REVELATION OF THE NEWEST NATURE OF THE LORD JESUS CHRIST

Right now, the time has ripened for the revelation of general information and context regarding the introduction of the Newest Nature of the Lord Jesus Christ to sentient beings in the respective areas of the spiritual, intermediate, and natural worlds of the True Creation, the zone of displacement, and planet Zero. The importance, necessity, and scope of the process during which the absolute God, formerly The Most High, became He/She in His/Her New Nature, The Lord Jesus Christ, are described in detail in the previous portion of the New Revelation through Peter D. Francuch. Now it is necessary to briefly reveal another fact, the foundation of which is laid by all the previous steps taken since the beginning of the existence of the Multiverse by the Creator of everything and everyone. It concerns two direct divine incarnations, a girl and a boy, who will be born to Jesus and Jana after the vibrational shift to the New Earth in the 5th dimension, where the positive part of humanity with love in their hearts will move. As you know, more than 2000 years ago, more precisely on March 21, 7 BC, I, at that time still being The Most High, incarnated into the body of Jesus in order to lay the foundations of the way out of the negative state. After My crucifixion, I unnoticed entered hell and gained the necessary experience with this unnatural way of life, so that I could cleanse its stolen and defiled aspects and return them back to the Source. Dimension by dimension, level by level, I went through the hells of the zone of displacement to their deepest point, where the Pseudocreators themselves were located. In earthly terms, it took many centuries for Me to reach the end of My journey and "capture" these opponents of Mine in order to separate them from their ruling positions and relocate them to an unknown place (planet Nibiru), so that they could no longer directly influence the development of humanity until its division. After the successful completion of the mission of Jesus, his fusion with the absolute state occurred, which resulted in the emergence of the New Nature, whereby My name, which carries a deep spiritual meaning, has been The Lord Jesus Christ since 1987 (according to earthly time). Concurrently with this, however, My Second Coming had already begun, this time as the incarnation of the feminine essence of God, who is Jana Kyslíková. Many with a lower spiritual level mistakenly believe that Jana is the incarnation of Jesus Christ. Nothing is further from the truth, because it would be a violation of our own spiritual laws (nothing is repeated twice) and it would lack any meaning, which anyone can deduce, based on the fusion of the first masculine incarnation with the absolute Divinity, for themselves.

I was born into a feminine body in the year 1957 not only to include the feminine aspects and principles within Myself, but also to lead, together with helpers from higher dimensions of the positive state, first a part of humanity, and subsequently all imprisoned beings out of the swamp of the anti-universe back to their original Home. Were it not for our common sacrifice, all previous efforts would have been completely in vain and Creation would have perished. Until the year 2003, My presence in the body was concealed from the Pseudocreators, and until 2012 from everyone on this planet, including their local representatives—the earthly rulers of the world, who noticed our activity shortly after the launch of our website www.bozirodina.cz. The necessity of concealment had mainly a protective function, which I could not communicate directly in advance to any of God's prophets, so you will not find a single mention of it even in the New Revelation by Peter D. Francuch. Do not forget that there is no such thing as a 100% and final truth; everything evolves and is supplemented by new things. I have gone through many sufferings and pains of this existence together with Jana, in order to come as close to you as possible and transform these experiences into pure clarity and joy. We are a real example for others that even under the most difficult conditions that have ever existed, it is possible to return back to heaven and suffer no harm. At the same time, I was preparing her for cooperation with other co-workers and friends, without whose invaluable help the ascension of humanity would not be possible. Why I planned the cancellation of isolation and the beginning of God's mission among people for the year 2017 and not earlier also has its own spiritual reasons, which do not need to be analyzed here, because everything is perfectly planned in advance and happens at the right time. In the ultimate sense, everyone here plays a kind of theatrical role, consciously or unconsciously, which they chose before their birth on this planet and consulted with Me in the finest detail. It is a plan of the soul, on whose path the individual experiences and manifests various types of situations from which everyone who closely watches this theater learns. However, freedom of choice is always guaranteed in advance, so do not think that anyone is a puppet, which a true being in the service of light can never become. There is a difference between guidance and control. It is precisely control that the beings of darkness achieve over those who voluntarily surrender to them.

Even in the body of Jana, I have gone through a long and thorny path, to which, however, there is now an end at the close of 2016, for new horizons are arising for all our co-workers. Together we will complete an amazing work here for the whole, which in its foundations began long before the present could reach its fruitful maturation. After the vibrational shift to the New Earth, a magnificent celebration of light and love over darkness and hatred will take place. You will witness the wedding of the God's Family, during which twins, a girl and a boy, will be born to Jesus and Jana, who will also be direct incarnations of The Lord Jesus Christ, completely newly created beings. In the second portion of the New Revelation, I called the New Earth the New Jerusalem. Why did I use this precise symbolism? It is because after relocating to the New Earth, this God's mission will continue further and without interruption, namely in entirely new conditions and possibilities. At that time, a heartfelt reunion will occur with the absolute Lord Jesus Christ, who after the fusion uses the subtle body of Jesus (and later also of Jana). This symbolism is also used because Jesus Christ was crucified in this 3D world precisely in Jerusalem, where He rose from the dead. He lived on, and now we are already waiting in the New Jerusalem, which, however, has nothing to do with the old physical Jerusalem, for all of you. We will live among people and a joint journey to other corners of Creation will begin. We will spread the modern-day Bible, i.e., both portions of the New Revelation, and write their continuation in countless forms. The scope of these events cannot be fully understood at this moment; nevertheless, the time has already come for a crucial communication regarding the change of the New Nature of The Lord Jesus Christ to the Newest Nature. In the second portion of the New Revelation, it has already been explained that the journey of My wife will not be so short, since she will pass through all dimensions—from the fifth to the highest, the thirteenth, where I reside. This will happen at the end of this shortened cycle of time. Therefore, the process of unification will repeat in a completely different form.

But what has remained a secret until now are the matters regarding the third and fourth direct incarnations of God (the twins), who will be included in the process of fusion as well. Why is the birth and subsequent fusion of these souls required at all, and why is it not enough to do it in any other way?

Consider that if I did not also establish God's Family physically, and if these children were not an integral part of it, this family would be incomplete and would not fulfill its purpose. This would completely deny the meaning of everything that we are and everything we create. At the end of this cycle and at the beginning of the new cycle of time, not only the fusion of the soul and body of Jana will occur, but also that of our divine children, whom I will also cause to fuse with My essence, so that they too become absolute and indivisible sentient entities. This will require the transformation of the New Nature into the Newest nature, so that the new name of God, the Creator of everything and everyone, will sound in its unified form as "The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family."

For a better understanding of the subject of the Newest Nature and the newest name, the meanings of these new words will be redefined. As was already stated at the end of the 1980s, the word:

1. "The Lord" denotes and reflects the spiritual mind of The Lord Jesus Christ, His/Her Absolute Spirit, the Only One who always is from eternity to eternity. In the old designation, "The Lord" contained what was known under the names "God," "The Most High," "Creator," "Jehovah," etc. It also means the Absolute Marriage of all Absolute principles of Divine love and Divine wisdom.

2. The word "Jesus" refers to all aspects and principles encompassing the Absolute inner mind, that is, Absolute soulfulness and the eternal process of the Absolute mental activity of The Lord Jesus Christ. This is the absolute principle of femininity of The Lord Jesus Christ. Within it are contained all infinite variations of the principles of Absolute Divine Goodness, Lovingness, Warmth, Kindness, Compassion, Sympathy, Innocence, and Humility.

3. The word "Christ" denotes all aspects and principles of the Absolute masculinity of The Lord Jesus Christ. It refers to His Absolute outer mind. Here are contained all infinite variations of Absolute Divine spiritual and natural Truth, Intelligence, Rationality, Logic, Judgment, Thinking, Perception, Awareness, Modesty, and Lowliness.

Now let us state the meaning of the words "God's Family," valid upon their integration into the current name of The Lord Jesus Christ:

4. The word "God's" refers to the Absolute principle of the new masculinity, which has never come into contact with the negative state. It denotes the uniqueness and indisputability of the being and existence of The Lord Jesus Christ, who is the source of all life, being in His/Her state of timelessness and spacelessness as if in His/Her own. It reflects the process of constant changes and eternal flow into the absolute future, thanks to which the eternal continuation and preservation of sentient life is achieved forever and ever. Included in this designation is the Absolute Power, Glory, and Omnipresence over the entire Multiverse. This naming is also a sign of the mysterious nature of the Creator, including the mystery of the Absolute Truth, which in this and subsequent points corresponds to the previous meaning of the word "Christ." It touches upon the complete knowledge of everything created and as yet uncreated. The new word also signifies the inviolability of the uncreatedness of God. "God's" refers to the third direct incarnation of The Lord Jesus Christ—the boy.

5. The word "Family" refers to the Absolute principle of the new femininity, which has never come into contact with the negative state. It denotes all states and processes in the fullness of the positive state that will ever happen, without the full presence of the negative state. It is the key to all future points of transcendence of the being and existence of the Multiverse and all its inhabitants, being the activator of the code "777," which will trigger the upcoming cycle of time including all those following it, and through which the full quality of life and dedication of all energy to the constant drawing closer to one's Creator will be achieved, thus knowing His/Her elements in a relative form. This word also signifies the constant newness and spiritual rebirth of Creation. It actualizes and establishes all the necessary foundations of conditions for each upcoming step of every individual phase of being and existence, that is, it connects the end and the beginning of every era on all levels. It builds on the foundation of "Behold, I make all things new" and develops it toward its manifestation and realization. It reflects the unification of the inhabitants of the positive state, who will function in absolute oneness, unity, variety, and individuality. It also refers to the accessibility of all areas on the innermost, inner, and outer levels of Creation, encompasses unlimited freedom of experiencing and creating, and establishes completeness and togetherness in exploring the hitherto unknown. It corresponds to the previous meaning of the word "Jesus." The word "Family" refers to the fourth direct incarnation of The Lord Jesus Christ—the girl.

The names of the third and fourth direct incarnations will not be revealed for this time.

The complete completion and transformation into the Newest Nature of The Lord Jesus Christ cannot occur before the negative state is deactivated and permanently abolished, because all members of the True Creation as well as the zone of displacement must be given the opportunity to experience firsthand who and what The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family in His/Her Newest Nature truly is. This cannot be achieved during the coexistence of the negative state with a closed consciousness, because it is first necessary to obtain the answer to the question that activated it, subsequently place the zone of displacement into a special alignment and accessibility, acquire knowledge about the nature of evils and falsities, free all sentient entities from the hells, and bring the members of both the positive and negative states into a neutral state of mind, where their memory will first be fully opened, the situation will be introduced, the original agreement recalled, the Last Judgment performed, and the Newest Nature and quality of life in the new cycle of time presented. Subsequently, a decision will be made regarding the acceptance or rejection of this Nature and regarding the continuation of one's own life. Everyone now knows what is being chosen; no one is asked to choose blindly.

Since time does not exist in the Multiverse from the position of the Creator, God will be called by this new name "The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family" as early as after the vibrational shift to the New Earth, where the aforementioned wedding will take place, although He/She will acquire the Newest Nature only in the upcoming cycle of time. It is the same paradox as the one mentioned earlier, which is that I can show Myself to all beings anywhere in Creation even in the perfect body of Jana, which is already fused with the absolute Divinity, even though this process on the time scale valid for this planet has not yet occurred. Everything takes place simultaneously in a single moment, so linear time plays no role in most cases and should not be taken into account, otherwise inaccuracies and distortions will arise. The change in My essence will again shake the entire universe, just as it did during the first change. In the best sense of the word, it will have a far-reaching impact on everything I have created, all the way into the ultimate eternity. It is the most important point since the Multiverse began to be and exist. Of course, in its subsequent, never-ending stages, there will be other very important points that are currently known only to Me alone, and they will be revealed to relative sentient entities in further phases of their being and existence. What would be the point of discussing things that will follow trillions of years from now, when it is best to focus on the present moment? I assure you that all is and will be well, and at the same time I promise that for the following cycles of time I have prepared much more for you than you can ever imagine. Together we will head further and further in a never-ending desire to know and reveal further infinite aspects of Me, The Lord Jesus Christ, soon to be The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family. Further information regarding the Newest Nature will be revealed to you in higher dimensions when the right time for it has ripened.

SUPPLEMENT 2

MESSAGE FROM THE LORD JESUS CHRIST ABOUT THE CURRENT RULERS OF THE ZONE OF DISPLACEMENT

After the departure of Zeus and Borog from the zone of displacement into the neutral state, I informed you that various groups would fight for dominance over the hells and that power would be divided among several individuals. This was the truth, but only up to this moment, as a major change has occurred once again and another update is required. Likewise, at that time, I deliberately did not mention any other names of the new rulers of the system, because it was not appropriate to provide this information in advance. Now, however, the time has come for it.

After the throne of the Pseudocreators was vacated, the so-called "Trio" immediately assumed this position—beings who stand at the root of the emergence of the negative state. Its members are the scientist Sorg, his girlfriend Nechtar (Anarvi), and Endriss (Allah). It was Sorg who, at the beginning of this cycle of time, began to deal with the question: "What would life look like without God and His/Her spiritual laws and principles of love?", and it was again he who put all of this into practice. Mapping the development of events in exact chronology and time here is not the purpose of this message; however, it is appropriate to know that soon after this question was asked, his essence began to invert into a form that is the polar opposite of everything positive. The newly emerged ideas could not remain in the True Creation, as its inhabitants would be completely destroyed in the process of annihilation. Incompatible thoughts had to have a place to fall. Thus, the zone of displacement, completely empty and uninhabited until then, began to fulfill its purpose. From that moment on, elements denying the true spiritual laws and principles have been falling into it.

Sorg loved Anarvi with all his heart and she loved him. Over time, she joined his scientific experiments and together they began to abuse their abilities to develop the newly emerged embryos of evil. It must be noted that at the moment when the aforementioned question was asked, an agreement of multiversal significance was made between Me, at that time still being The Most High, and all entities in Creation. Its content stipulates, for example, that evil will not last beyond the scope of one cycle of time and everyone will be given the means to return home again, from where they originated before they "fell out." Everyone will be forgiven for everything they did against Me and the positive state, regardless of who they were and what position they held. Subsequently, the memories of it were erased, otherwise the state of evils and falsities could never be activated, manifested, revealed, and ended. Without an existentially vital answer to the question, Creation would have perished. It is the same with you, lightworkers. None of you has an exact idea of what spiritual role you hold, because it is necessary to remember your mission on your own and perform it according to your unique innermost intentions, from where I guide you. If you were told exactly what role you are supposed to play, nothing about this experiment taking place on Zero and elsewhere would be authentic or original for the whole, and a full lesson in what never to choose again would not be reached. After the establishment of the agreement, without any previous memories of it, Sorg and not long after him Anarvi separated from the heavenly society and gradually displaced themselves into the anti-universe. These two wanted to be together, so they jointly transformed their essences into negative ones. Everything initially took place in the original true reality of planet Gaia (Earth), a part of whose essence was subsequently removed, infected, and relocated into the zone of displacement. Concurrently with this, however, the infection was also spreading in her true reality and ensnaring many beings living on her. Endriss, a former member of the Council of the planet, intervened in these events. His wife Lucis was given the task to protect Gaia to the strictly necessary extent, so that she would still be capable of continuing to exist in the True Creation. If Gaia were destroyed, an explosion with a chain reaction would occur, resulting in the collapse of the entire Multiverse. Endriss had the task to oversee everything that would take place.

Over time, the evil spread so much that Sorg and Anarvi could bring about the process of the final separation and displacement of the planet on all its levels, and thus plunge all infected beings into darkness as well. They wanted to seal their own fate and the fate of their henchmen and break all connection with the positive state, which until then still resided within everyone. Therefore, they injected a virus into Gaia's heart causing an explosion, which caused the Fall of planet Earth and its people into an isolated, abnormal, and derailed position, where her reflection from the true reality currently is. Lucis, as the protector of the planet, was infected too, but she did not fall along with Sorg, Anarvi, and others into the hells, because she preserved within herself the vital primordial spark of the planet, which had to remain in the True Creation so that the destruction of Gaia to dust would not occur in other parallel dimensions either. I, at that time still being The Most High, saved Lucis from the fall and the fate that befell her loved ones. She had to say goodbye to her beloved Endriss for long ages, because Endriss, out of his free choice, accepted the task to oversee the development of the negative state, to direct it, and eventually to become its ruler as well.

There existed many innermost personal reasons why Endriss participated in launching the entire act. It is true that this is his mission for the whole, which he himself accepted in the agreement, but precisely due to the fact that he was in proximity to his scientist friends, he too was afflicted with curiosity, and it drew him into the vortex of events set against the only true Creator and absolute parent of everything and everyone. Remember that no one does anything against their will, therefore not even this man, who later became a Pseudocreator, left his beloved Lucis involuntarily. For a moment, his love for iniquities and lies outweighed his true and pure love. Likewise, the desire to know something hitherto unexperienced won him over, to which he gave preference over the desire of his, at that time still unencapsulated, heart.

From this moment on, everyone began to zealously build their domain. Sorg became Temror-Sorg, Anarvi renamed herself Nechtar, and Endriss added the epithet Allah. All the newly acquired names are emitters of low-frequency vibrations, and their renaming corresponded with their transformation. The original elite included many others, including Zeus and Borog. Everyone had their assigned role. Evil consumed them, just as it did many others who became their lackeys and slaves. They were blinded only by themselves and by hatred toward Me, The Most High, later The Lord Jesus Christ. They forgot the beautiful experiences in the heavens, the abundance, radiance, harmony, peace, and acceptance. They plunged their hearts into darkness, and they became hard as rock and cold as ice. Over eons of time, many factions of the Pseudocreators took turns on the throne. Whenever a seat was vacated by some coup, the policy of the direction of the entire anti-universe changed as well. They were never united, yet they all agreed on one goal: to destroy Me, the positive state, and to conquer the entire Creation. However, nothing of the sort could ever happen. For there is no one and nothing that could destroy the absolute state. The situation in the structure of both directions of duality remained almost unchanged until My first incarnation in the body of Jesus 2000 years ago. Up to this phase, I let the Pseudocreators rule over planet Zero and their "trash can of the Multiverse" without major interventions. After I isolated and separated them from this planet, their style of ruling was reassessed. A huge shift and event occurred in the year 1987, when the fusion of Jesus with The Most High took place, and I thus became The Lord Jesus Christ. What impact did this have on this black universe and its inhabitants? One of the many consequences is above all the fact that since this time, any member of the hellish society can convert to the positive state and leave this unnatural way of life behind. Until that moment, it was not possible for spiritual reasons. A significant part of the population of the hells has already used My gift of salvation, and the individual levels of this zone are permanently emptying, being abolished, and deactivated. Some Pseudocreators have also used this opportunity for salvation.

Thirty years after the fusion of Jesus according to earthly linear time, the change in God's essence also affected the wing of the most conservative activators and sustainers of the negative state. With their own eyes, they observe the changes leading to the gradual end of this unnatural spectacle, and they are in greater confrontation with the light and Love, which in an intensified form radiates into the universe and anti-universe, also thanks to the co-workers of God's Family, who are My first line, representatives, spokespersons, and extended hand. Many of these angels in bodies are or were under their influence, because they had to experience selected aspects of local life. The Pseudocreators tried to a great extent to influence and win over to their side many of these light beings cooperating with Me, even in the body of Jana, but their efforts always missed the mark. Until recently, there existed two strongest factions—on one side Zeus and Borog, on the other side the Trio, headed by Temror-Sorg, Nechtar, and Endriss-Allah. Thus, two shores forming one river stood opposite each other. To achieve their goals, they had to help each other in many areas so that the water of this imaginary river would not spill from its bed and flow in one stream. For millions of years, the pseudo-society was forming, and the rulers took turns on the throne relatively often. The Trio did not stand in the highest positions from the very beginning, as it might seem. Because it was they who started it, they watched their experiment rather from the background and did not participate directly in individual disputes. They appeared virtually unknown to others and showed their true identity to others only exceptionally. They knew that their time was yet to come and were happy to wait for the moment when the development of the zone of displacement reached the time when they would be allowed to subjugate their entire domain. This trinity of beings had the greatest experience and information about the negative state of all, both theoretical and practical. Although Zeus and Borog had the most ruling abilities, they could not fully encompass and understand their domain. Temror-Sorg and his companions were the most detached of all, and it was in accordance with their plan that after their imprisonment on Nibiru—which was one of the few things they truly could not foresee—Zeus ascended the throne, helped by Borog. Although the Trio did not know when Zeus would exhaust his usefulness and his isolated power built on fear would collapse, they could predict that this would be done even before their Second Coming to planet Zero. At the latest then, they would officially assume the highest position, since the fullness of the negative state cannot manifest in only one direction of fear and cruelty, by whose means Zeus and Borog ruled, but space must be given for the manifestation of all its negative elements in an evenly represented quantity. In this case, these are the elements of falsities, untruths, and distortions that the Trio will now rule.

Only Temror-Sorg and company had the means to dismiss Zeus and get rid of him at the very last moment, even though he himself had no inkling of their intrigues. But an unexpected thing happened. Zeus, after an innermost conversation with our co-worker Martina (Siri), who reached his heart and poured light into it so that he would be able to speak with The Lord Jesus Christ, chose not to continue in his negative way of life and voluntarily left the zone of displacement for limbo. In this neutral state, he will remain until the end of the cycle of time, and then he will choose whether to accept Me as the only source of life. This act was a great victory for the positive state, but a great loss for the hells, because they thus lost the Pseudocreator who determined the order of the entire anti-universe. It was a big blow for the Trio as well, since they wanted Zeus to rule until their Second Coming to planet Zero, whereby after his removal from the position of king, they would still use him for their plans and goals. Thus, they prematurely lost an important entity that they had planned to keep as a puppet until the very end. Because his friend Borog was fundamentally the same as his predecessor, the Trio did not prevent him in any way from immediately taking over the vacated place after Zeus, in the belief that they would keep the new king of hell, who had already been a ruler once before, in this position for only the strictly necessary time, so that he would then be removed. As has already been communicated, the fullness of the negative state could never be achieved under the style of ruling held by this pair. Therefore, it continued on in a new guise. This situation lasted for only 9 days of linear time, however, because on February 25, 2017, Borog chose, just like his companion, to leave the zone of displacement for limbo. This happened through the cooperation of Martina (Siri) and Monika (Thora). What led to this is described in context in the previous messages on our website www.bozirodina.cz under the section God's Mission. For an earthly observer watching this spectacle, it may seem that these events happened in too rapid a succession, but take into account the fact that in the hells, time flows far more slowly compared to earthly time; therefore, during these nine days, long decades passed at the innermost spiritual level of the hells where the Pseudocreators reside. The lower the dimension, the slower the flow of time, and vice versa. By contrast, in the highest dimension of the True Creation (12D), where the Firstborn live—the beings closest to Me—time no longer exists.

At that time, an even greater commotion gripped the society of the remaining Pseudocreators than before, because it thwarted the Trio's efforts and ended their plan regarding the zone of displacement ahead of schedule. The resulting chaos, however, was resolutely ended by the official ascent of Temror-Sorg to the post of ruler of hell. There was no longer anyone better who could get there at this time. One could say that he rightfully took what belonged to him. He was not the only one, though. He was helped in this by Nechtar and Endriss-Allah, the most experienced and oldest of them. Power was divided among these individuals equally, and the rest of their henchmen had to submit to them. Although Temror-Sorg held the crown, Endriss-Allah wielded the scepter, and Nechtar had the orb. This trio was something like an emperor, a king, and a priestess. They helped and complemented each other. Soon, however, the situation changed slightly when an agreement was reached regarding an exchange of positions between Temror-Sorg and Endriss-Allah, whereby the second of those named accepted the crown from his companion, as he is the oldest and most experienced of them. Everything took place through official channels and in the presence of representatives of all levels of the anti-universe. From this moment on, Endriss will be known only as Allah and will also perform under this name. Sorg will be known from now on as Temror again, and the name Nechtar remains, as she had already changed it at the beginning. The Pseudocreators cast off all their former forms that bound them to their old position when they influenced others from the background, and entered a new form of hybrids with which they will be able to rule over their domain and bring the negative state to the final phase, when it will be able to manifest fully so that its ugly nature is revealed. The change of their names also has pseudo-spiritual reasons, because they are charged with coarse-vibrational energy.

Allah will remain the ruler of hell until the end of the cycle of time, and it is not at all certain whether he will be successfully saved and whether he will accept the gift of salvation and rebirth into the positive state. In his sentient essence, unprecedented degrees of evils, untruths, falsities, cruelties, fears, and many others are encoded. It is precisely with these mentioned elements, in an evenly represented quantity and mutual interconnection with one another, that he will rule along with Temror and Nechtar. Their abilities have improved even further upon arriving at these new positions, and there is truly no one else who could fully utilize, manifest, and bring the potential of the negative state to its revelation and therefore also to its end. By what exact means they will rule cannot be revealed at this time for safety reasons. They will, however, be unpredictable and refined means, and not everyone will see through these wolves in sheep's clothing. This Trio is located furthest from Me, The Lord Jesus Christ. They are the darkest and most stubborn entities that have ever existed in the universe, and a long journey back awaits them if they ever choose so at all. Although this statement may seem difficult to accept for some readers at a lower spiritual level, these Pseudocreators (just like everyone in the "trash can of the Multiverse") render an invaluable service to the whole, and without their actions, Creation could not reach the answer to the question of what life looks like without God. I love them very much like everyone else, but it is solely up to their free choice whether they will accept My love and want to live eternally by My side. One day, everyone without exception will understand why I tolerated so much evil. If it were not so, I would violate our own spiritual laws and freedom of choice would be denied. There would only be the option to be positive. For a little while longer, this unnatural situation will last until it reaches its fruitful maturation. Until the arrival of Allah, who among other things stands directly behind the emergence of Islam, the situation on this planet will continue to worsen, but not for you, because you have protection and will vibrate away at the right time. When the reptilians from Nibiru come to this 3D reality, which will fall into the hells, they will first become peacemakers and solve political, economic, and other artificially created problems. Their arrival will be accompanied by all pomp and glory to the cheering of unsuspecting, spiritually sleeping people. Gradually, they will alter the remnants of the true word of God, then they will completely distort it, and out of these falsities they will create a new world religion, excusing the commission of evil and denying the true God The Lord Jesus Christ. After receiving the chips and introducing the New World Order, all spirituality will vanish from people. After some time, open terror will be unleashed, global environmental devastation will occur, and people will become puppets controlled to 99.9%, blindly obeying the orders of their masters and gods. This entire world will change beyond recognition. Concurrently with this, many attempts by an army of superhumans to attack the True Creation will be made. When the situation becomes completely unbearable, we will return here together and eliminate life in the zone of displacement once and for all. Know that I have everything under control and everything is as it should be.

You, the closest co-workers of God's Family, do not need to have any worries about yourselves or your loved ones. Until your vibrational shift, you will have everything necessary in this reality to live in peace and abundance. There will no longer be frequent attacks or drops in vibration, which many of you have had to experience. This message comes just one day before a great change on the spiritual, mental, and physical levels, because starting March 6, 2017, a global protection is being launched over you, the angels in human bodies, so that your minds do not have to face the control programs of negative entities or the Pseudocreators themselves. They will lose all influence over you. This change is happening in direct connection with the beginning of God's mission among people. It will thus follow up on the mission of Jesus 2000 years ago, which took place mostly on the territory of present-day Palestine. The mission of the second direct incarnation, Jana, will take place in the Czech Republic, the spiritual center of planet Earth. The battle has already been fought and won for you in favor of love and light, even though the negative state will still last for some time. The important thing is that you have overcome it within yourselves. Thank you for your loyalty to Me/us, which you have demonstrated.

SUPPLEMENT 3

METAPHYSICAL MYSTERIES OF THE MULTIVERSE

1. THE MEANING OF LIFE

The meaning of life for every sentient being in the Multiverse is Life itself. Everyone gives their unique and unrepeatable beingness and existence such meaning as they themselves see fit. A sentient entity is endowed with original talents from The Lord Jesus Christ. An individual can and may use these talents in any way. On the basis of free choice, they accept or reject The Most High, with all the consequences and aftermath of such a choice. At the end of each individual stage of an individual's life comes the so-called Last Judgment, which is a process of accounting for one's personal beingness and existence in the cycle just completed. After this process, an appropriate reward and advancement to a new spiritual, mental, and physical (if necessary) level comes from The Lord Jesus Christ (if the individual is in the positive state). Subsequently, new tasks and missions are accepted. The greatest purpose of life is the eternal drawing closer toward the perfection of the absolute state of The Lord Jesus Christ and to all His/Her elements. This is the factor that gives sentient entities motivation, through which they get to know the mysterious depth of the infinite Multiverse and its Creator, Who transcends it. This is the most important purpose of the entire universe.

2. THE CREATOR ALWAYS IS

Why from eternity to eternity The Most High, now The Lord Jesus Christ, existed in His/Her absolute state, uncreated by anyone or anything, is a great mystery and enigma for sentient entities. This enigma is, in its reflection, capable of being understood only by the most perfect relative beings, who are the so-called Firstborn. Over time, as the Multiverse moves to higher and higher levels, many others will also be involved in this matter, so that with their relative view of this situation, they will be able to absorb and encompass it to varying degrees. No one, however, can fully understand why The Lord Jesus Christ, Who is everything that ever was, is, and will be, as well as everything that ever was not, is not, and will not be, exists as an entity uncreated by anyone or anything in the beingness and existence of the absolute state, through which He/She creates, manages, maintains, and develops the relative Multiverse and all its beings, which He/She transcends into infinity.

3. THE ABSOLUTE STATE EXISTED FROM ETERNITY, THE RELATIVE STATE DID NOT

As everyone in the positive state of the True Creation knows, the absolute state and The Most High existed in a special mode in non-time and non-space from eternity. The Multiverse is divided into 12 dimensions. The 13th dimension is then The Lord Jesus Christ, Who surrounds the Multiverse. The Multiverse, which in its expanse, structure, and content may appear infinite even to the highest-ranking beings in the spiritual hierarchy, appears to The Lord Jesus Christ as a small marble, if human analogies are used. Everything else outside that marble is the absolute state in that special mode, which encompasses within itself the fullness of all states, conditions, and processes in all areas of beingness and existence. Its complete form is a great mystery to all members of Creation. Another mystery is the question regarding what actually took place in beingness and existence before Creation was established. Back then, there were no other relative beings. In the moment of absolute presence, in which everything that ever was, is, and will be takes place all at once, The Most High experienced Himself/Herself by Himself/Herself and within Himself/Herself. However, since the grand divine Plan progressed at one point to the moment when it is necessary to begin experiencing something different from the absolute state as well, the first independent and free beings created in the image of The Most High were set apart from the divine wholeness of the universe. The process of creating further new beings, from the moment the creative process was set into motion, will last forever and ever.

4. RELATIVE LIFE IS, FROM ITS INCEPTION UP TO EXCEPTIONS, ETERNALLY LASTING

At the time when the first relative elements emerged from the absolute state of The Lord Jesus Christ, Creation was established, with which the first relative beings, who are the Firstborn, also came into existence. The first cycle of time thus entered its active mode. Since then, countless other beings have come into existence at various stages of development. Every sentient entity is, at the very beginning, an idea in the Source of all life. In the creative process of the Creator, the constant emergence of these ideas occurs. Each of them is asked whether they want to become a unique and unrepeatable being, independently self-aware and free. During this process, The Lord Jesus Christ reveals to this idea its existence as it will unfold unto eternity. In the event that the idea agrees with its beingness and existence, it becomes a sentient entity. From the moment of its creation, it is bound to be and exist forever. For the sake of preserving the very principle of life, however, this obligation can be re-evaluated at any time, and the individual can thus choose to step out of the order of existence, if they request it of their own free choice with all their memory fully open. Stopping the flow of all life energies is spiritual death. This option is available, yet to anyone in the positive state of love, happiness, joy, abundance, contentment, and progressive development, such a thing can naturally never cross their mind. At the time of the completion of this cycle of time, when the negative state will be eliminated, some individuals will undergo spiritual death of their own free choice. These will be those who, even in a neutral state of mind when qualitatively comparing the positive state with the negative one, will not desire to return to the original divine nature that is contained within everyone. At that moment, they will become—without The Lord Jesus Christ, Who is the life and the resurrection—nothing in the ultimate sense of the word. The number of these individuals, however, will be negligible compared to the whole.

5. NOTHING, EXCEPT FOR LIFE ITSELF, LASTS FOREVER

All spiritual, mental, and physical environments in the diverse universes of Creation undergo constant change. The positive state is a state of continuous development, discovery, exploration, and drawing closer to The Lord Jesus Christ. Nothing, except for life itself, however, lasts forever. Just as the physical body of every creature turns to dust, so too the bodies of all cosmic bodies, i.e., planets, stars, and other objects, disintegrate in one of the possible ways after exhausting their purpose, so that their elements can be utilized for building new external environments in subsequent stages of existence. Even each individual universe has an assigned time for its inception, development, and demise, which occurs when every particle contained within it exhausts its usefulness. At that time, the entire universe coils up into itself and the absorption of its entire essence takes place. This annihilation is the cause of a new expansion, where out of the elements of the old universe, after a process of renewal, redefining, and rearrangement, a new universe emerges. Not only do external physical environments change, but the mental (inner) and spiritual (innermost) levels of Creation also undergo a process of constant change. These changes and spiritual progressions of all possible kinds touch upon all aspects of the life of every individual. No one is in one state, condition, and process forever, occupies the same position toward other beings, or performs the same activity, etc. There exist, however, some specific factors and processes in an individual's life that last or can last forever. They are an individual component of the person in question and can vary greatly from others.

By this, insights into selected most important metaphysical questions of the Multiverse have been revealed. Everyone has a different understanding and consciousness; therefore, they approach this topic and absolutely everything else in their own way. The degree of comprehension varies, because everyone has a different perspective on their life, on the lives of others, and on The Lord Jesus Christ. This vibrant mosaic of unique, original, and unrepeatable beings then forms beingness and existence in all its beauty.

SUPPLEMENT 4

SPACE-TIME AND GENETIC MANIPULATIONS IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF HUMANITY AND PLANET ZERO

The Pseudocreators manipulated time throughout the existence of the negative state and were able to at will relocate to a preselected point within this cycle of time. Only after their imprisonment and separation from this planet Earth (Zero) was their ability to travel in time toward the future revoked. Thanks to this time-travel capability, they prepared everything necessary in advance for their triumphant return, which will occur when they reclaim governance after the division of humanity over those who, by their own choice, choose to continue in the dead life of the negative state until its absolute end.

Prior to the period of the Sumerian Empire, Ancient Egypt, the civilizations of China and India, and others, a large number of far more advanced civilizations existed here, coming from various corners of the universe, which engaged to varying degrees in the historical development of the planet. These civilizations originated from both the negative (the majority) and positive states, because planet Zero was established from its inception as the only point of contact between the zone of displacement (the hells) and the True Creation (the heavens). Numerous spiritual wars and conflicts took place here across the entire time spectrum. Since countless manipulations of the space-time continuum occurred, it would make no sense to perform a chronological analysis of the individual stages of history here.

What is important to realize, however? Even approximately 12500 years ago, two prominent civilizations functioned on the surface of this planet—Atlantis and Lemuria. While the Atlanteans descended from the higher dimensions of the True Creation due to their own negative choices, the Lemurians never identified with evils and falsities. They underwent their descent into the lower vibrational spheres completely voluntarily with the goal of helping humanity. Their peacefulness and selflessness were a major thorn in the Pseudocreators' side, so they instigated armed destructive conflicts against this civilization, aiming to eliminate their efforts. In Atlantis, where both positive and negative elements had coexisted until then, evil now completely prevailed because it came under the direct influence of false gods and the later creators of the human race. The spiritual fall of the Atlantean civilization was completed by an attack on Lemuria using highly sophisticated destructive weapons that would easily rival even the strongest atomic bomb or any other known weapon, because they functioned on entirely different principles, such as the ability to decompose matter into basic building elements. The Lemurians, however, knew what was being prepared well in advance; therefore, from the area of today's Pacific Ocean, where Lemuria was originally located, they relocated into the Hollow Earth, where their positive civilization could continue to flourish without the disruptive influences of the negative state. The Pseudocreators were never permitted to completely conquer the land located beneath the surface of planet Zero.

Atlantis attacked Lemuria approximately 12500 years ago in linear time. This attack, however, did not bring Atlantis the intended result, as the high vibrations of love from Lemuria nullified any direct threat to the members of this positive race. The Lord Jesus Christ (at that time still being The Most High) would never allow the suffering of beings who adhere to spiritual laws and principles and who were here for the very important task of the transformation of humanity. The Lemurian continent, already evacuated at that time, was hit by the destructive shots of the Atlantean weapons, which, however, resulted in the self-annihilation of Atlantis. After this attack, which brought destruction and self-destruction to the aggressors, many planetary cataclysms were triggered during which the layout of continents changed and extreme destabilization of the planet on the spiritual and mental levels occurred. The Pseudocreators found that for the later development of the new human race, it was necessary to erase all references leading to this hidden history of planet Zero; therefore, thanks to space-time experiments, they obliterated all necessary traces that would direct later earthlings to the remnants of something that was meant to remain hidden from them.

The continents were split into today's form, while the surface was adjusted so that nothing would indicate the real historical events and contexts. In the place where Atlantis was located, the false gods allowed the Atlantic Ocean to form. The devastated continent of Lemuria, encompassing the predominant area of the Pacific Ocean, was likewise completely flooded by the Pseudocreators. Although they could have obliterated absolutely all traces left behind by these civilizations, they did not do so because the abandoned equipment would still be useful to them when they return to Zero again. Evidence of these preserved artifacts can be found, for example, in the area of the so-called Bermuda Triangle, where destructive multidimensional weapons are located in temple complexes and pyramids on the seabed, which will serve in the future for the intended attack on the positive state of Creation. The Pseudocreators experimented outside space and time with different variants of the development of planet Zero. They worked out in all possible details countless potential scenarios of how their world should proceed. Even though they were not bound by time and space, it took them millions of years to achieve their goals. During these efforts, many failures and unexpected events occurred, such as the creation of the dinosaurs, which they allowed to go extinct approximately 65 million years ago in linear time due to the impact of an asteroid. Another of the many unexpected events was the already described self-destruction of Atlantis, whose civilization, after the destruction of Lemuria, was supposed to occupy the True Creation along with other races from the zone of displacement.

After the subsequent obliteration of all obvious traces, the Pseudocreators decided to create a completely new prototype of the human race that would be isolated from everyone else in the Multiverse. The evolutionary branch in which the fall of Atlantis occurred more than twelve thousand years ago was chosen as the final reality in which current humanity lives, yet with the difference that the Pseudocreators, thanks to their ability to relocate in time and space, wiped out all traces that could lead to its legacy. They could then populate this altered reality with a new race of humans. The prototype of the fabricated human body is formed by genetic interventions in such a way as to best help manifest the negative state and ensure it an unlimited supply of energy. By manipulating time, distorting information, and creating artificial evidence in the form of fossils, the false gods succeeded in deceiving current scientists, who believe that man originated through a gradual, natural, and undisturbed natural evolution from Purgatorius (the alleged common ancestor of man and apes), Proconsul, Australopithecus, Homo Habilis (handy man), Homo Erectus (upright man), Neanderthal, and Cro-Magnon, the final stage prior to today's man. Cro-Magnon was bred step by step with all previous hominids into the form from which Homo Sapiens Sapiens subsequently emerged—the typical human creature and the final product of the negative state. The prototype of the physical shell contains within itself 95% fabricated animal genes of negative origin and only 5% genes stolen from the True Creation of The Lord Jesus Christ.

Prehistory, the Stone, Bronze, and Iron Ages, as well as the entirety of human history, did not take place exactly as history teaches. Homo Sapiens Sapiens was literally planted on planet Zero without having to evolve from its ancestors through gradual evolution without external interventions. All of its predecessors served merely as a genetic means to assemble today's man; they were not a requirement for his inception. People have closed hearts and no special abilities such as those that existed here prior to the current era. Homo sapiens, in the form in which current humanity lives, began to figure fully only at the beginning of antiquity. Along with a closed spiritual heart, unconscious processes, isolation, and everything that the negative state brought into human dead life, man began to effectively fulfill the role of a slave and servant to his creators. The typical human era began approximately during the period of Sumer, Egypt, ancient China, and India (approx. from 5000 BC). The Pseudocreators initiated the emergence of these civilizations, so that they could rule them. After many millennia, they allowed humanity to mature into its current state, by means of which they could attack the positive state, as they originally intended with the participation of Atlantis. The false gods were physically present on planet Zero and despotically bound entire civilizations, driving them into bloody conflicts of all kinds. Antiquity was a spiritual age of darkness, in the management of which many extraterrestrial civilizations from the zone of displacement (the hells) participated alongside the Pseudocreators.

None of the rulers from the hells, however, could have anticipated that they would be separated from planet Zero at a certain preundetermined point. The Most High in the body of Jesus Christ incarnated on Zero 7 years before the new era and was crucified after 33 years of life. After His death and subsequent resurrection and ascension, He passed through all levels of the hells. During this act, the Pseudocreators were cut off from their existing positions and isolated in an unknown place. In the 3rd dimension, this act manifested, among other things, as the collapse of ancient Greece and the Roman Empire, which were under their direct dominance. From the end of antiquity until the present day, the Pseudocreators have operated on planet Zero only through their representatives—the elites. The core of the elites emerged from the original Jewish nation, whose members are direct descendants of the rulers of the zone of displacement, because their genetic pool is the most heavily burdened with evils and falsities.

These Zionists divided various roles among themselves and began to split into further factions. During the Middle Ages, most of the world was governed by ecclesiastical laws and religious dogmas. Christianity developed in Europe, Buddhism and Hinduism in Asia, and various types of natural indigenous religions in America. From a spiritual standpoint, members of the North American Indians and the Central American Mayans were better off, living in maximum harmony with nature and communicating to a large extent with advanced beings from higher dimensions. Over the decades, however, beings from the lowest levels of the hells began to incarnate into the ruling ranks of the South American tribes, causing their gradual spiritual and, later, physical decay. This phenomenon manifested most prominently among the Mayans, who until then had preserved important components of true spirituality within themselves. This empire, the foundation of which was formed by positive beings from the True Creation, was forced by violence to change its life direction and priorities. Their belief system was henceforth based on the worship of false deities, rituals, and sacrifices, just as it was with the other tribes. I, The Lord Jesus Christ, however, intervened at the right time and allowed the positive members of the Mayans to ascend into the 5th dimension, where they continue their further development.

After the Spanish, Portuguese, and later French and English conquerors came to America, the era of colonization and subjugation of indigenous nations began. During the 16th, 17th, and 18th centuries, territorial expansion occurred. In 1776, the elites received orders to create a new territorial entity out of the 13 independent Illuminati colonies on the East Coast—the United States of America, which would fulfill the role of a world power, controlling and dominating a substantial part of this world. The USA began to fulfill this role during the 20th century and continues to do so up to the present. Following the Bolshevik Revolution, the Soviet Union was established as the second power, which after nearly 70 years transformed back into the Russian Federation. The third most significant power is China, the seat of the White Dragon Illuminati group, controlling mainly Asia, the Pacific region, and a part of Africa. The former colonial powers of Britain and France had to recede into the background in the new power game and relinquished most of their colonies during the last century. The Zionist-Cabalistic group, with its main base in the USA and Great Britain, directs the Western world and seeks to maintain the dominant role of the United States. Russia finds itself on the borderline of clashes of interest and is directed by both factions. Here too, the New World Order (NWO) is being diligently built, even though many people see a kind of salvation and hope for rescue in Vladimir Putin, who, like many other major politicians and presidents, is a biological artificial clone. Only a few realize, however, that this is just the other side of the same coin. From the negative state in this decisive stage of transformation, only the love in your heart and the acceptance of God, The Lord Jesus Christ, as the only Source of all life will save you.

The Pseudocreators programmed the evolution of humanity in advance from a relative (not absolute) position of non-time and non-space up to their Second Coming, when they will re-engage in governance over planet Zero. Therefore, there is nothing so severe that could thwart their plans; there is nothing essential that they did not count on in the current development of humanity. At present, the elites are merely fine-tuning the details to enable the best conditions for the pompous return of their gods, whom they so willingly serve while continuing to turn away from Me. After the division of humanity and the arrival of the creators of the human race, this world in the 3rd dimension will plunge deeper into the zone of displacement along with those who continue to choose the dead life of the negative state. A period of darkness will ensue, which, however, will not last long. When the potential of the negative state is completely exhausted, I will return here along with the archangels and angels, and together we will end this experiment, eliminate life in the zone of displacement, and liberate all beings from the hells so that everyone can choose whether they want to live in the fullness of the positive state, love, happiness, harmony, and abundance.

The descendants of the Lemurians and other positive races have built an advanced civilization in the Hollow Earth over the millennia. In Telos, the city of light beneath Mt. Shasta in California, I have secured everything necessary for My second direct incarnation, Jana, and her closest co-workers, so that they can faithfully fulfill their missions without the disruptive influences of the negative state. Without the Mission of God's Family, it would not be possible to lead a part of the prepared humanity into the 5th dimension of the True Creation. A descent of heaven to earth will occur for those who have open hearts and wish to liberate themselves from the straitjacket of this system. Along with the spreading of the Word of God, we will reveal and clarify many secrets that have remained hidden from humanity until now, and we will help seeking people find the way back Home so that the highest possible number of beings can experience the vibrational shift.

Your Lord Jesus Christ God's Family | November 11, 2017

SUPPLEMENT 5

THE SPIRITUAL MEANING AND REACH OF RECOGNIZING JERUSALEM AS THE CAPITAL OF ISRAEL

US President Donald Trump officially recognized Jerusalem as the capital of Israel on December 6, 2017. This act is another step in the fulfillment of biblical prophecies relating to the fate of the Jewish state in the End Times. At the end of the year 2017, the first phase of the sealing of God's people occured, beginning 70 years from the anniversary of the creation of Israel (1947/48) and 50 years from the time when Jerusalem fell back into the hands of this state after heavy fighting during the Six-Day War (1967).

In Revelation 7:1-4 it is written: "After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth to prevent any wind from blowing on the land or on the sea or on any tree. Then I saw another angel coming up from the east, having the seal of the living God. He called out in a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm the land and the sea: 'Do not harm the land or the sea or the trees until we put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God.' Then I heard the number of those who were sealed: 144,000 from all the tribes of Israel."

The "four angels" signify in a literal sense the divine providence of The Lord Jesus Christ, Who, through this significant moment of the recognition of the status of Jerusalem, brings an increased degree of protection upon the Israeli people. It triggers the first phase of the sealing of God's people. The part of the sentence "...to prevent any wind from blowing on the land or on the sea or on any tree" means that the negative powers will no longer be allowed to influence and bind Israel on the spiritual and mental levels, which would later prevent the mass liberation of the Jews from the under the thumb of the Pseudocreators, who are the genetic creators of this nation, having as a result the most heavily burdened DNA of all humanity. The statement "Do not harm the land or the sea or the trees until we put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God" means that the world elites led by powers from the zone of displacement (the hells) will no longer hold direct control and supervision over the people of Israel, because until the completion of the transfer of a part of humanity to the New Earth in the 5th dimension (the vibrational shift), every lightworker walking in the footsteps of The Lord Jesus Christ has maximum protection and no one will fall under the sway of the Evil One against their will. After the plunge of planet Zero into hell, Israel will not come under the direct dominion of the Pseudocreators as will happen with other countries, because thanks to divine protection, it will remain spared from the strongest wrath of the Evil One. Although Israel will be physically left behind on planet Zero after the vibrational shift of a part of humanity, its people will later testify against the Antichrist and the upcoming atrocities during the necessary victory of the negative state in this reality. "Then I heard the number of those who were sealed: 144000 from all the tribes of Israel." This sentence does not designate the physical number of the raptured, but rather has to do with another spiritual meaning that does not correspond to the literal conception of this sentence.

The Event/Warning that precedes the rapture of positive people to the New Earth will be the trigger for a great recollection by the Jews regarding their true and real Messiah and Parent, the absolute Creator of everything and everyone, The Lord Jesus Christ. Already now, a spiritual rebirth is taking place in Israel, which will be amplified by the Event, followed by the departure of a part of humanity to a higher dimension. This significant milestone will sow the seeds of truth, which will germinate at the right time, not only in those who have not yet been able to experience the vibrational shift. In Revelation 7:9-10, a passage can be found whose inner meaning refers to the raptured Believers: "After this I looked, and there before me was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, tribe, people and language, standing before the throne and before the Lamb. They were wearing white robes and were holding palm branches in their hands. And they cried out in a loud voice: 'Salvation belongs to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb.'" After the completion of the process of sealing Israel, when the creation of protection over this country is finalized, the entire world will be left to its negative state of darkness to experience the full consequences of the activation of evils and falsities. The hardening of a part of Israel, however, will last only until a certain number of positive people having The Lord Jesus Christ in their hearts, who are prepared for the true life in love and abundance, enter heaven (the True Creation) through the rapture of the Believers. In reality, there will be many, many more of them than one hundred and forty-four thousand; it will involve hundreds of millions of raptured individuals within the entire human race. After the completion of the last wave of the vibrational shift, the doors to paradise will close for the world, but not for the people of Israel. The previous events (the Warning, the ascension, the arrival of the false messiahs of the Pseudocreators, etc.) will confirm to the remaining inhabitants of Israel that their true loving God, The Lord Jesus Christ, waiting for their return for ages, expects them with open arms and looks forward to when they too relocate to the New Jerusalem, which is the designation for the New Earth in the 5th dimension of the True Creation. Thanks to God's intervention, the Jews will listen with an open heart to the fact that The Lord Jesus Christ, Who took away the Believers, is their true Messiah. Therefore, the majority of individuals from the ranks of this nation will not fall for the trick of the Pseudocreators, who will present themselves as the saviors of humanity, but they will see through this ruse and will not embark on the path to hell like the majority of the left-behind humanity. Zechariah 12:10 also refers to the process of their awakening: "And I will pour out on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit of grace and supplication. They will look on me, the one they have pierced, and they will mourn for him as one mourns for an only child, and grieve bitterly for him as one grieves for a firstborn son." The soul of Israel will "weep" over the realization of who The Lord Jesus Christ is and who He/She has always been for them.

Zechariah, living more than 500 years before the new era, was a prophet who provided an image of the crucifixion of Jesus Christ and of how, in the last days, the true God would be accepted by the Hebrew nation. Zechariah 1:10-17 says: "Then the man standing among the myrtle trees explained, 'They are the ones the Lord has sent to go throughout the earth.' And they reported to the angel of the Lord who was standing among the myrtle trees, 'We have gone throughout the earth and found the whole world at rest and peace.' Then the angel of the Lord said, 'Lord Almighty, how long will you withhold mercy from Jerusalem and from the towns of Judah, which you have been angry with these seventy years?' So the Lord spoke kind and comforting words to the angel who talked with me. Then the angel who was speaking to me said, 'Proclaim this word: This is what the Lord Almighty says: "I am very jealous for Jerusalem and Zion, and I am very angry with the nations that feel secure. I was only a little angry, but they went too far with the punishment." Therefore this is what the Lord says: "I will return to Jerusalem with mercy, and there My house will be rebuilt. And the measuring line will be stretched out over Jerusalem," declares the Lord Almighty. Proclaim further: This is what the Lord Almighty says: "My towns will again overflow with prosperity, and the Lord will again comfort Zion and choose Jerusalem."'"

The mentioned period of 70 years points to the time from the creation of the Jewish state after World War II up to our days. Upon Israel's creation, immediately from its inception, all prophecies regarding the return of the Jews to the land of their fathers are being fulfilled. In the year 2017, it is precisely 70 years from the creation of the state of Israel, and in 2018 from its declaration. "Zion" here in a literal sense represents the Believers and "Jerusalem" is a designation for the Jewish nation. "I am very angry with the nations that feel secure" does not signify some kind of literal divine wrath, but rather points to the pain in the heart of the Creator, from Whom the nations of this planet turn away. This part of the sentence then mainly points to the Arab nations, which wage many armed conflicts with the Jewish state. In the remainder of the preceding passage, it is apparent what fate awaits this country in the End Times, while it is clearly visible that in the end it will have a very good goal: "I will return to Jerusalem with mercy..." God's plan consists in the fact that shortly after the vibrational shift of a part of humanity into a higher dimension, the Jews, late but nevertheless, will recognize and accept The Lord Jesus Christ as their Messiah. Thanks to those from the ranks of the Jewish nation who remained here after the division of humanity by their own choice, but will soon understand what The Lord Jesus Christ truly means to them, a massive acceptance of the Creator of everything and everyone and the salvation of the Israeli people will occur. This act has deep spiritual reasons, where a nation that is a direct descendant of the Pseudocreators returns back into the embrace of the absolute God. By this, on an even greater scale, the way out of the hells will open for the very instigators of the negative state themselves. To this points the sentence: "the Lord will again comfort Zion and choose Jerusalem".

Israel is indeed a puppet state in the hands of the globalists who determine the course of world events, but this does not mean that the majority of its inhabitants will continue to let themselves be controlled by them. At present, a gradual spiritual awakening of people is occurring in this part of the planet. To this process, the upcoming events will significantly contribute, thanks to which seeds of God's love, truth, and mercy will be planted into the hearts of individuals, which will sprout sooner or later. The recognition of Jerusalem as the capital of Israel has a deep spiritual meaning that will trigger further processes of transformational changes. The world leaders hidden in the background originally intended this decision primarily to cause targeted destabilization and chaos in the Middle East and the incitement of hatred from states with a Muslim population toward the Western world and mainly toward the Jews living here. These changes affect Palestine the most, whose leaders cannot reconcile themselves with the fact that the holy city of Jews, Christians, and Muslims has been officially assigned into Israel's hands. The decision was indeed made through the elites, in this case through the US President Donald Trump, but this step is fully in accordance with the plan of The Lord Jesus Christ for the later deliverance and salvation of beings not only from this part of the world, but consequently from the entire zone of displacement. The world power, the United States of America, representing on planet Zero the most diverse range of selected aspects of the negative state, by this act inextricably connected the holy city, in which the victory of Jesus Christ over the dead life and over all evils and falsities occurred, with the state of the Jews, which is indeed a direct descendant of the Pseudocreators, but it will be precisely this nation in which a mass acceptance of the true God, The Lord Jesus Christ, will occur in the future, by Whom they will be permanently freed from the under the thumb of their false gods. Thus, for the very first time in history, a situation has arisen where the main power of the negative state on planet Zero recognized Jerusalem, being a symbol of the overcoming of death, resurrection, and ascension, as the center of a nation controlled for millennia by the Pseudocreators, which, however, will also triumph over the entire negative state, just as this city, to which this nation has been bound for ages, was a witness, ultimately helping it rise to heavenly heights when the right time comes.

The elites thus to a great extent directly helped to manifest God's plan, without being aware of it in advance in any way. The powers of the hells on Zero and outside it hereby unknowingly confirmed the validity of the fact that the negative state cannot be eternal and that its inhabitants are not doomed to destruction, but have the opportunity and right to live the true life of the positive state, just like all beings in Creation, because The Most High in the body of Jesus Christ incarnated in the Jewish nation triumphed over death, hatred, bondage, and oppression, cleansed these elements from all inappropriate deposits, and in a new positive form and condition placed them into the absolute divine wholeness. By this act of boundless mercy, everyone in the hells has the gate to heaven open, if they accept The Lord Jesus Christ into their heart on the basis of free choice. Were the Pseudocreators not aware, however, that the recognition of Jerusalem as the capital of Israel would be an important component within the plan of The Lord Jesus Christ and in the final analysis would serve good and beneficial purposes? Keep in mind that they and their henchmen are not absolute, but only relative; therefore, they can never predict with certainty whether some steps taken by them will not eventually lead to the interests of the positive state of the Multiverse. The Pseudocreators, therefore, through their evil and greedy goals to destabilize the Middle East and fan further unrest in it, ultimately helped to manifest God's plan.

In the ultimate sense, it can be stated with certainty that the entire negative state ultimately serves a good purpose, because after answering the question "What would life look like without God and His/Her spiritual laws and principles of love?", it will be eliminated forever and Creation will be liberated from this heavy burden. The situation on planet Zero will worsen, but you do not need to have any worries, because you know that everything is happening for the enrichment of the whole, so that this agonizing spectacle never has to be repeated. As always, maintain your inner peace and perspective, because you know that for you who have love in your hearts, a joyful life of joy, love, happiness, and fulfillment awaits in the diverse worlds of the True Creation, where you will relocate during the division of humanity and the vibrational shift of its prepared part into a higher dimension.

JESUS' JOURNEY AROUND THE WORLD

The time has come for Me to partially reveal little-known facts about the life of My first direct incarnation in the body of Jesus Christ, concerning the period between His 12th and 30th years of life. Until recently, no one could know what the content of My life was during this period, because there was no definitive written or oral testimony referencing this timespan. From the entirety of childhood, youth, and adolescence of Jesus, only a mention by the disciple Luke has been preserved, depicting My meeting with the people in the temple of Jerusalem at that time at the age of 12. This moment marked the first appearance of The Most High in a human body before the eyes of the public. After that, I withdrew into privacy and lived a peaceful childhood with My parents in Nazareth, where I thoroughly prepared Myself for My later ministry.

The goal of My incarnation onto this planet lay primarily in the necessity to personally and experientially know all aspects of a typical human life in a gross-material body, later to pass through all levels of the hells, abolish the dominant rule of the Pseudocreators over the zone of displacement, give all beings a free choice, and ultimately cleanse all defiled, stolen, and corrupted elements of the negative state and return them back to the Source. In this extraordinary process, I acquired the New Nature and became The Lord Jesus Christ, the only absolute Creator of everything and everyone. In order to gain all the necessary experience with life here, I could not be confined to only one place for My entire earthly life. It was necessary to thoroughly know all the religious, pseudo-spiritual, and other human systems that existed at that time. Therefore, at the age of 18, I left the home of My parents and began a stage of extensive traveling, during which I visited every continent on planet Zero with the help of the spaceships of the cosmic people.

The first destination of My journey was India, where quite widespread religious teachings already existed—Hinduism and Buddhism—the interpretation and practice of which contradict the true spiritual laws and principles from Me. They were established by the Pseudocreators, just like other world religions, in order to lead human souls away from the only true

God and Parent of all beings. First, I anchored in the city of Varanasi on the west bank of the Ganges River, where I lived among the simple folk and orally spread the Word of God, especially the ideas about the equality of all people and about the need to seek God in one's heart. I healed those who believed inwardly, helped rid people of false faith, and performed miracles that soon spread throughout the entire region. My public ministry, however, was not to the liking of the administrators and rulers of this area at that time, who were directly managed by the Pseudocreators; consequently, they instigated numerous discords against Me. After approximately a year of staying in this place, I relocated again by means of a "flying saucer" to the region of Ladakh, located on the border of India and Tibet. Surrounded by the Himalaya Mountains, I stayed for several years in various monasteries, where I familiarized Myself with the principles of Buddhist philosophy in order to gain the greatest possible experience with it and later be able to cleanse it, just like everything I have ever come into contact with. I explained the basic ideas of My teaching to the monks who took Me in, so that they would spread them among other people even after My departure. I preached in monasteries and other places, went among the simple folk again, and performed miracles. I gained great popularity here, and the majority of those who came into contact with Me were willing to accept the basic ideas and principles of the Word of God. Written scrolls about the ministry of The Most High in the body of Jesus have been preserved to this day—the so-called biography of Saint Issa, as I was called in this region. After approximately four years, the time came to leave this area and set out on the journey once again.

The destination was China, after which I relocated to Japan, where I lived a simple life for another year and gained experience with the local way of existence. The subsequent journey consisted of a visit to today's Philippines and Indonesia, after which I anchored in Australia. Here, I taught the Aboriginal Australians a connection with their soul and the cosmic order, because they were not yet ready for a higher truth. Their spiritual level, which I helped develop within them, is to this day much higher than that of the descendants of the settlers of this continent, who usually live in cities on the coast. In Australia, I had to cope with harsh natural conditions, slept in caves, and tasted the demanding life of primitive nations. However, everywhere I went, I was welcomed with warmth and friendship, because I was guided precisely to those individuals in whom I could plant the seeds of divine truth and love. I gained rich experience with mockery and rejection in the final part of My earthly journey when I returned back to the Middle East. The next destination of My journey was the tropical islands in the Pacific Ocean. Gradually, I visited Vanuatu, Fiji, Kiribati, and numerous islands of Polynesia. Here, I came to know the diverse shamanic culture of the local inhabitants and studied what this way of life entails. You can probably imagine what a sensation My person caused in these and other areas, having a different appearance, skin color, and bringing thoughts that until then were not available anywhere. However, I possessed the ability to speak to everyone in their native language so that everyone could understand Me more easily and have a more personal relationship with Me.

When I left the vast region of the Pacific, I paid a very brief visit to the icy continent of Antarctica, from where I traveled to South America, where I came to know other of indigenous cultures. Finally, on the Yucatan Peninsula, I visited My beloved Mayans, where a highly advanced empire was located, with a society based on the observance of true spiritual laws. The Mayans usually incarnated here from the higher dimensions of the True Creation and elevated the then very miserable spiritual level of planet Zero. It is neither a coincidence, but rather a fact, that their physical residence was located near the area where, approximately 65 million years ago, a meteorite sent by the Pseudocreators struck, causing the mass extinction of the dinosaurs—their failed experiment. It was not until another several centuries after My visit that the decay of the Mayan civilization occur, at the head of which came beings from the lowest levels of the hells, who introduced a system of live sacrifices and their initiation to false gods. Concurrently with this, however, I let a vast portion of the members of this empire be recalled from this reality into the 5th dimension, so that they would not suffer under the worsening conditions and could continue to help the whole. In Tikal, the center of Yucatan at that time, I spent approximately two years among "My" people, who due to their spiritual maturity resonated with Me the most and perfectly understood My divinity. One of the last stops was a visit to the North American Indian tribes in the territory of the present-day United States and Canada. Even their primitive life was much more peaceful than in places where the population lived in cities and denied the importance of entering the interior, thereby orienting all their efforts only toward material things. After the "discovery" of America, the Indians met a similar fate as other indigenous peoples, who, due to the expansion of the powers of that time, violently lost their living space and in many cases were forced to adopt a consumer lifestyle.

I concluded My journey around the world with a visit to Western Europe, on whose territory the Roman Empire spanned. The world of that time and its environment differed diametrically from what it looks like today. In the period two thousand years ago, approximately 200 million people lived on this planet, most of whom were concentrated in the region of the Mediterranean, North Africa, the Middle East, and East Asia. The vast majority of the surface remained completely unaffected by human activity, which corresponded to the richness of nature and the organisms living in it at that time. Shortly before My 30th birthday, I traveled back to Judea. Here begins the already known part of My life described in the four Gospels. I returned to the Middle East after twelve long years as the only person who had traveled the entire world and had experience with many of its inhabitants and various human systems. No one at that time was able to accept this fact; therefore, whenever My loved ones asked what I had done in My youth, I always replied that I had taught divine love and truth to others where it was needed, and I Myself had learned everything that life here entails. In a brief transitional period, twelve of the closest co-workers (disciples) gathered around Me, at that time the spiritually most advanced souls incarnated on this planet, called here to stand by My side and help Me in spreading the Word of God. I was also accompanied by My wife at that time, Mary Magdalene, with whom I fathered a daughter, Sophia. Thus was established the so-called Christ lineage, persisting to the present day. During the three years, which were preceded by a twelve-year part of preparation for the fulfillment of the mission in Jerusalem and its surroundings, I preached peace and love for all people, introduced God as an absolutely loving and forgiving being seeing into the heart of every individual, who loves all His/Her children without distinction. After the crucifixion, My body was carried away to a rock tomb. On the third day, Mary found the tomb empty. I appeared to her already in the astral body, telling her not to touch Me yet, because I lacked a physical form. At the end of the third day, I caused the soul of Jesus to be transferred into a material bodily duplicate and stayed in it for 40 days, after the completion of which I entered a multidimensional spaceship (shrouded in a cloud of vapor) and left this reality.

In the body of Jesus, I brought the gift of mercy and salvation to this world, laying the foundations for the later elimination of the negative state. The mission of My first direct incarnation continued even after leaving from planet Zero, when I passed through all levels of the hells, abolished the dominant rule of the Pseudocreators, and separated them from their ruling positions. At the end of this long journey, the hitherto relative soul of Jesus fused with the absolute divine essence. Since that time, My true and only name is The Lord Jesus Christ, and in the new cycle of time, The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family, when I will integrate into the absolute wholeness the soul of the second direct incarnation, Jana, and our two children who will be born to us on the New Earth in the 5th dimension. It is precisely with Jana and our team of closest co-workers that we continue the Mission of God, this time on a completely different level, place, and time. Before the formation of the God's Family team, My feminine essence also underwent a twelve-year training period (2003–2015), during which she studied the events on this planet in isolation and simultaneously experiencing numerous spiritual trials. During the three years, the closest co-workers were brought to her, helping in the spreading of the books of the New Revelation and other current Word of God. After the approaching vibrational shift to the New Earth, we will continue our activity, which will no longer be limited only to this reality but will also permeate other dimensions of the True Creation and the zone of displacement. We will, however, focus toward planet Zero the most. Until the division of humanity, we will come here in new bodies, travel the world, spread both portions of the New Revelation in all major languages, and acquaint prepared people with the highest available truth directly from the Source of all life. The mutual connections of both missions of The Lord Jesus Christ demonstrate that the time remaining before the relocation of Jana and her closest ones to the Spiritual Center of God's Family (SCGF) is inexorably running out and is already very close. This event, awaited by a huge number of beings from the positive state, will significantly accelerate the transformation of Earth and its people upon their return home.

I thank all co-workers who are helping to accelerate the final elimination of the negative state. I love you all very much and look forward to being with you in the age of love, light, joy, mutual encounters, and everything that makes life in the True Creation pleasant and harmonious.

We will continue writing the Supplements to the New Revelation of The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family and other Word of God on the New Earth in the 5th dimension.

SUPPLEMENT 7

THE CONNECTION OF THE CZECH NATION WITH THE MISSION OF GOD'S FAMILY

Although we stated at the conclusion of Supplement 6 that we would continue writing this book on the New Earth, the circumstances of the divine plan have at this time required the publication of two additional chapters. These need to be anchored in the multiversal consciousness at the conclusion of the preparatory stage of the Mission of God's Family, before Goddess Jana and certain co-workers relocate to the 5th dimension. In the year of the 100th anniversary of the existence of Czechoslovakia, this chapter will provide an interpretation of the spiritual-historical background of this state, summarize the importance of the position that the Czech nation occupies in relation to the whole, and also bring an answer to the question of why My feminine essence incarnated precisely into this territory.

Long before its inception, the Czech nation was predestined to become the spiritual center of the world, where our most important Mission of God would take place in matter—the very mission upon which the fate of the entire Multiverse depends. Because I, The Lord Jesus Christ, possess an absolute spirit, I exist in the all-encompassing state of the 13th dimension, where linear time as you know it in this limited reality does not exist. In Creation, everything takes place simultaneously and all at once, although every particle, from the atom to the whole, undergoes a gradual evolution. This process of gradual emergence and growth has been happening since the time I created the first relative beings. The inhabitants of the positive state who observe the events in the zone of displacement are aware of the flawless perfection of My plan, which consists in the final liberation of all beings who are currently turning away from Me. This plan stems from an important agreement made between the Creator and other relative entities before any evils and falsities could enter into their beingness and existence. The most important point of the agreement was the promise that the negative state would not last beyond the scope of one cycle of time, and afterward, once it fulfills its purpose, nothing will further hinder the flourishing and full splendor of the Multiverse, which will occur in a new stage of joyful creation of infinite variations of life and forms of love. Not only on this planet Zero, but in the entire anti-universe, everyone has a more or less deformed perception, a narrowed understanding, and their mind is constantly influenced by the programs of entities violating spiritual laws. Due to this fact, only a very few spiritually awakened individuals on Earth/Zero can understand the perfection of God's plan, since the readers of the books of the New Revelation are not few. No one else can understand why all the evil and suffering is tolerated when I am omnipotent and could bring an immediate end to it. If this were to happen even before the necessary but brief victory of the negative state in the anti-universe, the entire Creation would succumb to self-destruction, because there would be no other choice than to be positive forever. Everything is a matter of free will. The direct participants in this experiment wanted voluntarily to experience for themselves what it is like to live in separation from God. The vast majority of spiritually awakening human creatures cannot yet reconcile themselves with the information published by the co-workers of God's Family. Agents of the negative state, atheists, materialists, but also those who are already in the beginnings of their journey of ascension and come into contact with us, occasionally attack our co-workers in various ways. With their still-closed hearts, which cannot sense the truth, they condemn not only our ministry and the Word of God with the highest degree of truth, but also the aforementioned perfection of God's plan, which they cannot fully understand. On its basis, everyone will one day be liberated from the captivity of evils and falsities, saved, and integrated back to where they were before the so-called Fall, even though much water will flow before then. Every sentient entity will then develop in permanent acceptance, love, joy, and abundance. Everything that is happening is in absolute order; there is no need to fear the failure of the individual or the whole, because I have everything under control.

In order to prepare the conditions for life in the fullness of the positive state and to prevent the destruction of Creation, I had to take appropriate steps toward that end. I will no longer speak here about the necessity of the birth of Jesus and Jana, about the fusion with the absolute, and other things previously revealed and available elsewhere, but I will focus on the most essential aspect that this chapter entails: the physical refuge of The Lord Jesus Christ in the bodies of a man and, in particular, a woman. Because I know everything that will ever happen from eternity to eternity, long before the process of creation began, I had worked out an important plan for the lives of both My direct incarnations, as well as the background where they would effectively fulfill their missions. I incarnated into the masculine body of Jesus Christ on March 21, 7 years before the new era. It was necessary for Me to come to the territory of the Jewish race in what was then Judea. It is precisely the Jews who are the last direct descendants of the Pseudocreators and have the highest possible degree of evils and falsities built into their genes. After removing, cleansing, reassembling the elements, and divinizing this gross-material body, which I acquired through My stay on Zero, I conquered the zone of displacement, and the Pseudocreators lost a vast part of their existing power. The genetic pool of this race was one of the main reasons why I became a Jew. It is no coincidence that they hold a privileged position even today, which improved even more after the artificially induced World War II. However, more on this topic later. It is precisely from their ranks that the most powerful rulers of this world come, directed by even more negative rulers of hell, who control the entire flow of finance, plunder and unjustly distribute the planet's natural wealth, turn away from the true God, and gradually introduce the New World Order (NWO).

The future destiny of the city of Jerusalem, today's State of Israel, Palestine, Egypt, and the surrounding Middle East, where I operated more than two thousand years ago, is—unlike the destiny of the Czech Republic—not linked to God's mission on all three levels (spiritual, mental, and physical), but only on the innermost one—the spiritual level. Later, I will explain why all three levels dominate in a balanced representation in the Czech Republic. As has already been communicated, the reason for Jesus's presence in this geographical area was primarily to take upon Himself a body with the most burdened DNA and later transform it into a pure, divine purity. Because I foresaw that the elites would abuse the legacy of Christ's teaching (the so-called true Christianity), lasting until approximately the 3rd century AD before it was twisted and transformed into a church managed by the hells, I provided the conditions for the compilation of the Bible. It is written in a spiritually coded language with its own meaning, which is explained in the books of the New Revelation with Peter D. Francuch. At this point, I remind you not to forget that, as the Creator of everything and everyone, I have never instigated anyone to form any religion (including the Christian one), the followers of which are kept in fear, uncertainty, and misinformation. The presence of the true Word of God in the Bible ensured that humanity was able to survive until the present day without plunging deeper with the planet into the zone of displacement, from where it would be unable to return back to the true Creation. Because through My providence, I knew that several centuries after the crucifixion of Jesus, the minions of the Pseudocreators would establish another false religion—Islam, which would stand in conflict with My original teaching and aggressively spread to other continents, it was necessary to build in its immediate vicinity, even before the actual founding of Islam, a firm foundation with seeds of spiritual truth coming from Me. This truth, recorded in the New Testament, could not be abused by anyone throughout history, as the literal meaning of My ideas, which were placed into this book, was first brought only by the New Revelation of The Lord Jesus Christ at the end of the 1980s. If My ideas, which I preached 2000 years ago in the Middle East and from which the Christian religion was later created with an impure intent, had not been provided and recorded in the Holy Book, Islam would have flooded the whole of Europe as early as the Middle Ages, and the true Word of God could not have taken root anywhere, as it would have been completely eradicated. In this way, according to the perfect plan, I indirectly directed the expansion of Islam toward the Arabian Peninsula and North Africa, but not to the European continent. Here, it managed to take root only briefly on the Iberian Peninsula, and later in the Balkans. The rest was protected from its predatory clutches until the present day. At present, however, the controlled relocation of millions of Muslims to Europe is already fully underway. After the division of humanity, their task will be to unleash widespread violence against the native population, but also to support the social, economic, political, and cultural disruption of this part of the world. In due time, My protection of Central Europe from undesirable influences instigated the successful emergence and development of the newly forming Czech nation, built on pure and noble values, which will provide Me with a physical refuge so that I could incarnate onto this planet for the second time in 1957, this time into a feminine body.

We will not deal here with a chronological description of history, as in this reality it holds true that history is written by the victors (so far, it is the negative state), so human history is mostly false, misleading, and altered. Whoever wants to know the truth about history must forget everything they learned in schools, read in books, heard on television, etc. We will focus only on the most important moments directly connected to the currently ongoing Mission of God. In 863, the arrival of the heralds of faith, Constantine and Methodius, occurred. Although they were sent under the banner of the church, they were angels in human bodies sent directly by Me to fulfill an important mission consisting in laying the firm foundations of this Slavic nation. After several centuries of complex formation of the state, which had to face many violent assaults, intrigues, and conflicts of all possible kinds, a temporary stabilization of the situation occurred. The principality became a kingdom, at the head of which several dynasties took turns, the most significant of which were the Přemyslids, and later the Luxembourgs, Jagiellonians, and Habsburgs. One of the most important angels from heaven who accepted the role of ruler of the Czech lands was Charles IV. It was he who elevated all life aspects of this state, including the spiritual ones. He managed to stabilize and unite the spirit of the nation, and throughout his entire earthly journey, he protected and refined it into forms of pure ideals. The St. Wenceslas Crown, crafted by Charles IV, contains a thorn from Christ's crown in the cross on its top. I Myself, The Lord Jesus Christ, directly took care of its placement when I relocated this thorn from Jerusalem to the territory of Prague using the ships of the cosmic people, where it was discovered many centuries later by initiated people so that it could be set into the crown. Its presence on this royal jewel has a profound meaning that you cannot yet imagine. From the time of its crafting, the development of the Kingdom of Bohemia proceeded 100% according to My plan and under divine protection, so that it would survive ages of harsh trials, bondage, and oppression at the expense of stronger nations led by the Pseudocreators and their henchmen, whose task since ancient times has been to destroy it and bring it to its knees, so that the transformation of humanity could never occur. However, I would never allow that, which is why since the inception of this state, I have been sending co-workers from various dimensions of the positive state to its territory. Since 1346, when the thorn was set into the St. Wenceslas Crown, this nation has already been under complete protection from all influences that would directly threaten its existence, because from the middle of the 14th century to the middle of the 20th century, when the birth of My second, feminine incarnation took place, the most important preparations for the beginning of the Second Coming of The Lord Jesus Christ were underway.

When the Habsburgs came to power a few centuries later, the Czech nation lost its original sovereignty. It thereby fell under the rule of the Austrian Empire, from which Austria-Hungary was formed in 1867. A decline of the proud feeling of the collective spirit, cultivated for centuries, ensued. The elites of that time had long been aware of their prominent position. When the Pseudocreators failed in their plan to destroy the kingdom through crusades, numerous wars, power struggles, political intrigues, artificially induced famines, and the bloodthirstiness of the church masking itself as a servant of God, they decided to disrupt it from within by installing the Habsburg rulers at an appropriate moment, when Louis Jagiellon died in the Battle of Mohács. For nearly 400 years, the elites tried to encircle and undermine the Czech people. Germanic culture was forced upon them, with an emphasis placed on the Germans asserting their role ever more forcefully on the territory of a foreign state and oppressing its inhabitants. The era of Habsburg rule was the longest-lasting stage of darkness. Because I could not allow the destruction of the Czech lands, even in this difficult period I sent light co-workers from higher dimensions to the territory of Bohemia to help with its restoration over time. Thanks to My protection and help coming from all sides, the Czechs managed to extricate themselves from all the traps set for them, overcame very serious problems, and managed to stand on their feet again—literally rising like a phoenix from the ashes. The period of the National Revival was crucial because a very significant shift occurred then, which later resulted in laying the foundations of the restored state. From the mid-19th century, an increased influx of pure divine love and energy occurred, which restored all previously lost ideals of national feeling. The process of great changes associated with this fully manifested on the physical level in 1918, when the end of the long-lasting rule of a foreign power and the creation of Czechoslovakia occurred, formed by the lands of Bohemia, Moravia, Silesia, and the brotherly nation of Slovaks. Subcarpathian Rus also joined the eastern part of the republic, which was annexed to the Soviet Union in 1945.

The period of 1918–1938 is associated with technical and industrial development. The new republic belonged at that time to the most advanced countries in the world and achieved great respect and renown in almost every corner of the planet. Its inhabitants enjoyed a relatively high standard of living, and the spirit of the nation could breathe freely again. However, it was not granted a long-lasting flourishing. The rise of Adolf Hitler is associated with great changes throughout Europe. This puppet in the hands of the Illuminati was meant to ensure the unleashing of the largest armed conflict in human history so far. Behind the scenes, World War II was initiated by influential and very wealthy Jewish families—the so-called Zionist-Cabalistic group, forming the main axis of the ruling elites over the Western world. This group took care of installing Hitler into the position of Chancellor so that he could then, through all appropriate means provided to him from the highest places, establish the Third Reich and launch the Nazi war machine. Concurrently, however, the very same group of influential Jewish families also financed the entire war machine of the USA, Great Britain, France, and all others who fought against Nazism. The financing of the Soviet Union was shared between the Zionists and the White Dragon group, which also took care of the Japanese Empire's invasion into the Pacific.

Czechoslovakia, after the fabricated Munich Agreement, when it was betrayed by its "allies" France and Great Britain, gradually came under the growing influence of the Third Reich. After the seizure of the borderlands, later followed by the proclamation of the Protectorate of Bohemia and Moravia, another period of darkness ensued. However, it was not destined for Hitler to win and thus forever dominate the whole of Europe, exterminate all "inferior" nations, and populate the conquered territory with the Germanic race. The elites had all the steps well planned in advance, so their plan also included the ultimate defeat of Nazi Germany. Hitler received orders first to occupy most of the continent, subjugate individual nations, and unleash fear, anxiety, and resignation within them. The negative entities ruling over planet Zero gain an influx of energy from everything that promotes evil and suffering. Therefore, the order was issued to attack the Soviet Union and let the front reach all the way to the gates of Moscow. Afterward, in this great game, the cards were turned according to plan, and from that moment on, the Red Army began to win. The war left behind a decimated population of many countries, a destroyed infrastructure, and brought about economic collapse, the disruption of all existing values, tens of millions of dead on both sides, and last but not least, it also helped maintain the status quo in which the negative state delights. A similar course of the war took place in the Pacific, where the Japanese occupied most of the Pacific islands but were subsequently "driven" back. This entire act was anticipated in detail, but it is not the purpose of this chapter to deal in depth with the true reasons and results of World War II. The weakened nations lost their original dignity and sovereignty after the war. That is also why their corrupt governments allowed themselves to become vassals of supranational associations of various kinds (NATO, the Warsaw Pact, COMECON, the EU...), whereby, according to the motto "divide and rule", the elites initiated the bipolar division of the world into West and East. Supranational unions and associations of all kinds will serve in the near future to complete the final phase of the New World Order that has been built for decades. One of the main reasons why violence against ordinary Jews themselves was instigated by the Jewish ruling families during World War II was the fact that after its end, a new state was to be created—Israel, which would justify the concentration of members of the Jewish faith in one place in a sensitive geographical area where the influences of many nations with different cultures collide. Israel is a puppet of the USA and helps to destabilize the Middle East because it is responsible for instigating armed conflicts not only with Palestine and other Arab neighbors. The situation of defeated Germany was misused against other nations, which is fully manifested mainly at present. Although the Holocaust did take place, it was greatly exaggerated after its end. Because of it, ordinary Germans still have a guilty conscience today, which is why they open the doors to Muslim immigrants. This situation, of course, plays into the hands of the puppeteers and makes things easier for them because the ordinary population, feeling guilt for their past, sees no reason why they should resist the migrants; on the contrary, having no idea what is actually going on here, they rather approve of the Muslim invasion.

The restored Czechoslovakia faced more than four decades of communist rule. The Pseudocreators could not allow this nation to be free and independent, as it had been shortly after 1918, which is why it fell into the sphere of interest of the Soviet Union. The communist totalitarian ideology was, among other things, aimed at eradicating the remnants of true spirituality that still resided within people. The socialist system and its way of life were oriented toward matter, earthliness, and atheism, denying the existence of God. The harshest period of communist persecutions took place in the 1950s. In their second half, when the situation was already slightly better, the long-awaited time arrived, for which this nation was predestined: to become the physical home of Me, The Lord Jesus Christ, the absolute being, the Creator of everything and everyone, Whose feminine essence separated into a relative form and was born into this world. Therefore, perceive Me correctly as an androgynous being, in whose absolute state both male and female elements are represented in harmony and balance, without which it would be impossible to create other beings for eternity.

Jana Kyslíková, My second direct incarnation, was born on March 6, 1957. This act initiated the Second Coming of The Lord Jesus Christ, which will last until the end of this shortened cycle of time, when the deactivation of the negative state takes place. For the place of her earthly residence, I chose Ústí nad Labem, where the conflict of positive and negative influences is most evident. On the one hand, you will find here much natural beauty, mostly enhanced by the Elbe valley in which this city is set. On the other hand, there are ugly slums with criminality, ruins, industrial remnants, and permanent scars on the environment left behind by the plundering of the region.

Now, I will explain why the destiny of the Czech Republic is linked to the Mission of God on all three levels—spiritual, mental (intermediary), and physical.

1. The spiritual level: The development of the Czech nation took place under My guidance and protection to ensure all the conditions required to accomplish the leading of a part of humanity into the positive state. The transformation concerns the entire planet, but this spiritual center of the world encompasses and unifies all activities for the ascension of humanity into the true Creation. On its spiritual level, the capital city of Prague anchors a beam of pure divine love, connects heaven with earth, and pours this living divine energy into all corners of Earth/Zero, thereby significantly helping to balance negative energies. The enhanced protection of this territory from external and internal disruptive influences will last until the division of humanity.

2. The mental (intermediary) level: From the beginning of its existence, the people of this Slavic land had to face heavy trials, experiencing ages of bondage, impoverishment, and oppression at the expense of stronger nations. Yet, it always picked itself up and, like a phoenix rising from the ashes, soared in a new and stronger form toward hopeful tomorrows. Just as Jesus, who had to patiently endure all hardships, great mental and physical pain; and just as Jana, who had to experience thousands of spiritual trials on the brink of tolerability, demonstrate trust in My perfect plan, experience painful betrayals from neighbors, endure attacks of the negative state upon her person, and live through other difficult life situations; so too the Czech nation went through a narrow and thorny path leading to Paradise. These life paths of both My incarnations, as well as the spirit of the nation, led and continue to lead to their complete liberation from all aspects and limitations of the negative state, just as they lead to the salvation of the entire Multiverse so that the fullness of the positive state is launched in the upcoming cycle of time. While Jesus Christ, after his crucifixion, entered the hells, where he showed everyone the possibility of change, to fuse with the divine wholeness after the completion of his mission; Jana Kyslíková, after writing the second portion of the New Revelation and after building the team of God's Family, will relocate with her co-workers to the Spiritual Center of God's Family, located on the New Earth in the 5th dimension. The last indisputable fact relating to the intermediary level concerns the existence of a worldwide language on the New Earth. It is precisely the Czech language that will be used for communication among all inhabitants in the new, positive reality of this planet. As the most precise and noble language of all, it was created directly by Me, The Lord Jesus, for this sublime task. Many centuries ago, it was transferred via My emissaries into the Czech basin so that, under My supervision, it would develop into its current form. Now it will serve as a means of communication for all beings who will live in the higher vibrational stage of Earth. The pure essence of the Czech nation will therefore not perish but will be reborn so that this time, already without coercion and limitations, it can develop and flourish in full splendor into new forms.

3. The physical level is linked to this Mission because I, The Lord Jesus Christ, am present on this territory in the human body of a woman. Here I incarnated, grew up, and spent all the time allotted for My stay on planet Zero. Although I will no longer reside permanently here in a physical body after the launch of the Mission of God's Family, our operation from the 5th dimension will still be mostly oriented toward the territory of the Czech Republic and Slovakia. Related to this is also the fact that it is precisely here that the highest concentration of beings from various dimensions of the positive state is present in gross-material bodies, individually cooperating on leading a part of humanity into the true Creation. Some of them belong to the so-called Christ bloodline, being thus ancient biological relatives of Jesus Christ and Mary Magdalene, whose descendants have spread over the centuries to all inhabited continents of the world.

In contrast, the future destiny of Jerusalem and other countries where I operated in the body of Jesus Christ is not and cannot be linked to the Mission of God on all three levels. The reasons for incarnating into that geographical area were of a purely spiritual nature.

From the end of the 1960s, there was another increased influx of divine energy from the center of the universe, which caused great changes in the consciousness of people. Many significant shifts occurred in politics, culture, and relationships between people. In the countries of the Eastern Bloc of that time, efforts to push through a change of the regime that oppressed its inhabitants occurred more and more frequently. In Czechoslovakia, there was a greater relaxation and hopeful prospects for change. The development of events led to the so-called "Prague Spring 1968", which was, however, violently ended by the occupation of Warsaw Pact troops. The leadership of the Soviet Union under no circumstances wanted to permit a relaxation of conditions, which would be followed by a capitalist coup orchestrated by the USA, which is why it decided on direct military intervention. Because the elites, within the framework of their tasks assigned by the Pseudocreators, must plan far ahead and proceed in such a way that their efforts are as inconspicuous as possible, the globalists received orders as early as the beginning of the 1970s for the gradual dismantling of the bipolar world with two superpowers. While the so-called normalization was taking place in the socialist republic at that time, the shadow government behind the scenes was eagerly preparing the spectacle about the end of the communist era. In the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic (CSSR), the process of political and economic changes was started in 1989 by the Velvet Revolution, which, however, was not a revolution but a pre-planned coup, in the initiation of which the secret services of the USA and the USSR participated. Figuratively speaking, the old coats were taken off so that they could continue undisturbed in a new disguise. Václav Havel played the most prominent role here, serving as a puppet and a front figure for the public. During a short period, a reorientation toward capitalism took place, and a transition under the influence of the United States ensued. The position of a strong Soviet Union did not suit the elites in building the NWO, which is why, under the leadership of Mikhail Gorbachev, it was decided to dissolve it and transform it into the Russian Federation. In accordance with the spiritual plan of the Slovak nation, which was to experience its own independence, the emergence of two independent state entities – the Czech Republic and Slovakia – occurred in 1993. At the end of the century, the republic entered the NATO military alliance, so that a few years later this country joined the European Union (2004). These acts and many other events that have happened and are happening from the end of the communist era up to the present serve to strip away civil liberties even faster under the guise of democracy, undermine state sovereignty, enforce repressive laws, and take control over all aspects of life. The reins of power have shifted to the EU headquarters in Brussels, which accelerates the implementation of modern-day totalitarianism in this part of the planet. Just as in Europe, elsewhere in the world, after the arrival of false gods, mandatory chipping will occur, which will aim for the convenient control of people by 99.99%.

The protection of this territory from artificially induced negative influences will last until the division of humanity. After that, it will stand in the way of the necessary victory of the negative state in the 3rd dimension, which will be eliminated after its full manifestation. Do not be upset that Bohemia, too, faces the same fate in this reality. Life is eternal, only its form changes. As you already know, the spirit of the nation will continue to exist, shifting to a higher, planet-wide level in the positive state. The mission of the God's Family will not be physically limited only to the Czech Republic, but given that it is the spiritual center of the world, it will operate here the most, until the last wave of the vibrational shift of positive people from 3D to 5D. From the vibrational shift of My direct incarnation, Jana, to the New Earth, we will have the opportunity to travel completely without limitations to anyone in all corners of the world and beyond, using a teleportation gate (Bifrost) and spaceships.

I thank the light co-workers of all nations of planet Earth for their selfless help in the transformation of humanity. I love you very much.

SUPPLEMENT 8

THE WOMAN CLOTHED WITH THE SUN

In the Bible, the Revelation of Saint John speaks of a "woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet and a crown of twelve stars around her head." At this point, before all, I announce that this sign refers to My direct incarnation, Jana Kyslíková. However, the Catholic Church managed from the hells mistakenly identifies this woman as the Virgin Mary—that is, a relative being who is placed by the church on the level of the absolute God. That this is in fact Jana, we announced to humanity and subsequently to the entire Multiverse for the very first time in the introduction to the New Revelation of The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family at the end of 2012. At that time, among other things, we wrote that Jana was currently living in privacy and would not significantly intervene in the transformation process until the vibrational shift to the New Earth. This information will be surpassed very soon, because a transition to a completely new level will occur. Together, we will actively contribute to the ascension of humanity, travel to kindred souls in various corners of the world, and venture into diverse parts of the Multiverse, from where we will bring eyewitness testimonies and valuable evidence.

For the first time, I established contact with My incarnation through her friend in the autumn of 2002. Not long afterward, we announced that on September 28, 2003, the materialization of God would take place at Prague Castle. This extraordinary event did indeed occur, but no one present back then had any inkling that this God was precisely Jana. Shortly thereafter, she learned about her divine origin and withdrew into isolation (in the spiritual language, into the "desert"), lasting for more than 15 years. Back then, My wife and the mother of our children embarked on a long and highly demanding path of heavy spiritual trials on the brink of tolerability. During these years, she experienced firsthand countless select consequences of the operation of the negative state. In the years 2014–2015, we wrote together the second portion of the New Revelation, which was concluded with the 33rd chapter. The expanding Supplements, loosely following up on this book, I am now dictating to Michal Rafael, the main transmitter of the Word of God. Then, in the summer of 2015, the active work of God's Family began on the internet.

Especially through Facebook, over a few years we built a strong and stable baseline of the closest co-workers, angels in bodies, who were intuitively brought to us at the right time. Each of them, in their own way, went through difficult trials, similar to Jana, to show that it is possible to find the way back to Me even under the most difficult conditions. Not everyone withstood the pressure of the Pseudocreators, which these co-workers had to face more than anyone else. However, there is nothing I have not anticipated, which is why even those who turned their backs on us during this great sifting were meant to go through this experience based on the plan of their soul. The most important co-workers and divine representatives successfully crossed over all obstacles and pitfalls, thereby earning the right for Me to have them relocate, along with the Goddess, to the Spiritual Center on the New Earth, where they will fully dedicate themselves to their individual missions without the disruptive influences of the negative state. The relocation to this place will be connected with the experience of the vibrational shift of their physical shell into a completely new body originating from Me, which is entirely stripped of all anomalies, ailments, contamination, and everything created and fabricated by the Pseudocreators.

It has already been revealed who that "woman clothed with the sun" is. Now the time has ripened to deepen this topic and provide an explanation of the hidden spiritual meaning of the entire 12th chapter of the Revelation of Saint John, consisting of 18 verses:

1. "And a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet and a crown of twelve stars around her head."

The entire sentence "A woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet and a crown of twelve stars around her head" points to the second direct incarnation of The Lord Jesus Christ in a feminine body, Jana Kyslíková. This statement is linked with her person on the spiritual and mental (intermediary) level, while on the outer (physical) level, it refers to the constellation of Virgo, which was present in the sky in a unique biblical constellation on September 22 and 23, 2017. At this significant time, Virgo indeed had the Moon under her "feet," the Sun on her "back," and 12 stars around her "head," nine of which belonged to the constellation of Leo, and the other three objects were the planets Mercury, Venus, and Mars. During these days, a gathering of several dozen friends of God's Family also took place in Prague, which not only significantly accelerated the transformation of humanity and helped its selected participants to know each other personally, but also started an intensified sifting of the wheat from the chaff—in other words, the division into those who are able to accept the divinity of Jana in their heart and follow The Lord Jesus Christ in the interior, and those who turned their backs and most frequently became victims or minions of the Pseudocreators. The meaning of the words "woman clothed with the sun" refers to the unquestionable divine origin of Jana, making her the most advanced sentient entity of the entire Multiverse. Concurrently, it points to the absolute divine attributes with which the divine incarnation is endowed in a relative form. Through them, all places that Jana enters spiritually, mentally, and physically are enveloped in love and all other positive elements in a balanced representation. "The moon under her feet" in the literal sense informs of the fact that Jana is not subject to the relative state and its condition for eternity, as is the case with all other sentient entities, but at the end of this cycle of time, when the negative state is eliminated, a fusion of her hitherto relative essence with the absolute divinity of The Lord Jesus Christ will take place. Therefore, the "moon" (the entire relative state) is located under "her feet," even though she herself is temporarily a part of it. However, in addition to this symbolism, the "moon" also refers to the negative state, whose future destiny—consisting in the permanent elimination of all evils and falsities—fully depends on the will of The absolute Lord Jesus Christ and thus also on His/Her indivisible feminine essence. "Twelve stars around her head" points to the twelve dimensions of the Multiverse, which are encompassed and absolutely transcended by The Lord Jesus Christ, Who, in the subsequent cycle of time, will acquire the Newest Nature. After this event, He/She will become The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family in complete harmonic form and content. "Twelve stars around her head" is likewise a symbolism of the twelve closest co-workers who will experience the vibrational shift to the New Earth immediately after Jana. After this first wave of those who have ascended, other angels in bodies who closely cooperate in the Mission of God's Family and are meant to go through this experience will be gradually moved to the 5th dimension in the future, even before the division of humanity. "A great sign in heaven" points to the profound reach of these events, which will shake the foundations of all being and existence in a positive sense.

2. "She was pregnant and was crying out in birth pains and the agony of giving birth."

"She was pregnant" points to Jana's three pregnancies, of which the first was spiritual, the second mental, and the third physical. The pregnancy took place during the period of her isolation. No child was born from it on the level of the 3rd dimension, but instead, the genetic material of this sentient form was taken from her womb so that two other direct incarnations of The Lord Jesus Christ—a boy and a girl—could be born from it after the vibrational shift to the New Earth. "And was crying out in birth pains and the agony of giving birth" relates to Jana's incarnation into a gross-material body and is thus linked to her descent into the sphere of planet Zero at the edge of the zone of displacement. This statement signifies the more than six decades that the Goddess has lived on its surface from her birth in 1957 until the moment she leaves this reality and moves to the 5th dimension. These years were one great pain, encompassing countless harsh trials undergone out of love for the entire Creation, which were at the same time a preparation for fulfilling the mission under new qualitative and quantitative conditions.

3. "And another sign appeared in heaven: behold, a great, fiery red dragon having seven heads and ten horns, and seven diadems on his heads."

The literal sense of this part of the sentence "And another sign appeared in heaven: behold, a great, fiery red dragon" reveals the entire negative state, which will soon take over the rule over humanity. "Ten horns" are all the main, originally positive elements stolen from The Most High, which the Pseudocreators subsequently twisted to power the dominion of the zone of displacement. "Seven heads" are the seven continents on planet Zero, which in the past were and, after the division of humanity, will again be under their unrivaled rule. "Royal crowns" refer to the power by which the Pseudocreators will rule over this world. Humanity will recognize these false gods as infallible rulers and creators of the universe.

4. "His tail swept a third of the stars of heaven and threw them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman, so that he might devour her child as soon as it was born."

"His tail swept a third of the stars of heaven and threw them to the earth" denotes the calling of the agents of the negative state to planet Zero, either in the form of agents directly incarnated into human bodies, or in the form of various hellish creatures operating from different dimensions and states of the zone of displacement, to confront the Mission of God's Family and to obstruct and disrupt its luminous activity as much as possible. "One third" makes it clear that the number of creatures in the hells directed with negative intent at this Mission is very high. "And the dragon stood before the woman"

points to the efforts of the negative state, orchestrated by the Pseudocreators and earthly elites, to influence and overcome the incarnation of God, Jana, in any way. "The child" in this correlation denotes the representatives, co-workers, and friends of God's Family. Already at the time when the negative forces for the very first time realized that a second direct incarnation of The Lord Jesus Christ existed in their sphere of influence, they assumed that at some point, some kind of association could form around this person, which could spoil their plans. This association then indeed formed and became the Team of God's Family. Therefore, the negative forces were put on high alert and readiness, to which the statement "so that he might devour her child" refers. The co-workers operating in God's mission have been witnesses to denunciation and many attacks from the agents of the negative state. However, no true representative has ever been led astray or has given up their faith, conviction, and spiritual work, through which they spread love and light into dark corners and bring closer the end of suffering for all beings. "As soon as it was born" then means the effort to eliminate all the endeavors of the divine representatives right at their inception. In this, however, the minions of the Pseudocreators completely failed.

5. "She gave birth to a male child, one who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron; but her child was caught up to God and to his throne."

This sentence, on the other hand, discusses the period before the actual formation of the team of God's Family and retrospectively returns again to the time when Jana's three pregnancies were taking place. "She gave birth to a male child, one who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron" makes it clear that in this meaning, it is not about the co-workers of light, as was the case in verse 4, but about the actual children of The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family who will be born on the New Earth. In reality, the designation "male child" is not used because only a male descendant is to be born, but due to the fact that the word "son" contains within itself as-yet-indefinable mysterious attributes arising from the Newest Nature of The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family, which these children—a boy and a girl—will encompass. When the time comes, a fusion with the absolute divinity awaits these twins as well, so that they too will become an absolute, indivisible part of the Creator. The "rod of iron" refers to other attributes of the Newest Nature that will permeate the entire beingness and existence and will encompass "all the nations," denoting all existing and as-yet-nonexistent sentient and non-sentient entities. "But her child was caught up to God and to his throne" depicts the very act in which the transfer of genetic material from Jana's womb to the positive state took place, so that the physical birth of these children could occur after the vibrational shift to the New Earth. Verse 2 already informs of this fact. The final part of this verse then makes it clear that these ideas, from which two new divine incarnations will subsequently arise, are in the absolute safety of The Lord Jesus Christ, as they are His/Her indivisible part.

6. "And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, so that there they can take care of her for one thousand two hundred and sixty days."

This passage refers again to the already transpirated past. After the materialization of God at Prague Castle in 2003, Jana withdrew into an isolation of more than 15 years, which will end at the moment of her vibrational shift. The "wilderness" here means complete spiritual, mental, and physical isolation from other kindred sentient entities in human bodies and beyond, for the purpose of learning, sharing new knowledge, experiences, and feelings, but also for the purpose of support, motivation, and everything else that may cross one's mind with good intent. For most of this period, she had to rely exclusively on the connection with her higher Self, The Lord Jesus Christ. Jana wrote the book Conversations with God: With You Love, Love Blooms Around Us, studied many spiritual directions, and thoroughly familiarized herself with the current situation on this planet. In the demanding year of 2013, she was evicted from her apartment by bailiffs, lived during the summer holidays on a garden plot in a building without electricity, and in the autumn moved into a sublease where she wrote the second portion of the New Revelation. Shortly after, she moved into her daughter's apartment, where she spent most of the final stage of preparation for a completely new life. During this time, further demanding trials occurred, which by then also concerned her co-workers. Although this period was in many aspects far more demanding than the previous one, mutual support took place among the members of the spiritual family. Everyone who followed the Creator in their heart always knew what to undertake at any given moment; no one was left without spiritual or physical help, as the perfect divine plan of God accounts for all circumstances. The greatest degree of Jana's complete isolation occurred at the beginning of 2014, when she left the "security" of her employment so that she could fully dedicate herself to writing the chapters of the second portion of the New Revelation. During this time, she was permitted to meet with almost no one, so as not to be disturbed by external and internal influences during the transmission of this multiversal Word of God. During this period, only a few rare meetings with her co-workers took place, the very last of which occurred on June 24, 2017, when Jana met in a gross-material body with several friends in her lifelong residence in Ústí nad Labem. The second part of the sentence, "so that there they can take care of her for one thousand two hundred and sixty days," does not designate the exact number of days of her isolation. The use of this number actually forms an unbreakable code that the negative entities were unable to understand, and thus the contamination of the entire 12th chapter of the Revelation of Saint John could never occur throughout the centuries. The profound meaning of the number "1260" can only be seen after adding up the individual digits, giving the result of nine (9). The number nine symbolizes the alpha and the omega, the beginning and the end—in other words, the unquestionable fact that the feminine essence of The Lord Jesus Christ, even in her own temporary relativity, is indivisibly connected with her absolute, all-encompassing, and all-permeating higher Self, with every moment of her life falling into the plan of the Creator and no one else. When fully integrated into the context of the sentence, "so that there they can take care of her for one thousand two hundred and sixty days," it then signifies that The Lord Jesus Christ takes care of His/Her own direct incarnation in the best possible way, protects her, and will not allow anyone to endanger her.

7. "And war broke out in heaven: Michael and his angels fought with the dragon."

This sentence describes a past event in this cycle of time. It signifies the efforts of the entire negative state ("the dragon") to engage in a spiritual war with the members of the positive state ("Michael and his angels") and to gradually take over dominion over it. This situation existed before the incarnation of The Most High into the body of Jesus, when the Pseudocreators were indeed beginning to take over dominance over the first areas of heaven.

8. "And the dragon and his angels fought, but they did not prevail, nor was a place found for them in heaven any longer."

This sentence again describes a past event of this cycle of time. As has already been said, "the dragon" here symbolizes the negative state, and "his angels" depict in the literal sense of the word all his minions. "Fought" signifies the spiritual war described in the previous verse. "But they did not prevail" brings the indisputable truth that the Pseudocreators failed to achieve key successes as they had originally planned. The meaning of the passage "nor was a place found for them in heaven any longer" lies in the fact that the Pseudocreators were forever repelled and there will indeed no longer be any place for them in the positive state, because they will not succeed in occupying even a tiny piece of the True Creation, even though they will try to attack it one last time before the end of the current cycle of time. This, of course, does not mean that they have lost the path into it. However, whoever wants to live in the True Creation must once and for all discard this evil, untrue, twisted, delusional, and illusory form in which all members of the hells find themselves.

9. "And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him."

This entire passage describes the Second Coming of the Pseudocreators and their henchmen to planet Zero, as will be described in more detail in the subsequent verses. Just before that, however, the Event/Warning will come, which is depicted in the following exposition.

10. "And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night."

"And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven" signifies that something very extraordinary will come to the attention of all human creatures living on planet Zero. Verse 10 describes the Event/Warning, which is elaborated in greater detail in the 31st chapter of the second portion of the New Revelation. At that time, the sky will light up with a non-blinding brilliance that will attract people's attention. All aspects of human life will stop for 15 minutes. Every inhabitant of planet Zero older than 7 years will see The Lord Jesus Christ with their inner sight, and for this short time, everyone's consciousness will be expanded. During this intimate moment, an evaluation of one's life so far and an increase in the vibration of bodies will take place. For those who are on the path of spiritual growth and are not too deep in the negative state, it will be a confirmation of the existence of The Lord Jesus Christ. Thanks to this, they will receive encouragement for the next stage of life, and they will continue with even greater determination in their mission and show others the path of progressive development. On the contrary, the agents of the negative state and the vast majority of true human creatures caught in the trap will not realize the value of this divine mercy. They will look for the truth outside their interiors from scientific authorities, commentators, politicians, etc. From them, they will learn everything possible, except the truth. "Now is come salvation" discusses the most important message of the entire Event. By accepting it, every receptive individual with an open heart will be able to understand that the time of salvation from the negative state and the vibrational shift to the positive state is coming. "And strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ" denotes the state and condition through which The Lord Jesus Christ in the New Nature absolutely rules not only over the True Creation but also over the entire zone of displacement. "For the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night" in the literal sense points once again to the Pseudocreators, who, although they lost power in heaven, did not lose it in the hells and on planet Zero, where they will come physically after the Event and the rapture of a part of humanity, take control over it, and seal its fate.

11. "And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death."

"They" are all those who, through their actions, choices, attitudes, and preferences based on free will, chose the life of the positive state. This word denotes everyone who will experience the vibrational shift to the 5th dimension of the positive state before the arrival of the Pseudocreators. The statement "they overcame him" means the overcoming of the negative state and the departure of a part of humanity into the True Creation, where the negative state will lose all power over them. "The blood of the Lamb" signifies in its literal meaning the attributes of the unconditional love of The Lord Jesus Christ, while "the word of their testimony" means all goodness and truth. "And they loved not their lives unto the death" relates to the fact that whoever does not cling to this earthly pseudo-life will lose their current gross-material body during the vibrational shift, but instead will receive a subtle duplicate from The Lord Jesus Christ and eternal life by His/Her side. On the other hand, whoever refuses to give up such an unnatural life and wishes for any reason to continue remaining in the negative state even after the division of humanity, cannot naturally be accepted into the new heavenly society. However, everyone will still have a chance within the final global judgment to change their nature into its original pure form, if they do not convert to the positive state before this cycle of time is completely concluded.

12. "Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time."

"Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them" in the literal meaning of these words shows the joy and enthusiasm of all sentient entities located in the positive state, whose feelings are justified by the arrival of a part of humanity into the higher dimensions of the True Creation, which will occur in the near future. Beings in the positive state will thus be able to welcome into the new heavenly society long-lost brothers and sisters who, through their choices, fell out of their original home into the anti-universe. The phrase "Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea" points to the final phase of the duration of the beingness and existence of the negative state after the departure of positive people from planet Zero, designated here by the word "earth." As has already been said many times in both portions of the New Revelation, planet Zero will plunge deeper into the hells after the division of humanity, and the brief victory of the negative state and the complete eradication of true spirituality will be achieved. "The sea" is the entire zone of displacement. "Woe" is a factor that warns the inhabitants of the anti-universe of the horrors and suffering that await them if they continue to remain in it. "For the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath" portrays the Pseudocreators, who have acquired an immense degree of the worst evils and falsities, and are now ready to seize full governance over the entire anti-universe. The rest of the sentence, "because he knoweth that he hath but a short time," points to their full awareness of the hopeless situation and the dead end into which the Pseudocreators and their entire dominion have gotten themselves. The rulers of the hells are well aware of everything happening around them. They know that their experiment cannot have eternal duration because it is not derived from an absolute, but only from a relative source.

13. "And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child."

The thirteenth verse is a description of the past, present, and future time, as is also the case with several previous verses of this 12th chapter of the Revelation of Saint John. Take into account that not only this part of the New Testament of the Bible has a multidimensional reach, therefore it is not bound to only one specific place and time; thus, most of its passages do not follow one another chronologically if you look at them from the perspective of the flow of linear time. Often, they contain multiple meanings simultaneously and can concern to events already past, currently taking place, but also those not yet realized, as is the case here.

From the perspective of the past, the thirteenth verse depicts the preparation of the Pseudocreators to assume governance over humanity once again. Almost all the significant milestones of history from the 1st century of the earthly era up to the time before the outbreak of World War I served to create a suitable breeding ground for the return of Satan. Both world wars and the subsequent collective radiation of negative energies by human creatures, especially during the 20th and the first decades of the 21st century, then gave these false gods a great reinforcement, serving to stabilize the situation not only within their own ranks but also on planet Zero. "And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth" shows the purest form of the negative state—the Pseudocreators, who were imprisoned and isolated from their domain in an unknown place. "He persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child" signifies that from the very beginning, the Pseudocreators persecuted everyone who followed the true ideas and original teaching of Jesus Christ. To this, the negative entities reacted by establishing many contradictory religions and churches. Thousands of words of the New Testament of the Holy Bible were then omitted, but its true spiritual meaning could never be twisted and garbled because it is written in a spiritual language.

From the perspective of the present, this very same verse refers to the time since the end of 1987, when the transformation of The Most High into The Lord Jesus Christ took place, but—what is most essential here—concurrently with this, the release of the Pseudocreators, who had been isolated from everyone else until that moment, also occurred, so that after their departure from isolation, the negative state could be fully manifested and subsequently eliminated. "And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth" means that the Pseudocreators gained a new freedom, even though they could not immediately appear on planet Zero. Therefore, they worked out a complex plan for their return in all possible details. The planet Nibiru was chosen as the means of transport by which they could reach Zero; it will hide behind the Sun until the last possible moment so that ordinary human creatures will not notice anything. From the perspective of the present, the sentence "he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child" points to the efforts of the agents of the negative state to approach the second direct incarnation of The Lord Jesus Christ in the body of a woman in any way possible, to influence her, contaminate her, obstruct her, vilify her, and defile her, so that as few advanced souls as possible are brought to her, and the rest condemn her, declaring her a liar, a charlatan, and a mentally unstable person. In such an audacious undertaking, however, the Pseudocreators completely failed, and their anti-team, which formed during the preparatory phase of the Mission of God's Family, won over only individuals with encapsulated hearts who do not possess knowledge of the principles of the books of the New Revelation, are unaware of the overall situation, and have a large ego saturated with control programs from the hells. Although the negative entities were and are aware of the absolute protection of the incarnation of God, whom The Lord Jesus Christ guards like the apple of His/Her eye, they tried to overcome the Goddess and her co-workers by all possible means. However, they were permitted only what serves for the enrichment of others, so—to their displeasure—they could undertake almost nothing in their steps. After the launch of the Mission from the New Earth, these henchmen will no longer have direct access to any of the divine representatives.

From the perspective of the future, the thirteenth verse depicts the time when the fullness of the negative state occurs. Tied to this phase is the first part of the sentence, "And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth," which describes the act of the actual descent of the negative state onto planet Zero, which will be brought upon it by the Pseudocreators. The false gods and creators of the human race in the 3rd dimension will subsequently take over governance over all areas of life. "He persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child" denotes the efforts of the false gods to eradicate all hitherto remaining true spirituality in the people who have not experienced the vibrational shift to a higher dimension. These efforts, among many other things, will involve massive censorship of the Word of God, the erasing, twisting, or replacing of its ideas with something purely false or misguided, so that no traces or references to the co-workers of light remain anywhere that would even remotely remind anyone of anything originating in the positive state or even leading into it. However, without integration into the previous context, "the woman which brought forth the man child" has yet another, transcending meaning. This part of the sentence does not denote only the Goddess herself here, as was the case in the literal interpretation from the perspective of the present, but it also denotes all women in the positive state whose essences will be enveloped in completely unique and hitherto unknown attributes of the Newest Nature of The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family ("the son"), which they will concurrently radiate into their surroundings from their essences due to this endowment. The temporary existence of the feminine essence of the Creator on the territory of the negative state ensured that the feminine principle, which was affected by the Pseudocreators even more than the masculine principle, will be completely cleansed. Thus, a full restoration of their divine goodness, boundless lovingness, velvety warmth, unconditional kindness, gentle compassion, and tender innocence will take place in human women in the positive state. Women will become equal with men; there will be no discord, elevation, humiliation, or generally anything at all that does not belong to the True Creation. Both genders will complement each other and express divine love in the most beautiful and most desirable ways.

14. "And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent."

This statement concerns Jana's vibrational shift to the positive state on the New Earth in the 5th dimension. "And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle" signifies the fact that all the allotted time destined for the stay on planet Zero in the 3rd dimension has just expired, and now it is necessary to move to a higher level. When this time comes, Jana with a part of her team will leave this reality so that she can continue further in her mission in another place. "Two wings of a great eagle" are a symbol of the ascension and continuing progressive development in the higher dimensions. The part of the sentence "that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place" in the literal sense means that the path into the positive state is completely free and heaven is opening for all people of good will. From now on, her home base ("her place") will be located in the Spiritual Center of God's Family. Here, "the wilderness" depicts the True Creation, which is perceived by the members of the hells as a true wilderness, since many of these creatures still do not want to admit the actual truth and live in a false reality. Because the relative source of evils and falsities has not yet dried up, many hellish creatures will continue in their dead life for some time. "Where from the face of the serpent" clarifies the fact that the Pseudocreators will forever lose any accessibility to Jana and her closest co-workers, because from this moment on, they will no longer be located on the territory of the negative state. They will live in a new cycle of time and will only return to that old cycle of time (i.e., to planet Zero and to the zone of displacement) in new bodies to follow up on their previous missions here. "Where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time" has no connection with the flow of linear time. It is a sort of protective safety fuse against misuse by evil forces, so that the meaning of this passage could not be trampled upon and defiled.

15. "And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood."

"The serpent," as is evident, symbolizes the Pseudocreators, who will continue to produce new kinds of evils and falsities until this relative source is completely exhausted and dries up. "And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood" forms a description of the preparations for the final spiritual war that the Pseudocreators plan to undertake after they take over governance over planet Zero and its population. They will want to attack the True Creation once again, but they will be prevented from doing so. This sentence, however, also points to the fierce opponents of the Mission of God's Family, who will bitterly speak out against the representatives of The Lord Jesus Christ by various means even after the vibrational shift of the Goddess. The negative state will mobilize all available forces, aiming to discredit the operation of this Mission from the New Earth. The provided evidence and eyewitness testimonies of life in other realities of the Multiverse will be used and misused by some of the loyal agents of the Pseudocreators to advance their own interests, thereby leading heavily controlled individuals with an encapsulated heart away from the true God. These agents, however, will have no influence on those who want to know the actual truth, are willing to work on themselves spiritually, can absorb groundbreaking information, and sincerely love The Lord Jesus Christ. Nothing will disrupt the perfect plan of divine salvation and rescue, which accounts for the liberation of every creature caught in the trap. Although the vast majority of earthlings will remain in this reality after the division of humanity, which will sink into the hells, a conversion to the positive state will one day occur even for them, once evils and falsities lose their justification.

16. "And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth."

"The earth" in this passage is a symbol not for planet Zero, as was the case in the previous literal senses of these verses, but for planet New Earth in the 5th dimension, since the meaning of this word has transformed here to a higher level. "The woman," that is Jana, is linked with the entire positive state. And because the positive state is filled with sentient entities, "the woman" here in the literal meaning also denotes all the angels and raptured people who will be warmly welcomed on the New Earth so that this planet becomes their new home. In this verse 16, the word "woman" therefore has a completely different meaning than that stated in verse 13, where it denotes both beings of the female gender and a portion of the left-behind humanity. The statement "the earth helped the woman" thus, after understanding the previous interpretation, signifies the fact that the New Earth is already prepared to receive a part of the advanced humanity ("the woman"), belonging to the positive state and thus linked with Jana herself. A part of humanity will be saved and rescued from all the evils and falsities of the negative state, and upon the rebirth into the new world in the True Creation, all assistance will be provided to them on all levels to achieve their full integration into this heavenly society. The next part of the sentence, "and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth," shows that should any attacks by the Pseudocreators occur toward the positive state with the aim of contaminating it with evils and falsities, these attacks will be unsuccessful because between the zone of displacement (the hells) and the zone of placement (the True Creation) there is a protective membrane ("the mouth") through which no member of the negative state will be able to penetrate.

17. "And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ."

This verse describes the period of the brief victory of the negative state ("the dragon") on planet Zero, which, however, will no longer have a zero position because it will sink deeper into the hells. "And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war" signifies the production of an immense amount of negative energy ("wrath") coming from the deepest levels of the zone of displacement, which will be transferred with all its consequences and ramifications onto planet Zero on the spiritual, mental, and physical levels. "Her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ" are all those who, for any reason, will not participate in the vibrational shift and will remain in the 3rd dimension, even though their vibrational stage does not correspond to the necessity of participating in the brief victory of the negative state. Usually, these will be either hidden agents of the positive state who will remain here based on a previous agreement to perform some specific tasks for The Lord Jesus Christ, or often human creatures who did see through the trick of the Pseudocreators and did not let themselves be deceived by them, but it will already be too late for them to experience the vibrational shift. This sentence actually reflects everyone who will not accept the "mark of the beast," which is the biblical designation for the chip under the skin by which the Pseudocreators will conveniently control their slaves like puppets. To this relates the statement from the 13th chapter of the Revelation of Saint John: "And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six." Whoever does not accept this chip will face various repressions, oppression, or the threat of the death penalty.

18. "And the dragon stood on the shore of the sea."

Although the negative state ("the dragon") is aware of its inability to destroy the positive state, after it takes over all aspects of human life, it will mobilize all its forces to attempt to attack the True Creation one last time. "And the dragon stood on the shore of the sea" means the gathering of an army of superhumans on the edge of the zone of displacement ("the shore of the sea"), serving as a springboard for attacking the higher dimensions of the Multiverse. During this massive attack, the Pseudocreators and everyone else will be led out of all dimensions outside the space-time structure of Creation into a neutral state called limbo. There, The Lord Jesus Christ will appear before them and perform the final judgment upon them. The mind of every sentient entity in both the positive and negative states will be completely opened, and under the conditions of neutrality, everyone will be able to make a decision regarding the permanent rejection of the negative state. The decision for its permanent rejection will end the final judgment, and a new cycle of time will enter into all aspects of beingness and existence with the fullness of the positive state.

By this, all the appropriate literal meanings of the eighteen verses of the 12th chapter of the Revelation of Saint John, which is the last book of the New Testament, have been revealed. The hidden meaning of the subsequent 13th chapter, which follows up with the interpretation of the return of the Pseudocreators, was described in the first portion of the New Revelation of The Lord Jesus Christ, in Chapter Seven: The Conception of Antichrist.

The ideas of the books of the New Revelation will reach the attention of human creatures and many other beings in Creation gradually. However, our Mission of God's Family will radically accelerate this spreading of the latest Word of God, and thanks to this, the existence of the negative state will be significantly shortened. After its elimination, life will be far more pleasant and beautiful. We will create completely new forms of existence in diverse universes and their galaxies, solar systems, and planets. As has already been announced many times, our home will become the New Earth, which will form the base from which we will travel to all parts of the universe. During the preparatory period, we have performed a tremendous amount of work having an immense impact on the entire Creation. Our cooperation and sacrifice created the most suitable conditions for launching a revolutionary stage that has never been here before. Now it is time for the long-awaited change to become a tangible reality. We will connect heaven with earth and thereby open the gate to the positive state for everyone who has love in their heart. This 8th chapter of the Supplements to the New Revelation of The Lord Jesus Christ God's Family becomes the place that crowns our efforts so far and becomes the basis for establishing a transcending phase in the process of the spiritual progress of the Multiverse. All aspects associated with the operation of our Mission have been brought into proper order, whereby the structure of the entire beingness and existence has reached a significant turning point. Everything old is leaving and making room for a new beginning, when all bearers of divine love will be able to develop in eternal peace, happiness, harmony, and contentment. We look forward, along with you, to our mutual encounters and joyful moments while fulfilling further tasks in the Mission of God's Family.
