Placement (heaven) when he/she has been collaborating with the negative state all his/her life and still clinging to it? How can he/she be accepted into Love when he/she himself/herself is unable to perceive it and refuses to give up impermanent things? No one is condemned to stay in hells against his/her will, everyone has the free choice to go wherever they choose. No one has been locked in hells since I first came to planet Zero in the body of Jesus Christ. Moreover, the members of the anti-universe are offered the omnipresent help of My emissaries who are working there.

Therefore, use your power and energy for your own spiritual growth. Only in this way can you be truly free, internally and externally, whoever you are in human life. But one thing is certain: you are Love and it is up to you how much you are willing to receive and radiate.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

MESSAGE 9

THE TIME OF THE DIVISION OF HUMANITY INTO TWO MAIN DIRECTIONS IS APPROACHING:

1. FALL TO HELLS AT POSITION -1 ALONG WITH THE REALITY OF WHERE YOU ARE LIVING
2. ASCENSION TO THE 5TH DIMENSION OF PLANET EARTH = NEW EARTH

The division of humanity on the spiritual level has been intensifying especially since the beginning of the new millennium. Physical division has been taking place since the end of 2012, at first in small numbers, with individual groups of people re-vibrating. As time goes on, year by year the number of people leaving this reality in this way is increasing. This is because as planet Earth/Zero with all of humanity approaches the date of the last wave of re-vibration of positive people before the arrival of the Pseudocreators, all beings who do not deserve to live in the fullness of the negative state must gradually leave this dimension.

1) FALL TO HELLS AT POSITION -1 ALONG WITH THE REALITY OF WHERE YOU ARE LIVING

I, The Lord Jesus Christ, have My lightworkers all over the world, numbering in the millions. In cooperation with Me and contact with the positive state, they bear witness to the coming changes that affect everyone. Among other things, the purpose of their work is also to warn people who have not yet awakened, so that they do not have to suffer on a planet that will fall into hells.

When in the very near future humanity will be divided even on the physical level, there will be a sharp decrease in the vibrations of the entire humanity and the body of the planet (only for this dimension). The Pseudocreators will arrive here together with other alien entities on the planet Nibiru and one of them will sit on the papal chair, which will be given to him by the last Pope Francis, who is their collaborator. The one who sits on the papal chair will have the dazzling human form of Jesus Christ. He will also perform miracles and speak words of wisdom. He will be glorified and praised as the true God, yet he will be a wolf in sheep's clothing with a lizard-like nature. He will solve all problems and wars, and the whole planet will be immersed in a peace that will put to sleep even more the already sleeping people who have remained in this reality. There will be a unification of all nations, one religion will be established that will be accepted by all because it will contain what the people themselves want. Keep in mind that the Pseudocreators have abilities and power that humans have never known, so it will be no problem to rebuild this world to their liking in a short period of time.

At that time, when all is calmed, humanity will be chipped, most often by injecting an RFID chip under the skin, in the false interest of peace, unity, security, brotherhood and other intrigues. Those who refuse the chip will be chipped in concentration camps (e.g., there are already hundreds of them in the U.S. - so-called FEMA camps, where there are hundreds of thousands of black plastic coffins for those who won't collaborate with the system). Once chipped, people will be 99.99% controlled and will no longer have any free will, they will literally become robots. The Pseudocreators will share the reins of power over the world and the Zone of Displacement, taking control of all aspects of dead life. Ubiquitous censorship and the New World Order system will oversee everything. There will be a mass extinction of all species of plants and animals on land and in the oceans, the air and water will become poisoned, earthquakes, volcanic activity, tornadoes, storms, windstorms and acid rain will be the order of the day. From the contaminated environment on the surface, some will have to take refuge underground. There will be nowhere to run.

To make matters worse, from the false peace, more and more wars, dissensions and everything that has the negative state on the daily agenda will start again. A new superman-biorobot will be bred and implanted with the greatest possible evils that will come out of the black heart of the Pseudocreators. The army of supermen will have the goal of attacking Creation and the positive state in order to totally defeat all its members and even Me, the absolute God of The Lord Jesus Christ. This undertaking is absolutely insane and impossible, because it is impossible to defeat the absolute Creator from whom Life and Love emanate, thanks to which even the very maintainers of the negative state are alive. Of course, I will not even allow the positive state to be attacked. Then the true nature of the negative state will be revealed, which everyone will interpret in his/her own way. One of the many essentials is that in the destruction of The Lord Jesus Christ all being and existence would cease, including the negative state and all its members, i.e., simply put: the negative state cannot be alive without the positive state, which is governed by Me-Love.

All, without distinction, will have their question answered: "What would life be look like without God and His/Her spiritual laws?" Then I will eliminate the entire negative state for eternity, because once that question is answered, it will lose any purpose for existing and further prolonging the agony of all. Every being without distinction will be asked whether he/she wishes to live in the fullness of the positive state, i.e., in a quality of life that has never been lived since the beginning of Creation. Those who do not choose to enter the new cycle of time without the negative state will have their eternal life taken away based on a prior agreement that was made before the actual activation of the evils and falsities.

2) ASCENSION TO THE 5TH DIMENSION OF PLANET EARTH = NEW EARTH

Paradise and ascension to heaven (to the higher dimensions of the Multiverse) awaits those who carry Love in their hearts, are inspired by positive patterns, do not support the development of the negative state and do not wish to remain in this reality after the division of humanity. Again, I will give everyone, without distinction, the choice of where they want to go in this time of change. My mercy and love for you is infinite, therefore I will show Myself to all at the Event/Warning when you will experience direct contact with Me. Those who have not accepted Me by then, but will accept Me then, I will also set free.

When you vibrate most often to New Earth in the 5th dimension, you will see the infinite beauty of everything and everyone, feel Divine Love, and be continuously connected to me, the loving eternal parent. Your life will become very pleasant, full and harmonious. You will experience no limitations. Nothing negative that you know from human life on planet Zero will be present in the perfect environment. Everyone will perceive paradise on earth differently, and human words cannot describe the splendor that awaits those of you who take the path of light. As you ascend the spiritual spiral of evolution, you will gain abilities beyond your wildest dreams. Telepathy will be commonplace from the very beginning, and you will soon master teleportation as well. Your multidimensional being will live many lives in different places in the universe at the same time - and you will perceive all lives at once. As you travel through the universe, you will discover new civilizations and beings you have never known before. Not only on New Earth, but anywhere in Creation will give you the opportunity to live in an environment that suits your preferences.

Meanwhile, from the front row, you will be looking at the pseudo-victory of the negative state in the reality of the planet from which you left before. No one else before or after you has had or will have the opportunity to watch this act live from the front row.

When I free all the beings who have remained in the negative state, you will welcome it with as much enthusiasm as they do, for it will mean that they will finally meet you and you will all enter together into a new cycle of time where the negative state is no longer present. Creation was created to live in the fullness of the positive state. With the unanswered question of life without God, it was not possible that at any time in the history of the Multiverse, Creation could have lived in the fullness of what I created it for. Fortunately, that time will soon be fulfilled and all will live in what they have never experienced before. From that time on, no evil will exist for all eternity, even in dormant form, as it did before the counterpart of Love was activated.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

MESSAGE 10

THE OLD TESTAMENT IS NOT FROM ME, THE ONLY CREATOR OF EVERYTHING AND EVERYONE, THE LORD JESUS CHRIST!

As many might assume, the Old Testament of the Holy Bible is not from Me, The Lord Jesus Christ! The texts in this part of the Bible are mostly full of negative actions, evils, disregards, sanctified by the constant mood swings of a god who has the characteristics of human beings who allow themselves to be controlled by controlling programs. Those who feel the truth with their hearts will know at the very beginning of the reading where the Old Testament originates.

In the initial compilation, the words were passed down from generation to generation orally, only later were the ideas written down on paper into coherent texts. Because the Old Testament was written before I, then the Most High, now by the true name of The Lord Jesus Christ, captured the Pseudocreators, all the inhabitants of planet Zero and the Zone of Displacement were under their direct rule and control. Only later did I in the body of Jesus enter hells undetected, where I captured them, separated them from their ruling places and imprisoned them in an unknown place. That's when they lost most of their previous power.

Let's go back to the writing of the Old Testament. It has both demonic and angelic origins, but the whole appears to be negative. When evil entities (demons) were acting on people in those days, they did not need such a complex system of controlling beings from transmitters located on the Moon and elsewhere as you have today. After all, everything was under the undeniable rule of the Pseudocreators who could create any conditions depicting the negative state! The rulers of evils and falsities knew full well that something was afoot (My First coming), but they did not know exactly what, for no one can see into the absolute mind, but they suspected that sooner or later "something" would be written that would contain the unadulterated Word of God. Therefore, out of the minds of the Pseudocreators came previously unrecognized falsities that created the concept of a punishing God that required obedience, sacrifice, servility, and other things. This God of the Old Testament indeed represents the Pseudocreators who made themselves false gods and creators of everything and everyone. Mankind has worshipped them even more since then because they had the "word of God" from them, but few realized that it was purely false.

From the very beginning, when they displaced themselves to hells, they wanted the trapped beings to worship them, but they did not want them to know who exactly they were worshipping, so they took on many forms and created many false religious teachings, dogmas and doctrines.

After the evil entities had dictated the entire text of the Old Testament to the people, this work was ready to become an integral part of the Bible, where it was to be present next to the teaching and life of their adversary, Jesus Christ, that is, next to the New Testament. And so it was. The vast majority of human beings have difficulty distinguishing the true Word of God from the satanic when reading the Bible. Only a very small one thousandth of one percent of the people in gross bodies from the Pseudocreators then understand the meaning of the individual passages of the New Testament, which has a deep spiritual meaning that is corresponded with the coexistence of the negative state alongside the positive and all things related to the unfolding of events in this cycle of time. The New Testament is written in spiritual language so as not to be contaminated by falsities and to take its words literally makes no sense. The meaning of its passages is explained in a comprehensive form and with explanations in the books of The New Revelation brought here from Me by Peter Daniel Francuch. The New Testament has been censored throughout its existence, thousands of words have been omitted, but its true spiritual meaning could never be distorted and perverted.

I have everything under control and the plan to bring humanity out back to heaven is perfect. When the typical human era ends in the Zone of Displacement and elsewhere in Creation, the New Testament will become obsolete and will be replaced by something entirely new as a new cycle of time enters into being and existence. Everything will be completely new, because stagnation and clinging to old values is unacceptable in God's world.

THE MORE YOU ASCEND THE SPIRITUAL SPIRAL, THE MORE TRUTH YOU ARE ABLE TO ACCEPT

Spiritually asleep people, who are the majority due to the encapsulation of their spirit, are unable to take in even the most basic information about the workings of the world and the universe, let alone take an interest in the spiritual world. These people are disconnected from communication with Me, their degree of control is currently over 95%. Mostly they are guided by their own ego, they do not feel intuition, therefore their perception of Love, which is all around, is at the freezing point. Their god is money, they replace true love with lust to achieve and promote their own goals. They ridicule anyone who brings any truth in spiritual form, because it distorts their perception of the false world and only irritates them. For these controlled beings, it means that the time has not yet come for them to awaken and wake up from the illusion of this reality.

Then there is a second category of individuals who are at the beginning of the spiritual path. For them there is a gradual reduction of control by negative entities. They are only able to accept the truth to a small extent, and an individual approach of spiritual study must be required. Many alternative texts are addressed to them, which are often contradictory but have one thing in common: they deny the existence of evil and dark forces or foolishly claim that good and evil are two compatible concepts, hence that even evil is the essence of the Creator. They believe that this human life on planet Zero, with its problems and imperfect bodies, is controlled and maintained by Me, The Lord Jesus Christ. Nothing is further from the truth. I created and am endlessly creating only the positive state that manifests the elements of the absolute state in relative form. I repeat, I did not create the typical human life and Zone of Displacement! Those who think that there is no such thing as Satan (Pseudocreators) are again not yet able to accept this fact. For them I have prepared a book with N. D. Walsh, Conversations with God (3 parts) and other books of his that I have dictated to him. My plan for their spiritual ascension is perfect, therefore it is necessary that the truth be present in various degrees.

The next broad group of earthlings on the spiritual path is at an advanced stage of the spiral. These are the ones who have reduced the degree of control below 50% and are receiving further (and this time very crucial) information. They are now learning that good has nothing to do with evil, as evil was not, is not, and never will be a part of God. They are well aware that the workings of what they live in are unjust and difficult. They successfully perceive the evil around them and do not deny it, but very often blame God (by whatever name) for allowing it and letting millions of entities suffer. Mankind and all in the Zone of Displacement are separated from the God of The Lord Jesus Christ and others in Creation because of the experiment and their choices. I will not state here why what is happening is happening, for all is explained in detail in both doses of The New Revelation of The Lord Jesus Christ by Peter D. Francuch and My direct incarnation Jana at <http://bozirodina.cz>.

The fourth group of the spiritually awakened are diverse in their studies. The degree of control decreases drastically, ranging from 30% to 20%. They are becoming connected to Me, to their intuition. This happens mostly unconsciously, but for many consciously. It depends on the soul plan, how the person perceives the connection to The Lord Jesus Christ, to angels, archangels and other entities of the positive state, e.g. ascended masters or universe people, etc... The form of perception of the spiritual world also varies. Some people perceive angels all the time, others regularly travel to higher dimensions, and others may perceive nothing. Again, it depends on the soul's plan, certainly not on the maturity and origin of the spirit. This group includes a large number of light co-workers from all over the world who bring truth to the less awakened, also eyewitness accounts of life beyond this world. They are dangerous to the elites who try to keep everyone in ignorance and lie. I am coordinating all the co-workers so that the teachings of the coming changes will spread to all corners of the world in this time of transformation, and that billions of seeds will be planted in the souls of those who seek to listen to them.

The last group of the awakened are able to constantly receive the highest degree of truth that can be given to all at this time. More truth cannot be comprehended and administered at this time, as none of those who are temporarily incarnated into human bodies by the Pseudocreators, moreover with the sophisticated control system in the territory of the negative state, would be able to bear the weight of more truth, they would literally go mad. This applies even to the most advanced beings who have temporarily taken on human form. I repeat, no one is loaded with more than he/she can bear, and that includes this. The control rate is consistently below 20%. Just to give you an idea: the female direct incarnation of The Lord Jesus Christ - Jana - is 2% controlled by negative entities. Those whom intuition leads to the books of the New Revelation, which contain the highest truth in a complete form that could be transferred to this planet, are able to accept the one true name of the Creator of everything and everyone, which is The Lord Jesus Christ. This name has a deep spiritual meaning, so it is not a soulless name. People at the top of the growth spiral in the last turn experience enlightenment.

The penultimate and final group are the beacons in the darkness, the carriers of the Word of God. To be able to transmit it also, you only need to have Love in your heart, to get rid of prejudices, control, expectations and too much negativity. They live each day according to God's plan and let lead by Me. They act with purity in their hearts, they do not impose themselves on anyone, but are only there for the ready, i.e. they do not speak to deaf ear.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

ASCENSION OR RE-VIBRATION TO A HIGHER DIMENSION OF THE MULTIVERSE IS LEAVING REALITY WITHOUT EXPERIENCING THE DEATH OF THE PHYSICAL BODY

Only those who are spiritually mature enough to leave this reality in the manner of re-vibration at the division of humanity are able to continue their lives without being interrupted by physical death. These are mostly souls from the 7th and higher dimensions of the Multiverse who have been inspired by positive patterns during their various lifetimes, have made contact with Me, have radiated light and love into the darkness and hatred, and have contributed greatly to raising the vibrations of humanity and the entire planet, thus helping to lay the foundation for the path to the higher realms of the positive state for all. For a brief explanation of the ascension process, we will again use the description already mentioned in The New Revelation of The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family, this time enriched with new insights. There are several variations of relocation to a higher dimension, but this communication is intended to bring human beings closer to the variant without the experience of the death of the body.

An individual who has fulfilled his/her light mission 100% will have no reason to stay in this reality a second longer. At the latest in the last wave of the re-vibration, just before the second coming of the Pseudocreators, every light co-worker will be freed from the shackles of this world. When the long-awaited time comes, even the still-sleeping humans who choose to live on a planet that will fall deeper into hells will notice the disappearance of tens of thousands of people in a short period of time. But they won't want to think about why it's happening, because their level of control will be raised to the maximum and they will be assured by the wolf in sheep's clothing (the dark side) that nothing serious is happening and "paradise awaits all without exception", which will be the slogan that Satan will proclaim to all who participate in the final phase of the typical human era. The diminution of the spiritual intelligence of the remaining humans is only one of the many components of the pseudo-life in hells into which over 2/3 of humanity will throw themselves of their own free will. But this number is only indicative and not to be taken as dogma, for everything is constantly changing and no one is destined to be where they don't want to be. Only I, the absolute Creator, know who will be delivered, and no one else, which is understandable. Always remember that no one is getting 100% true information because it is utterly impossible. If that were to be the case, every inhabitant in the Zone of Displacement would succumb to self-destruction. Only when consciousness is opened to all without exception will all of Creation, even in the Zone of Placement, be made aware of all that pertains to the nature of the existence of the negative state and everyone will be guaranteed true information. This will happen at the end of the cycle of time.

Let's go back to the actual re-vibration. This unique event happens in a relatively short time. First, the mentioned individual receives telepathic information that it is time to leave this reality. Once again, the 3rd eye is activated, even in someone who has never used it before. This allows them to "hear" Me directly without the side sensations that can sometimes occur due to imperfect bodies without a full connection between ego and spirit in conventional telepathy. When he/she is told that it is time to "pack his/her bags" and go to his/her true home in the 5th dimension, there will be a gradual increase in body vibrations. The news of leaving planet Zero cannot occur in the immediate moment before the actual disappearance from 3D, but sufficient time must be given to sort out the last things in the old life and mentally prepare for this amazing ride. I am proceeding individually, and like the Event, the announcement of the relocation to the new world will be perceived differently by everyone. When I make the mentioned individual aware of the situation, it will mean that he/she has the last week to 14 days of preparation time, which covers both the old and the new life coming in. During the transition period, as has been said, day by day the vibrations of the gross body you are currently living in will be increased, and therefore you will feel lighter and much better. The vibrations of your body will align with the vibrations of your soul and spirit. When the process of raising the vibrations of the body is complete, you will reach the point where the time is right to leave this reality. You will begin to vibrate very strongly, literally light will begin to emanate from you. The vibration will be caused by the atoms that make up your physical shell oscillating very rapidly. The exact time, place and circumstances of your re-vibration are determined only by you. When you are fully ready and give your consent to leave this reality, you will suddenly begin to pleasantly shake and resonate, you will be surrounded by light and you will feel a lightness coming over you. Your feet will leave the ground of this reality for the last time and you will literally float a few inches into the air. If you are observed by anyone, you will be seen by those around you in a bath of white-gold light and gradually fade from the sight of all living and "non-living" things in the 3rd dimension, literally disappearing from this world. Yet, as this is happening, from your point of view, the old world will also disappear. The matter you are made of will dissolve in an instant in all directions. At this point you will reach the boundary between the 3D and 5D frequency bands.

After you reach the band, you will be transported through a kind of light tunnel to the 5th dimension, most often to New Earth. Your new body will be reassembled and restructured into a new crystal-based form called a duplicate when the matter of your old body is decomposed. This is no longer from the Pseudocreators, but from Me, The Lord Jesus Christ. It is free from all imperfections, no longer containing any elements relating to the negative state. The whole inside with the organs is unrecognizable from the old one. It is not important to indicate the functioning of the duplicate at this time, but it is worth mentioning that the heart does not have the shape of a strangely shaped muscle, as you have here, but has the shape of the heart that you know in the illustrations. It is a spiritual heart that is used to communicate with Me, to establish loving relationships with everyone, and many other productive things. I have placed it in the center of the chest.

How can we describe the ascension experience? As a wonderful ride full of excitement, positivity and light, with a loving embrace with your beloved brothers and sisters at the end, along with an endless exploration of the infinite aspects of life in Creation. You will also be treated to a wonderful touch of the spiritual atmosphere of paradise on earth after the re-vibration. As you unfold and master the new (but otherwise common) abilities of traveling in time and space, perceiving multiple aspects of your being, etc., you will become respected advanced persons who have had the privilege of going through it all. It is worth "waiting" a few years for this experience, I assure you; but I also remind you that you are not to wait with folded arms for things to come, but to use the remaining time to carry out your mission.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

MESSAGE 13

TRANSFORMATION IS THE WAY TO HEAVEN, TRANSHUMANISM IS THE WAY TO HELLS. TRANSHUMANISM WILL BRING GREATER ENSLAVEMENT, TRANSFORMATION WILL BRING LIBERATION

Only through transformation does the path of eternal life lead. You cannot approve of the pseudo-conveniences of the negative state and at the same time want to enter the positive state, that is heaven. You have to choose which side to take.

No one will move anywhere spiritually by external means to improve the quality of life in a fabricated human body that I did not create. Those who choose the path of transhumanism will continue to stumble in the same place, only delaying the irreversible destiny when one day they will finally know the true nature of living in the negative state, in order to objectively compare whether it is worth it to live in constant abundance, plenty, and most importantly, true spirituality, in union with the Source of life.

The elites offer their technological achievements to a select few. They promise a more comfortable, easier, and supposedly "better" life if they use the means to serve matter, rather than preferring to work on themselves and grow on a spiritual spiral aimed at freeing themselves from the habits of a dead life created by God's opponents. Why is human life dead? Because from the perspective of the 5th and higher dimensions of the Multiverse, this way of existence appears dead, even though those who experience it (humans) are accustomed to a limited way of living without connection to their higher selves, without communication with beings of light, completely separated from what is natural. Soon the beauties of true life will be experienced by those who do not cling to being in matter, which temporarily hinders the flight into freedom.

Transformation is the way to heaven. Those who do not love ephemeral things like money, material goods, elevating themselves above others, exploitation, preferring one over another... and simply an earthly system based on the motto "divide and rule", but think and act positively, need not fear having to suffer in the New World Order that is about to descend upon the mostly unsuspecting inhabitants of this severely tested planet. There is no need to list the things that will secure your place in paradise on earth. As we have said many times, the only ticket to paradise is vibrations. Each person is responsible only for themselves, and therefore the vibrations of all individuals is an unbiased mirror of the measure of good (otherwise the measure of evil) that you carry within you.

Transhumanism is the way to hells. Its goal is to eliminate diseases, poverty, and improve physical and mental abilities through supposed "progress". Upon their arrival, the Pseudocreators will introduce transhumanism on a massive scale for their closest one's, that is, the main minions and actors in the brief pseudo-victory of the negative state on planet Zero and elsewhere in the anti-universe. These "enhancements" will not apply to ordinary people who have no idea what is going on, and are blindfolded and walking on a wide paved road to hells that is so wide that even the blind (in the spiritual sense) cannot encounter any obstacles on it. On the contrary, awakened people ascend the narrow thorny path to heaven, but they have what the blind do not have - the direct support, guidance and protection of The Lord Jesus Christ. At the end of their journey they will be duly rewarded with eternal life. Even the unawakened will be "rewarded" by the devil in their own way - with a pseudo-life in the intermediate world of the proper dimension of the Zone of Displacement, popularly speaking in hells.

Transhumanism will bring greater enslavement, which will not be noticed by the people who will live under the rule of the Evil One, but rather they will enjoy even more the privilege they may have been given. Their soul dwellings will receive enhancements in the form of implants in the body, nanotechnologies, genetic code enhancements (further manipulation of DNA, greater incorporation of evil into it), transference of their personality into virtual reality, intelligence augmentation, increased lifespan, psychic resistance to things around them (will be abused against receiving true Love), telepathy, teleportation, and of course the introduction of a chip into the body to increase their level of control to 99.99%. We are only listing some of the things involved in so-called overcoming human limitations, as there are a wide variety of body "enhancements". The privilege of enhancements will not be long lasting and will end upon leaving this dimension for the spirit world. Then the soul of every evil creature will be stripped to the bone to feel what it is like to be in the negative state without the promises they were so enthralled with when they lived on planet Zero. Promises are like pie-crust, and the entities of the anti-universe are very fond of promising all sorts of things, but they will soon cancel the agreement with the one who has pledged his/her soul to their side, and only abuse him/her to achieve their own ends, or "when they are catching bird, they are singing to it nicely nicely".

Transhumanism will also serve to create supermen who will attempt to attack the positive state of the Multiverse. There will be nothing natural about these entities, for they will differ from humans in that even their souls will be artificial, and they will react to contact with anything positive with a self-destructive explosion. Therefore, this army of bio-robots must be brought outside the dimensional structure of Creation, when all the conveniences of the Pseudocreators will fail.

The only natural path is the transformation that is now taking place, culminating in your relocation to the 5th dimension on New Earth. Those who are already taking advantage of the possibility of having a chip under their skin to pay for electronic transactions with just a touch of their hand, for example, cannot participate in the rapture to the new reality. But nothing compares to the abilities of the crystalline-based subtle bodies in True Creation, because they are created directly by Me, thus they are perfect. For more information on this subject, see The New Revelation of The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family in Chapter 24: "The Difference Between Transhumanism and Transformation."

THE EVENT, WHICH I ALSO POSTED UNDER THE TITLE "WARNING", IS ANOTHER IMPORTANT "ACCELERATION" OF THE TRANSFORMATION AFTER DECEMBER 21, 2012

In 2015, in the 31st chapter of The New Revelation of The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family, for the first time ever in the history of the Multiverse, I shared the truest information to date about the mercy of God, which I have titled "The Warning". Since that moment, another piece of truth is present, not only among human beings, which comes directly from the only Creator. In addition, since the completion of the second portion of the New Revelation, there has been another shift in the sphere of Creation, which has the goal of even more intense changes that involve accelerating the transformation of humanity. The event that is soon to befall all individuals living on planet Zero will be of vital value, for it is mainly through it that earthlings will decide whether to accept Love and Me into their hearts so that they do not have to suffer in the worsening conditions on a planet that will fall deeper into the Zone of Displacement.

The Messages of The Lord Jesus Christ are intended primarily for our co-workers and followers who already know for the most part what is going on, have read at least one portion of the New Revelation, and are able to assimilate other relevant information from the spirit world that further broadens their horizons. Therefore, I will not speak here in terms that attempt to generalize the luminous texts, but will continue to use the style and terms that you may see in its second portion. Also in this communication I will no longer repeat to you exactly what has been written, for nothing is repeated twice, but I will use the technique of "repetition in spiral" which builds on truths already revealed, occasionally recalling them and, above all, adding new insights.

As you already know, the purpose of the Event will be for the light co-workers to strengthen their belief in God (by whatever name), the sleeping people, who are most often true humans, will get direct proof of My existence for the first time ever, and the agents of the negative state, the souls from hells, will have the privilege, unlike their comrades living in the Zone of Displacement outside planet Zero, of seeing Me with their inner sight and being able to make a rapid advance into True Creation, literally jumping out of the swamp of evil and falsity into the warm cotton of good and beauty. Otherwise, their hearts will "burst" and they will prefer to continue to serve their slave masters, often until the end of the cycle of time, who promise them what they want to hear, but here more than anywhere else, promises are like pie-crust, as the dark side will sooner or later break them. Only The Absolute Lord Jesus Christ promises and guarantees you the most joyous life in heaven, experiences, adventures and things you never dream of. You will be experiencing them very soon, when you re-vibrate from this world to where you belong.

The event is described by many prophets to better prepare mankind for it. But the vast majority of humans do not understand exactly what it means. There are even tendencies where it is distorted and downplayed into an untrue form. Because of the complexity of the whole situation, I have had to allow especially believing Christians to receive messages from selected prophets that the Warning will come almost simultaneously with the Second Coming of The Lord Jesus Christ. I repeat that the Second Coming has been taking place since 1957 with My second incarnation on this planet, this time in a female body, to initiate the final phase of the end of the negative state in being and existence. In the absolute everything is happening simultaneously, only beings living in matter at different stages of evolution experience the linear passage of time. That is why I almost never communicate even through My co-workers the dates of anything, for time is not important. I know you would very much like to know the year and month of such and such a point when the outward manifestation of the so-called "god intervention" occurs, but believe Me, it would do more harm than good. My plan with all of you is absolutely perfect, so always accept the things that happen in and around you with humility. I know very well how difficult it is to endure many situations with life here, because I experienced them in the body of Jesus and still experience them in the body of Jana. Everything takes place from the inside out, as I wrote in the previous portion of New Revelation with Peter, and also the Second Coming is first manifested internally and then externally. This will only be concurrent with the elimination of the negative state at the end of the cycle of time. Then God's mission will be completed. Perhaps you are noticing why God's mission with the transformation of humanity will only be completed then? Because even after the division of humanity and the re-vibration of a part of the earth's population for the time being, God's Family will not cease its activity, on the contrary, only then will the undistorted enjoyment and joy with its cooperation begin, when gradually the whole of Creation will learn about its important mission. Together with humanity, it will go through the evolution from the 5th dimension to the point where everything was before the Fall.

I'll come right back to the topic of Events. When I appear to all people indiscriminately, I will take you through your whole life so far, and you will see your most important moments in life, whether they were good or bad, as on tape. I will release everyone from the control of negative entities for a few minutes so that you can rise above it all and see the whole story from an unbiased perspective. Within 15 minutes (from a linear time perspective) I will consult with each one about his/her worries and joys, he/she be in a sea of love and I embrace him/her. It will be the innermost, most private and most personal dialogue with me that you have experienced since you have lived on planet Zero. I am not forcing anyone to follow Me/us even after the Warning, but there are appropriate consequences that are not caused by Me in any way, but by the free choice of adherence to the Pseudocreators.

What specifically will happen during the Event? It's impossible to tell you everything in detail, but it's time for Me to give it more details. First, at one point, the entire sky is lit up with a white, non-dazzling light. In the hemisphere, where it will be night at that time, it will of course also happen. This glow will attract the attention of billions of people. At that moment, all components of the dark side will be put on high alert as they momentarily lose control of every human. But they will not be allowed to do anything to thwart the Event. So much pure divine love will be poured out on planet Zero in one moment that you can only imagine it when it happens. It is no coincidence that you can perceive ever-increasing levels of energies such as Bovis energy on the internet and around you. These values will rise steadily until the very culmination of the division of humanity. Energies are being sent to your planet from the Central Sun without ceasing, where the highest consciousness is anchored in this universe. From it, positively charged photons flow into this solar system via the Sun. The steady increase in energy is intended to accelerate the transformation and spiritual renewal of a portion of the population, culminating in the aforementioned Event. The elites are trying to prevent the so-called chemtrails from the influx of photons and its uplifting vibrations. Everything is done under My supervision, and they are only allowed to do what is absolutely necessary to answer the question of life without God and spiritual laws. If it were not for My presence even in the Zone of Displacement, whole it would have fallen apart long ago.

When the sky lights up, the light from the sky descends to the earth. At that moment, all human bustle, traffic... movement stops. Your immortal consciousness will emerge from the gross body where everyone will see Me with their inner vision. Bear in mind that this will take place within each of you and will be an experience more vivid than a dream, but not captured by any technical means. The perception of The Lord Jesus Christ will vary from individual to individual. Since I am omnipotent, I will use for each the form of God that is most in harmony with him/her. To the most advanced beings, the awakened and the Christians, I will usually appear in the perfect body of Jesus, to members of other religions I will appear in the forms in which they imagine the Creator to be. I will also choose a suitable apparition for die-hard atheists. Everything is perfect and there is no need to worry about any imperfections. I reveal here only a small and limited slice of what will happen when your soul meets The Lord Jesus Christ. This is because no one is given 100% information, and also because you need to ask yourself what this experience will actually mean to you and look at it as you feel it. There is no need to elaborate on multiple points about the face-to-face encounter, for this will vary from individual to individual.

Positive beings will rejoice, negative beings will feel their hearts squeeze because they will feel regret for the evil they have done. This will happen to those agents of the negative state who have an epiphany and turn in heavenward. Those who show no interest in converting will stubbornly scratch their nails on the wall and rail against Love, but as a result this scratching will only be unpleasant to their ears, because everyone behind that wall (in the positive state) will be doing much more pleasant things and will not even remember their old life. The warning precedes some of the people being re-vibrated to paradise on earth, so that you yourself will still witness how the system that moves the world will behave. The divine experience will be distorted by the media, branded as delusional and hallucinatory, but nothing will confuse you anymore, for by the end of your mission in 3D you will walk the illuminated path to heaven without stumbling any more.

This act will begin the final countdown to the arrival of the Pseudocreations on planet Zero. It is also further assurance that your deliverance is near. After the last wave of co-workers has been re-vibrated, the flow of light energy will be stopped. Thereafter, all areas of life in reality will deteriorate and fall to a -1 position. At that point, nothing will prevent the typical human era in this theatre from playing its last scene, the curtain will be drawn back for the last time, and the remaining "actors" behind it will be able to choose once more whether they want to live in the positive state.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

MESSAGE 15

CAST OFF THE FEAR OF ANYTHING AT LAST AND BE LED BY ME, THE LORD JESUS CHRIST. NO ONE KNOWS, LOVES AND PROTECTS YOU AS PERFECTLY AS I, YOUR BEST AND MOST DEVOTED FRIEND AND LOVE.

A large number of human beings, whether they are from higher dimensions, true humans, or souls from the Zone of Displacement, tend to worry about almost anything. It doesn't matter if they are afraid for their life, their loved ones, their future... their soul. Because of this, they tend to plan their lives to be the "best" and copy their surroundings, which have been living in an entrenched system of negativity for thousands of years. Fear lowers the vibrations, planning anything in turn plays into the hands of the alien entities - the controllers who are in charge of you and control most of humanity up to 95%.

Finally, take away the fear of everything and let yourselves be led by Me, The Lord Jesus Christ. This can be done by stopping paying so much attention to the things that are part of the set system for earthly living, where information is pouring in from all sides and you no longer have time for what is really important to you, which is to be led by the One who created you. Only in this way will you open the door wide to true spiritual love, which has little in common with the love most of you know. The elites are well aware that by engaging the intuition (= making conscious contact with Me) the level of control is drastically reduced and there is a gradual un-encapsulation of the spirit and soul, which until then have been enclosed in a special envelope of energy-proto plasma, which is the work of the Pseudocreators and other negative entities. Besides the gradual reduction of control, you are getting rid of fear in all forms. You are ascending on the spiritual path and after reaching a certain point you are able to "be above it all".

Very few incarnated beings in human gross bodies have unmediated contact with God. This also applies to a large number of light co-workers, who may not have a direct connection to the source of life, but who help to bring the less advanced people into the light in an individual way. Therefore, at first glance, almost every teaching on spiritual truths seems to be inconsistent and contradictory to the previous one, but this is because each one brings a different degree of truth to the table. It is safe to say that there are as many truths as there are people. Surely you already know that no one accepts a 100% level of truth, because as long as you live in the Zone of Displacement, it is not possible for many reasons. In uncovering the truth, one must proceed with caution and not accept every piece of information as guaranteed, for there are tricky and sometimes dangerous "truths" that do not come from the light, but from various people who are either agents of the negative state and know, that the spreading of false rumors also helps the gradual victory of evil on this planet, or from those who do not mean it badly, but due to their closed spiritual heart and non-connection to Me, they are exposed to the influence of the other side, and therefore various evil entities can "stick" to them, who like to pretend to be light-bearers, when it is only their attractive mask. The misleading texts from the dark side are intended for those who do not feel with the aforementioned intuition, but with the brain, ego, eyes. I emphasize that you judge the truth of the texts by feeling with your heart. You will recognize the texts from Me and from the beings from the heavens, that there is a radiant light and Love present in them, when reading them you will feel harmony and resonating, they will literally do you good for your soul.

No one knows, loves and protects you as perfectly as I, your best and most devoted friend and Love. So why surrender to politicians, bankers and elites who are controlled by reptilian entities? Do you want anything to do with monsters who will trick you, blind you with various benefits in your short earthly life, only to find out at the physical end that what you willingly served was not productive, lacked feeling, empathy, Love? I always have the upper hand, even over the Pseudocreators themselves, because no one but Me is absolute. Their power appears as a grain of sand in relation to the abilities of The Lord Jesus Christ, moreover, the darkness is temporary and will be eliminated and abolished forever after the question of life without God and spiritual principles is answered. You cannot sit in two chairs, you must choose whom you will serve. I announce to all that even those who revel in evil live in fear, even the very originators of all hardship. Infatuated with themselves, they are afraid of Love, even though it is Love that nourishes them.

By surrendering to the loving arms of The Lord Jesus Christ, you are continually protected, strengthened and loved. I love everyone and everything all the time, but by accepting God into your heart you will be able to perceive this love. Even in this body, made of the elements of the 3rd dimension, you will realize the perfect plan and order of the Creator, you will establish the long lost friendship of a best friend and girlfriend that is otherwise eternal and never ending. I know every atom of all universes perfectly and have sympathy for everyone. Talk to Me and dry the tears that separation from the source of life has caused you. Do not expect to hear a voice when you make contact. God is everywhere and in everything, therefore He/She is part of thoughts. This is how telepathy manifests itself, and you will find The Lord Jesus Christ in silence, not in noise.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

SEXUALITY AND THE SEXUAL RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN MAN AND WOMAN, MORE PRECISELY BETWEEN MASCULINITY AND FEMININITY, IS A FUNDAMENTAL PREREQUISITE FOR CO-CREATION IN THE SPIRITUAL, INTERMEDIATE AND NATURAL WORLDS OF THE MULTIVERSE

It is now necessary to explain in general terms the workings of the intimate union of woman and man in the Zone of Displacement and True Creation. More on this subject can be found in the books of the New Revelation by Peter D. Francuch, but this is intended for the advanced. It is appropriate to present this important area of life in a form of its own for the readers, co-workers and followers of God's Family in its pages.

The Pseudocreators have distorted all areas the true life to dead life, leaving almost nothing original. The entire structure of the souls and especially the bodies that now inhabit the Zone of Displacement have been transmuted. They used all sorts of animal genes to construct the body you are currently living in. But it took them a lot of work to achieve the desired result of an earthly human that would manifest their goals and serve them. As they experimented with the development of the fabricate, the Pseudocreators had to focus most on the sexual area. They proceeded cautiously step by step to copy and perverted all the 100% good elements into 95% negative elements, leaving only 5% positive aspects, according to the bodies in the positive state (= duplicates), which are perfect and from Me. The things that have taken the brunt of it are the gender-related ones.

First of all, it should be pointed out that the sexual organs as you know them are not created by The Lord Jesus Christ, but are an exception for human bodies in the Zone of Displacement. The Pseudocreators had to create the reproductive organs, but first they set themselves the task of changing the pure sexual energy that comes from within outward in the duplicates in the True Creation into an energy that will be manifested only externally and will be minimally affected by the inner mind. There was a disconnection of the sensations that had previously been in direct communication between soul and body, whereby in intercourse what you were experiencing could be experienced by your counterpart - and in turn you could experience what he/she was experiencing. Sexual vibrations were therefore replaced by matter, and the man was "fitted" with a penis and the woman with a vagina. In intercourse in humans, unlike beings in higher dimensions, everything takes place externally. The creators of the anti-universe were well aware that if it were not for Me, there would not even be the full experience of orgasm that happens in duplicates. Therefore, they limited its duration to the genital area only, which lasts only a few seconds, and moreover, it does not happen in both partners at the same time, but each at a different time, if it occurs at all. Sex can also be accompanied by discomfort, often resistance or pain. Moreover, humans have intimate contact in places that are located next to the excretory organs, which may not always be a nuisance, but from the point of view of beings of the 5th and higher dimensions, this paradox seems very unnatural, even if people here are not naturally aware of it. Why am I talking about a paradox? Would you want to make love to your counterpart in heaven in a place where he/she normally excretes waste matter? Fortunately, there is no such thing there, for My bodies are perfect. I'll explain the workings of duplicates on this subject later.

It is necessary for you to understand that God's opponents revel in filth of all kinds, so they have "planted" holes in the gross body for waste matter. This includes even the excretory glands that are all over your body. You are producing an enormous amount of substances that have absolutely nothing to do with the positive state. I will address this subject in another communication where I will deal more with the differences between the duplicate and your present physical shell.

Sexuality and the sexual relationship between man and woman, more precisely masculinity and femininity, is a fundamental prerequisite for co-creation in the spiritual, intermediate and natural worlds of the Multiverse. If it were not for this rule, all life energies would be extinguished and all movement would cease, and thus nothing new could be created. Thanks to this, not only I but also relative beings can create loving ideas from which self-conscious, unique entities can eventually emerge. The duplicates in the 5th dimension are without sexual organs, there is no menstrual cycle in women, fertile and infertile periods in both sexes, there are no perverse deviations, fluctuations and upsurge in sexual moods, resulting harassment of anyone, as you have here, and many other negative influences which need not be further mentioned, as you can fill them in yourself.

The topic of sex was and still is labelled by negative entities in the Zone of Displacement as something impure and inappropriate that people should be ashamed of and rather label as socially inappropriate. On the other hand, a plethora of pornography is produced by the ruling elites that distracts people from the true spiritual connection in the area of the second (sacral) chakra with the color orange. Because of this, there is a mental tension in people where they have forgotten what is actually good for them, and therefore there are frequent feelings of guilt or resignation, lacking the strength to fully express the emotionality, feelings and creativity of life, not knowing the exact path to take, and thus stagnating in place. You, too, have been brought up to talk as little as possible about your innermost experience and to "push away" it to the second category. But how are you going to know and compare the true nature of the workings of duality when you are unable to view any subject with the same perspective, scale and weight? The time has come for those who are already ready to receive new spiritual knowledge to receive another dose from the fount of knowledge written by the very source of all life, concerning a subject that many look at through their fingers without having to.

How does sex work in the 5th dimension for human beings? When a woman and a man meet, harmonize together and want to live as a couple, nobody and nothing prevents them from doing so. After many adventures and experiences in getting to know their counterpart, there comes a time when it's time to get to know him/her in an all-encompassing mode, through which one partner gets to know the other in full harmony and soul mingling. The partners press together and embrace each other, beginning the mutual resonance of souls and the interconnection of the light crystals of bodies whose "owners" penetrate into the interior of their counterpart. Kissing as such does not exist in any known form. Since no bodily fluids are present, there is no penetration of saliva through the mouth into the other, and the amorous kiss is not accompanied by the use of the tongue. It all sounds dry, but I can guarantee you that the kiss is much more wonderful and fulfilling than what you have in the 3rd dimension. It also takes place by pressing the lips, but it does not act only on the outward feelings of man, but completes the union of bodies and souls to the utmost. During sex in 5D all chakras are connected by a strong bond, but the most assisted is of course the sacral chakra, which is located in the lower abdomen. I, The Lord Jesus Christ, assist in everything, from whom everything comes out to make this act perfect and complete. The whole climax of lovemaking is the orgasm, which comes soon and lasts for a long time afterwards. It is not confined to the genital area (which does not exist in the True Creation), on the contrary, it permeates your soul and your partner's soul with a pleasure such as you have never experienced before. It is literally a heavenly pleasure that cannot be achieved anywhere in the Zone of Displacement. It raises the vibrations of not only those who have made love, but of the entire environment, the planet, the Multiverse. The orgasm takes place in both at the same time. To make matters worse, one partner experiences what the other is experiencing all the time and vice versa.

All quality of life improves with a never-ending convergence towards the absolute state. You too will one day reach the mood in which the highest spiritual beings are, so that you can transcend this state and continue in the new cycle. You will become creators of the infinite, of which the ever-present sexual energy is an integral part in the Multiverse, the most beautiful celebration of life, love, beauty, goodness... of God.

HOW TO SIMPLY DESCRIBE LIFE IN THE 5TH DIMENSION OF TRUE CREATION? AS A DREAM, WHICH IS WHAT YOU ON PLANET ZERO CALL UTOPIA.

The New Earth is another reality of planet Earth/Zero, which is located in the 5th Dimension of the Multiverse of The Lord Jesus Christ. Its surface is very different from the surface in this reality because the 3rd dimension cannot express the beauty of the positive state. The 5D is the first step to the top where I, the Prime Creator of everything and everyone, reside. All journeys begin on this plane of existence and you will find nothing negative there anymore because there is no room for darkness, but only for light, warmth, Love.

The entire globe is surrounded by one undivided continent, which is washed by two oceans - the northern and the southern. In the oceans you will find the most fantastic manifestations of non-sentient life in all its forms. All non-sentient entities (animals and plants) live in harmony and telepathic connection not only with each other but also with humans. You will find millions of new species of fauna and flora that do not exist on Old Earth. The world in which you are now has been fabricated by the Pseudocreators and nothing original remains in its essence, so that even the bodies of fauna and flora do not come from The Lord Jesus Christ. You may argue that the plants and trees on the Old Earth are indeed beautiful, which they are, but even those roses, carnations, lindens, maples, oaks... and all other kinds of flora were created by God's adversaries. Their beauty on this planet lies in the fact that the Pseudocreators have tried to faithfully imitate the external structure and appearance of the plants finding in the True Creation. They have succeeded in this, but what you see in nature is a mere reflection of what exists in the 5th dimension. The exterior of the flora and fauna of many species may indeed resemble what I have created, but their interior is already stripped of its positive charge on planet Zero, or the all-pervading spirituality, color, brightness, contrast, and ultimately the very behavior of the non-sentient species of entities is disappearing. These are a reflection of the quality of life of the sentient entities, that is humans. You will not naturally find negative animals in paradise on earth.

Let's go back to land. There, again, there are a number of harmonious biotopes that interact with each other. But there are no seasons as you know them. If you like one of the four seasons of the year, you will find a suitable place where the weather is constant. Do you want a fragrant spring with flowering trees whose blossoms never fall? Or perhaps a radiant summer, with the eternal light of the divine sun at your fingertips? Or do you want a colourful golden-red autumn that is as light as a spider's web in the wind? Snow lovers will find places with sparkling, penetrating snow, but it is warm because the New Earth has different physical laws.

And what about nature, how to describe it? It is like a beautiful dream that is a reality in the positive state. Even the most beautiful places on the Old Earth are no match for the beauties of the New Earth. Meadows of thousands of flowers, forests of all kinds, hundreds of thousands of islands and islets off the coast and very far from it, atolls, coves and curves of all kinds of endless beaches with fine sand, hills that turn into amazing snow-capped mountains that turn into valleys again, where there are streams and wells with infinitely clear water. Waterfalls in turn complete the relaxing atmosphere in the virgin jungle where everyone can have the utmost privacy. Last but not least, plains with grass as soft as cotton, caves, canyons and more complete the surface. All this in the presence of the scent of the positive state, clean air, a fresh temperature of around 25°C and a balmy amorousness for everything around.

You won't find factories, roads, cars, landfills, cities, bad weather, floods, droughts, cloudy skies, or money, corporations, warehouses of economic products, manipulation of any kind, overpopulated areas here... in short, absolutely none of the "conveniences" of the negative state. There will be room on New Earth for everyone who moves there, as only about 600 million of the most loving people will live there, choosing a place to live based on how the environment fits them. You'll be transported first by a high-powered flying saucer (an anti-gravity spaceship, to be precise) that will use thought to transport you not only to any place on the planet, but anywhere else in the universe. Soon your abilities will improve, over time there will be no need for machines, you will teleport by thought, you will begin to materialize things and objects at will in a split second. When you are even higher on the spiritual spiral, you will split aspects of your spirit into multiple levels, become a multidimensional being, discover hidden talents. An amazing, never-ending journey awaits you alongside an eternally loving Parent, Mother and Father in one - The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family, who will also live physically in male and female body among humans. People will live either in families, alone or otherwise, whichever one chooses. Everyone will be in constant abundance, the quality and quantity will improve beyond words. Children will be born here too, but in a different way, in a special biological sac outside the woman's body. They grow faster, they learn to be loving, and from a young age they are in conscious direct contact with Me.

I have prepared the sky for those who do not want to remain in the deteriorating conditions in the fullness of the negative state on this planet, where within the next few years the New World Order will be established under the baton of the controlling elites and the Pseudocreators themselves. The infinite harmonious worlds in the positive state of the Multiverse are ready for you, it has never been otherwise. They await, along with their inhabitants, the return of lost sons and daughters. Imagine your little place dreamt up in the mind's wildest fantasy. What would it look like? That is what the countless places in the higher dimensions where you will soon be transported look like if you have Love in your heart. The purity and harmony of those places will be yours alone. But if you prefer material things without Love, in a world that will fall deeper into the Zone of Displacement, I cannot prevent you from staying in that reality as humanity divides. But the gate of heaven is open to all who will accept Me as their own.

There is no need to elaborate further here on the qualities of living in the positive state, for God's word in this case is only meant to outline the wonderful things that await you. The other things that follow from this you can figure out for yourselves. It is necessary to lay the foundation so that you can build upon it other spiritual things and then live them under My guidance. For further information on the subject of living in the Zone of Placement, My direct incarnation Jana and I wrote in the 14th chapter of The New Revelation of The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family, "Life in the Positive State". If you wish to live in a perfect world, pack your bags and come with us to the 5th dimension, not only on New Earth, but to other infinitely diverse and equally amazing planets in many universes.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

MESSAGE 18

IN THE MULTIVERSE EVERYTHING IS INTERCONNECTED, IT IS ONE LIVING ORGANISM AND EVERY, EVEN TINY PARTICLE AFFECTS THE WHOLE

Eons of years ago, when Creation did not yet exist in the active mode, I existed in My original substance of absolute state without any relative beings. It is a holy truth that I was created by no one and nothing, for I am the alpha and the omega, the beginning and the end of everything. I exist in the absolute of the 13th dimension, where there is no time or space, in the moment of the HERE AND NOW. All the evolutionary lines of all times and para-times from eternity to eternity are present therein as they happen and do not happen, for with me/in me everything conceivable and unthinkable is possible. That I have no beginning or end can only be fully understood by beings living in the highest dimensions that most closely approximate and resemble divine constructiveness. Therefore, do not make anything of the fact that you do not understand everything, because you are bound by time and space, moreover, you are in the antiverse, where you are exposed to the influences of the negative state for the time of your stay in it, therefore you have experienced false pseudo-conventions about God and life as such.

If you ask for My help, you will be able to receive without difficulty the latest word of God, which begins with the study of many alternative spiritual teachings, leads through the next stages of truth discovery, and ends with the reading of both portions of The New Revelation of The Lord Jesus Christ, along with the surrender of your life to a loving Creator. This sequence is general and each soul's journey is different, which is why I am now speaking of people on the narrow end of the spectrum. The New Revelation, the key word of God for this cycle of time, will be encountered at some point by all sentient entities, even those who have the most evil and violent tendencies and reside on the lowest levels of hells. I control everything and I have the perfect plan to bring out to freedom those who have been trapped in darkness. Know that once the true nature of the negative state is revealed, there will be almost no one who will be reluctant to enter the positive state of their own free will, as there will be nothing to motivate lowly entities to live in a state of misery and suffering.

Let's go back to the original topic. When I existed from eternity to eternity in My solitude, I could not share with anyone My elements of life, love, beauty, good, harmony, satisfaction and other many aspects of the totality. Therefore, the process of movement began when I released the first ideas from the absolute mind, which became self-conscious beings. In this step Creation as known to beings in Love came into being, but remember that something always precedes something else, therefore absolutely everything that is given to the people of planet Zero even in the form of the word of God is very much abridged, generalized and simplified because you would not be able to contain more in your limited reality. Even the previous steps of creating the existence of the three levels of the Multiverse worlds do not come from nothing. It is a constant process of precede without beginning or end. The Firstborns helped and are forever helping to create the spiritual, intermediate and natural worlds of Creation. Everyone, including humans, helps create life, but on their own qualitative and quantitative level. In the Multiverse, everything is interconnected, it is one living organism, and every, ever tiny article, affects the whole. I will come back to this later.

As some of you know, the Firstborn are the spiritual "parents" of those created after them (see The New Revelation of The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family in Chapter 27: "(Re)incarnation." In the step/dimension below them, the newly created are again the "parents" of those brought into being and existence after them in the next step, and so on ad infinitum. For the spiritual growth of entities of all kinds, innumerable universes arise, of which there are an infinite number. The sum total of all universes then gives rise to the term "Multiverse". Imagine a vast desert. When you take a handful of sand, you hold thousands of grains. Each grain then represents, in My view, one whole universe with billions of suns, trillions of planets and quadrillions of sentient and non-sentient beings who are shaping their lifestyles and generations in accordance with spiritual laws and principles of love, moving towards spiritual evolution. This one universe then consists of 12 dimensions, each different from the other in all its inimitable aspects and appearances. If you were to count the grains of all the deserts of the world, this number would not come anywhere near the actual number of ever-emerging universes. Yes, it's all so grandiose, but you will experience the magnificence firsthand on your journey through life when you too create in a big way. This journey begins in the 5th dimension where a part of you will move based on vibrations, attitudes and actions.

As the title of the chapter says, everything is one living organism. The Multiverse is made up of life energies emanating from sentient entities, with Me "enveloping" it and watching over everything. Creation is relative to The Lord Jesus Christ, so I transcend everything. This can also be interpreted by imagining the entire infinite (finite in relation to the Creator) Multiverse as a ball on a table. Around it extends the external world, which at any one time contains and has more things going on in it than what occurs in that ball. And this very world is in a figurative sense an absolute state, Me, The Lord Jesus Christ, which has only the difference that your world is bounded and finite, whereas I reach further and further beyond all boundaries. The surrounding world (the absolute state) thus feeds the ball (the Multiverse) into which potential life experiences are pumped to eventually become reality, lived through one's own existential freedom. The ball is continually growing as everything evolves in pursuit of the constant approach to The Lord Jesus Christ. This is a very simple way to explain the relationship between the universe and God in an era of ongoing transformation.

Everything is visibly and invisibly interconnected, for life appears as a whole, containing large and small parts, thus ensuring the flawless functioning of the whole. Let us start from the lowest elements to the highest. Although there are more and more smaller particles after atoms, we will set it the starting point for better memorization. Gravity holds the atoms together. They make up all the matter you know in this and several other universes. Matter forms bodies on many bases (carbon in 3D, crystalline in 5D...) for all evolving entities, that includes planets and stars. Souls from different stages of evolution incarnate on them to gain a plethora of experiences, enjoyments and adventures. The higher the vibrational plane, the thinner the matter, so that the atoms vibrate faster and are further apart. The developmental stages of the whole of one plane are called dimensions in all the natural, intermediate and spiritual worlds, which are separated from each other in the present cycle of time, but in the next step of Creation there will already be an interconnection of each of them, for there will no longer be a negative state. The planets form families in their own solar systems, with the associated star they orbit being their "parent" which radiates nourishing energy from itself to its "children". The stars are the most mature souls of the celestial bodies of the solar systems, followed by the planets.

The individual suns again form families in clusters, and so it goes on to the central sun, which is at the centre of each galaxy and nourishes all the associated stars and celestial bodies, which from it pass on the life energy to the planets on which there is sentient and non-sentient life, which also uses the radiated energy for its own growth. All the inhabitants of that body and the flora and the fauna then pass the life force on to molecules, atoms and other smaller building blocks as yet unknown to you. Even in the case of the central galactic suns, the evolution to the larger denominator does not stop, for energy flows to them from elsewhere, namely from the central cosmic sun around which all the galaxies of the universe revolve. The cosmic sun is the governing body of each universe, a kind of representative of the absolute state in relative condition, the fulcrum from which all movement of dimensions in the sphere of Creation it occupies and governs is derived. It contains the aggregate of highly advanced creator beings who keep it running by my mandate. And it is the cosmic sun that I feed directly from My infinite source in an absolute state. I,

The Lord Jesus Christ, am the shining sun of all. My rays of love fall upon each one in the same boundless measure, for I love each one of you so boundlessly. The most and the least advanced souls occupy the same position in relation to Me, for all are equal with all. Do you understand now that we are one living interconnected organism? There is no separation, and if anyone experiences it, such as members of the negative state, it is only illusory and temporary, for even the Zone of Displacement is part of the Creation in which all live, in this case only with the difference that there is a lack of Love in the anti-universe. Peter D. Francuch and I wrote more about the control and patterns of the positive state in our book Four Concepts Of The Spiritual Structure Of Creation back in 1982.

Just I will come back to the correspondence of the negative state with the whole. The negative state threatens the whole in a very dangerous way. Even before the first incarnation of the then Most High into the Zone of Displacement in the body of Jesus Christ, this state could be equated with the positive state, as it prevailed in the anti-universe and began to threaten the True Creation. Had it not been for the Most High in human body, when He/She entered hells after His/Her crucifixion to subdue all evils, the entire Multiverse would have sooner or later perished under the self-destructive onslaught of evils and falsities. I could never let that happen, which is why I intervened. Remember that only I have all the proper means to save Creation. Now comes an important point, and that is that it does not matter the size and value of a particular place or point that is occupied in the structure of the Multiverse. Your planet Zero is living proof of this phenomenon, illustrating the results and consequences of living without true spiritual principles. It is this grain of sand (compared to the whole) that is currently the most important place in this time cycle. Let it be repeated again: it is here that beings from both directions of duality meet, it is here that was conceived, will win for a while, and will be terminated the negative state that has been alive throughout its activation thanks to this seemingly tiny place. So you can see that one single spot on planet Earth/Zero, this tiny particle, affects literally the entire infinite totality, for it is the key to ending an entire, all-important stage of Creation, the value of which you will only be able to understand later.

The importance of everything carries over to you, both the importance of your unique and unrepeatable soul, and the importance of your present earthly life, which gives you the ability to do so much in a short period of time from the perspective of linear time that you would not otherwise have accomplished in dozens of incarnations in other corners of Creation, were it not for your presence on planet Zero. While it is inappropriate to compare almost anything to anything, the analogy can be used here to remind you of the privilege you have by virtue of earthly life. Therefore, you must not underestimate yourself or exalt yourself, but be grateful for your originality and gifts of spirit that allow you to be yourself regardless of place, time, and current position of your unique life path - this includes staying in the positive state forever and staying temporarily on the edge of the Zone of Displacement. Each is a full part in the colorful mosaic of the Multiverse, where we create life in its most beautiful manifestations and substances side by side for eternity, "pulling together" so to speak. No one can be missing in the mosaic, otherwise the whole work would be devalued. I look at these colorful images and experience joy and gratitude with you for being all that you are, because I am you and you are Me.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

MESSAGE 19

THE LAW OF FREE CHOICE IS A CONDITION FOR THE EXISTENCE OF LIFE, BUT IT CANNOT BE UNDERSTOOD AS AN ABSOLUTE

From the very beginning of totality, the true spiritual laws of The Lord Jesus Christ are set in motion with the principles of all-encompassing love. Those who wish to become acquainted with them for the first time can do so, in particular, by reading the first portion of the New Revelation, especially Chapter 10: "Update, Modification and Redefinition of the Spiritual Laws," as well as Chapter 24: "The Ten Commandments Revisited." I remind and advise that this most important book should be read in sequence and it is not advisable to skip parts of it. The laws given are perfect and flawless, though you cannot fully encompass this constructiveness, as with everything in a finite world. Some apply only to this cycle of time, to be restructured and restored later, others apply for all eternity. They have nothing to do with the infernal pseudo-laws for your planet, which are binding and the ordinary citizen has essentially nothing to gain from them, as they are set up by negative elites and entities to harm and benefit only the highest (not spiritually) and wealthiest, who perpetuate the state of non-love not only on planet Zero, and help its short-lived victory. I have said before that almost no one is familiar with earthly laws, regulations, directives and all that you have here, because they naturally do not have the time, strength or desire to study them. This paradox plays into the hands of the rulers of their "herd", as they want to disorient all those who come into contact with their system. Just in case, they have invented the law of all laws, which is that their ignorance is not excused and will be punished. The negative state literally loves complexities and nonsense that must be put into practice and carried out to the letter at any cost. Beings in the Zone of Displacement have long since become accustomed to having to abide by them. Even human beings can hardly imagine life existing without thousands of commandments and prohibitions about what they can and cannot do.

Notice how more and more commandments are being approved by supranational institutions that further restrict human freedom and the dignity of individual rights. This is because the typical human era and the agony of the anti-universe is coming to a gradual end, but before that, human problems will be magnified many times over to unimaginable proportions one last time, which will again be one of the ingredients of the victory of darkness on planet Zero. Then this experiment will be completed. I know it sounds harsh, but everything is done by the free choice and selection of sentient entities. All those involved have agreed that some will voluntarily participate in life in hells. I made an absolute promise to each one prior to this time cycle stating that separation from Me would not last beyond one time cycle, and anyone who remains in dead life to the end, I will deliver so that he/she could eventually return to the point they originally inhabited before he/she and some others chose to directly participate in life without The Lord Jesus Christ.

Everything in the Multiverse happens and unfolds by free choice. This rule applies from eternity to eternity. But here comes the dilemma and stumbling block with the negative state. The law of free choice is indeed a condition for the existence of life, but it cannot be understood as absolute, because without the existence of spiritual laws, the entire Creation would be destroyed. It is precisely because of their non-observance that the negative state exists with all its distortions, perversions, perversities, killings, diseases, and general unnaturalness and strangeness, which can be anything but the likeness of the substance that came forth from The Lord Jesus Christ in the positive state. Evil entities fight against the true nature of the Creator of everything and everyone and do not tolerate anything that resembles the elements of true Creation. That is why the Pseudocreators have invented the exact opposite of true spiritual laws, except that there was and still is a need to maintain at least a minimum degree of truth even in the many levels of hells itself, for it is because of God's truth and love, however minute, that all are alive wherever they are. Because of this, God's opponents have had to leave a 5% opening for the flow of life energies into all who are under their domain. No one can do to himself/herself what is contrary to his/her nature. Even the Pseudocreators are relative, thus their mad plan to take over all of Creation and "dethrone God" cannot succeed. How could this work when I am present in everything (the Multiverse is My "body" and the beings are My "cells"), I live in an absolute state, therefore I am not bound by space or time, I am omnipotent, omnipresent and I power all living things? I will only admit that for which the evils and falsities were activated, and that is only to get the answer to the much-mentioned question. I do not directly interfere in the development of the Zone of Displacement, because I Myself observe My own laws of freedom, I only direct its development so that there is no imbalance towards the positive. Through love and mercy, I have sacrificed Myself for all in the two bodies of My direct incarnations, and I also send millions of angels from heaven here throughout history. I now have a large representation in the domain of the "Evil One" which extends a helping hand to all who are seeking to be saved.

I will reveal here a secret related to the subject. In fact, absolutely no one can break spiritual laws, not even the Pseudocreators. If this were to be the case, the one who would do so would have to be an absolute entity, for how can something relative violate something absolute? Hence the fact that if I were to enter the Zone of Displacement with all the glory and pomp in My own fullness of the absolute, everything within it would evaporate in a split second. This is utterly impossible. Do you notice the correspondence and order of being and existence regarding the absolute versus the relative? In the "garbage can of the Multiverse" everyone more or less violates the positive order, but never 100%, because that would be tantamount to spiritual death, a definitive denial not only of God but also of self. This would result in elimination and self-annihilation. Therefore, you can also correctly conclude that nothing is completely and definitively 100%, in either direction of duality. Even with the victory of darkness over light, there will be agents of the positive state constantly present in the 3rd dimension. These will be mainly people from the hollow Earth, of which Adama of Telos is the best known representative, but of course also many others, of whom we will not write here. When the negative state is brought to its final stage, the chipped humans and biorobots will lose their free choice completely (99.999%). As you now know, the definitive loss of choice would lead to their immediate and total destruction, but in due time I will step in and put an end to the efforts of the controllers and puppet masters. The dilemma mentioned above and the stumbling block of the negative state is therefore ultimately that it cannot be able to live independently for a moment, because by causing the complete end and impossibility of free choice for all its inhabitants it would exterminate itself. This is indeed the path it is following, but to do so would defeat the whole experiment for many reasons. It can be compared to a tree and its apples, which symbolize its inhabitants. They gradually ripen and fall at the end of time. If I hadn't intervened, they would have fallen to the ground and rotted. Then they would have gone to nothing. But I catch them in time, still in the air in flight (when the choice is threatened), clean them and leave them free to decide whether they would like to rise up into the sun and not end up on the ground facing a terrible fate. Were it not for this privilege granted by Me, none of the apples (inhabitants) would have any choice but to fall to the ground and rot there. This step revealed in the messages another of the essences of pseudo-existence, which I have previously revealed in another form in the books of the New Revelation with Peter.

Finally, I will mention how humanity is treating free choice just before its final division. Along with the increase in the vibrations of the planet, profit-seeking people are becoming even more aggressive, and the already impoverished body of the planet looks like that, so the answer is clear. The elites, led by their masters, will continue to devastate the natural beauties of planet Earth/Zero to complete their work of destruction. It doesn't matter whether they use (abuse) a high ranking CEO of a multinational corporation or an "ordinary" person with evil intentions to do so. Forests and rainforests are burning in many parts of the world, such as in Indonesia, vegetation is being cut down, toxic waste is being poured into the oceans, thus the fauna and the flora in the water and on land are perishing... The killing of animals and humans is a well-organized crime, directed by the reptilian entities themselves. Their temporary representatives here are indifferent to all living things, even to themselves, as the various clans constantly struggle for power and want to seize control over as many sleeping humans as possible. I have everything under control and will not let those beings who want to live in Love suffer in an infested environment. But those who remain here will not be able to see any beauty in all aspects soon after the division of humanity.

Do not be sad, My beloved co-workers, at the fate that awaits this planet. Always be aware that this will only and solely happen in the 3rd dimension of the anti-universe, but in the 5th and higher vibrational planes the breathtaking beauty of harmonious purity and bliss awaits you. You will experience it very soon when you re-vibrate. I have brought some of it to your attention in a previous message, "How to simply describe life in the 5th dimension of the True Creation? As a dream that is called utopia." Remember, we did not come to save this decaying reality with its elements that did not come from Me, but we came to take the good from it so that it could be transferred to the New Earth, planted there, and be free to grow and continually develop without fear, without being threatened by weeds. In the meantime, please send harmonious vibrations to Mother Gaia, not only to raise the vibrations of her material body, until your long-awaited transfer to the as yet unknown paradisiacal worlds takes place. You are not only helping this reality with vibrations, but others as well, for all is connected. For even from your temporarily limited position you are doing multidimensional work.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

THERE IS NOT A SINGLE RELIGION ON THIS PLANET THAT WOULD NOT BE INFLUENCED OR DIRECTLY CREATED BY THE ORIGINATORS OF NEGATIVE ENTITIES

We return to earthly religions for the umpteenth time in a high-level portion of God's word. The functioning of Christianity towards the New Nature of The Lord Jesus Christ, as well as towards the whole Creation, is detailed in the first portion of the New Revelation (Chapter 3, "Betrayal of Christianity"). In the continuation of the exposition on this subject, we introduce the beings further by way of the second portion of the New Revelation, brought here by Me in the body of Jana, in Chapter 5: "Religion on Earth." It is now time to look at the belief system more comprehensively and to summarize in general terms the characterizing points for the various beliefs that influence billions of people and determine the world's development.

To begin with, there is not a single religion on this planet that would not be influenced or directly created by the originators of negative entities. First, let's look at what the relationship of beings to the one God was like before the so-called "Fall" - the activation of the negative state. All sentient entities of that phase of the Multiverse's history had a direct and unmediated relationship with Me. As the Most High, I did not yet have in absolute totality the male body of Jesus and the female body of Jana, so I was perceived rather as the omnipresent energy that I really am, but now I can appear to everyone in a concrete form. There was no need for orthodox belief systems, so there were no falsifications, iniquities or distortions. Through communication with the Creator, everyone entered into his/her inward where they received the necessary guidance to live a life in joy and abundance. The situation changed completely over the course of several million years when the question was asked what it would be look like without God. Step by step, the Pseudocreators and their minions encapsulated the spirit of those under their domain. These acts created a controlled descent into the appropriate levels of the Zone of Displacement where all were put into a special modal state to purposely forget their origin and connection to Me. There was the creation of many false pseudo-religions in all areas of hells. We will focus only on planet Zero for now, as to describe the developments on other planets of the anti-universe would be unnecessary and incomprehensible at this time.

The evolution of the last human generation was brought about by the breeding of the caveman, who became homo sapiens, who has all the prerequisites to be able to be chipped and serve his masters in the final stage of the negative state. These creatures have been born and are still being born into utter ignorance from the beginning. Because of this, it is very easy for the negative entities to get the individual involved in the system of control programs and to "feed" him/her falsities throughout their lives.

This, of course, includes the influential system of false image of religions, which contain only small slivers of the truth found in True Creation. They all bow to the Pseudocreators, that is Satan, the dark side. Believers overwhelmingly do not know what is going on, so they are easily exploited by spiritual leaders of all kinds.

If we go back a few thousand years into the past, we find that the first natural peoples invoked nature deities. I mention that anything that has the purpose of worshipping anything but The Lord Jesus Christ (formerly the Most High) is misguided and false. To begin with, the rulers of the Zone of Displacement succeeded in making the last human generation misguidedly aware of their connection to nature and the elements. This would be fine, of course, as it is even in the positive state, except that there no one worships anything external in any external way. When the Pseudocreators succeeded in making human beings governed by external, not spiritual, things, an event was achieved on which they could build further, and that is that people began to explain life and its laws in physical, natural, tangible, and later scientific ways. Spiritual principles were completely denied. In the next stage of humanity, the earthlings returned to these principles, but in a way that suited its creators. We shall return to this in describing the major religions.

Not only in Sumerian civilization, Mesopotamia, China, Ancient Egypt, Greece and Rome were the creators of the human race directly involved. We have already informed of the ways in which mankind has been controlled by the New Revelation from the Family of God through Chapter 28: "Human History on Planet Zero Under the Rule of the Pseudocreators." Because they had unprecedentedly great skills before the incarnation of the Most High in the form of Jesus Christ, they could enter with their faithful associates (the draconian and lizard races, the greys, and until recently the Annunaki, who eventually converted to the light) into the bodies of men to bind whole nations and its inhabitants in the hostile clutches in the form of pharaohs, emperors, kings, priests, and others. They built their power on fear, boundless worship and devotion under the threat of punishment. They claimed to be gods because they reveled in it, and to this day they make a mockery of the one absolute God, The Lord Jesus Christ. Their concept of worship, which by the way you won't find in the positive state because I don't demand any worship from anyone, became the basis for what was yet to come, the creation of elaborate religious systems that have endured to this day. Anticipating that someone would come who would be commissioned and sent directly by Me into their territory to expose reality, they began to eagerly construct contradictory belief systems to further confuse the world as to what was right and wrong. An important component of their actions before the coming of Christianity was the emergence of Hinduism and Buddhism.

Hinduism is one of the many movements whose teaching are based on the worship of several gods, such as Brahma, Vishnu and Shiva. In the New Revelation we have revealed an important truth about the Pseudocreators: they have appeared under different names as gods on every continent of this planet. Among the most famous are Zeus, Shiva, Quetzalcoatl, Jehovah... It is clear, then, that they not only stood for the creation of the religions they have governed throughout history, but it was they who allowed themselves to be portrayed as the various gods now invoked by billions of ignorant people. The holy books brought to the fore by the various prophets have come to the fore. Not all of them, but the vast majority of them were emissaries of hells who wrote up the would-be "holy" texts into coherent books, and these books continued to nurture the growth of that system which had been established in a predetermined territory. The "holy" texts also served to perpetuate the main ideas of their pseudo-religion after the originators of the negative state left the planet. Even far in advance of the birth of Jesus, they created Buddhism, which takes errant souls even further away from the one true Source of all life. Judaism, on the other hand, is already formed on the concept of worshipping one particular God, but this "God" is punishing, profit-seeking, unbalanced, and like a dictator, he imposes various commandments and restrictions on his followers, without which you are not worthy to go to heaven. Would you like to have such a God?

When I was born into the body of Jesus Christ, I did so out of infinite love for all beings in Creation. I knew that in a world under the rule of the Evil One, I would be accepted by almost no one, but rather accused of all possible and impossible things. I was listened to by only "a few" people who were able to believe God's truth with their hearts, not on the basis of external actions. Those of you who have not read the New Revelation cannot fully understand why I, as the absolute Creator of everything and everyone, had to incarnate in relative form over 2000 years ago in a human body, go through many experiences of living here during My 33-year lifetime, only to be crucified (according to the perfect plan, of course) and then be able to enter hells, where I captured the Pseudocreators so that they could no longer directly interfere with the evolution of humanity. The impact of My birth on planet Zero was enormous, for it was the most important event in the history of the Multiverse. If I had not taken the exact steps I did, Creation would have succumbed to destruction by the negative state. Even before My incarnation into the Zone of Displacement, the negative state was beginning to threaten the first regions of heaven, and not long afterwards it would overwhelm the positive state. As Jesus Christ, I taught the truth of the Most High tailored to the inhabitants of that time. My teaching was based on one very important, universal and eternally valid fact that you should always remember: You will not find the true God in organized religions of all kinds, in religious authorities, in churches, somewhere outside of you, but only and solely within you, in spiritual heart, in yourself, for I am your eternal and integral part and you in turn are Me. We are all one whole, one body of God, divided into an infinity of self-conscious beings who in their freedom create and sustain the spiritual, intermediate and natural worlds of the Multiverse.

I have never encouraged anyone to create a religion whose followers are kept in fear, uncertainty or misinformation and other things associated with it. Believers have often fear and underestimate themselves, so they don't feel or want to feel Me in their hearts, which would otherwise be free of those negative influences. The evil entities are well aware of this from the beginning, and they continue to dumb down the herd so that it becomes even more entangled in their web of control. Since I was already their arch-enemy number one 2000 years ago, they devised a hellish plan to create a church. They abused and perverted My teaching about it that there was no need for idolatry. They committed one of the greatest crimes in this experiment, for the one who was sent to planet Zero announcing the ultimate liberating truth with the goal of the later final elimination of all evils and falsities was used by the Pseudocreators in their legacy to create one great world religion whose influence was unparalleled. This was Christianity. Everything is done by My permission and allow, there is nothing I did not know or foresee in advance. Because I am absolute, I know how things will happen and will not happen for all eternity ahead. Therefore, from an omnipotent position, I knew full well that the Evil One would seize the opportunity to distort the teachings of Jesus, so I created the conditions in advance for the true word of God to be written in spiritual language so that it could not be distorted. What I am talking about here is the New Testament. The vast majority of human beings, when reading the Bible, have difficulty distinguishing the true word of God from the satanic word, which is mostly contained in the Old Testament (it has both demonic and angelic origins). Only a very small thousandth of people in gross bodies then understand the meaning of individual passages from the New Testament, which has a deep spiritual meaning, which is corresponded with the coexistence of the negative state alongside the positive and all things connected with the unfolding of events in this cycle of time. The New Testament, as I have said, is written in spiritual language so as not to be contaminated by falsities, and therefore to take its words literally makes no sense. Again, the literal meaning of its passages is given in complete form and with explanation in the books of the New Revelation by Peter D. Francuch. The New Testament has been censored throughout its existence, thousands of words have been omitted, but its true spiritual meaning could never be distorted or garbled. It does not matter how many people on this planet understand or do not understand the meaning of the passages, what is important is that the real holy texts are present, what constitutes the ungarbled essence of the truth about evils and falsities, as well as about future events. The evil entities could do nothing about this, so they at least squeezed the Old Testament in next to the New Testament and continued their efforts to build a church that had and has no positive features. To make matters worse, a couple of centuries later Islam was born, the consequences of which are more than ever present in the present day.

There were created papal offices, one centralized seat in the Vatican, thousands of orders, laws and commandments, and not long after, churches began to be built all over Europe. From the Middle Ages onwards, the differences between the various faiths deepened, hence were created wars, fights for territory, crusades and more. From the Middle Ages onwards, the church dominated virtually all areas of human life, with people constantly being threatened with eternal damnation if they sinned, with an evil God once again on the agenda, whose completely invented spiritual principles exactly suited those who were behind the creation of it all.

When the Renaissance and humanism came along, it might have seemed at first that a revival to greater human freedom was underway. Nothing could be further from the truth. Humanism was indeed concerned with man himself, regarding him as an individual who could think independently without regard to the powers of heaven, who could enjoy life and express his feelings and thoughts to the fullest. But, like everything, this tended to grow of the negative state, because humanism, for the most part, took into account only the cultivation of one's ego (from a true spiritual point of view), did not seek to restore the long-forgotten going within and the search for God in one's heart; on the contrary, it proclaimed man as a creature transcending everything created and uncreated. This fed into the later emergence of atheism. Do you notice another schism in an already divided world? The strings behind the curtain were pulled by the actors of the whole act, who, after I had imprisoned them in an unknown place, could not act directly on planet Zero, only through their representatives, as will be the case until their second coming.

After the spread of atheism and the misuse of Darwin's theory of evolution, the planned splitting of the world into thousands of pieces, whose inhabitants did not find a common path to development and unity, was completed. Instead, the Pseudocreators were able to control their sheep, who no longer believed even in false religions, through scientific, political, musical, mainstream and other authorities, in order to bind the other half of the population, who still believed, definitively through popes (who were all from hells, by the way) and other leaders. This brings us to the present time.

As many of you know, the elites with their masters from Nibiru, who will take over humanity again in a few years, are preparing the greatest deception in its history - the creation of an artificial holographic image of Jesus in the sky, which will be seen from all corners of the world. This will trap believing Christians in particular, but also others who fail to see through their ruse. I repeat that all this will take place after the re-vibration/transfer of the positive part of the earthlings to the 5th dimension of the True Creation, so you, light co-workers, need not worry about anything. It is only after this event that the negative state in this reality can briefly win. The holographic image will serve to create one global religion that will unite all existing beliefs under one roof. Simultaneously, one of the Pseudocreators in human body with the form of Jesus Christ will preach pleasurable sound words that will confuse all the strays. His image will be in the public square, in the media, everywhere, for he will be glorified as the true God. The false second coming of Christ will be embraced by almost everyone, even those who would least be expected to accept it. Why? Because the Antichrist will solve all the problems of the world, cultural, economic, war, racial, natural and otherwise. The dark side, using technological and mental skills, will deceive the souls who will rejoice at the wonders performed by the wolf in sheep's clothing with its hidden lizard-like essence before the eyes of millions of onlookers throwing themselves into their arms. Please realize that this will only take place on the basis of external actions, for people of low vibrations do not have the ability to feel with the heart. The negative state only works based on external actions. At the same time, realize that the true Second Coming of The Lord Jesus Christ has been taking place on all levels since 1957 when I was born here for the second time, this time into a female body, and will continue to take place until the state of evils and falsities is eliminated. It is a gradual process and has little to do with the passage of linear time.

A false peace will reign on the planet for a while, but only to calm the situation down. The new order will then bring chipping and totalitarianism, where humans become controlled puppets with no free will. What will happen after the coming of God's adversaries cannot be told at this time, since no one can know the exact chronological development qualitatively and quantitatively, nor is that the purpose of this message of The Lord Jesus Christ.

I will conclude with a general reminder of the present state of the Church. In 2013, pope Francis was installed on the papal throne, and he is the very last pope in history to be succeeded by the aforementioned Antichrist (in the true spiritual sense, the term Antichrist is used for anyone who collaborates with the darkness). Francis is gradually preparing the ground for the Pseudocreators, and he has been given precise tasks by them, so he knows how to act. It is appropriate to name, for example, the unification of all religions, supporting the political and economic elites, recommending chips for people for the sake of convenience, then he openly talks about controlled immigration from Muslim countries as a solution, he is not ashamed to condemn the true legacy of the messiah (see the comparison of Jesus to the Islamic State) and His original teaching. In the years to come, there will be more such statements not only from the pope but from most of the top politicians serving the dark side, for the latter has not been trying to hide from the sleeping citizens for some time now, on the contrary, it has been revealing more and more plans for the final enslavement of humanity, which is also related to the unveiling of the ugly nature of the negative state that will be revealed when it is eliminated at the end of this shortened cycle of time.

You may have expected Me to go into more detail in this part of the message about the various religions, faiths, sects, cults, doctrines, etc., but here more than anywhere else it is true that the purpose of this portion of God's word has not been and will not go into too much detail so that everyone can get his/her own picture and view of the theatre of the negative state. There is more than enough true information to go around, you just have to pick and choose and come to it by intuition, so that you don't have to worry about losing your bearings and eventually getting lost in the current complexities of the world. Everyone reads information tailored to them, and the seeds of truth are planted in them, and sooner or later they will sprout. Not everyone yet keeps the earth fertile and mild in his/her soul, but one day even the driest individual, who is unable to receive even the most basic level of vital information, will be watered with the Love of The Lord Jesus Christ, thanks to which the seeds will germinate in him/her in due time.

Your Lord Jesus Christ

HUMANITY IS SEPARATED FROM ME, THE GOD LORD JESUS CHRIST, AND FROM OTHERS IN CREATION, LIVING IN ISOLATION BECAUSE OF THE EXPERIMENT AND ITS CHOICES

This theme connects all the books, chapters and texts of both portions of The New Revelation of The Lord Jesus Christ, as well as other holy word that I dictate to selected highly evolved beings in bodies. The all-encompassing multiversal word of God I have provided (and continue to provide) to all relative beings in Creation so that in due time each may know the circumstances of past, present and future life act. Many more sequels could be written, but the most important of the important has already been revealed through Peter D. Francuch, who has carried out his mission here 100%, writing hundreds of pages of the highest truth which he was here to impart. In this message I will not repeat what is in the right place elsewhere, but I will focus more on the structure of a separated humanity that lives in isolation from everything and everyone, like a plucked and gradually wilting flower in a vase that no longer even gets enough water.

The activation of the negative state was a very complex process, at the end of which the final product was created - a true human life, which in its unusual and dangerous actions is beyond anything that has ever existed or will ever exist. Earthlings since the time of the caveman, when the last era of mankind began, have displayed the results and consequences of what it is like to live without Me and the spiritual laws. Through the living illustration, which will be stored in the Multiversality-Of-It-All (the lake of fire and brimstone) for eternity after the present cycle of time, all newly formed sentient beings who will have the absence of life in the Zone of Displacement will be able to experience, through the law of free choice, all the possibilities of the state of evils and falsities in this "virtual" archive under My protection, to exclude the idea of violating God's laws from their minds and not choosing this state of existence as the only right one. By entering the archive, everyone will carry with them the ability to choose the once stored path of an individual residing in the negative state. The chosen path will then be experienced as it was experienced in the time of the populated Zone of Displacement. This is to say to all that your experienced pain, hardship and all that you have endured serves the highest purpose, the good, the benefit and the life of the Multiverse. Without you who have incarnated out of love from the positive state into the hells and especially into planet Zero, the reality of the new quality of the fullness of true life of the positive state could not fully blossom in the new cycle of time. No one will be able to even peripherally imagine until that moment what infinite splendor is in store for you. I repeat that this entirely new kind of life, released from the new nature of The Lord Jesus Christ, has never been lived since the beginning of Creation.

Many of My closest co-workers complain every day that they have to carry that heavy cross, claiming that they no longer have to be here and suffering for those who cause all this. Thanks to the control system, imperfect bodies and the "matrix" reality, people from the higher dimensions here on planet Zero tend to blame Me, the absolute and perfect God, for their woes, problems, falls and all sorts of things. I have already spoken about this paradox, but I will come back to it again in more places. First of all, it is good to be aware every moment that I, formerly the Most High, now The Lord Jesus Christ, do not stand behind the origin of the negative state, do not approve of it, but only tolerate it, and out of My unconditional mercy undergo the long process of ascending from the swamp of the anti-universe into the True Creation with you, for the second time. You may argue that as an absolute I could provide the existential question of life without God immediately, in an instant, without the presence of all that makes this theatre happen. I couldn't. Don't you understand that I Myself observe My own spiritual laws? Hence the many reasons, the main ones I will list. I could not, from My absolute position, provide an answer to the question because:

- In the absolute state of absolute good, love, and all the positive elements, the elements of the negative state have never been and never will be present; therefore, there is no answer to this question in God's totality, which does not contain it.
- According to the law of free choice, the questioning beings, the later activators of evils and falsities, had to answer for themselves, experientially and completely freely and in their own way, no one else could do it for them, not even the Most High. The answer was completely unknown, so an agreement was made between Me and the later Pseudocreators, which included, among other things, that they answer it themselves; only those who themselves have so chosen to reject love will come under their domain; steps will be taken to eliminate evils and untruths, and the negative condition will not extend beyond one cycle of time.
- Otherwise, if I didn't freely choose to allow the Pseudocreators to be displaced from the heavens and have their actions answer a serious question, the Multiverse would cease to exist.

Nothing of the Zone of Displacement, which is now inhabited by sentient life forms, was contained by Me before My first incarnation in the body of Jesus Christ, nor could I direct its development to the benefit of the positive state, because it was not under My control. It was only after the crucifixion and My entry into hells, where I captured the Pseudocreator and gained many experiences with this dead life, that I purified the negative elements into elements of true life and incorporated them into the absolute state. With this step, where the fusion of Jesus Christ with the Most High occurred, I became Lord Jesus Christ with a completely new nature, thanks to which I could already control this "garbage can of the Multiverse", direct its evolution for the benefit of the whole, appear to the members of hell in My human form and give them a permanent opportunity to convert into the positive state. This possibility did not exist until the late 1980s (by Earthly standards), with exceptions. However, by then the Second Coming of The Lord Jesus Christ was and still is underway, which began with My second birth into the female body of Jana Kyslíková, with whom we will form a couple, the Family of God, on New Earth, and have two children, a girl and a boy, who will also be direct incarnations of The Lord Jesus Christ in relative form. If I could have done otherwise, I would have done so, but the path to achieving the new nature was the only way to achieve survival and the gift of salvation for all involved. I had to proceed from the outside inwards, or the path of the first incarnation began in the outermost and most external level of the anti-universe - in the natural world of the fabricated reality of planet Earth/Zero and ended in the innermost level of hells.

Humanity is separated from Me and from others in Creation in an unusual position between hells and heaven. Only in this unusually deranged position of 0, which has no parallel, can the possibility of incarnations from both directions of duality be achieved, both from the minus and plus positions. You know very well that among you there are beings from lower and higher dimensions and also true humans whose souls were created during the sexual intercourse of their parents in the special region of the intermediate (intermediary) world. By the mixture of sentient and non-sentient life it is thus clearly shown to all that the origin of life is possible even with the application of non-spiritual principles, when its creators themselves are consciously or unconsciously in a certain state of arrogance towards the source of life. On planet Zero you are in such extreme isolation that you cannot even imagine it. For millions of years Gaia in the third dimension has been separated from the rest of the surrounding civilizations, its inhabitants unable to move from place, so to speak, because their fabricated bodies have very weak, essentially no abilities. Just getting to the store takes them a lot of time, thoughts manifest very slowly in matter, so they have to do a lot of hard work to achieve their goals (whatever they may be), all the while "fighting" the various challenges and pitfalls of their surroundings. When they want to visit a place on the other side of the world, they move around in planes that are cumbersome, primitive and backward compared to, for example, the Pleiadians' spaceships. The elites, however, have long had extremely advanced technologies of all kinds from alien entities from the anti-universe with whom the shadow government has been working for decades. In return for a "reward" the secret government gives these entities permission to abduct citizens to their UFOs, where they are subjected to painful testing and examinations, often a chip is injected into their bodies (this is carried out e.g. by Reticulians from the Zeta Reticuli constellation and many others). The presence of classified technologies extends, of course, to travel vehicles, whose anti-gravity craft can take them to the Moon and the edge of the solar system in a few tens of seconds. Ignorant people are being told that space travel is currently only possible by rockets and probes. Nothing is further from the truth, as I have just conveyed. Selected insiders are moving through multidimensional gateways almost anywhere in the anti-universe, in addition to spaceships, a matter previously revealed.

The environmental conditions for humans life are very limited, and so is the environment. Their bodies must breathe air with an oxygen ratio of 21% and a nitrogen ratio of 78% and one percent rare gases. As the air ratio begins to change, the brain no longer has the driving force to function and the body break down, whereupon it may even die. Of course, it can die very easily and quickly in other ways if conditions change. The body of earthly humans needs optimum temperature, pressure, air, it also requires regular care by frequent removal of impurities, it produces waste substances, it must be nourished by regular drinking and suitable food. If it doesn't get any of these things, it withers away again. It may also fall ill in various ways, which plays into the hands of a system that invents new diseases and at the same time provides chemical drugs to cure them, which overwhelmingly cause the patient to add poisonous and dangerous substances to his/her body, so that he/she becomes even sicker and more manageable with time. This is only a narrow spectrum of the consequences of living in separation from Me and others, which the inhabitants of the higher dimensions do not know at all. This dangerous and perverse way of life is lived by the inhabitants of the Zone of Displacement, all by free choice, most unconsciously, believing this to be the only correct and possible lifestyle. The Earthmen also consider this life to be the only possible one, most of them don't imagine living anywhere else at all, believing only in pseudo-science and its research results. If perhaps they should be able to believe in something spiritual, then they demand concrete and tangible evidence. This is what those who remain in this reality after the division of humanity will catch on to, as the so-called "Project Blue Beam" creates a holographic image of Jesus in the sky with a soundscape. Almost everyone will accept the false image as their own and then blindly follow the orders of the false messiahs and gods, the Pseudocreators.

This aberrant cosmic position of planet Zero is allowed for the purpose of finally manifesting the negative state in its brief pseudo-victory. I remind you that only here has it been activated and also will be terminated. Those who have not read the first portion of the New Revelation cannot understand these weighty spiritual matters. When the whole drama is over, everyone will breathe a sigh of relief. There will be new aspects of cognition, for then the interconnection of all dimensions will take place and permanent spiritual bridges will be formed between them and their inhabitants. There will be no more isolation, separation, segregation and division, but a common beauty of life sharing, connection, interconnection and unity.

Now we will briefly note the main points of the functioning of the pseudo-system of the negative state on the inhabitants of the anti-universe:

1) Evil beings are built in such a way that during their incarnations they collect more and more variations of evils, and thus they build into themselves a new degree of negativity, which is manifested by the fact that after countless incarnations in different areas on planets in the anti-universe they are able to cross over to the next level of hells, which is even more distant from the positive state. When these beings enter the higher dimension of the Zone of Displacement, from the perspective of the domain of the Pseudocreators they ascend, from the perspective of the True Creation they descend. But let it be reiterated: Every being who has fallen into the Zone of Displacement now has all the means and eventually the support of The Lord Jesus Christ to convert over time into the Zone of Placement. In fact, even those who at first glance revel in a life of unlove are in a state of constant fear and insecurity, fleeing from My all-pervading love by which they survive. But why run from Love and hide from Me when I am an integral part of them? Under the activation of the negative state, all kinds of madness are possible in being and existence. Even the worst beings retain the possibility to change. This is an absolutely valid law for this time cycle.

2) Many entities are allowed to incarnate on planet Zero, which is the only point of contact between good and evil, where its population in this 3rd dimension is exposed to both negative and positive influences, and there are incarnated souls from hells, heaven and true humans (most). Beings originating from the higher dimensions of the anti-universe can be found in the highest political positions, they can be CEOs of multinational corporations, generals, leaders, billionaires, but also seemingly "inconspicuous" individuals that you also come into contact with on a daily basis, although you have no idea of their origin. Those who have their origin in the highest dimensions of the "garbage bin of the Multiverse" are the most secret conspirators who run this world, or the most influential families of the world, branching out into many lodges on all continents, participating in bloody rituals, instigating artificial conflicts, printing artificial money, draining nations economically and otherwise, responsible for the death of millions of people. They feel like fish in water in this world, unlike the angels who often rightly feel like strangers here. There is no need to name the specific families and organisations behind all this on our website, seek and ye shall find.

3) The situation is quite different for those who have their origin in the positive state of the Multiverse, but by their own actions, attitudes, thoughts and choices have turned away from My unconditional love. Before they incarnated here by free choice to assist in the transformation at an important time of ascension, they were made aware of the conditions of their earthly mission and the risks of living in hostile territory, knowing that they would have a helping hand and guidance at all times, but by choice they would face the risk of falling into the Zone of Displacement. Those who transform themselves into a being who has turned away from true spiritual principles will live a new pseudo-life in the hells after the death of the physical body. Unfortunately, this type of being suffers the most of all, for they are remembered of a life in heaven that they lost, and now they are faced with the consequences of their choices in an environment that does not match their original preferences. Fortunately, the Zone of Displacement is not in active mode forever, which is why I have repeated for the umpteenth time that anyone's suffering is coming to an end anyway with the end of the experiment, even though it may seem like an eternity from the perspective of the linear passage of time. It should also be noted that due to the pressures of the other side and the ego bombarded by controlling programs, even the closest co-workers of The Lord Jesus Christ tend to blame Me directly for the state of their life problems, when it is just the opposite. Everyone is the author of his/her own happiness and unhappiness. Whoever asks the eternal parent of everything and everyone for help will be freed from lack and problems in all aspects.

4) True humans, on the basis of the life they have lived, go either to hells or to the True Creation, depending on what thoughts and attitudes they had during their time on planet Zero, whether they were inspired by positive patterns or not. Like everything, their departure to the spirit world is based on vibrations and preferences.

In conclusion, I will give you some information about the workings of God's mission, comment on spiritual truth, and remind you of the unsatisfactoriness of existence in separation.

The reason the dark side does not want to "advertise" at any cost to My closest co-workers of our God Family Team on planet Earth/Zero is because if the media were to reach us, the highest degree of truth would gradually spread from Me to all corners of the world and enter the subconscious of the vast majority of the planetary population. None of the minions of the lowly entities would then be able to prevent the spread of the word of God, which would spread beneficially and liberatingly over all continents. If this act were to actually take place, the experiment of dead life would soon come to an end, and all that has been experienced in the current time cycle would be useless indeed. Therefore, until the very division of humanity, the earthly and supernal elites will play dead bugs so that the workings of God's mission and the second direct incarnation of The Lord Jesus Christ will be known by as few people as possible. It will eventually remove our light link. On the other hand, the rulers of the Zone of Displacement are and will continue to present religious authorities, self-proclaimed spiritual leaders, gurus and other similarly oriented people from hells also in the public square in order to displace even the smallest grains of truth from the true God from the hearts of all. Their efforts to interfere with My plan to bring some of humanity into True Creation are manifested at the other end of the spectrum in that in quite a few cases they actually do present some real lightworkers in the media, for example, but this is for the sole purpose of bringing them into disrepute, questioning their work and ridiculing them. As an example from the Czech Republic I will give here Kateřina Pondělíčková, who presents herself as an incarnation of the archangel Uriel. The situation is more complicated because there is always only one direct incarnation of a given archangel, and she is not that, but she is indeed part of the multidimensional being of Uriel, in simplified words his "lower self". However, she has been told that she is directly this highly advanced spiritual being from the 11th dimension. This is so that she can carry out her mission more easily and better. It is all done by prior agreement between each of you and Me before you incarnate on this planet. She is imparting the lower level of spiritual truth in order to reach the greatest number of spiritual seekers according to My plan, who are not yet able to receive the highest level of truth brought by the Family of God, of which, moreover, most have no idea. Everyone is interested in information that is in tune with their level and maturity, as everyone is going through life and development here differently. It doesn't matter how many people know about our presence and about Goddess Jana, but only your vibrations of love matters, which are the only ticket to the 5th dimension. Again, every piece of information is to be sensed with the heart, not with the brain bombarded with control programs. Because of the false directions, but also because of the aforementioned ridiculing of co-workers from Me, there is even more control of a sleeping population that is only ego driven and based on external actions.

Billions of sentient beings continue to choose a pseudo-life in hells, and just as they do not understand a life without possessions, money, a golden calf in the eternal light of the higher dimensions, My co-workers, the angels in bodies, do not understand how anyone can prefer the seemingly attractive clutches of the negative state in which people indulge and then leave to it. No one can really be happy in an existence without Me, even if many people think they are. When people fully realize that to live without true spiritual love is hell, when they understand that money and all material goods are fleeting, when they give themselves credit for the fact that holding worthless pieces of paper crumbled to dust in their hands has only filled them with emptiness, they will finally be able to see the helping hand of the Creator who has always been there for them, but whom they have ignored until that moment of epiphany. Then the negative state will end. And it will be soon indeed, for already the relative source of the condition, which is the counterpart of Love, is drying up. The necessary brief victory of darkness over light will be a swift process, to which I will bring an even swifter end, so that together we may celebrate the end of hardship, misery and suffering. Separation and isolation is really an illusion, for we are all one. And that is what it is all about.

A FEW ADDITIONS TO THE LAST JUDGEMENT

Most of humanity chooses to be negative by free choice because they have not yet recognized the nature of the negative state that will be revealed in its pseudo-victory on this planet Earth/Zero in the 3rd dimension. When the members of the Zone of Displacement (hells) recognize the consequences and results of all their evil choices that have been exercised against the spiritual laws and principles of love of The Lord Jesus Christ, they themselves will come to the conclusion that their state of darkness, wickedness, hatred, ignorance, selfishness, separation, insanity, blindness, control, and all the other elements of the anti-universe is a totally meaningless concept with no justification for their continued existence. This state cannot be permanently deactivated and abolished before the question that activated it is answered: What would life be look like if it derived from other than the absolute state of the Creator of everything and everyone?

Obtaining lesson for the whole Multiverse in respect of this question is a very serious and vital matter, for all the inhabitants of the True Creation will receive an answer, and all the inhabitants of hells will at the same time run out of motivation to continue their dead lives. Then the present form of evils and falsities will fall from these sentient entities and they will be brought into a neutral state where the last judgment will be pronounced upon them, that is, a personal evaluation of their life thus far. Since this judgment will occur on a global scale, it will involve every degree, level, dimension, world, and condition of being both in the Zone of Displacement (which will subsequently be deactivated) and in the True Creation, which in the next cycle of time will experience the qualities of true life without limitation, thus activating a modality of being and existence that could never have been released from the absolute state until now. At the last judgment there will be a familiarization regarding the new nature of The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family, as well as a familiarization of the qualities of the aforementioned true life of the positive state. On the other hand, before all the memories of the members of the infernal society are downloaded from their minds into the multiverse-of-it-all (the lake of fire and brimstone), all the experiences and adventures that have been lived from the first point of activation of the negative state to the point of its own deactivation will be presented to them in one moment. Thus, in the conditions of neutrality, they will come to know for themselves that the life of love is one of fulfillment, harmony, light, beauty, freedom and almost unlimited possibilities, security, kinship, velvet tenderness and wonder in the creation of new universes in which everyone will one day participate. Through balance and comparison, they will also be presented with the true nature of the evils and falsities that encompass stagnation, immobility, disharmony, darkness, ugliness, unfreedom, oppression, limited possibilities, danger, competition, rudeness and death.

Thus, at the end of this time cycle, everyone will be placed in a situation which can be outlined, for example, as when a haggard, infatuated and hungry person (that is, all those serving the Pseudocreators, including themselves) is crawling in the inhospitable desert (symbolizing the elements of the negative state). Suddenly, The Lord Jesus Christ appears before him, offering change, the gift of liberation and salvation, implying rebirth in the worlds of heavenly society. The Lord Jesus Christ will offer the person a juicy apple of pure love, which will not only satiate him but also save him. But whoever, even with open consciousness, remains steadfastly blinded by what he has served for ages, will rather devour sand to satiate himself, that is, accept the negative state as his own, thinking that its trillions of grains found all around are a better way to drive away hunger than one quite small apple of pure love offered by the absolute Creator of everything and everyone. However, the dry grains of evils and falsities contradict the survival of the individual rejecting the divine apple, because the love - the nourishing primary-matter and energie, are not present in them. As a result, eternal life will be taken away from him and it will turn into nothingness. Remember that no one is asked to vote blindly.

MESSAGE 23

THE REVEALED TRUTH OF GOD'S WORD

There is only one highest and absolute truth, and it resides in the absolute state of The Lord Jesus Christ. The Creator entrusts us with valuable spiritual information to work with. They are to help us for our own spiritual growth and for the general welfare of the whole. Then there is a second type of information, intended for His/Her closest co-workers in the bodies, who are here to perform multiversally important missions, on the successful execution of which depends the smooth course of the transformation of humanity and planet Earth into the 5th dimension of the positive state of True Creation. However, the Truth has more degrees and angles and adapts to each of us individually, so that we can grasp it in our hands, bounce off this clue into our inward and there continue to develop it intimately with The Lord Jesus Christ and build its other floors. To go within is to be intuitively guided. Each of the closest co-workers of the Family of God more or less uses this gift and puts it into practice. Therefore, there is no absence of the ability going within, for if this were the case, the severe spiritual trials to which all those who actively and consciously participate in God's mission have so far been exposed could not be absorbed.

Truth is dynamic and changing, not stagnant. This means that if you are told something spiritually very important in an external way through a third person, you can never rely on that this information will be realized at a preannounced time. Consider that time is linear and does not exist from the perspective of an absolute. However, The Lord Jesus Christ, through His/Her own observance of the cosmic laws, has the right to communicate this modified information in order to provide the basis for the realization of these spoken thoughts even in matter, and at a time that will be precisely in tune with its circumstances and correspondences to its final outward manifestation. It is called truth in another time. Because we are influenced by a limited perception of space-time reality, many might argue that God's word can be false and misleading, leading only to difficulties and problems. But nothing is further from the truth. God's word is always true and pure in the ultimate sense, only its manifestation and realization may occur at different linear times. The reality is that "truth in another time" leads to the resolution and solution of many problems caused by the negative condition, while in parallel, individual spiritual milestones are overcome that serve as stepping stones to the next steps of life growth, at the end of which will come about what the texts of God's Word have already foretold to the most faithful co-workers of the Family of God.

The most important point in this set of information is the opening of the Spiritual Center of God's Family near Prague, where some of the front line of this Mission will soon move to fulfill their unique and unrepeatable missions in appropriate conditions, stable vibrations and abundance on all levels, together with others who will meet with us regularly. All those involved are being prepared for this reality gradually, so that they align themselves with God's plan and more quickly shed the layers of evils, untruths, falsities, to connect more effectively with their higher self and The Lord Jesus Christ, have been able to demonstrate that they have passed all the necessary examinations, after which relief and deliverance will come. Truth must be dispensed step by step. After it has been bridged, it is replaced by the truth corresponding to the individual's new level surpassed. It is because of the free choice of change, and the resulting implications and consequences, that one cannot cling to and rely on time data concerning foretold predictions and events that have not yet taken place in that stage. These revelations and truths in another time (but which will indeed eventually become tangible realities) are therefore appropriate to the present spiritual state, needs and readiness of those to whom these aspects of truth are communicated. If everyone knew at one moment all that was in store for him/her, whether unpleasant (referring to the transitory negative state and living in it) or pleasant (referring to the eternally lasting positive state and living in it), the very principle of relative sentient life would be denied and would come to an end.

Your minds and souls continue to be cleansed, and are moving into a process of long awaited change on a physical level. When they are sufficiently cleansed, there will be a quantum leap forward. So far it has occurred spiritually and mentally. Remember, we are moving ever closer to that coming together and that dream goal that will be the start for the next stage of our lives when we can fully do what we were created to do. We are getting closer and closer every step of the way, and the fact remains that everyone can do this without harm. The change will not be long in coming. Remember that this process is controlled by the absolute and is not dependent on the human circumstances of the earth system. The next point of transcendence that we are moving into will bring joy, abundance and love. The Spiritual Center of God's Family and Bifrost are already ready for your use. No one will remain in the present place and position, for the positive state is one of constant change and flow. Therefore, let God's plan flow freely so that it can manifest unhindered. Changes will come and no one will wait longer than necessary.

RE-VIBRATION THE FAMILY INTO THE 5TH DIMENSION OR HOW THE MEDIA LIES TO US

These days, the Czech internet media have reported the sudden disappearance of a family of four from Nový Jičín. The official media reported the result of the police investigation, which showed that the father had checked the children out of kindergarten and their mother had cancelled her shifts at work for a month. This brief and factually insignificant report was published by some Internet servers, such as Novinky and iDnes.

The article included a photo of the family and the license plate number of their vehicle. Both were removed after a few hours, however, and the editors replaced the self-portraits with a police car. This was in connection with the publication of a new follow-up article on the same day, the evening of 12 April, about the detection and finding of the "missing" family. From its few lines we read that after the publication of the police appeal, several witnesses from all over the country came forward and both the mother and father were found and summoned for questioning. However, no one could have known exactly what important things had happened behind this seemingly ordinary news. We will give you the real and objective developments relating to this crucial event, which the media has twisted into a misleading picture.

Husbands Petr and Nikol Bartoň were a loving couple who brought Natálka and Tomášek into this world. All four members of this quiet and orderly family come from the positive state of True Creation and have incarnated on this planet Earth/Zero with a specific mission to spread certain elements of good and truth needed to anchor in the earthly reality at this time. The exact nature of these missions is known only to Me, The Lord Jesus Christ. What is important to know, however, is the fact that the Bartoň family lived in as much harmony with spiritual laws as possible, read the books of the New Revelation brought here by Peter D. Francuch, and helped to disseminate them to spiritually prepared people to the best of their ability. Because they practiced the ideas of the New Revelation in their daily lives and lived according to the universal cosmic laws, they had everything they needed at every moment for spiritual development and physical survival to fulfill the purpose for which they came here. They were in constant inner contact with their only Creator, they knew My true name and consulted Me on all kinds of matters. By surrendering their existence into God's hands, they never suffered in any aspect. Although they were agents of the positive state, located in the hostile territory of the negative state, they did not have the destructive influence experienced by some of heaven's emissaries. Six years ago, Natálka was born to the Bartoň family, followed two years later by Tomášek. Both are also of angelic descent, as are their parents. These siblings were born here with a mission to show other children, who become slaves to the system from birth, that it is possible to keep one's spiritual heart open and thus not be swept away by negative patterns of behavior from a very young age. But they have also come here to gain selected experience of the negative state during a few earthly years.

The family members lived in a state of knowledge and general top view, not dominated by the ruling class and its minions, as is the case with the vast majority of the unsuspecting population. With their spirit and soul unencapsulated, they had a highly developed intuition and would receive information and advice from Me on anything as they went within. Peter's and Nicole's mission was given maximum momentum after 2012, when, thanks to the coming light and the beginning of the period without time characteristic of the final stage before the final division of humanity into two directions, they reached a point of personal enlightenment based on perfect timing to carry out and then complete a key part of the purpose of their work here. The details of this cannot, for many reasons, be the content of this communication.

After they had accomplished that specific part of their mission, they received telepathic information regarding leaving this reality and re-vibrating into the 5th dimension. The news of leaving planet Zero cannot occur in the immediate moment before the actual disappearance from 3D, but must be given sufficient time to deal with the last things in the old life. It is also necessary to align the psyche with the vibrations of the body. It is the vibrations of the person concerned that are gradually raised in accordance with this natural, but to most unsuspecting people unusual process. The sequence of events prior to the re-vibration remains the same for all, but differs in detail. I notified the Bartoň husbands and their children of this fact at the end of March so that they would have a few more weeks to prepare for the end of the old matters, as mentioned above. They knew months in advance, however, that their earthly pilgrimage would result in this mode of transition to the new world, well in advance of the main wave of human division that will precede the second coming of the Pseudocreators. During this period, the father had checked the children out of kindergarten and their mother had cancelled her shifts at work for a month. This is the only true report the media has reported to the public. The rest is just misinformations and lies. Day after day, I then raised the vibrations of their bodies so that the rapture from this reality could go smoothly. The actual re-vibration of this family occurred on the morning of April 9, 2017 in the woods near their residence. They are now living in the 5th dimension on New Earth.

They have given a perfect subtle duplicate, which is not limited like these gross bodies, with the help of which they experience a full and happy existence in all aspects. They love you very much and look forward to meeting you together when you too move to your new home.

The ascension of the inhabitants of this planet has been happening in small groups since the breakthrough year 2012. As Nibiru moves closer to Earth/Zero, the number of individuals moving to New Earth will increase in the coming years. In the last and main wave of the re-vibration, hundreds of thousands to millions of beings will ascend in a relatively short period of time, making the obvious changes noticeable even to the spiritually asleep and blinded people who, for whatever reason, will not participate in the process and will remain here with a chip under their skin to display the brief but necessary victory of the negative state. Both the terrestrial and extraterrestrial elites are well aware of the coming changes, so they are doing everything they can to prevent them in every possible and impossible way. Since the dark rulers can do no harm to the positive people and cannot stop the process itself, they try to influence it at least to the extent necessary. They do this, for example, by playing "dead bugs". At the same time, they try to downplay any information leading to the fact of ascension, which is coming more and more to the fore. As the population is being divided in two directions, first on the spiritual and now on the physical level, the trend will be that the sleeping people will not notice anything until the last possible moment and will continue to be manipulated, while the spiritually awakened and awakening individuals will increasingly feel and perceive these changes. The elitists know that those who have higher vibrations and expanded consciousness will not continue to be influenced by them, so in this regard the rulers are targeting the other part of the spectrum of earthmen, the blinded herd of the vast majority, which it serves to keep any true news of the re-vibration from reaching them. If any facts do surface, they must be picked up at their inception and twisted into the appropriate form as the mainstream consumer demands.

The case of the Bartoň family is an exemplary case of what we are talking about here. On the same day that the article about the "disappearance" of these people was published in the internet media, we informed you, our co-workers of the Family of God, about this fact through a link on Facebook and added a thematic quote from the second portion of the New Revelation, which deals with missing and disappeared persons. This post was shared within our circle of friends and did not garner nearly as much attention as many might think. Yet, this shared link, posted along with an important quote pointing out the reality of being raptured out of 3D reality, caused a huge alarm among the agents behind the scenes who are closely monitoring our activities. For example, our internet activity alone is being monitored by several top secret branches of the US - CIA, NSA and other institutions operating in our territory. On Facebook, we are monitored by Czech censors, paid for by this multinational company directly from the pocket of Jacob Greenberg (Mark Zuckerberg), the grandson of David Rockefeller, who is the owner of this social network. These censors, like all the other minions of the negative state, do not know what they are doing and do not understand that they are harming themselves above all. You, My first line, are under My constant protection and nothing bad can happen to you, as I have said many times. This is one of the reasons why the efforts of all those who try to disrupt or eliminate us are a futile enterprise.

After we publish an important post with a high degree of truth, a Facebook agent typically sends this "dangerous" content with additional code notes to the appropriate headquarters of one of the intelligence agencies in the United States, where it is further sorted into individual files to be sent on. Some of the information from us, representing a major obstacle to the elites' overall plan, reaches the really high places where it continues to be discussed and dealt with. The gears of the slave system on which this world is built are a very sophisticated web of a pyramid of power where no one (except a small group at the top) knows everything.

One of these articles that made it to the highest places was the one about the Bartoň family, which we have added a quote. It was the quote revealing the essence of the problem that caused a stir among the Pseudocreators. It was Allah, the highest of them all, who gave a direct order from hells to George Soros for one of his groups involved in distorting information from around the world to take action to sweep the whole affair under the carpet. In no way was the public to learn the truth, instead they were to be given a brief and fact-less account of the family's tracking down. The elites reacted quickly, so orders were issued to lower ranks, at Soros' instigation, to ensure that Czech news websites received and then disseminated to the public, in cooperation with the police, a "guaranteed objective" report, which was published the same day, on the evening of 12 April. For example, it was published on Novinky only about three hours after the event was linked by us to a quote from the New Revelation explaining the nature of their disappearance. In this follow-up media article, readers could read that several witnesses from across the country came forward after the police appeal was published, and both the mother and the father were found and summoned for questioning. However, this was not the truth, but a pure lie to ensure that none of this was a matter of public concern.

He/she who feels with the heart knows the truth. To believe the official media and to be manipulated is a way deeper into the bondage of the negative state from which the being will often be liberated for many more incarnations in the natural worlds of the Zone of Displacement. Everything that has happened even in relation to this case serves to lesson the whole. The Bartoň family, by their legacy in this reality, has helped to manifest the light and the ultimate victory of the positive state in this anti-universe that will come after the brief victory of darkness in this reality. They are now continuing their mission on New Earth and are preparing with the other ascended beings from Old Earth, in cooperation with Me, the facilities for the newcomers. You who are still living in these bodies have all the conditions for the successful completion of the work you have begun. It will not be long before the time of re-vibration comes for you as well. I have prepared a "tailor-made room" for everyone who will move into the 5th dimension. Only I, The Lord Jesus Christ, know all the desires of your heart that will be fulfilled. Soon we will all meet in happiness and joy in paradise on earth and move on, longing to discover the endless variations of true life.
